Making Love a Crime.

The city council of Ill., has just passed this ordinance:

"Whoever shall in said city congregate or upon any of the streets in the city of Peert for the purpose of courting, making love or spooning or carrying on courtship, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be fined not less than $5 or more than $100 for each offense."

Mayor Hoerner says: "I do not oppose courtship when it is conducted in an ordinary manner. But when it is carried on indiscriminately and in a style offensive to the public, I believe it, like all other nuisances, should be abated."

About Crops.

Mifflin county reports the potato yield poor. Nittany valley has a good peach crop. Corn crop is short in Union county. Centre county had nothing to brag about in any of the cereals this year.

CORRESPONDENTS

Aaronsburg.

Miss Eva Meyer is spending this week in Bellefonte among relatives and friends. Charles Stover and family, formerly of this place but now residents of Altoona, are paying a visit to their friends and relatives in our burg and are the guests of the gentleman's father, William Stover, on Main street.

Our schools opened on Monday morning with a very large attendance.

Oliver Wolf and wife, of Wolf's Store, recently visited at the home of the lady's father, H. H. Weaver.

Jerre Wert and wife are spending this week at Tusseyville among friends.

Elly Krape, of Spring Mills, transacted very important business in our town on Saturday evening. Ask no questions.

Daniel Krape, who has been ill for nearly a year, is bedfast at present and is gradually growing weaker from the infirmities incident to old age.

An infant child of Mr. and Mrs. George Homan was buried at Wolf's chapel, on last Saturday.

Mrs. Emma Hess (nee Jordan) of Knox, Pa., a former resident of our town, spent several days here last week among her relatives and friends.

Harvest Home services will be held in the Reformed church here on next Sunday morning, at ten o'clock.

Miss Margaret Bell, accompanied by her friend Mr. Patton, both of Huntingdon, Pa., are the guests of the lady's grandfather, H. H. Weaver, on East Main street.

The days are growing considerably shorter—an indication of approaching winter.

A cold wave was experienced here Monday and Tuesday and overcoats were in demand.

A very delightful birthday party was given on Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock in honor of Ruth, the seven-year-old daughter of Hol Crouse, on North 2nd street, and was attended by 32 little folks, who were treated to ice cream, cakes, melons, etc. All present had a good time.

Beech Creek

Ralph O. Hall has taken charge of one of the schools at Howard.

Thieves visited the hotel last Friday night and got away with a goodly supply of provisions.

The condition of Mrs. Walter B. McCaskey is much more favorable and she is on a fair way to recovery.

The schools Beech Creek township opened for the fall term. Several of the buildings have been repaired.

Lieutenant Grier P. Mobley has arrived at Canton, O., and is expected to arrive here this week. His many friends eagerly await his coming.

George Gardner left on Monday for Utica, N. Y., his home, after a visit with his mother, Mrs. Gardner, who is recovering from a serious illness.

The Grangers' picnic passed off very nicely last Thursday, the day being fine and the attendance large. Speeches were made by Joel Herr, of Salona, and Casper Peters and David Mages.

Preparations are being made for the meeting of the Northernumberland Presbytery which convenes in the Presbyterian church next Monday for a session of two or three days. About fifty delegates will attend. The sessions are open to the public, which is cordially invited to attend.

Coburn

James Smith and wife, of Altoona, are visiting among their old acquaintances in town.

Misses Sadie Condo and Hattie McCool, of Spring Mills, spent Saturday and Sunday at the home of Wm. Krader.

Elmer Koonoy, employed at Harrisburg, is talking a vacation with his family at this place. He will resume his work in the capital in a few days.

John Brandt is reported on the sick list with typhoid fever.

Miss Lydia Korman is making her present home at Frank Bartsge; now look out for "Sam" and his drum.

Miss Aggie Bartholomew is spending a few weeks at State College.

The carpenters are busy at work on Daniel Kraders New house, which will make a fine appearance when finished. A store room will be connected to the dwelling and a new store will be in operation after the building is done.

W. H. Kerstetter and family of Harrisburg will make their future home in our town; they arrived last Saturday.

Jacob Witmver spent a few minutes in town only to find things moving along as usual.

John G. Smith loaded a car with potatoes on Tuesday. He paid 40 cents a bushel for them.

Master Charles Campbell, of Shamokin, is visiting his sister, Mrs. Mabel Kalen.

The evaporating factory began operation on Monday. They are ready now to use the farmers apples at a fair price. G. R. Stover spent Monday at the county seat.

Potters Mills.

Mrs. Smith and daughter, Ella, of Pine Grove Mills, are visiting relatives here.

Jeff Shaffer, wife and children, of Lewistown, passed through our town Saturday evening to visit her parents, Mr. Barris.

Harry Wilkenson and wife, of Mifflinburg, are the guests of John Wilkenson. Our farmers report a good corn crop, also apples, but cabbage is a failure. We need not worry about making sauerkraut.

Miss Cathryn Wilkenson is still on the sick list; hope she may speedily recover.

