HAPPENINGS IN CENTRE CO

What Our Army of Airt Correspondents- See and Observe Worthy of Note-- The Local Happenings of Every Community.

Yarnell.

Harvest, at this place, is near over. Miss Maud Poorman Sundayed at Wm. Fetzer's. Rev. J. Zeigler preached an able sermon in the Baptist chapel, on Sunday. Our amiable butcher, tired of hustling beef steaks, departed on Monday to hustle for a wedding steak. Seth Poorman returned to our city on Saturday, after an absence of about eight months. Miss Clair Heaton, returned home on Saturday after a weeks visit at Beech Creek. Homer Fetzer purchased a new buggy on Saturday. Snow Shoe girls take notice. Miss Nettie Confer had a large "Cheese" to town, on last Saturday. The fall term of the night school, at Pleasant valley, has already opened, with the usual attendance. For Sale:—A large steer, weight about one ton. Call on or address Pa. Heaton.

We are informed that Chas Walker is figuring on a contract to move J. L. Croft's house nearer the road. He says it makes him too late getting home. Miss Katie Daley, of Bellefonte, is spending the warm months at the home of John Kelley. We would like to hear from the Runville scribe. We didn't mean to scare him, so he would quit writing. A certain lady from town, walking up the road, not long since, heard the cackling of some guineas and made the remark that it was the first whip-poor-will she had heard this year. Mrs. Ed. Coakley immediately fell over the fence and as a result is still in a precarious condition. Moral:—Town girls should not go to the country; you can never tell how much harm they might incidentally do. About twenty dead men came to our town on Saturday night. They weren't killed in the Philippines either.

Spring Mills.

The sick are not improving very fast. All the talk is now Centennial, but they don't know which day will be the best; both days will be the best. Miss Josie Condo, of State College, is visiting her friends and relatives. C. P. Long has purchased a new horse. He says he can make better time now. Last Saturday was the last day for fishing, for the speckled beauties. Now, fishermen, let all be law-abiding citizens till the season opens again. Some people employ a lawyer to draw a conveyance, others use a jackass. H. F. Rossman is making a special drive on all summer goods. Call and be convinced. Jerry can make the best ice cream, but Sallie must help. The early wortle berries are plenty; they are selling for five cents per quart. Mrs. Sue Neese has been visiting relatives at Jersey Shore, and other places. We have a great many horsemen who imagine their nags have good speed. Well then, why don't you have them entered at the new Driving Park, at Bellefonte, on the 25 and 26. Mrs. C. A. Crape spent a couple of weeks in the eastern part of the state, visiting. If all men believed contentment a virtue, Indian squaws would now be planting potatoes on Fifth avenue, New York. Last Sunday morning Daniel Beatty had a stroke of paralysis, which put him in a critical condition. He moved here last spring, from Harrisburg, where he had been in the employment of the Pennsylvania Railroad for thirty years. His old age put him on the pension roll. Mr. Beatty died in the afternoon, at 3 o'clock; his body was taken to Harrisburg, for burial; age 76 years. Misses Flora and Berth Duck, of Spring Mills, entertained friends from Pittsburg, Pa., last week.

Nittany.

Henry McCaslin is very ill at this writing. Miss Lillie McCaleb is seen on our streets again, after an absence of about six months. Miss Bessie Wehner, of Birmingham, spent her vacation with her parents at this place, returning to the former place on Monday. Misses Clara and Kate Robb, of Bellefonte, were pleasant visitors in this community on Sunday. Mrs. Cramer is on the sick list. Mrs. J. N. C. band of this place is going to hold a festival at this place. Music by three bands. The Lutheran Sunday School, of this place, picniced at Hecla Park on Tuesday, the 17th. S. S. Peck and son are beautifying their residence by giving it a new coat of paint. They are doing the painting themselves. The new barn on W. E. Knecht's farm is under roof, ready for Mr. Baker to put his grain in. Haymaking and harvest are over; hay crop was poor; grain just middling. Mr. and Mrs. Zerby were to Pennsylvania, over Sunday. Mrs. Minnich and daughter, Annie, were to Pennsylvania, on Sunday.

MONEY TO LOAN—In large and small sums on first-class real estate security. Apply in person at address, Wm. G. BUNKLE, Attorney-at-Law, Bellefonte, Pa.

Fillmore.

A hot wave passed over Fillmore and vicinity last Monday, the thermometer registered 92° in the shade at 5 o'clock p. m. We are expecting new neighbors some day this week, as Geo Taylor, Jr., anticipates moving into the Tressler house. Miss Buree, of Altoona, spent last Thursday with her friend, Miss Mabel Norris. Joseph Mingle and family, of State College, spent Sunday at the home of H. T. Norris. It has been announced that the Fillmore Sunday School will hold a festival on the evening of the 11th of Aug. Everybody is invited to come. We are glad to say that our invalids are all improving. The Misses Dales, of Lemont, spent one day last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Kephart. Miss Marion Taylor is visiting her brother Charles, of Stormstown. Our young people had two festivals to choose from on last Saturday night: one was held at Waddle and one at the Presbyterian church, both were well attended. We think huckleberries must be scarce this year, for one day not long ago we saw two of our young men sneaking in the back door with empty buckets. L. B. McEntire, formerly of this place, now living in Bellefonte, has been seriously ill for sometime and is now able to be around again. The people of this place are all glad as Mr. McEntire has many warm friends in this place. Preaching services will be held in the M. E. church next Sunday evening. The usual time being Sunday morning but it is postponed on account of the laying of the corner stone for the new church at Scotia.

