

CORRESPONDENTS DEPARTMENT

The News Gathered From Various Sections.

HAPPENINGS IN CENTRE CO

What Our Army of Alert Correspondents See and Observe Worthy of Note—The Local Happenings of Every Community.

Howard.

George Bechdel, of Walker, cut his foot last Saturday and was taken to the Williamsport hospital.

Miss Lydia Rothamel, of Williamsport, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Reuben Lucas.

Mr. Larimer, of Bellefonte, had a car load of very fine potatoes here last week.

Oscar Lucas, of Altoona, visited here over Sunday.

Alvie Werick, who is employed at the Altoona shops, stopped off here last Saturday while on his way to Johnsbury.

W. P. Lucas and wife attended the Hastings-Hickok wedding.

Misses Essie Butler and Adda Confer visited friends at Mill Hall and Lock Haven last Friday and Saturday.

Charles Robb and wife passed through here last Wednesday, enroute to Mr. Robb's home at Romola where a grand reception was given them by his parents. Over 50 guests were present.

Miss Josephine Henderson, who has been very poorly with typhoid fever, is much better.

Rev. Latshaw and wife, of Port Matilda, attended the Epworth League convention at this place.

Edward Henderson and wife, of Windber, were here last week attending the funeral of Mr. Henderson's father.

Lawyer McCormick and wife, of Lock Haven attended the funeral of Alex Henderson.

Hunter Thomas, who has been employed at Tyrone last year, is visiting his mother.

James Lucas, of Clearfield, is visiting his mother, Mrs. Hiram Lucas.

Any person wishing to purchase the Philadelphia Record or Press, can secure the same by calling at W. E. Confer's shop, where he has them for sale at all times.

HOWARD NO 2

The Epworth League Convention held in the M. E. church on Tuesday and Wednesday of the past week was a success. Many from a distance were in attendance.

Mrs. Marius Miner is visiting friends at Easton, N. Y.

Miss Emma Hockman, of Hecla, who had been clerking in Dietz Bakery, this place, for some time, returned home on Sunday for a two weeks vacation.

Miles Ertle made a flying trip home, from Altoona, on his wheel, on Thursday.

Mrs. C. C. Lucas returned home from Moshannon, where she has been visiting friends for the past two weeks.

Mr. John Gross and wife, of Tioga county is visiting his sister, Mrs. John Thompson.

Mr. and Mrs. Michael Confer returned home, recently, after spending a couple of weeks among friends at Watsonstown.

J. H. Wetzel, of Bellefonte, candidate for assembly, was in town looking up his many friends.

Potatoes are coming to town by the carloads. Sold from the car for 50 cts. per bushel.

Some kind-hearted lads broke in the butcher shop, this place, one night the past week and carried away about a quarter of the very best beef.

Houses are in demand in our town now. One dozen more houses would not be sufficient.

Oak Hall.

Mrs. Hamer and Mrs. Files, and son of Philipsburg, and Mrs. Martha Holter and daughter Anna, of Howard, were recent visitors at the home of Mrs. Win. Kaup.

Mrs. Johnson attended the Hastings-Hickok wedding last week.

Mrs. Henrietta Dale and daughter Miss Anna were entertained by Mrs. Armstrong on Thursday.

Clement Dale transacted business at Bellefonte on Monday.

Miss Dora Rudy, of State College, called on her friend Miss Anna Dale, on Friday. She was on her way to Boalsburg to attend Miss Segner's party.

W. H. Close expects to sell his farming implements at public sale, on Saturday 27th, and will engage in the mercantile business. This is quite a boom for our town as at present we are without a store.

W. O. Dougherty, of Pine Hall, was in town on Saturday he was accompanied home by Messrs Charles Douglass and Harry Dougherty.

Quite a number of our young people attended a birthday party given by Mr. and Mrs. Segner, at Boalsburg, on Friday evening in honor of their daughter Phronie. They report a very pleasant time.

