HAPPENINGS IN CENTRE CO

What Our Army of Alert Correspondents See and Observe Worthy of Note—The Local Happenings of Every Community.

Port Matilda.

G. W. Gill and son Thomas, of Locust Mills, passed Flat Rock one day this week returning from attending the funeral of the former's brother-in-law, William Williams, who died at Loch Loman, with typhoid fever.

S. R. Pringle is operating an extensive job on the Allegheny mountain near Flat Rock, cutting paper wood, railroad ties and mine props for the hard coal regions; a rare chance for men out of employment.

William Knepp and family have moved from Mt. Pleasant to near Wallacetown, Clearfield county.

The farmers are busy gathering in their cattle from off the Allegheny mountain, all of which are in good condition.

Our vicinity is infested with hunters from Philipsburg and elsewhere, some of whom have been quite lucky in killing both wild and tame turkeys.

Harry Thompson and wife, of Huntingdon, visited relatives in town a few days last week.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Woodruff returned to their home in Blandburg, after a two weeks' visit to their parents, in this place.

Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Price are at home after spending part of last week with friends in Clearfield county.

Rev. G. W. Downing, wife and daughter, spent part of the past week with friends in Altoona.

The Epworth League will hold an entertainment in the M. E. church, Saturday evening, Nov. 3rd. All are cordially invited.

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Miles have returned to their home in Pittsburg, after spending a few days with friends at their old home.

Charles V. Yeager, of Portage, returned home after having enjoyed a few days visit with friends in this place.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Baer returned to their home in Curwensville, after spending a week with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Osman.

Howard.

Sunday was a big day at the wreck, near this place. The work-train set the wrecked engine on the track with ease. People from a distance as well as nearby witnessed the same.

It is rumored that there are to be three more houses built in our town in the near future. Let the good work go on as there are still more needed.

Samuel Antic and sister Mary are visiting friends in our town at this writing.

John Corman, Sr., formerly a resident of Nittany valley, having moved to Salina, Kansas with his son some twenty years ago, returned last Friday, to make his future home with his daughter, Mrs. Franklin Dietz, of near this place.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip Loder, of Pittsburg, were seen among friends the past week. They came to attend the funeral of his brother, Samuel Loder, at Flemington last Friday.

J. D. Neff, of near Williamsport, was visiting friends in this section the past week.

Do not forget to vote for Wm. J. Bryan—he will be the right man in the right place.

Prof. Geo. Robb and wife, of Altoona, are visiting father and mother at this place.

Mrs. Schird has gone to Harrisburg to visit among friends for a couple of weeks.

The social held in Lucas hall last Saturday evening was well attended.

Everybody follows the crowd and the bakery always has it.

S. P. Hockman, son Johnnie and daughter Emma, of Hecla, and Mrs. R. E. Hockman, of Spring Mills, were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Dietz on Saturday. The former returned home on Sunday evening; Miss Emma and Mrs. Hockman expect to spend a couple of weeks in this section.

Snow Shoe.

H. F. Lucas is working at Mill Hall. Election day is approaching with the usual calmness characteristic to Snow Shoe people on such momentous occasions.

D. B. Lucas and wife made a trip to Niagara recently.

Every state has its attraction, but Pennsylvania has a peculiar attraction of its own for its western friend.

Coal trade here now is like the first snow storms—it comes in flurries.

The intermediate teacher, with her corps of industrialists, recently started a timber job out near Roger Grahams, it is said, but owing to the extremely high price set on chestnut timber, the scheme was abandoned.

A number of our people attended the Centre County Fair and report it very interesting. Some of the young ladies were a little tardy in boarding the train Friday evening. This is very annoying, and should have been avoided.

Mr. Johnson gave us a very nice pictorial talk on Pilgrims' Progress.

The dancers of Snow Shoe and vicinity enjoyed a select dance given at the Haynes hall last Wednesday evening.

F. P. Geary, of Millheim, who is located here at present, expects to return to his native town on Nov. 1st, for the purpose of voting and other purposes too numerous to mention.

