Happenings In and About Bellefonte

PERSONAL, SOCIAL EVENTS

—Our sale register is quite large for this season of the year.

—Mrs. Edward Cowdrick left last Friday for Niagara Falls.

—George McMahon is here from Peckskill, N. Y., on a visit to his mother and sisters in Bellefonte.

—Frank Miller, a student at the Academy, owing to sickness, left Monday for his home at Cape May, N. J.

—Hon. Jas. Schofield is transacting business in Pitsburg and Mrs Schofield is visiting friends in Boonetown, N. J.

—J. H. Sharp, of Hubersburg, the ventriloquist, has been giving a number of pleasing entertainments in this section.

—The Centre County Fair will not permit gambling or any sort of a game of chance on the grounds during the fair.

—Samuel Taylor, manager of China Hall, left Monday night on a business trip to New York City. He will be gone two days.

—The annual re-union of the veterans of the 49th Regt., P. V., will be held this year at Bellefonte on the 25th and 26th of October.

—Frank Sasserman, the barber, is nursing a badly sprained arm and wrist as the result of a fall from his bicycle Monday noon.

—Dr. J. W. Buckingham, formerly of Phillipsburg, who has been practicing medicine at Burnside for some time, has located at Mahafey.

—The 17th annual convention of Centre County Woman's Christian Temperance Union is being held at Unionville this Thursday, September 27th.

—The census bureau announces the population of Williamsport, Penna., at 28,757 against 27,132, an increase of 1,625 or 5.99 per cent. That is a slow growth.

—Many of the finest lawns about town have been parched almost brown owing to the dry weather. Of course our big spring is a guarantee against a water famine.

—All men are invited to attend a Bible reading, given in the Y. M. C. A. rooms, on Sunday at 4 o'clock. Your interest should not be made conspicuous by your absence.

—Rev. W. F. Carson, of Philadelphia, who has accepted the call of the Milesburg and Snow Shoe Presbyterian congregations, will occupy the pulpit in the Milesburg church on Sunday, Sept. 30.

—Miss Grace McBride, of Kansas City, Mo., is again in Bellefonte after an absence of several years, and is visiting her sister, Mrs. Boyd A. Musser. She will enter the millinery department at Joseph's store.

—Sheriff Brungart has a special notice in this issue that is of importance to all persons who are in the habit of violating the fish laws. There is one chap in the county jail now boarding out a $50 fine, and others may follow.

—"The Old Maids' Convention" which was to have been given by the ladies of the Methodist church has been postponed indefinitely. That will not necessarily prevent the numerous old maids of this place from convening regularly as ever.

—Andy Mott, of Bellefonte, who has been suffering from a weak back, on being examined it was found that he had an abscess on his left leg near the thigh. Mr. Mott will go to a hospital in Philadelphia to have an operation performed.

—P. O. Stiver, publisher of the Freeport, Ill., Bulletin, and wife visited at the home of Dr. J. A. Ward. He is a brother of Mrs. Ward, and a former Potter Twp. boy who left that section twenty-four years ago. Prosperity appears to be smiling upon him.

—After a suspension of about three months the Bellefonte Farnace was this morning put in operation. The torch was applied by little Sarah, daughter of General and Mrs. Hastings, of this place, at 8 am., and the indications are that the plant will have a prosperous year ahead.

—Michael Kerstetter, of Pleasant Gap, called on Monday to have his paper sent to Clarence, Pa., near Snow Shoe, where he will put in the next few months at work on the new Catholic church, to be erected at that place. A number of Pleasant Gap mechanics will be employed on the building.

—The general verdict this year is that the Grainger Picnic this season did not score a success. There were many vacant tents, the list of exhibits was not as large as on former occasions, there were some decidedly crude and vile entertainments that disgusted decent people, the general attendance was smaller than usual. Not being there we only mention what others report. No doubt many people are waiting for the reopening of the county fair.

—The other day our editorial desk was ornamented by a handsome pen rack, made in the form of a horse shoe, with the nails for the rests. It was nicely finished in gilt, and is useful too. Upon inquiry we learned that it was a present from Jacob Knisley, the expert horse-shoer. The shoe is a duplicate of the kind he makes for the flyers on the race track, and as we strike an occasional swift newspaper pace he thought this would be an appropriate addition to our desk. Thank you; some day we will vote for you when you run for congress.

—Stop sending communications to this office without attaching the writer's name, as an evidence of good faith. We have mentioned this matter so often that it seems almost useless to take it up, yet every week some one violates these well established rules of every well-regulated paper. We want to know who sends communications, even if the name is not given.