Mrs. John Musser and daughter, Mrs. Milton Krebs, of Pine Grove Mills, were visitors in town on Friday.

Mrs. E. B. Peters was to Boalsburg on Friday.

Mrs. P. S. Dale and daughter spent Tuesday at Bellefonte.

Daniel Korman, who has been ill for some time, is able to be around again.

Ed. Sellars and family expect to move to Centre Hall on the 1st of Nov. We are sorry to have them leave as they have been residents of our town for about fourteen years.

Mrs. David Glasgow, of near Tusseyville, was a guest at the home of her parents Mr. and Mrs. C. Kline, on Monday.

MOHAWK CATARRH CURE.

Cheapest and Best.
Cures Catarrh in from 3 to 10 days.
Cures Cold in the Head, 5 to 15 minutes.
Cures Headache, 1 to 5 minutes.
Securely packed, with full instructions, by mail, postage paid, etc.
Try it and you will be more than pleased with the investment. Your money back if you are dissatisfied. "Stamps taken."
110 MOHAWK REMEDY CO., Rome, N.Y.

Nittany.

Mrs. Hettie Tate is visiting some of her children in Tyrone.

Mrs. Frances Poorman and children, of Bells Landing, Clearfield county, spent last week visiting some of her friends through here.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Dorman are rejoicing over the arrival of a daughter at their place.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Rossman, of Howard, were visiting many friends, at this place, over Sunday.

Mrs. Thomas Bartley, of near Lamar, visited her sister, Mrs. Dan Dorman, on Monday.

Perry Webber was home on Sunday to see his family.

B. F. Shaffer purchased a fine young colt last week, from N. C. Shaffer.

S. Peck has the lumber on the ground where one of his houses burned last summer, and will rebuild.

James Nolen, of Walker, passed through our town this week one day.

Several of our boys were up to that Beautiful Zion Sunday night, some attraction draws them.

G. E. Snively came home Saturday night, and is making good use of his gun.

Mrs. B. F. Guiser and George Tolbert visited friends, at Clintondale, one day last week.

W. E. Shaffer purchased a fine young horse last week, which he intends for a driver.

Frank Bartley and wife, of Flemington, visited the latter's father, John Minnick, this week.

We noticed David Young, of Crossfork, on our streets one day this week.

Charles Shaffer, one of our school boys, went out on Monday evening after school with his gun and returned with two fine coons and a pheasant. Who can beat that?

Corman Yearick returned home on Monday evening with fifteen squirrels; hows that for a days hunt.

Cleave Bierly and Ed. Ohi, two of Clintondale's sports, were in our town Monday evening on special business.

We were favored with a good rain Saturday night and Sunday, but we wont mention the boys that got home so late.

Oscar Long came home on Monday for a week's hunt, after which he will return to Clearfield county, where he has been working.

Robert Border left on Monday for Harrisburg where he has secured a good position. We wish him success.

Our people are attending the fair this week, while some of our sports are putting in the week hunting.

Mrs. Jessie McKibben, of Hublersburg, visited her parents here last week.

J. H. Beck and daughter, Helen, drove to Lock Haven on Monday on business.

We are sorry to state that A. A. Fletcher is nursing a very sore hand at present, so much so that he was't able to teach on Monday.

The infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Rossman was buried on Monday; age 1 year, 4 months, 9 days.

Mrs. Bob Cramer is spending the week visiting her parents in Milesburg, and will also take in the fair.

Aaronsburg.

Mrs. John Duncan and Miss Maggie Duncan, from Lewisburg, the latter lady formerly of Millheim, spent a few days with Mrs. Frances Forster.

Mrs. Dr. Emerick and Mrs. Martha Lose, from Centre Hall, are the guests of Eveline Musser and other friends in our burg.

F. Lambert and Jesse Wert, from town, attended Mrs. Jno. Rossman's funeral at Penns Cave.

Miss Polly Stover is no better. Johnny Bright is improving some but is still a very sick boy. Mrs. Diana Haflly is quite sick with kidney trouble.