E. W. Grove

This signature is on every box of the genuine Laxative Bromo-Quinine Tablets the remedy that cures a cold in one day

Milesburg.

After a silence of several months, your scribe of this place will use the pencil again.

Mrs. Josephine Green, of Altoona, is visiting friends at this place.

Henry Jones and wife, of Renova, are guests of his brother, J. C. P. Jones, at present writing.

Wm. Baird, of Windber, Somerset Co., a prominent young man, in charge of the post office at the above stated place, is now home visiting his parents, Joseph Baird and wife.

On Saturday the 20th Samuel E. McKinley picked up his gun, started for a turkey hunt and after a short walk on the mountain two large ones faced him. Sammy was so much surprised that he forgot his gun until the turkeys used their wings. Poor Sammy was left with his gun in his hands and the turkeys bade him goodby. He is better known as Ide.

On Thursday last Dr. Park, of Centre Hall, passed through our burg on an official trip. We had quite a chat.

John M. Essington, after a short visit home with his mother, returned to Cross Forks, Potter county, his place of business.

Wm., of Scranton, Andrew and Harry, of Berwick, and Adam Gingham, of Howard, came to attend the funeral of their mother, Mrs. Harriet Gingham, who died very suddenly. She was buried at Roland last Saturday.

Mrs. Martha Oswald, of Clarence, died Oct. 3rd, aged 57 years. She leaves a husband and five children to mourn her loss, viz: Mrs. A. Beezer, Mrs. John Franks, George, Raymond and May, also a sister and five brothers.

Mrs. William Smith and children, of Altoona, are visiting friends and relatives here.

Wm. Rase, of Kane, left for his home on Saturday, after a brief visit with his brother-in-law, James McMullin, and attended the reunion of the 49th Reg't at Bellefonte on Thursday.

Two of our young ladies attended themselves in men's clothing on Thursday night, promenaded the streets of the burg, and decorated their upper lip with a beautiful black mustache, putting a masculine appearance on them, but they were known. Girls, your names will not appear this time.

Miss Araminta Johnson of Tyrone, is at present visiting her parents.

Mrs. Rev. Geo. E. King, of Williamsport, is visiting here at the home of Prof. James Gregg and wife.

W. C. Kreamer and wife lost their youngest child, aged 2 years and 6 months, on Saturday. Membranous croup caused its death, interment at Roland.

A flock of 50 wild geese flew over the burg going south last Saturday at 4 p. m.

Rev. Richard Wharton, of the M. E. church, attended the State M. E. Convention at Harrisburg last week.

Julian.

Since the people are getting so anxious concerning my disappearance I guess I will try and relieve their minds by coming to the front again.

Mrs. Susan Bodle was called to Jersey Shore by the serious illness of her son Edward and baby, both being ill with typhoid fever.

Mrs. Mary Austin and daughter Miss Estella, are spending the winter with friends at Lancaster.

Geo. Sonies is the boss hunter around this vicinity, having shot two wild turkeys and several small game. Geo. Campbell shot a turkey, that tipped the scales at twenty-seven pounds.

Rev. and Mrs. Jno. Craig are visiting friends at Steubenville, Ohio, McKeesport and Johnstown. They expect to be gone several months.

Elwood Taylor, of Tyrone, visited friends at Julian last week.

Robert Swisher and daughter, of Wisconsin, are visiting friends at Julian and vicinity. Mr. Swisher left Julian before the civil war and this is his first visit since; his many friends were glad to see him.

Mrs. Jane Bell and son, of Dents Run, are visiting friends at Julian.

Mrs. Jno. McCann, of Tyrone, home last week after a pleasant visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Murray.

Mrs. James Halliwell, of Pittsburg, and Mrs. Barley, of Altoona, visited their sister Mrs. Murphy, last week.

William Bullock left Saturday for Cumberland, Md., where he expects to secure a position.

Verce Henderson, who was formerly the agent at Martha, has secured a better position at Clearfield. Mr. Marks is filling his place at Martha.

