UNCLE SHOT HIS NEPHEWS.

One Instantly Killed and Another Believed to Be Dying—Murderer Fled to the Mountains—Sisters Accidentally Shot by Hunters.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., Oct. 30.—A shooting affray occurred at Sweet Valley, this county, yesterday, which may result in a double murder. As it is, one man is dead, Josiah White, a 60-year-old farmer, visited the home of his nephews, Joseph, James and Everett White. There was trouble between the uncle and nephews over the ownership of some property. They had gone to law about the matter and it worried the uncle. When they met yesterday a quarrel started. The old man pulled out a revolver and began firing at the nephews. One bullet entered the heart of Joseph White and he dropped dead on the floor. Another ball pierced the right lung of James, whose recovery is doubtful. The third nephew, Everett, escaped from the room before the uncle could fire at him. The murderer fled to the mountains, and a posse is in pursuit.

New Move For Carnegie Company.

Pittsburg, Oct. 31.—A story is published here to the effect that the Carnegie Steel company intends to invade the sheet steel business by manufacturing this product at their Duquesne works. It is said that steel sheets will be turned out by the Carnegie company within six months, and that the plans for the proposed work are being rushed into the sheet business it will come into competition with the sheet combine, a concern organized nearly a year ago with a capital of $52,000,000 and owning a number of mills all over the country.

Killed His Wife and Himself.

Reading, Pa., Oct. 31.—The sequel to the shocking murder of young Mrs. Keffer was developed yesterday, when the dead body of her husband, Charles Keffer, aged 28, was discovered between two Reading railroad cars in the southern section of the city. Between his legs lay the same revolver with which he had shot his wife. In his pocket was a letter addressed to his mother. In it he confesses the shooting, but says he did it while out of his mind. He begs for forgiveness, and asks that he and his wife be buried together.

Sisters Accidentally Shot by Hunters.

Hollidaysburg, Pa., Oct. 31.—Mary and Martha Hasenstab, who live near East Freedman, were accidentally shot yesterday by two hunters. The young women were husking corn, and were hidden from view by bushes along a road. The hunters, on the lookout for small game, hearing a rustling noise behind the bushes fired their guns, and instantly there arose a cry from the sisters. The men, probably becoming frightened, ran away and their identity is unknown. The young girls are in a precarious condition.

Two of White's Murderers Convicted.

Philadelphia, Oct. 27.—Charles Perry, the second of the three negroes charged with the murder of Professor Roy Wilson, the young law instructor of the University of Pennsylvania, was last night convicted of murder in the first degree. Henry Ivory was found guilty three days ago. Amos Stirling yet remains to be tried. Professor White was murdered and robbed on the night of May 19, and the three negroes were arrested a few days later.
