Happenings In and About Bellefonte

PERSONAL, SOCIAL EVENTS

Items That Are Worth Noting in a Few Lines---What Has Transpired in This Community During the Past Week---Movements of Our People.

—Miss Mary Hunter Linn returned home Saturday from Bryn Mawr.

—Charles P. Hewes Esq., of Erie, is transacting business in town this week.

—Will Keller and wife, of Lancaster, are guests of his brother, Harry Keller.

—The postoffice will observe holiday hours during the Centennial. See notice elsewhere in this issue of the same.

—Dont miss Champ Clark's weekly letter? If there were nothing rlse in this issue but that feature you would be well paid.

—Chief Burgess Blanchad has been doing some active work towards making the centennial a success and is to be commended for the time and effort he has put forth.

—Dr. H. C. Holloway will preach a Centennial sermon in the Lutheran church, on Sunday evening. The church will be decorated with flowers and flags. You are cordially invited.

—Dr. Lee B. Woodcock, who has been in Vienna since last summer practicing and studying at the government hospital, arrived in New York last week and will spend the months of July and August at Asbury Park before locating permanently.

—During the days of the Centennial there will be an educational exhibition in St. John's parochial schools in this place to which the public are cordially invited. The purpose of the exhibition is to show in a practical way the progress of the scholars.

—During the Centennial exercises Chairman Johnson will have Democratic County Headquarters opened in the regular rooms on the second floor of Temple Court. Democrats are invited to call around and make themselves at home while in town.

—Several car loads of decorations and a whole corps of experts are around takink orders, and will put our town in holiday attire the coming week. There will be some fine work in this line as the different decorators are making special efforts to put up effective displays.

—James Barry, who four weeks ago had his leg cut off by the cars in Tyrone has left the Altoona Hospital. He has the consolation, however, that for $100 he can get an artificial foot that will enable him to throw away his crutches. He expects to go to Harrisburg, where he will be given his old position.

—One good feature about the coming centennial is that many of our people are cleaning up about their premises who never thought of such a thing heretofore. Fresh paint is being lavishly used and as a whole our town will be as clean and spank as a new pin. Everything is being put in apple-pie order for our guests.

—The Brown buildings, on the corner of Bishop and Alleghaney, have been repaired and repainted the past week and the surroundings cleared up which is something that was sorely needed about there for a long time. There will be two desirable business locations that should command a fair rental. During the centennial they will be occupied.

—The young people of the town are arranging for a series of three dances in the armory during the summer, at which one of the leading Williamsport orchestras will furnish the music. Bellefonte is filled with charming young dames from a distance, and the social circles will be quite gay for the season. During the summer months Bellefonte is a social centre, and our young people know how to entertain thoroughly.

—The horsey men about town are getting more uneasy every day since the track at the race course is nearing completion. The conversations about the livery stable parlors will be more animated in the future on this account and every once in a while you will see the boys exchange compliments in a financial way. This track is going to make the boys sporty, and give some of the dominees about town new tropics for sensational sermons.

—There are comparatively few people in the county who have any one of the histories of the county in their possession, for the reason that it is quite a while ago that the same were issued, and at the time the price prevented them from having popular distribution. A Historical Souvenir of Centre county is being printed now, that will be offered for sale at a very small price during the centennial. It will be a pamphlet of 32 pages, giving a concise history of the county from the first settlers to the present day. It is carefully compiled from the older histories and other sources, and gives a great variety of valuable information that only few possess. You will want one of these Historical Souvenirs. It is purely historical and has no expensive illustrations or advertising matter. It is gotten up in a substantial shape so that everybody can buy one, and get full value for the money.

—The reopening of Yearick's church near Madisonburg will be made on Sunday, July 22.

—Bicycles checked and stored—also repairing done during centennial. J. S. Waite & Co. agents.

—Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Hunt, of Williamsport, arrived here Wednesday to attend the centennial.

—Some men are born great, some men acquire greatness, and others have kodaks thrusts upon them.

—The frog may be in the swim and the grasshopper always on the jump, but it takes the mosquito to get in the push.

—This year state elections are held in thirty-nine states, in addition to the vote for President, Vice President and Congressman, common to all.

—The members of the Undine Fire Co., of this place, wish to extend a vote of thanks to all those who took part in the chorus, at Hecla park, July 4th. John Morgan, Sec.

—At a recent meeting of the Central Commercial Telephone Company a dividend of 2½ per cent was declared. This we believe is the first dividend declared by this company.

—R. B. Taylor, the ice man, is sporting a bran new wagon that is up to date in all its appointments. The vehicle was made by Lew. Bullock and is of the regulation design for that business.