Edward Bullock, who is assistant operator on the B. E. V., is quite a young lad to hold such a responsible position, but has a level head. He is the proud possessor of his first pair of long trousers.

Miss Maggie Smay, who left Julian a couple years ago to make her home at Bellefonte, has returned to Julian. She thinks Julian is the best place yet.

Last Saturday evening one of our young ladies was on the war path and on the look-out for John, and had she caught him—woe unto him, but he escaped.

Mrs. William Parsons and children, of Unionville, spent Sunday with her mother at this place.

The Same Everywhere.

The folling item clipped from The Citizen, Toowoomba, Australia, shows that the article mentioned is meeting with the same favor in that far off country as at home.

"I find Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is an excellent medicine. I have been suffering from a severe cough for the last two months, and it has effected a cure. I have great pleasure in recommending it. W. C. Wockner. This is the opinion of one of our oldest and most respected residents, and has been voluntarily given in good faith that others may try the remedy and be benefited, as was Mr. Wockner." This remedy is for sale by Green's Pharmacy.

Nittany.

Miss Clara Weaver, one of Hublersburg's charming young ladies, is living at Frank Minick's of this place.

Miss Minnie Winkleman was home a few days last week trying to have a little vacation and see her many friends; but it was of short duration, she got a call to go to the hospital in Lock Haven as a nurse.

George Fisher came home from the woods last week on account of ill health; we hope he will soon be all right again.

Mrs. Will McKibben, of Mackeyville, spent several days last week with her parents, at this place.

Miss Ellie Tate, our obliging post-mistress, visited her sister Mrs. Harry Stover, of Hublersburg, one day last week.

John Tate and son, of Salona, were the guests of his mother and sister on Sunday.

John Tolbert visited his uncle J. M. Rossman, of Clintondale, one day last week, and took in the literary society, which is being held in the school house at that place.

W. E. Shaffer and wife drove to Howard one day last week, to see the remains of the awful wreck that occurred at that place the Sunday previous.

Dawson said it wasn't his fault he was left on Saturday night a week. Guess he struck the wrong pebble and it wasn't along the beach either.

Read the Centre Democrat and vote for Bryan, and your buckwheat and pumpkins will be good next year.

You ought to see the broad smiles Frank Minick and Harry Tressler have, since those young ladies arrived at their respective homes.

On Saturday evening, Nov. 10, Rev. W. H. Brown, of Spring Mills, will preach in the E. V. church and will also hold communion services. Rev. Brown comes here very highly recommended, and it is hoped he will be greeted with a full house.

Mrs. B. V. Guiser and son Victor, left Friday for Windber, Somerset county, where she will join her husband, who has been working there for some time; their household goods was shipped the week before; she was accompanied by her brother I. W. Tolbert, who expects to work there this winter.

Our coal company struck a soft coal vein of 35 tons in this place, of 8 by 30 feet, and have gone on a strike and will not return to work unless an increase of 10 per cent. is granted; for further information call on Captain Thomas Greninger, Box 176, Nittany, Pa., corner East Rock St., near depot.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee, and Mr. and Mrs. Klinger, two very highly accomplished and pleasant young couples, of Bloomsburg, Pa., spent part of their honeymoon at the hospitable home of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Zerby, they were also royally entertained by the calthumpians on Saturday evening.

Mrs. Tillie Treaster, of Salona, was the guest of her sister-in-law Mrs. Dan Dorman, on Saturday.

J. M. Rossman and wife, of Clintondale, visited friends here one day last week.

We have the champion hunters—two fellows—coming home from hunting, one had a gun the other had an axe. Borche says he could shoot a squirrel if Sam could cut the tree down quick enough before the squirrel would jump.

One of Bill Rossman's fattening hogs died and there is another one sick; it seems to be from a new disease.

Yarnell.

George Brown, who has been ill for some time, isn't improving very rapidly at this writing. All hope for his speedy recovery.