Penn Hall.

Our farmers have about all finished hauling in their grain. The wheat crop was a light one throughout the section. The corn and oats look very encouraging. J. B. Wetzel, proprietor of the Empire Iron works of Howard, was here on a brief business trip on Saturday. Installation services will be held in the Lutheran church on Sunday morning, the 29 inst. Aaron, the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. John Crader, died on last Tuesday. Interment was made on Friday. Rev. A. M. Duerstler of the Evangelical church conducted the funeral services. The Challenge Band will hold a festival on Saturday evening the 21st. The band boys are putting forth every effort to make the event a success and kindly solicit the patronage of the public to help them along. D. W. Zeigler recently purchased a latest improved four harness Fly Shuttle Loom and is now fully prepared to do all kinds of carpet and rug weaving to order. Communion services will be held in the Evangelical church on Sunday morning, the 22 inst. Rev. Leopold P. E. of Philadelphia will officiate. J. H. Gramley sold his traction engine to C. M. Tice, of Howard. Rev. Warden and wife, of Harrisburg, are spending part of their vacation in our section visiting friends. Rev. Warden gave a very interesting bible reading in the Lutheran church on Sunday evening. Rev. Warden will again have services in the Lutheran church on next Sunday morning and evening. Jno. Sassaman, of New Berlin, was the guest of D. W. Zeigler for the last week. Miss Jennie and Anna Moyer were visiting at Aaronsburg over Sunday.

Walker.

Miss Nellie Johnson, formerly of this place, but now of Chicago, where she is employed in Sears, Roebuck & Co's. store, was visiting her many friends at this place. James Beck and wife spent Sunday at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Joe Strunk, of Parvin. Mrs. Wm. Losh, of Hubersburg, and Mr. and Mrs. Berly, of Cedar Run, spent Sunday at the hospitable home of Rufus Berly. Mrs. Kate Loveland and family, of Milesburg, visited her brother S. W. Butler. Miss Marie Holmes has returned home from Lock Haven. Mrs. Wm. Dietz and child visited her mother, Mrs. Samuel Garbrick. How condescending when a young man and woman are enjoying "love's young dream" on the street, forgetful of their whereabouts and surroundings to have some friend kindly call "Dick, your mother wants you to carry her some wash water."

Wolfs Store.

Sunday was a hot day at Wolfs store. Harvey Wise and wife spent Sunday at Penns valley visiting. J. E. Zeigler and wife will this week move to Centre Hall, where they will keep the boarding house on the "Douty" lumber job. Joe Korman and wife visited friends in Penns Valley, last Sunday. Our farmers are done hauling in grain. Soon their attention will be given to sowing again. Last week while Warren Beck was peeling bark on Finkle's lumber job, he cut himself in the leg above the knee disabling him from work. Mr. Beck was the third one cutting himself on this job. Lynn Emerick and Frank Sheatz being the other two. Many of our people will witness the Centennial at Bellefonte, next week. Joe Slaterback was to Spring Mills last Saturday on business.

Sugar Valley.

The farmers of Sugar Valley reaped a splendid wheat harvest. Lumberman J. E. Hauck went to Philadelphia on Tuesday to close a deal whereby all the timber lands of the old Sugar Valley Lumber company became the property of Kulp & Co. The tract contains over 2,000 acres. By the unexpected discharge of a 22 calibre revolver July 3rd Adam M. Trump received a painful injury in the left paw. He loaded the cylinder full of cartridges. In putting it back into the pistol one of the missiles in some manner exploded. The ball penetrated through his hand making a dangerous wound.

Runville.

The farmers are about through hauling in grain and making hay. From all appearances of the corn in this vicinity there will be a good crop this fall. Miss Mame Lucas, of Altoona, spent two days last week visiting friends at this place. Willis Witherite, formerly of this place but now of Pittsburg, was home for a week the first of this month. Mr. and Mrs. John Markley, of Clarence, visited at W. T. Shirks last week. James Smoyer, of this place, was promoted a short time ago to division foreman and moved to Butts station, near Snow Shoe. A man at this place bet a silk dress with a girl that she would be married at a certain age. The time is now up and he has not yet paid the bet. A certain farmer near Gumstump, while hauling in grain with his "brag" team, could not haul ten dozen sheaves. You should not load so heavy. William Snyder, of Sunbury, was in our community on Sunday. The boys are all home from the woods and are waiting for time for the Centennial. Howard Wells and Lulu Shirk visited at Clarence on Sunday. S. T. Williams, of Port Matilda, was in our midst over Sunday. S. T. was indeed on important business this time, but it wasn't transacted in Runville. The wheat crop falls short more than one-half. The farmers will have to live this winter on buckwheat cakes, spread with protection. While a young man was on his way to Snow Shoe on Saturday night, he was near the top of the mountain walking by the side of his wheel when, lo! behold! a bear came out of the woods and went for him. He jumped on his wheel and retraced his steps down the mountain and did not stop until he got to Runville. The Snow Shoe scribe just appears once in six weeks and then is to ask if the grasshoppers have taken some people who have not appeared for one week. Mr. Scribe, if you just think back, a short time ago you will remember when you came to Runville one night for a good time and got left. You must have thought some people were green in the way you come, but you soon found out they were not so green as you thought. "Ha! ha! do you hear me now?" Hurrah! for Bryan and Stevenson.