—The Harrison Hosiery Co., of Millheim, with a capital of $15,000 was chartered on the 2nd. The company recently put in an electric light plant at that place, which is the first in that valley.

—It is said that you can tell whether a man is a fighter or not by the shape of his nose. Yes; if the man's nose is mashed flat and exudes gore he can be set down as being a fighter—a poor one.

—On account of the centennial next week, this paper will not likely be issued until one day later, Friday morning. We do this to enable our employes to take part in this event.

—During the centennial there will be nothing on the program for the entertainment of the public in the afternoons except the races at the new driving park near town. You can take in the races and not miss anything.

—No wonder the people want to take a vacation in summertime when the weather is as warm and oppressive as the past few days. But then there is no rest for the wicked, and we poor devils have to keep at our jobs incessantly.

—A bald eagle was shot at Hecla Park on Tuesday by Mr. Clayton, the superintendent of the club house. The bird was a fine specimen and Mr. Decker thinks the remarkable thing about it was that the bird, as well as the marksman, were of the bald variety.

—The Central R. R. of Penn. have made arrangements for running trains every few minutes between the new driving park and the town during the centennial; will be about ten cents a round trip. We do not make this announcement for the company and only give it as hearsay. The company is putting up platforms and other conveniences for handling crowds at that point.

—A jolly driving party from Lock Haven Sundayed at the Bush House. As follows: Miss Burry and T. H. Wilson, of Cleveland, O., Miss Geary and Miss Clara Geary, of Oil City, Miss Blair, Chicago, Ill., Miss Harrison, Minneapolis, Minn., Ward B. Jackson, Goshen, Ind., Calvin Armstrong, Austin Candor, L. M. Hayes, Miss Armstrong, Miss Umberger, N. M. Fredericks and Ervin Armstrong, of Lock Haven.

—The County Commissioners desire us to announce that during the centennial that office will not be kept open for the transaction of business as the different officials have other engagements in connection with the program that will prevent them from being on hand. So don't come to Bellefonte on that occasion for the purpose of attending to business in that department. The same will also apply to the other offices in the Court House, as the incumbents expect to be out of their offices; it will be a general holdiday.

—When in town next week, you are welcome to make the Centre Democrat office headquarters. We don't have elaborate reception rooms but will give you the most comfortable arm chair in the sanctum, the latest daily papers to get a glimpse at the news; you may even interview "our devil." Further, we are centrally located—handy to the court house, jail, next door to the Justice of the Peace and one door from the Garman House office and bar. Come around and see us.

—An Italian laborer was seriously injured in the Morris ballast quarries at Armor's gap, near Bellefonte, Tuesday morning. The man was working in one quarry when a pot blast was put off in another quarry. A stone was hurled by the blast from the one quarry over a ridge to the other quarry, struck the man on the back of the head, felling the man in his tracks unconscious. One report says that the back of the head was crushed in and that his chances for recovery are very slight. He was taken to the hospital Tuesday afternoon.

His name was Martine Marjory, and he died at Lock Haven hospital Tuesday evening. Interment in Catholic cemetery at this place.

—Owing to the heated time we are encountering the match company at this place have concluded to close for a few days.

—The Ladies Aid Society of the Methodist church will hold a "sociable" on Thursday evening of this week at the residence of G. W. Rees on Reynolds avenue.

—Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Spangler returned Wednesday from their trip to Kansas City where Mr. Spangler was a delegate to the Democratic Convention. From there they continued their journey to other western cities.

Centennial Races.

The Centre County Exhibiting Co. will have their new ground in elegant shape for the coming centennial. The large purses offered have attracted horsemen from all sections of the state and the indications are that it will be some of the finest track work.

Decision on Sleeping Car Berths.

Marcus Brann, a newspaper man, who obtained a verdict of $750 against W. Seward Webb, as president of the Wagner Palace Car company, because, after paying for a birth on a sleeping car, Mr. Brann found another man in his bed and was compelled to sit up all night, last Friday had that verdict confirmed by the city court's refusing to grant a new trial. The judge said he considered $750 little enough for such an inconvenience as Brann had suffered. The decision makes an important precedent as purchasers of berths in sleeping cars will know more about their rights than they ever did.

Lock Haven's Population.

The result of the census takers' work has not yet been made public, but it is estimated that the population of that city will be about 155 less than in 1890. The official statement will be made public from Washington in a short time, but it is thought the estimate of a loss of 155 will be very near the official figures. A number of heads of families have found it necessary to seek employment outside the city, but their families still reside there.

Bellefonte's population it is estimated will show an increase of about a thousand.

Weighed 8,000 Pounds.

