HARD WORK FOR JURY.

Some Tall Lying in the Famous CA. Goebel Conspiracy Trial.

THE CONTRADICTORY TESTIMONY.

Two Witnesses Swear to Statements Made by W. H. Culton Which He Positively Denies-Witness Snys Shots Were Fired From Third Floor.

Georgetown, Ky., Aug. 8 .- Yesterday's session of the trial of former Secretary of State Caleb Powers developed the fact that both sides in the case will deal extensively in contradiction and impeachment of witnesses.

The most important testimony heard yesterday was given by Corporal Milt Trasper, of the Barbourville company, of which John Powers was captain. Trasper testified that the shot which killed Governor Goebel was fired from the third story of the executive building, and not from the secretary's office, which is on the first floor. Trasper declared he saw the window raised and saw the smoke from the explosion, but did not see the gun or the person who fired it.

State Senator George B. Alexander, of Louisville, testified as follows: "I was in Governor Taylor's private office talking to him when the shooting occurred. There was one shot, sharp and loud, and four others which were duli and muffled. I got up and ran out of the office and stood behind a tree on Lewis street. I could see the body of the wounded man lying on the pavement. I then walked down to Broadway, where I heard that it was Goebel who had been shot. I do not remem-ber that Governor Taylor said when he heard the shots, but believe he made some exclamation of surprise. I saw several rough looking men in the ante-room of the governor's office as I first came in."

John Perkins, the colored porter in the adjutant general's office, said he was in that office when the shooting occurred. "Tallow Dick" Combs and Mason Hockersmith, the former of whom is under indictment as accessory, were in the office at the time.

W. H. Culton was asked if he had not said to Captain D. B. Walcutt that he had a written contract with the prosecution by which he was to confess nd receive immunity. He denied that he had made the statement to Walcutt or anybody else. Walcutt then testified that Culton did make the statement. C. O. Reynolds also swore that Culton made a similar statement to him.

J. C. Owens, another of the witnesses introduced to impeach Wharton Golden, testified as to an alleged conver-sation with Golden, in which the latter was quoted as saying that he knew Powers to be innocent.

Dr. J. W. Prewitt, who followed, testified that John L. Powers became ill at Frankfort about noon Jan. 25 and shelter. The religion that raises milthat he was called to see him twice that day. Robert Noakes had testified in regard to several conversations with Powers on that day, and Dr. Prewitt's testimony was in contradiction of Noakes.

CURRENT COMMENT. Notes Political and Otherwise on Motters of Public Interest.

Ev Andrew J. Palm.

The Philadelphia Times, which does not pretend to be friendly to Bryan, admits that he will poll at least onethird more votes in Philadelphia in 1900 than he did in '96. This is considerable of an admission for a gold standard, imperialistic organ.

If the flag must never be hauled fown when once raised, as our jingo statesmen insist, Old Glory finds itself n a peculiar predicament. It now floats over a fourth of Tien Tsin, and et Emperor Hanna declares that he loes not intend to annex China by "benevolent" assimilation or otherwise.

Mark Hanna says that the trusts have the best men of the country at their head and he believes in their orgapization. Of course where a man's reasure is there his heart is also, and Mark expects the trusts to put up the treasure on which he bases his hope of carrying the country for a second term of imperialism.

The Republican national platform condemns all improper trusts; but when demanding tribute for the campsign Marcus Aurelius Hanna will be able to convince them that there are no had trusts, and that they do not come under the ban of Mr. Hanna's platform. Nothing is improper in Re-publican eyes that contributes to Republican success.

Teddy Roosevelt's sympathy with Taylor, the Kentucky outlaw, received a severe stab when the Kentucky Republicans failed to nominate Mr. Taylor again as their candidate for governor. Kentucky Republicans wouldn't hesitate to nominate a man simply be-cause he is charged with murder, but the trouble was they couldn't locate Taylor long enough to get him nominated.

The Boers are mostly Presbyterians, and a very faithful and zealous lot of worshipers. We hear a great cry from the pulpit regarding the few Presbyterian missionaries that have been killed recently in China, and that is only natural; but strange to say there is scarcely a minister to utter his protes against the wholesale slaughter of Presbyterians by the British in the Transvaal. Is it any worse to be done to death by a British spear in the hands of a heathen Chinaman than to have the act performed by an alleged civilized Englishman?

We send missionaries to all the world to teach a religion which many of the nations will not receive and which we ourselves do not practice. The Philadelphia North American a few days ago declared that there is not one place in Philadelphia where a homeless, refined woman without money can find lions of dollars to send to foreigi shores for the conversion of those who never can be rightly converted and ignores ignorance, suffering and destitution at its own doors cannot appea strongly to the reasoning portion of mankind.

ATTORNEY GARMAN ACCUSED.

The Wilkeshurre Bribery Investigation-Charges Made That Money Was Offered Councilmen to Secure a Street Railway Franchise.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., Aug. 8 .- The investigation of the bribery charges in city council were continued yesterday. Councilman Santee, who swore on Monday that he had been offered a bribe by George J. Llewellyn, was called for cross examination. - When questioned as to why he waited seven months before he informed councils that one of its members had been bribed or an attempt made to do so, he said he was reluctant to inform on his friend Llewellyn, and he knew it would be hard to prove a charge. Councilman Thomas Wheatley, who was instrumental in bringing about the investigation, testified that he met Attorney John M. Garman in an eating house in this city a little over a month ago, and that they started to discuss municipal affairs, including the efforts of a new electric railway company from Scranton to gain admission in Wilkesbarre. Witness knew that Mr. Garman was attorney for the company. Mr. Garman asked the councilman what he would take for his vote. Mr. Wheatley wanted to know what he was willing to pay, and the attorney said $600. Witness said the other side were paying $800. Mr. Gar-man then said that in case the Scranton franchise was secured Wheatley's vote might be worth $5,000. This ended the conversation, and the witness said nothing to any one until he exposed the matter in council.

Mr. Garman swore that he never offered Wheatley a cent of money, that he was not authorized to offer it and that the company he represented did not have money to spend in that way. Another witness corroborated Mr. Garman's testimony to a more or less extent. Mr. Wheatley's testimony was not corroborated.

Mysterious Explosion in Scranton. Scranton, Pa., Aug. 6 .- By an explosion of mysterious origin Saturday evening, which wrecked the Merchants' and Mechanics' bank and an adjoining building, 27 persons were injured. and several miraculously es-caped death. H. W. Skivington, whose leg was cut by a piece of flying glass, is the only one of the 27 in a critical condition. Miss Annie Klein, of this city, and Thomas Brennan, of Minooka, each will lose the sight of one eye as the result of cuts from flying glass. The debris was sufficiently removed last evening to disclose the bank vault, and it was found intact. The money and papers were removed under escort of police to a building on Wyoming avenue, where the bank opened for business this morning. The loss is $175,000.