Rev. Lewis Edmunds is leaving his many friends this Thursday.

Master David Rupp, from Feldler, is going to make his future home at L. E. Stover's.

Dr. D. K. Musser was home over Sunday; always glad to see him.

Harry Weber, of Lock Haven, recently spent a day with his brother Stewart.

James Holloway and wife and Mrs. A. S. Stover and son Paul are taking in the county fair a few days.

Corn husking and applebutter boiling are all the go in our town just now.

Rev. T. W. Brown took a day off to visit in Brush valley.

Wm. B. Mingle, the cashier, and wife and Mrs. Thos. Yearick, from Centre Hall, spent Saturday in our town among their many friends.

Miss Lida Brooks and Mr. Bilger, of Pleasant Gap, are paying their annual visit to Miss Jennie Hall on North 2nd street.

Warren Beaver, our crack blacksmith, bought the Samuel Brown home on North 2nd street.

Spring Mills.

The sick have almost recovered.

Rain, rain has gladdened the hearts of most every one.

Charles Madera has harvested about ten bushels of chestnuts. For some he reaped ten cents per qt.

Mrs. Sallie Heckman expects to move to Millburg in a short time.

J. O. Beaty will start in the livery business. Mr. Beaty is a good horse man and knows what a good turnout is. Success to you.

Jacob Hazel had one of the finest fields of corn in the valley.

The time for butchering will soon be here; D. P. Heckman is the man who knows how to do it.

J. I. Condo is kept busy in his shop turning out new carpets.

Mrs. Wolf returned from the eastern cities with a fine line of fall and winter hats. Give her a call.

There has arrived a new boarder at John Graden's house.

Peter Auman is busy painting and hanging paper.

E. H. Grove

This signature is on every box of the genuine Laxative Bromo-Quinine Tablets the remedy that cures a cold in one day

Linden Hall.

Mrs. Kline and two daughters, of Missouri, are visiting her brothers, James and John Ross, of this place.

Miss Katie Fehl, who has been ill with typhoid fever, for some time, is slowly improving.

A severe storm passed over our community on Tuesday.

Henry Zeigler and family attended the funeral of his sister, Mrs. John Rossman, of Farmers Mills, on Tuesday.

Miss Tamer Shirk is convalescing from a severe attack of dysentery.

Some of the young people of this place attended the birthday surprise party held in honor of Miss Sophronia Segner, of Boalsburg, last Friday evening, and report a very pleasant time. Miss Segner was the recipient of many valuable and handsome presents.

James Swabb, our champion hunter, shot six gray squirrels and a pheasant the first day of the season.

A young democrat arrived at the home of Lucien Spicher recently, and Mr. Spicher wears a broad smile, which spreads from ear to ear every time he is called "grandpa."

The dedicatory services of Saturday and Sunday were greatly hindered by the glorious downfall of rain. Rev. Bumgardner, of Buffalo, and Rev. Brown, of Spring Mills, preached very excellent sermons on Saturday and Sunday. Services will be continued during this week.

Coon hunting is quite lively in the mountains around our little town, and quite a number have been caught. Charlie Smith and Lee Brooks wear the belt so far, having caught the largest number in one night.

Howard Zeigler, east of town, had quite a streak of luck in the financial line last week and he tells us he is thinking seriously of buying a farm. He had made a large bet with some young men of this place which he won. Mr. Zeigler is an industrious young man and well deserving of success. We extend our hearty congratulations to him.

Runville.

Hello! Here we are, as successor to Duwell & Co.

Theodore Hoy, teacher of the Runville school, spent Sunday at his home at Walker.

Mrs. Ellen Witherite living near the foot of the Allegheny Mts., while cleaning house, killed a large snake found under one of the beds.

Rain has done great damage to the grain fields, this last week.

Some women, here, are very fond of seeing ghosts. One woman sat up all night watching a ghost play by the school house window. All take warning.

Who am I? Where am I? What am I? How am I?

