Let each district strive for the honor. —Isaac Reish, several years occupant on the Con. Struble farm, in College township, will quit the occupation of his life, and the farm will have his son as tenant hereafter. —Although the weather has been more like spring than fall the past three weeks yet people generally would prefer having it more winterlike thinking the time of year is here for it. —George W. Musser, of Tyrone, had seventy-five chickens entered at the Centre county fair this year. They were judged on their merits and seventy-four of the birds drew prizes. —At Wednesday, 24, afternoon's session of the Methodist convention at Harrisburg, Mrs. Daniel H. Hastings, of Bellefonte, read an interesting paper on "Women's Work in the Local Churches." —The ladies of the Presbyterian church, of Unionville, will serve a chicken and waffle supper in the lower room of the church, Friday evening, Nov. 2nd. Tickets 25 cents. Proceeds for benefit of church. —The ladies of the Lutheran church are preparing a variety of fine articles for the needle work bazaar they will hold in the W. C. T. U. rooms, on the afternoon and evening of November 8th, and 9th. They will serve ice cream and cake and oysters in every style from 5 to 10 p. m. You are cordially invited. —Bellefonte nimrods are having fair success and bring a fair show of game to town. At Centre Hall Chas. Arney is up head again for bagging grey squirrels, as we learn, and next he will have a head score on cotton tails and yellow rabbits. Send in your scores to the Democrat during the season (or the game, if you choose) and we will immortalize you as crack marksmen. —The Ladies Aid Society, of the Presbyterian Church of Boalsburg, will hold a social in their hall, (formerly the Methodist Church) on Saturday evening, Nov. 3rd. They will entertain their friends, with music, recitations, and a contest called, a Floral Masquerade, after which refreshments will be served. Come, bring all your friends, and spend a pleasant evening. Admission, 10cts. —Bellefonte had quite a militaryish treat last week and this. On Thursday of last week the survivors of the 4th P. V. held their annual re-union in this place, and had a pleasant time lasting over the following day with Bellefonte's accustomed hearty welcome thrown in, and it never does things by halves in that line. On Tuesday the surviving boys of the 110th P. V. held their re-union here, with about 50 in number, and also had a pleasant time. Upon both occasions old war incidents were recalled, addresses delivered and stereopticon exhibitions given at their sessions. The old soldier boys can come again and again and will always be greeted with the warmest Bellefonte welcome.

—Maurie Otto left Tuesday for Niagara Falls. —"Where is Cobb?"—at the Opera House on Monday evening. It is worth seeing. —The first blowing for the season was made at the Bellefonte glass works on Saturday. —Occasional contributions are coming in for the monument fund. This week $11 was received. —Ex-Gov. Daniel Hastings returned home Monday from his campaign tour of the western states. —The deer hunting season opens to day. A number of Bellefonte sports are now in the mountains. —Spring Mills is to have another livery of which George Mowery, formerly of Centre Hall will be the proprietor. —Our old friend Wm. Colyer, of Centre Hall, has been laid up again lately. He is one of the most enterprising men over there. —Our friend S. B. Miller, of East Linn street, is laid up with a lame foot. He cut it with an axe while hewing timber some time ago. —Centre county hunters are having fair success in bagging quail, pheasants and rabbits—we know it, having dined on some of the game. —Joseph V. Runkle, in the employ of the National Steel Plant at Youngstown, Ohio, was called here by the serious illness of his brother Charlie. —C. M. Bower, Col. Willbur F. Reeder and W. E. Gray were Bellefonte attorneys who had business before the Superior court in Philadelphia last week. —In the Lutheran church last Sabbath morning, Rev. Dr. Holliday delivered an interesting discourse, subject, The 350th Anniversary of the Reformation. —Lyman H. Mr. Donachy, the foreman, thinks they have every department moving along nicely and that the working force will be increased. —After the election is over it is our intention to give our patrons a let-up on politics for a spell. At the present time it is the proper thing for the people to read all that is pertinent to the campaign, so that they may be able to vote intelligently and for their best interests. —Still some corn to husk notwithstanding Providence gave every opportunity, by providing most favorable weather to finish up, and such as are caught napping may have trusted the Almighty beyond reason, for in providing good weather, he does not mean to do the husking too. —Last Saturday State College football team played the famous Duquesne team of Pittsburg, and met with another crushing defeat. The score this time was 29 to 0. State never got nearer to the visitor's line than 15 yards. Other teams have met about the same fate who play the Pittsburg lads. —Two of our churches had an agreeable surprise last Sabbath evening—Rev. Dr. Laurie occupied the pulpit of Rev. Bickle of the Reformed church, and the latter discoursed from the pulpit of the former in the Presbyterian church, neither congregation losing in sound doctrine ably expounded. A willingness to exchange pulpits is evidence of a true Christian spirit. —Manager Garman announces that the next two attractions billed for the opera house are far above the average entertainments, and is willing to bank his reputation on them. He insists that the people of this community will have the opportunity of seeing rare productions on both occasions. Sipe's animal show comes on Saturday, and "Where is Cobb," on Monday evening.