Mrs. Michael Heaton is confined to her bed from the effects of a fall which she received some time ago, but is improving.

Miss Ollie Eckley has been on the sick list the past few days.

Miles Heaton and family were the guests of Lannings Irvin, on Sunday.

Lawrence Craft states that Shawley's new brick house will soon be plastered. Jack knows the evenings are getting too cold to stand outside and entertain his lady.

The farmers are nearly all through husking corn and report a very small crop. The wheat looks promising in this locality.

Since hunting season has come in quite a number of wild turkeys have been killed, and Nicholas Lucas, Jr., seems to be the champion, he having killed five this season.

Rosie R. is all smiles since her father, John K. Rokey, purchased a fine organ for her last week. Her Johnny boy will hear some fine music when he returns from the woods.

W. F. Powell met with a serious misfortune last week, out at Clarence.

Jack Craft is home for a while on account of the Snow Shoe mines not running their full capacity.

T. W. Croft made his usual trip to Fairview Saturday night.

William Eckley, who is cooking for Sliker and Spart, was home over Sunday.

Sylvester Heaton is going to Johnstown, where he has secured employment for the winter.

Edward Heaton is moving on the farm vacated by his brother Jacob, who intends to go to the woods and keep shanty for Mr. Herwit.

Protracted meeting will soon commence again in the Baptist church and will be conducted by Rev. Houck.

Joint. Shawley says it is a good place to go to watch for wild turkeys up at Craft's fields, but he seems to go Saturday evening and watch all night.

Blaine Rocky is going to the woods for the winter.

Some of our people dread their having to attend court, for some of the community seems to be deeply interested in it, while some of them stand their neighbor's tame turkeys to death. Quite a number of our farmers think it will be good to attend November court, as there will be some great suits.

MOHAWK REMEDY CO., Rome, N.Y.

This picture is the trade mark of SCOTT'S EMULSION, and is on every bottle of SCOTT'S EMULSION in the World, which now amounts to many millions yearly. This great business has grown to such vast proportions,

First—Because the proprietors have always been most careful in selecting the various ingredients used in its composition, namely; the finest Cod Liver Oil, and the purest Hypophosphites.

Second—Because they have so skillfully combined the various ingredients that the best possible results are obtained by its use.

Third—Because it has made so many sickly, delicate children strong and healthy, given health and rosy cheeks to so many pale, anemic girls, and healed the lungs and restored to full health, so many thousands in the first stages of Consumption.

If you have not tried it, send for free sample. Its agreeable taste will surprise you. SCOTT & BOWNE, Chemists, 499 1/2 Pearl Street, New York. 50c. and $1.00; all druggists.

FAUBLE'S

No store in Central Penna. offers such

to Clothing Purchases as we do at present. Advantage that means dollars saved to you.

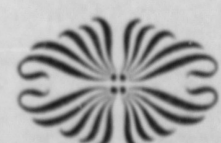

The best clothing made you will find with us for less money than others ask you to pay for sweat shop makes.

Ask yourself, let your experience be your guide in your future clothing purchases. Have you ever bought goods of us: have you ever bought goods of others? Did the goods you bought of us wear satisfactorily, did they fit, were they stylish, did they keep their shape, were they satisfactory in every way? Have you ever bought clothing any place, price considered, as good as we have sold you for? Ask yourself these questions, then compare your answers with your experience in other stores and we know, we feel absolutely certain, that the result will bring us your patronage.

We are constantly working to make this store better, to merit more and more your patronage, to give you a trading place in a small town that will equal and in many respects excel the largest city stores. How successful we have been you best know. You will find our goods different in every way from others. They fit better, they wear better, they keep their shape better, and they certainly beyond doubt cost less.

We ask you to call and see for yourself. Spend a few minutes in the biggest, the best clothing store in central Penna., and let what you see then, what your experience has been, be your prompter. You will profit by what you see. You will be satisfied that your dollars will go further with us than elsewhere.

See us is all we ask

M. Fauble & Son, Brockerhoff House Block, BELLEFONTE, PA.