—Attention is called to the special "ad" of Katz & Co in this issue in which they announce their Millinery Opening, next Monday and Tuesday, Oct. 1st and 2nd. As this is one of the events that the fair sex always look forward to with pleasure, we have no doubt their store will be crowded on this occasion.

—Persons who know of any violations of the game laws, hunting before the legal season, should send information to the Secretary of the Sportsmen's League of Centre County, at Bellefonte, and it will receive attention. The league was organized for the protection of the game and fish laws and are after all violations that are made known to them.

—At the meeting of the Bryan club on Wednesday evening a set of resolutions were adopted upon the death of J. W. Alexander, Esq., a vice-president of the organization. W. H. Noll, of Pleasant Gap, was chosen to fill the vacancy. Several short addresses were made that evoked considerable enthusiasm. Last week a democratic club was organized at Phillipsburg.

—Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kurtz expect to move their household effects from Centre Hall to this place on Monday and will occupy the vacant house on Allegheny street, formerly the home of Mr. and Mrs. Herb Shaffer. Hereafter Mr. Kurtz will devote his attention principally to the editorial department of this paper and will be found at this office where he will be glad to meet his many friends and acquaintances throughout the county. It will be the intention of the writer to make his future home with his parents, which no doubt he will appreciate after a term of twelve years at the same hotel, the Garman House, which was satisfactory or would not have been there that long.

The Hessian Fly.
 In order to destroy the most serious wheat pest, the Hessian fly, it is the custom of many farmers of this region to plant an early strip of wheat at one side of the field and after the flies have commenced to work in it, plow it under in order to destroy the brood. Then the wheat crop can be planted with safety. The authorities in charge of the College farm have asked Prof. Surface to write for the advent of the fly, and he and his students yesterday made examinations which show that the pest is now very abundant. It is yet in the "worm" or larval stage, and should be plowed under before reaching the "flax-seed" or pupal stage. Now is the time for action.

JOKING AGAIN.

Col. D. S. Dunham, the veteran newspaper man, who left here about a month ago to make his home with his daughter in California, has been heard from by a letter that appeared in the Howard Hustler from which the following extract is made:
 "Fish are quite plentiful hereabouts, but the Russian River a few miles from here must be a paradise for fishermen. At certain hours of the day—early morning and at sundown—the surface of the river is one great mass of fish, so dense that to row through it would be impossible. Such a thing as the use of a hook and line in that locality is unknown. If you want a fish for breakfast, luncheon or dinner, all you have to do is to simply go down to the river's edge and whistle. In a moment myriads of the finny tribe will come flashing to the spot and over on their backs ready for inspection and selection. As for live game, the country is plenthy with all kinds. A gun is a useless incumbrance there. Should you wish a plump young rabbit for the pot or frying pan, you pick up a handful of salt, go outside and select your titbit, and sprinkle a little of the salt on the small bunch of cotton that every respectable rabbit invariably carries about with him, and there you are.
 This is the place I have selected for John Anderson and Capt. Bayard, of Bellefonte, and William T. Leathers and company, of Howard, when they come out here to live."
 Yours Respectfully,
 D. S. DUNHAM.

This State Ranks Second.

The state of Pennsylvania, according to the census of 1900, still retains its record as the state with the second largest as population. Pennsylvania's population in 1890 was 5,258,014, a gain of 975,123 over that of 1880. The returns from cities which have thus far come to hand show a large increase, and experts say that the increase will reach a million. This will bring the population to more than 6,250,000.

PIANO BARGAINS.

Perhaps you are in need of a good piano, but have deferred the matter from time to time on account of the seemingly high prices. I am in a position to supply you at a very moderate price, for cash. Handle only reliable instruments, but at a very close margin. Many years experience as a piano tuner puts me in a position to select you the very best for the least money. If you wish to save money write me for prices.

THE REFORMATION.

There is in store for the people of Bellefonte and vicinity a magnificent treat—historically, intellectually and religiously. It is the "Story of the Reformation," or the "Life of Martin Luther," which will be given in the opera house of Bellefonte either on October 22d and 23d or November 29th and 30th, by Mrs. H. E. Monroe of Philadelphia. There will be eighty-five stereopticon views and one hundred persons from the various churches of the town in 16th century costume. Prominent gentlemen of Bellefonte, together with detachments from military organizations, will represent Luther's trial at Worms. Sixteen choir men, nuns, novices, etc., represent the incidents of his life. It will be under the auspices of the Lutheran congregation of Bellefonte, but members of the different churches will participate. It is without exception a grand entertainment. The public press all over the country speaks in unstinted praise of it. We predict for it a grand success in Bellefonte.