We live in an age of progress, and science moves the universe of thought, so does experience move the world of amusements. With the knowledge of this fact before us, and believing that the public will rally to the support of a thoroughly artistic and meritorious production, we take pleasure in inviting your attention and consideration to the exceedingly laughable comedy, "Where is Cobb". It possesses all the requirements of success, pushed along by able management in every department, assisted by a strong cast, impersonating interesting characters. It is full of excellent comedy qualities, and a varied assortment of strong comedy characters. It is extremely funny, not only in spots, but from start to finish. At the opera house, Monday evening, November 5th. Pony Show. The "fifty-horse act," under direction of Master Eddie Sipe, is one of the many features of the Sipe Educated Animals and Lilliputian shows, which will be at Garmans Opera House, Bellefonte, on Saturday Nov. 3, matinee and night. Of course the "horses" are handsome diminutive ponies of which this concern has the largest and most costly collection ever gotten together in this country. The intelligent little animals obey with marvelous understanding every command of the big ring director, and enter into their work with such zest and spirit that one can well believe that they have a lively affection for their little trainer and school master. It is only one of a hundred big features with this novel attraction. Beech Creek Child Scalded. Ethel Robbins, of Beech Creek, accidentally pulled a kettle of hot water over her person. She was severely scalded on the chest, arms and back. She was taken to the Williamsport hospital. WILLIAM DEWEY:—A highly esteemed citizen of South Philipsburg, died at his home in that place Tuesday evening about 6 o'clock of heart trouble brought on by an attack of typhoid fever. The deceased was aged 41 years. He was born near State College, where most of his life was spent.

WAGES TO GO UP.

A recent dispatch dated Des Moines, Ia., says: Judge Olmstead, wholesale boot and shoe dealer, told his traveling men that should Bryan win he would shut down his plant and they could look for jobs elsewhere. J. R. Laycock, a capitalist and experienced boot and shoe man, said today: "I have organized a company to engage in the wholesale boot and shoe business, the same as is now conducted by Bentley & Olmstead. In the event of Bryan's election I will employ all of Olmstead's men at an advance of ten per cent. over the wages they now receive." Associated with Mr. Laycock in the new company are: Mayor J. J. Harlelower, of Des Moines; J. B. Romans, of Denison, and J. R. Morell, of Newton, who can furnish a million dollars capital if required. A Fiend's Act. Last Thursday morning when Clayton Spankle, son of George Spankle, who lives near Trade City, Indiana county, went to the barn he observed that the feed box connected with the stall in which he keeps his horse was covered with blood. Upon investigation he found that the horse's tongue had been cut off, or nearly so, merely hanging by a shred of skin. The tongue had been drawn out and cut off at the root. It was put in place and sewed on, and some hopes are entertained that it will unite. Deb's Prophecy. Eugene V. Debs, Social Democratic candidate for president, predicts a panic if he isn't elected. He says: "Imperialism and expansion do not interest the workingman in any way. If the questions were settled as the Republican party would settle them or as the Democratic party is urging that they be settled, the workingman's condition will still be one of economic bondage. I want to tell you that whether McKinley or Bryan is elected a panic greater than this country has ever known is coming just as sure as you are here tonight." Two More Water Companies. Application has been made by Messrs Samuel H. Hicks, James I. Higbee, J. Thompson Baker, W. Scott Halfpenny and Ira M. Higbee for a charter for the East Buffalo Water Company, the purpose of which is to supply water to the people of East Buffalo township. The same incorporators also ask for another charter for the Kelly Water Company, which desires to furnish water to the public in Kelley township.—Lewisburg Journal. Bucknell-State Football. The annual Bucknell State football game is to be played in Williamsport on Saturday, Nov. 3. The day will be a holiday for Williamsport and vicinity. The first stitch is perfect, without holding ends of thread. The finest goods are not drawn or puckered. Owing to rotary motion it makes less noise than other machines. Tension released by pressure of a button. Thread can be cut off within quarter of an inch of the needle if work is taken out at right time. The face plate can be taken off by merely loosening a thumb-nut, enabling the operator to oil and clean the parts without displacing them. Feed motions all positive—no springs used—hence machine will feed over all thicknesses of goods without chewing the cloth no matter what the length of stitch. Sara C. Brickley, Cor. Spring & Bishop, Bellefonte, Pa.