Dr. H. S. Alexander reports a great deal of sickness; he is kept very busy. Merchant Frank Carson and brother Joe brought a fine load of peaches from Milroy on Friday. They had no trouble to sell them.

Colyer.

George Bitner went to see his brother John, above Centre Hall, on Friday, who is very sick; not expected to recover.

Mrs. Alfred Stump and her sister, Mrs. Samuel Kliefelder, from above Centre Hall, were in to see their mother, Mrs. Mary Wingard.

Miss Ella and Maud Barr are spending a few weeks with their mother and brother and also to attend Granger Picnic, after which they expect to take up their residence in Bellefonte.

Squire J. S. Houseman made a business trip to Bellefonte, on Thursday.

Alfred Reiber left last Saturday for Coburn, where he commenced his winter term of school on Monday following. This is his second winter term at teaching. His summer vacation was spent traveling and canvassing.

Harry McClellan, is rejoicing over the arrival of a young daughter at his home, on last Sunday.

Mr. Gramley, the implement dealer from Rebersburg, made a business trip through this part last week.

Wm. Moyer, our cider maker, had the cylinder of his engine blown out, one day last week. He talks of throwing the engine and boiler out.

Rev. John H. Houseman, a Lutheran minister from Laridsville, Pa., with his wife and daughter, were the guest at Squire Housemans, on Monday of this week.

MARRIED—Sunday evening 5 p. m. Edwin Brown and Miss Salite Feese were united in holy wedlock by Rev. Reacker, at the residence of the groom, Mr. and Mrs. Jerrey Brown. The happy couple have the best wishes of their many friends.

Mrs. Lambert and children, and lady friend from Williamsport, are visiting Mrs. Lambert's mother, Mrs. Frances Colyer, and will attend the Granger Picnic.

P. B. Jordan raised his potatoes last week. From four acres he got 24 bushels. Potato crop is very poor.

G. R. Meisses fine peach orchard requires constant watch, day and night. If those scamps, dont take a warning they will get a load of lead. Beware.

Miss Annie Reninger, from Spring Mills, spent several days with her sister, Mrs. John H. Mayer.

Mr. Zettel and family, from Penn Hall, visited over Sunday with Calvin Cooney and family, and Hayes Solt and family.

Prof. L. O. Stiver, of Freeport, Ill., one of the publishers of the Freeport Bulletin, has been making a flying visit to his many old and former friends, in and around Colyer and Tusseyville. Mr. Stiver has the best wishes of his many friends.

Millheim.

Mrs. E. Noll and little daughter, of Lancaster, are visiting relatives in town.

Misses Bertha Musser and Annie Kern returned to Philadelphia, Monday, after spending several months here.

Charles Sheffer, of Muncy, was a visitor in town over Sunday.

Mrs. Lydia Musser returned from Iowa, Friday. She had been away since May. Geo. Musser, of Wilkesbarre, is circulating among his former schoolmates and friends.

Mrs. Arthur Williams and children of Orwigsburg, Schuylkill Co., are the guests of Mrs. E. W. Mauck.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Brown visited in Nittany Valley over Sunday.

Mrs. John Thomas, of York, spent last week in town as the guest of her cousin, Mrs. D. L. Zebby.

Mrs. J. C. Smith visited her parents, James Maucks, at Rote, last week.

W. C. Swanger is enjoying a vacation at home.

J. Reese Van Ormer and wife, of Coatesville, were visitors in town for several days last week.

"Hen" Miller is the boss barrel painter. He painted thirty in three hours for Squire Keifsnyder.

Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Morris, of Loganton, visited their son, C. H. Morris, last week.

The corn is nearly all cut, and what is still standing is dead on the stalk. Some have husked already. The crop is a fair one.

Frank Geary, of Snow Shoe, was home several days last week.

Henry Mooney, of Houtzdale, is visiting his brother, Mark.

The attendance at the Grangers' Picnic, from these parts, is slim. All seem to be waiting to attend the county fair, later on.

J. E. Shires, of Blair Co., is visiting his twin brother, Peter Shires, here.

Rebersburg.

On Wednesday morning Henry Meyer left for Bucknell University at Lewisburg, where he will attend school.

Our farmers are busy cutting off corn. The corn crop is fairly good this year in our valley.

The colored campmeeting which has been in progress for the last three weeks in a grove north of Rockville, has failed to do very much good, but we dare say has brought about enmity among our neighbors. Yes, our people would have been better off had they not seen a colored campmeeting this summer.

A number of our folks are attending the Grangers' Picnic at Centre Hall.

Our schools opened with a fair number of scholars last week.

During the last few weeks our burg people have been supplying themselves with Aaronsburg peaches.

Perry Stiver and wife, of Freeport, Ill., and E. E. Adams and wife, of Lock Haven, were the pleasant visitors at Henry Meyer's on Friday night.

Loganton.

Torrence DeLong, Preston Fiddler and "Bibby" Snook are hauling hemlock bark to Lock Haven for Jameson Bros. Mr. DeLong's team veered off the road at the Sulphur spring and upset their load Monday.