The sale of Thomas Griffith was well attended on Wednesday.

Our blacksmith is quite sandy since he found that box of sand by his shop door lately.

A. S. Williams and son, from Port Matilda, visited at E. R. Hancock's this week.

Jno Crock and Willis Poorman have taken the Crider tract of timber to cut for William Shirk.

William Shirk has purchased a large sawmill which he is adding to the site of his shingle mill.

Moshannon.

Mrs. Jennie Viehdorfer has been spending some time with friends and relatives at Pine Glen.

Mr. Waite, teacher of the primary school, made a short visit to his home in Bellefonte, during the past week.

R. K. Bierly has quit driving team for J. T. Lucas and secured a job on the railroad.

William Lucas spent a few days in Bellefonte this week.

Mr. Confer has added quite a convenience to his property by digging a well.

John P. Lucas left on Tuesday for Howard where he will spend a few weeks with his brother, C. C. Lucas, in the store.

Minnie Culver has been sick the past week.

J. Minniss Johnson, of Baltimore, Md., delivered his famous pictorial talk, entitled "Pilgrim's Progress," in the M. E. church at this place on Monday evening. It was very interesting and instructive and certainly worth hearing.

Zion.

Mrs. Jacob Nestlerode, of Madisonburg, and her son William, of Freeport, Ill., were the guests of William Shaffer, over Sunday.

Miss Fannie Shaffer spent Sunday, at Pleasant Gap, with her friend Miss Minnie Showers.

N. C. Shaffer, of Nittany, spent Sunday, p. m., with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Shaffer.

There were no services in the Evangelical church, on Sunday evening, owing to the inclemency of the weather.

C. N. Fisher has resumed his former position at the club house again.

Miss Lulu Bechtel being afflicted with typhoid fever returned to her home in Jacksonville, last week.

Miss Angie Dorman is at present engaged at the club house.

It is reported that Lyman Bickle, and son John, are afflicted with typhoid fever.

There will be communion services in the Lutheran church next Sunday, Oct. 21.

Hublersburg.

VONADA-GUISER:—A pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Vonada near Hublersburg, on the evening of Oct. 17th, when their daughter Jennie was united in marriage to J. Harvey Guiser, of near Mingoville. Promptly at 7 o'clock the wedding march was played when the contracting parties appeared before their pastor, Rev. H. I. Crow, and were pronounced man and wife. Friends of both families to the number of 36 were present to witness the ceremony. All then proceeded to the dining room where a bountiful feast awaited them. The bride was the recipient of many beautiful and useful presents. Friday morning the bride and groom started on their wedding trip. They start life together with the best wishes of a host of friends.

Rebersburg.

F. Pierce Erhard and wife and his son-in-law, Crawford Loudenslayer and his wife, all of Millburg, who were at Cyrus Erhard's during the last week, left for Millburg on Tuesday morning.

Cyrus Erhard, who died on Friday morning after a few days illness, of a paralytic stroke, was buried on Monday morning in the Lutheran and Reformed cemetery. The services were conducted by Rev. Rearick, of Centre Hall, one of his former pastors. The funeral was large; age 56 y., 1 mo., 17 days.

L. B. Frank, who is John Harter's new clerk, while lifting one way or the other, he sprained his left leg on Monday morning and he is obliged to wait on the customers with a cane.

Clyde Erhard, of Gypsum, Ohio, came home on Saturday to attend the funeral of his father, Cyrus. On Tuesday he left for Ohio where he has been for a number of years.

Sheriff Cyrus Brungard, of Bellefonte, was in our burg shaking hands with his relatives and old friends on Monday. Sheriff Brungard is a man who can shake hands just as well after the election as before. Ha! Ha! So can Bryan.

Jacob Brungard and wife, Samuel Brungard and wife, Henry Brungard and wife, and Luther Brungard and wife, all of near Salona, were at the funeral of their brother-in-law, Cyrus Erhard, on Monday.

William Walker, who died suddenly on Sunday evening, was buried Wednesday morning.

