CORRESPONDENTS DEPARTMENT

The News Gathered From Various Sections.

HAPPENINGS IN CENTRE CO

What Our Army of Airt Corrspondnts-See and Observe Worthy of Note--The Local Happenings of Every Community.

Howard.

The statement in the Hustler that some drunkard threw a beer bottle through E. C. Dietz's bakery window, is untrue, as the bottle was lying on the outside, which he no doubt used trying to gain an entrance. The glass was pounded all over the pane before it was broken, as spalls were knocked off all over the glass which indicates that it was not done by drunkards.

W. H. Long and Mrs. W. L. Cook and daughter returned from Niagara Falls on Wednesday, where they had been visiting the former's daughter.

Wm. Henderson, wife and daughter are visiting friends at Windber, Pa.

Oscar Lucas, employed at Altoona, is spending a few days with his mother and family.

Miss Nannie Lucas is visiting friends

Logan McKinney has gone back to Miss Mary and Ellen Rothermel, of Lewistown, are visiting at the home of Mrs. L. R. Hensyl. Some one got very hungry on Saturday night and was going to help himself by breaking in the bakery at 2 o'clock. A large pane of glass in the front window was broken which awakened others and they were frightened away. The people have become somewhat alarmed and have determined that they will catch the thief, dead or alive, if practiced any further. The parties are suspected. The following are the names of the parties who took advantage of the recent excursion to Chicago: W. H. Neff and wife, Frank Dietz and wife, Samuel Bowers and wife, Mrs. Mary Allison, Mrs. Hays Schenck, Mr. Wilson and wife and Miss Johnson. They returned on Saturday.

We are sorry to say that Wilbur Wharton has been very sick the past

Miss Emma Hockman, of Hecla, was a guest of her sister, Mrs. E. C. Dietz, Mrs. John Hanna, of this place, has gone to the hospital for treatment.

Elmer Hockman, formerly of Hecla, now of Freeport, Ill., accompanied by his wife, have been visiting in this section for some time. They returned to Illinois

Frank Swyers, of this place, having taken a trip through some of the western states, returned home on Monday.

Henry Diets, son of Cyrus Dietz, of Danville, brother of our baker, is visiting the same and expects to visit in this section for several weeks.

Charles Wells, of near this place, but employed at Danville, is shaking hands with friends here.

Frank Swyers, of Erie, Pa., who left here some five years ago, is visiting his brother Grant.

Thomas L. Rimert, who has been very much indisposed for the past week, is some better at this writing.

The schools at this place opened up on last Monday with a full corps of teachers. Nelson A. Confer, of Yarnell, was married on last Wednesday evening to to the people of our town, especially our Miss Anna B. Alison, of this place.

Mrs, Hayes Schenck, who has been of Chicago, arrived home on Tuesday. George Leathers and Alfred Strickland, two of our finest sports, left here on Sunday evening for Beech Creek, where they report having had a fine The new iron fence which Wm. Weaver has had erected in front of his property, has added greatly to the appearance. Jenkins Iron & Tool Co. have their boarding house up and have given the contract for four more houses to be erected at once.

Thomas Mann, who has been employed in the woods this summer, is home nursing a mashed finger. We were very glad to know that our friend, Wm. Robb, of Romola, received the nomination for jury commissioner. Wm. Solt's family arrived home on Sunday, after visiting friends for the last two weeks.

Dr. O. McEntire's new house is fast reaching completion. When finished it will add greatly to the improvement of that part of the town.

Joseph Diehl and D. L. Welch were out speeding Joe's $,10 nag on last Mon-

Alfred Lucas, who has been employed as clerk in C. C. Lucas' general store, the past two months, left here last Priday for Pittsburg, where he has accepted a position with the P. R. R. as passenger brakeman from Pittsburg to Altona.

Port Matilda.

George W. Gill and his estimable daughter, Miss Sallie, passed Flat Rock enroute for their home, after a pleasant visit among friends in Clear-

Mr. and Mrs. A. Adams, of Philips-burg, are visiting friends in this section. The family of the late Philip Williams held a reunion a few days since, on the David Mattern farm, in Half Moon.