A team of mules, owned by Hon. F. E. Brown and weighing 1,000 pounds each, hauled a load of wheat from Brown's stock yards to the Buffalo mills, in Lewisburg, the entire load weighing 8 000 pounds. The wheat weighed 6,835 pounds, making 113 bushels and 55 pounds by weight—102 bushels by measurements. The Messrs. Brown harvested 22 acres of wheat from their farm which yielded an average of 30 bushels per acre.

Fruit Shipment.

From present indications the peach crop this year will be unusually large. Small shipments of the fruit are already beginning to arrive from southern districts and in the course of a week or two the season will have fairly begun. Owing to the scarcity of the fruit during the last two seasons the demand will be unusually great this year. The express companies are preparing for a big rush as soon as the Delaware articles arrive on the market.

A Long Freight Train.

One day last week one of the largest trains on record was sent over the Philadelphia division, Pennsylvania railroad. The train was composed of empty box cars entirely and there were 110 in the string. This is the longest train sent over the road and was nearly a mile in length. The average number of empty cars sent west in a train is eighty or eighty-five.

What We Do in Life.

A statistician has estimated that a man fifty years old has worked 6,500 days, has slept 6,000, has amused himself 4,000, has walked 12,000 miles, has been ill 500 days, has partaken of 36,000 meals, eaten 15,000 pounds of meat and 4,000 of fish, eggs and vegetables, and drunk 7,000 gallons of fluids.

Painting Stations.

The Central railroad of Pennsylvania is having a force of men at work painting their ten stations between Bellefonte and Mill Hall. The outside color is dark drab and the inside is light drab. The company is also expending money in beautifying the grass plots along the road.

Dividend Declared.

Bellefonte, Pa., July 10, 1900.

The Board of Directors have this day declared a dividend of 2½ per cent on the capital stock of the company, payable Sept. 1, 1900, to stockholders of record prior to Jan. 1, 1900.

HISTORICAL SOUVENIR.

A Desireable Work Being Issued for the Centennial.

Persons who will be in attendance at the Centennial of Centre county, at Bellefonte, next week, should not fail to secure a copy of the Historical Souvenir issued for this event. It was carefully compiled by Hon. Fred Kurtz, the official historian, and covers a great variety of interesting data, from the first settlers down to the present time. Few people have in their possession a volume of local history for the reason that they were expensive publications and did not have popular distribution. This Souvenir is compiled from the histories of Rupp, Maynard, Linn and reliable tradition. It states briefly and concisely all the leading events in the history of the county, commencing with the first discovery, early settlers, privations and hardships of frontier life, Indian massacres, famous Indian chiefs, etc. Then all the leading towns, boroughs and townships receive due notice; important industries, civic and religious organizations, natural resources, eminent men, and other topics of local interest are fully treated to date. It is purely historical without any advertising features in it.

You will want a copy; and it will be sold at a popular price, 25 cents per copy.

Lose—Curry.

A pretty wedding was celebrated Tuesday morning in St. John's Catholic church on East Bishop street. The contracting parties were Mr. Joseph Lose, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Lose, and Miss Bridgie Curry, a daughter of Mr. Ino. Curry, who were married. The nuptial mass was said by Rev. P. McArdle, pastor of the church. They were attended by Mr. Joseph Kelleher, of Bellefonte, and Miss Anna Redding, of Snow Shoe. The bride and her lady attendant were becomingly attired in white swiss with Gainsborough hats to match. After the ceremony the bridal party returned to the Curry home on East Logan street where a wedding breakfast was served and a short reception held. After a short wedding tour they will occupy their home on Willowbank street.

Heckman--Geigher.

Rev. E. R. Heckman, son of Rev. I. N. Heckman, of Lock Haven, formerly of Penns valley, was married July 5, at Shippensburg, to Miss Mabel M. Geiger.

Many of our readers know Rev. Edgar R. Heckman. He graduated from Dickinson college with the class of '97, was an instructor in the Dickinson preparatory school for two years and last spring entered the Central Pennsylvania conference, being appointed pastor of the M. E. church at Town Hill, Pa.

Nittany Valley Peach Crop.

The prospects are that the Nittany Valley peach growers will have an immense crop this year. The peaches are dropping some now, owing to the drouth. If the dry weather does not continue too long it is estimated that the orchards in the section about Mackeyville will yield 3 500 bushels. The estimates of growers, however, vary considerably.

Keep Your Feet Cool.....

YOU are often advised to keep the feet warm and the head cool, but that advice is for Winter only. Keep your feet cool and your temperature is likely to be lower than if you paid no attention to the clothing of your feet.

Many people dress their feet as warm in Summer as in Winter. They ought not.

Not when we've light weight, low-cut shoes in such plentiful numbers. Not when prices are so low as here. No; indeed. There is no excuse for having the feet warm, uncomfortable and perspiring.