The new and young Lutheran pastor, who left our burg few weeks ago to attend the Lutheran Synod, at New Berlin, Pa., as we were informed, to the people's surprise, he also attended what we would denominate a matrimonial synod in the state of Indiana. We wish them a long and happy life.

Our farmers are busy husking their good corn crops. A few are done already.

Some attended the new Centre county fair.

Our people could easily hear that the hunting season opened on Monday. Some of our expert hunter's did real well.

When we look upon the counters' of our stores we can easily see that the proprietors have been in the city last week. Something new and fresh is what the consumer always likes to buy.

Mrs. Charles Smull, who had sprained her back recently, is again able to move about.

Runville.

Mrs. J. F. Kelley and children, Berl, Esther and Edward, of Amhurst, Westmoreland county, visited friends at this place last week.

E. R. Hancock is building a buggy-shed and corn crib.

The corn is not a half crop through here, owing to the dry weather.

The recent rains have washed the grain fields very badly in this place.

L. J. Heaton returned home Saturday from Curry Run, where he has been working for the past month.

Thos. Quick has returned home from Letonia where he had been visiting his daughter.

Mrs. James McClincy, of Fleming, visited friends at this place over Sunday.

Mrs. Erhard, of Fleming, Sundayed at Joseph Iddings.

On last Saturday night the democratic meeting was held at this place and was well attended considering the rainy night. The speakers were C. M. Bower and Thomas Sexton, of Bellefonte.

Oran Poorman wears a smile all over his face, since that 12 pound boy arrived at his home to stay.

Morgan Lucas had a cow killed on Saturday night, by the train.

Two young ladies called on a couple of young men one evening last week and staid a little late thinking the young men would see them safely home so they would not need have fear of the black man, but the young men did not take the hint. The cats ought to get after such fellows. "Ha! Ha!"

Walker.

The burial of Alex Henderson, of Howard, took place on Saturday morning in the Presbyterian cemetery.

Mrs. Smith, of Pittsburg, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Ghast.

Miss Della Garbrick has returned home from Lock Haven, where she spent several weeks.

Mrs. Yarnell, of Mingoville, is visiting her daughter Mrs. Wm. Lowry.

M. S. Betz is able to be out again after being confined to the house for several weeks with intermittent fever.

Miss Erma Ertle, of Windber, is visiting her parents at this place.

The woods are ringing with shot from the sports' rifles, after the wild turkey.

Thos. B. Hoy, of Runville, was in our vicinity on Sunday.

Percival Kling, of Altoona, visited his parents at this place.

Sugar Valley.

Howard Stamm harvested a big yield of potatoes last week. From three acres of land he raised three hundred bushels.

Emanuel Huber sold twenty tall pine trees to Edgar Holt on Tuesday at six dollars each. Forty-five years ago he bought bigger trees at fifty cents each.

John Zellers and his two children gathered six bushels of chestnuts in Fox hollow last week. They sold half of them at 15 cents per quart to parties in Jersey Shore.

Catharine Miller, widow of Joel Miller, formerly of Logan Mills, died Monday morning at the home of her daughter, Mrs. H. H. Boone, in Greene township. Age 75 years.

If You Have Money to Burn...

Then of course it makes no difference where you buy your clothing,

BUT

If you care to save money. If you attach any value whatever to your dollars. If you want your hard earned dollars to buy you the most, the best possible, then

YOU MUST SEE US.

In as a few words as possible, making it as plain as we can, we have this to tell you:

We Can, We Will

Positively save you not less than 25 per cent. on every clothing purchase you make of us. If you give us but five minutes of your time you will be convinced and naturally profit by the visit.

See us is all we ask

ASK YOUR GROCER FOR Ralston The 5 Minute Breakfast Food. Purina Health Flour "Makes" "BRAIN BREAD." PURINA MILLS, St. Louis, Mo.

M. Fauble & Son, Brockerhoff House Block, BELLEFONTE, PA.