J. M. Riley, of Shamokin, passed through here this week enroute for Philipsburg, where he will take a vacation from his duties as a clerk.

Postmaster Osman has returned from a visit, among friends in Carwensville.

J. B. Williams and his three sons passed here enroute for the lumber woods in the western part of Clearfield kidney and lung troubles, with no hope of recovery.

Mrs. Lucy Cowher, who has been suf-fering from a complication of diseases, as confidently to a baby as to an adult. is growing worse and her recovery is for tale at Green's Pharmacy, Bellefont pa.

Nittany.

Quite a number of our young folks were to Lamar, on Sunday evening, to listen to a Harvest Home sermon delivered by a Mr. Johnson who is visiting at that place.

We noticed Glen Meyers, of Lamar, in our town Sunday evening. There must be some attraction. You just ask Miss Jennie. Miss Helen Beck went to Lock Haven on Sunday.

Lawrence Ohl expects to leave on Monday, for Blandsburg. Everybody is wishing for rain and more potatoes, as both are scarce. We noticed the Misses Weavers, Kessinger and Johnson, all charming young ladies, of Hublersburg, in our town on William Garbrick brought one of his young cattle home from the mountain; it had its leg broken.

Since coal has advanced, some of our people talk of burning chips this winter. We noticed Elery Krape and George Stephenson, of Lamar, passing through our town one day last week on there way to "Beautiful Zion," to trade or sell

Mrs. E. J. Peck went to Jacksonville, on Saturday, to see her father, who has been sick for quite a while. Henry McCaslin left last Thursday for McKeesport where he expects to make his home with his son George.

Mrs. G. Zitter and children, of Lock Haven were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Zerby over Sunday.

Mrs. R. R. Alison and Mrs. Link Swartz and the Misses Minnie and Mittie Winkleman expect to drive to Lewisburg to attend the fair this week. Mrs. W. R. Diehl and Mrs. B. F. Guiser spent last Wednesday in Lock Haven the guests of Mr. and Mrs. S. E. The granger picnic was not very well attended from here.

Minich and daughters. Miss Cora Minnick and Mrs. George Tolbert visited friends in Hublersburg one day last week.

Mrs. Frank Bartley, of Flemington, spent several days with her father, Jno.

Moshannon.

Among those of our citizens who attended the granger picnic was Edward Rupp, Charley Fleming and J. T. Lucas.

Herman Viehdorfer, of Jersey Shore, ency. was in our town a few days recently. Frank Viehdorfer and Kate Bierly were to Philipsburg last Wednesday.

Ella Rankin returned home last Friday evening from a lengthy visit to her uncle's at Marion Centre.

Charley Williams has been visiting friends at Boston during the past week. Lamch Cole and wife, of near Bloomington, Md., are visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hazzard.

Mr. Olmstead, of Williamsport, was the guest of J. T. Lucas, on Tuesday, of last week.

Mrs. Miley Kidd and children, of Bradford, have been visiting relatives at this place.

Arthur Bowes and family are spending a short time with friends at Brook-

Gertie Viehdorfer spent Sunday at her aunt's, Mrs. Taylor, at Viaduct.

John Confer entertained friends at his ome the latter part of the week. Wesley Cartright and family, of near Snow Shoe, spent Sunday at Simeon Hazzard's. Mrs. Matley, of Philipsburg, was the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Williams, this week. The telephone reached here last week and has proved to be quite a convenience

Death has again visited the home of visiting her sister, Mrs. Jerry Smeltzer, George Watson, taking away another bright and interesting child, about three years old. Interment at Unionville. We are sorry to note the departure of Edward Rupp, our congenial miller, who left on Monday for Coudersport, Potter Co., where he will work at his trade. He will be greatly missed by his many friends here.

Highvalley.

lack Frost made his appearance in the valley. Hurry up Ira and get the rye in the ground. The strike in the coal regions settled the prop business in Highvalley at Uncle Abe is up and around as usual.

H. C. Kulp bought a heavy timber tract near Penn Hall last week. Give me a Kulp to make things get there. They are not afraid to myest in timber. Frank says he likes a fast horse, but the one he has is too fast.