Frank W. L. Smith found a white Holstein bull impaled by the neck between two trees in the forest of White Deer. The animal was dead, no doubt having strangled.

After two years of silent slumber the Loganton concert band resurrected sufficiently to be seen and heard one night recently. Mounted on Landlord Harry Cole's accommodation wagon it paraded up and down the street rendering several lively oldtime melodies, much to the delight of the people.

HASTINGS AND HARMONY.

gents got such an effectual sitting down at the former county convention by chairman John C. Miller that they were afraid to bark up this trip, and were as meek as lambs. Why didn't "Little Phil," the political remnant that Hastings sent into retirement sometime ago, try his luck again? Suppose he has enough by this time, and in the future will attend strictly to business.

C. P. Long was in convention and took the situation calmly. Many persons would have liked to have seen him on the ticket for assembly this trip, and his name was frequently mentioned, and we know he would have been glad to respond as he would like to serve the public at Harrisburg, in an official capacity. Mr. Long is a hustler and would have made a determined fight in the campaign. The reason he was not nominated is that here in town they selected someone else. Mr. Allison did not want the nomination and Mr. Long would have been glad for the honor, and is a deserving party man who always was active for its interests.

It is a common opinion that the managers of the party did not act considerate towards John A. Daley. Last campaign he was on the ticket and owing to the factional fight in this county by these very harmonizers he was one of those who spent his time and money and then went down on that account, but never murmured. This year, when there is a sign of unity in the party, those men who went down on account of the folly of others, should have been considered. We have not heard that Mr. Daley is disappointed, or is complaining, as he is one of those kind of men who pull in the party harness in season and out of season and will put up with the ticket. He came to the convention only as a substitute, and that even displeased the leaders. Many inquired why they did not recognize Mr. Daley; we always supposed he was one of General Hastings staunch political friends.

The delegates from the north ward were the following, which is unusual: D. H. Hastings, W. F. Reeder, W. E. Gray and Jno. M. Dale—the latter two were mentioned last—they were only ornamental in the convention—were there by permission only, on their good behavior.

Brother Sam Diehl stayed in the fight to a finish, and he saw it too. He preferred to die game—he died, and did it gracefully. It is soon time for Samuel to score, for he has been making trial heats for sometime. Enthusiastic republicans claim they will elect their ticket this year, and when asked to explain how it will be done, fall back on Daniel's boodle. If he opens up it will be a good thing for a lot of our idle workmen who have not had the sight of a dollar for sometime, and should scoop all such stuff that comes along, and then vote as they please.

Clem Dale has selected the following three conferees: Prof. C. L. Gramley, of Rebersburg; Editor T. H. Harter, of Bellefonte; and C. L. Fryberger, of Philipsburg. The district conference will be held at DuBois, this Thursday evening.

Some one should have informed the committee on resolutions that we have a republican governor at Harrisburg, as well as an oleomargarine-bespattered Secretary of Agriculture.

Disposing of His Peaches.

Up to Saturday, Dr. Dumm has sold 4,000 baskets of peaches from his orchard, near Mackeyville. He has over 1,000 baskets left yet.

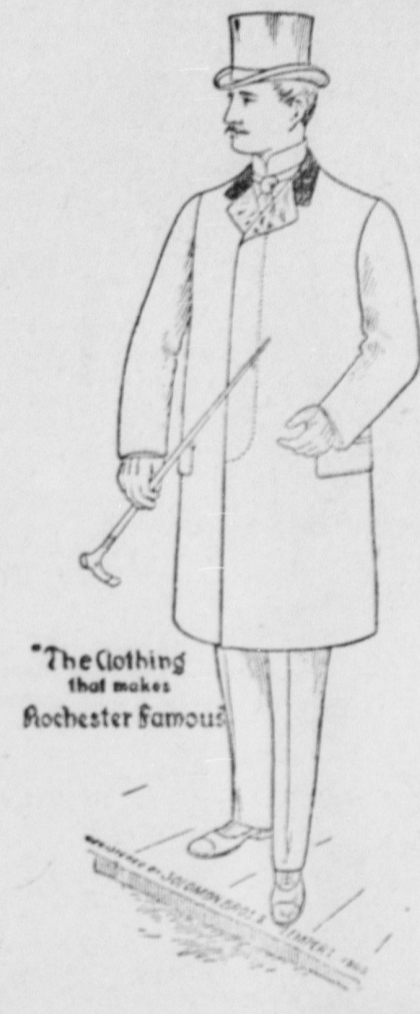

Militarism & Its Effects

oooooooooooooooooooo

Effect on Styles:—Do you consider yourself an up-to-date dresser? If you do, you must have a Military Cut Suit and Overcoat. We knew they would be very popular this season and consequently laid in an extensive line. The whole suit is cut on the Military Style, but we want to call particular attention to the high padded shoulders, in fact they are New Ideas and Swell Creations in the clothing line. They are the kind you are looking for but can't find in every store because we are the sole agents of

"The Clothing that makes Rochester Famous"

Registered by Solomon Ross & Lampert, 1900.