The Highvalliers were all at the Granger's Picuic on last Thursday, and two of the Highvalley ladies got their picture taken, and when they got home everybody said Highvalley can't be beat for good looking women; that is so, but Rankletown is ahead.

A. J. Stover offers for sale near Penn Hall, 17 pine trees at a low price. Mr. Stover is also dealing in cedar shingles, he gets them by car loads from Michigan.

The Highvalley stave mill is only running one day out of three weeks. That looks as though a strike might soon take place. Well, the valley can support them, and feed them on potatoes and cabbage.

The Georgetown scribe made his aplearance last Friday at the afternoon train, as lively as ever. He said he was antoyed all summer with the bull frogs.
The pasture in the valley is getting short and cows are going dry. Butter is scarce as the hair on a Georgetown bull-frig. The only trouble in the valley in dry leasons is stock raising. But it is not so with Ingleby and Rankeltown, they have fresh cows continually and all the butte, and milk they can use.

Chamberain's Cough Remedy a Great Favorite.

The sothing and healing properties of this remedy, its pleasant taste and prompt and permanent cures have made it a grat favorite with people every-Wallace Frantz is failing rapidly from of smal children for colds, croup and whooping cough, as it always affords quick felief, and as it contains no opium Romola.

Prof. T. S. DeLong, who has been keeping books at Gleasonton for some time, arrived home on Friday of last week

Miss Isabel Taylor, of Bellefonte, attended Harvest Home exercises at Summit Hill church. The question arises, has Frank forgotten Stella?

We are sorry to note the illness of Charles Wentzel. It is feared that typhoid fever is setting in.

Miss Sara Brickley, of Bellefonte, is visiting here at the home of her mother. W. I. Harvey, of Flemington, spent Monday in this place.

Miss Maude Confer was taken ill on Thursday with bleeding of the nose. Dr. Kurtz was summoned and has managed to get the flow of blood stopped.

H. S. DeLong, who has been spending a month at his home here, left on Tuesday for his work at Renovo. The Harvest Home services in the Summit Hill church were well attended. Miss Ella Brickley, who has been visiting in Bellefonte for sometime, returned home last week.

Charles Boone went to Emporium, on Monday, to obtain employment.

John Robb made a trip to Blanchard on Sunday evening. He says that she is just the sweetest little girl he ever knew. A certain young man in our town who has a great deal of surplus nerve and audacity, called on two of our young ladies on Sunday evening just for a couple of minutes conversation. This nervy lad's name was Sam, sometimes called "Jaggers." His few minutes conversation lengthened into hours, when some of his friends became alarmed about his absence and went in search of him. He was found seated between two ladies but he looked so tender that his friends were afraid he would mash, so they carried him out bodily, and gave him his thumps for giving his crowd the writing this; it was that other fellow. Two of our girls, Maude and Ella, took a short walk of about five miles on Saturday evening to call on Ward, expecting him to bring them home on Sunday morning; at least that was the expectation when they started. But they were doomed to a bitter disappointment, for Ward brought them back. Nit. And Sunday morning found two weary, yet wiser girls, wending their way homeward. Girls, do not forget that men have hearts, and that Toner's was broken by that one act of inconsistslip. Now, Sam, don't blame me for Oak Hall.

Misses Mary and Bertha Barnhart, of Williamsport, visited their parents here

Miss Effie Glenn, of the Branch, spent Wednesday night with friends in town. John Fry, of Pine Grove Mills, was in town on Saturday evening.

Daniel Korman, one of our oldest citizens, is quite ill at present.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Bailey and daughters, of Altoona, are visiting at the home of Jno. Kline. Miss Alice Rutherford and Henry and Raymond Dale, of the Branch, were Sunday visitors at Mrs. H. Dale's.

Springs, was a visitor at Sunny Hillside future residence. J. F. Kurtz, Jr., and last week. Mrs. Amanda Walker, of wife will be located temporarily at Lew-Boalsburg, was a guest at the sam

Alfred Rupp, of Shingletown, was a caller in town on Saturday. Arthur Kline was to Axemann on Harry Whitehill, of Lemont, was in town on Sunday afternoon. Sunday night about 12 o'clock E. B.

Peter's smoke house caught fire and was burned to the ground. Nothing else was injured but an apple tree, although several buildings were in danger of the George Musser, of Wilkesbarre, was noticed in town on Thursday morning. Our little town was quite lively last Quite a number of people boarded the train at O. H. Station for the grangers picnic.

Walker.

John Delaney is ill with typhoid fever. Mrs. Ed. Peck, of Nittany, is visiting her father, Henry Yearick.

John Smith, Jr., visited his sister, Mrs. Grant Fetron, of near Mechanicsburg. Communion services will be held in the United Evangelical church, on Sunday evening next, by Revs. Reamer and

Mrs. James Beck, of this place, and her daughter, Mrs. Joe Strunk, of Parvin, are visiting her son and family, John W. Beck, of Windber. James Heverly, of Johnsonburg, visited his father-in-law, James Beck. Miss. Emma Smith departed on Monday for Lock Haven. M. S. Betz has ordered a line of new goods which you are gordially invited to call and see. Pine Creek.

Mr. Hosterman and Mr. Meyer, of Coburn, were seen on our street on Saturday. Mrs. Adam Stover spent Sunday with her daughter, Mrs. Fryer. C. C. Fryer made a business trip along the mountain on Saturday. The farmers are done cutting off corn, and some are husking, and report a good Uncle Mike says the watermelons are a fair crop and good. High valley scribe says dry weather and poor water causes his whiskers to fall out.

Axemann.

On Tuesday evening of this week, J.H. Sharp, the ventriloquist, of Hublersburg, gave an entertainment in the church at this place. He also explained the life of a drunkard. We enjoyed his entertain-ment very much and hope he will be with us again in the future.

MOHAWK CATARRH CURE. 'Cheapest and Best.

Cures Catarrh in from 3 to 10 days.
Cures Cold in the Head, 5 to 15 minutes.
Cures Headache, 1 to 5 minutes.
Securely packed with full instructions, by mail, postage paid, #5c.
Try it and you will be more than pleased with the investment. Your money back if you are dissatisfied. "Stamps taken."

MOHAWK REMEDY CO., Rome, N.Y.

Centre Hall.

Mrs. W. P. Shoop, of Scranton, spent week among friends in Centre Hall.

Miss Lillie Christine, daughter of Rev. C. Christine, former pastor of the Presbyterian charge at this place, but now of Elysburg, Pa., is a guest at the home of Mrs. Mary Odenkirk.

A pleasant birthday surprise party was given Charley Arney, by his wife, last Wednesday evening, about twenty invited guests were present to celebrate the occasion.

Mrs. J. Fred Kurtz and Miss Grace Smith spent several days last week with Miss Ellizabeth Stuart, at State College. Isaac Smith, of Altoona, and his son James, of Williamsport, spent last week at their home, at this place. Mrs. Charles Meyer, of Millersburg, Pa., is visiting at the home of her parents, Capt. and Mrs. G. M. Boal. P. O. Stiver, editor and proprietor of the "Freeport Bulletin," of Freeport, Ill., accompanied by his wife, spent last week with his aged mother, Mrs. Mary Stiver, in this place, from here they went to Bellefonte, where they will remain some time with his sister, Mrs. E. J. Ward.

Postmaster G. M. Boal, was confined to his bed all last week, suffering from a severe attack of dysentery, but is now able to attend to his duties again. Reube Spangler and wife, of Hastings, Pa., arrived Saturday on a visit to his father, ex-sheriff John Spangler. The schools opened Monday with a good attendance. The corps of teachers for the term are: Prof. Ilgen, of the High school; James B. Strohm, gravamar; F. A. Foreman, second grade;

Miss Anna Bartholomew, primary. The evaporator plant, at the station, began operation on Monday. Owing to the large amount of apples blown off the trees by the storm a few weeks ago. The crops will not be a large one. John VanPelt, of Hastings, Pa., came home last week to take in the picnic, and spend a few days with his grand-parents, ex-sheriff and Mrs. John Spangler.

Dr. George Krumbine left Tuesday for Beech Creek, Pa., where he has located, and will practice medicine. Dr. Krumbine passed a creditable examination before the State Medical Board sometime ago, and is sure to meet with the success he deserves in his new field. Clem Deininger left Monday morning for Colorado Springs, Colo., where he expects to secure employment. Miss Laura Runkle, of Middleburg, was a guest at the home of D. K. Geiss last week. Rev. J. M. Rearick left Wednesday for New Berlin to attend Lutheran Synod which is in session at that place. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Foster, of Mifflinburg, visited at the home of Mrs. Mary Odenkirk last week. J. B. Fleisher, of Jamestown, N. J. arrived Tuesday, and on Saturday will offer at public sale the farms of his father, the late Daniel Fleisher, near Tusseyville. Rev. and Mrs. D. J. Wolf and little son, of Walkersville, Md., are visiting at the home of Mrs. Wolf's parents, Mr.

and Mrs. Alfred Durst. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kurtz will move their household effects to Bellefonte next Miss Gertrude Keichline, of Rock week, which place they will make their 'Iournal." formerly published by his brother William, who died August 24th.

That plant in consequence is now offered at private sale. Aaronsburg.

Hub Shoemaker, of Shamokin, visited his aunt, Mrs. Dr. Deshler, on Wes Main street, several days last week.

John Rupp and wife, of State College, visited the gentleman's mother here last week. Mrs. Edna Herman was down from State College several days last week.

When she left for home she was accompanied by Miss Carolina Knarr, who expects to spend the winter there. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Forster, of Mifflinburg, were the guests of Mrs. Forster, in our town last week. Messrs Cal. and George Weaver, accompanied by their families, spent Sunday last among friends and relatives in Miss Dillie Mertz, of Northumberland, is back at her uncles again assisting him in the store. She is an obliging saleswoman and Mr. Philips did not make a mistake in securing her valuable services. B. F. Edmunds, who had been visiting his family here for several days, left for Windber, Pa, last week, accompanied by his danghter Annie, and Miss Adaline Wilkins, who expect to make their home there.

to-day (Thursday.)

days last week.

Harvest Home services held in the Reformed church on last Sunday morning were largely attended, and the services throughout were very impressive; the church was beautifully decorated with potted plants and all manner of fruit and presented a very nice appearance. Another pleasing feature of the service was the music rendered by the choir, and last but by no means least the excellent contribution, which amounted to nearly $90. Some of our boys will accompany the Spring Mills.

Millheim Band to the Lewisburg fair

R. W. Neese, of Auburn, N. Y., is home visiting his mother and sisters. D. H. Ruhl will have public sale of his livery stock.

W. H. Smith has purchased the home of John Heckman's estate. John Breon will quit farming next spring. R. D. Musser will move on the

Drew Shires was seriously ill a few

M. L. Smith and Major Huss, of Johnstown, spent last week here with their many friends and attending the picnic. Mrs. Samuel Condo is down with typhoid fever. Another new case, Bob Kennely.

For foot-wear C. A. Krape has all the latest styles of shoes

WHY!

You should by all means See Us before you make your Fall Clothing purchases. You will hear all sorts of claims coming from all kinds of stores and merchants. One will claim cheap goods, the other largest assortment and best goods, etc., etc.

CONSIDER THEM ALL

See if they can Substantiate their claims, make comparisons, visit one and then the other, and then spend your money where good judgment tells you it is to your advantage.

We Want Your Business

Providing we Merit it...

We know that Our Stock is Many Times Larger than any you will find shown in Bellefonte. We know that every dollars worth

Enormous Stock

Was Bought for Cash and at the Lowest Prices possible. We know that we are showing a better grade of Ready-to-Wear Clothing than you will see in any other store in Bellefonte. We realize that to get your business we must Save You Money. We can and will do it. We ask you to Give us a Call and

See for Yourself

Compare our goods. Compare our prices with what you will find in other stores, an honest comparison we are certain will not only give us your business but will undoubtedly Save you Money.

A call is all we ask, our goods and our prices will do the rest. TRY US.

M. Fauble & Son

Brockerhoff House Block,

BELLEFONTE, PA.