

M'KINLEY AND ROOSEVELT

Chosen by the People to Conduct Affairs of State.

A REPUBLICAN LANDSLIDE.

All the Doubtful States in the Republican Column.

THE EMPIRE STATE IN THE LEAD.

New York Gives a Plurality of 150,000 For the Republican Candidates Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Maryland, New Jersey and Delaware Also Add Their Electorial Votes to the Support of President McKinley's Administration.

New York, Nov. 7.—It became evident at a very early hour last evening that the election of McKinley and Roosevelt was assured. At 8:30 o'clock returns from nearly two-thirds of the election districts of greater New York had been received, indicating beyond question that Bryan and Stevenson could not expect more than 25,000 or 30,000 plurality in this Democratic stronghold, and unless there was a landslide in the outside counties beyond all reasonable expectation the pivotal state of New York had declared in unmistakable terms, although by a greatly reduced majority, for the Republican candidates. As the night progressed it only seemed to confirm this judgment.

The roll call of electoral votes is apparently as follows:

McKinley—California, 9; Connecticut, 6; Delaware, 3; Illinois, 24; Indiana, 15; Iowa, 13; Maine, 6; Maryland, 8; Massachusetts, 15; Michigan, 14; Minnesota, 9; New Hampshire, 4; New Jersey, 10; New York, 36; North Dakota, 3; Oregon, 4; Ohio, 23; Pennsylvania, 32; Rhode Island, 4; Vermont, 4; Washington, 4; West Virginia, 6; Wisconsin, 12; Wyoming, 3; Kansas, 10. Total, 277.

Bryan—Alabama, 11; Arkansas, 8; Colorado, 4; Florida, 4; Georgia, 13; Louisiana, 8; Mississippi, 9; Missouri, 17; Montana, 3; Nevada, 3; North Carolina, 11; South Carolina, 9; Tennessee, 12; Texas, 15; Utah, 3; Virginia, 12. Total, 142.

Unreported—Idaho, 7; Kentucky, 13; Nebraska, 8; South Dakota, 4. Total, 28.

The returns from Illinois betrayed a like condition. The Republican plurality of 1896 was greatly reduced, but it was still far too large to be overcome.

VICE PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT.

On the other hand, the returns from Indiana, Michigan, the two Dakotas, Utah and Wyoming, as well as Nebraska, seemed to indicate strong Republican gains over 1896. Delaware, Maryland and West Virginia have given decisive Republican pluralities for the national ticket.

The count in several of the far western states was naturally so delayed as to give little indication of the outcome there, but they had ceased to have a determining effect and before 10 o'clock the Democratic leaders had given up the contest, and it was announced that Mr. Bryan had gone to bed and was sound asleep.

The whole story is easily and briefly told. The Republican ticket will have a larger electoral vote than four years ago, but in the larger states of the east and middle west, the pluralities have been greatly reduced.

Massachusetts had fallen from 174,000 to 50, New York from 258,000 to 150,000 and Illinois from 142,000 to 100,000 or less.

The following are the pluralities reported at this hour. They are largely estimates:

Alabama, 75,000 Dem.; Arkansas, 75,600 Dem.; California, 10,000 Rep.; Colorado, 35,000 Dem.; Connecticut, 27,000 Rep.; Delaware, 3,000 Rep.; Florida, 20,000 Dem.; Georgia, 40,000 Dem.; Idaho, not reported; Illinois, 90,000 Rep.; Indiana, 30,000 Rep.; Iowa, 100,600 Rep.; Kansas, 20,000 Rep.; Kentucky, in doubt; Louisiana, 30,000 Dem.; Maine, 25,000 Rep.; Maryland, 16,000 Rep.; Massachusetts, 80,000 Rep.; Michigan, 90,000 Rep.; Minnesota, 85,000 Rep.; Mississippi, 45,000 Dem.; Missouri, 25,000 Dem.; Montana, 18,000 Dem.; Nebraska, 3,000 Rep.; Nevada, 1,500 Dem.; New Hampshire, 20,000 Rep.; New Jersey, 50,000 Rep.; New York, 135,000 Rep.; North Carolina, 30,000 Dem.; North Dakota, 8,000 Rep.; Ohio, 75,000 Rep.; Oregon, 12,000 Rep.; Pennsylvania, 200,000 Rep.; Rhode Island, 20,000 Rep.; South Carolina, 40,000 Dem.; South Dakota, in doubt; Tennessee, 15,000 Dem.; Texas, 175,000 Dem.; Utah, not reported; Vermont, 30,000 Rep.; Virginia, 50,000 Dem.; Washington, not reported; West Virginia, 16,000 Rep.; Wisconsin, 100,000 Rep.; Wyoming, 3,000 Rep.

PENNSYLVANIA LEGISLATURE.

Partial List of Members Elected to Senate and House.

Philadelphia, Nov. 7.—The present state senate consists of 37 Republicans and 13 Democrats. Of these 12 Republicans and 12 Democrats hold over. Elections were held in 26 districts. Following are the successful candidates: First district, George A. Vane, Rep.; 2d, F. A. Osborn, Rep.; 5th, William H. Berkelbach, Rep.; 7th, John C. Grady, Rep.; 9th, William C. Sproul, Rep.; 11th, E. M. Herbst, Dem.; 15th, Milton Heidelbaugh, Rep.; 15th, John E. Fox, Rep.; 16th, Samuel Weiss, Good Govt.; 21st, William Drury, Rep.; 23d, Robert S. Edmiston, Good Govt.; 25th, Myron Matson, Rep.; 27th, B. K. Focht, Rep.; 32d, Alex. Stewart, Rep.; 35th, J. C. Stineman, Rep.; 37th, John S. Fisher, Rep.; 41st, A. G. Williams, Rep.; 43d, C. L. Magee, Rep. and Dem.; 45th, John W. Crawford, Rep.; 47th, James D. Emery, Rep.; 49th, A. E. Sisson, Rep.

A. M. Smith, Rep., elected to assembly in Snyder county. Blair county—Quay Assemblymen G. M. Patterson and Edward P. Gamble elected. Fulton county—S. W. Kirk, Dem., elected representative. Somerset county—Kooz and Kendall, Reps., elected representatives. Huntingdon county—Taylor and Montgomery, Reps., are elected to the house.

Luzerne county—Two anti-Quay, one Republican and three Democrats were elected to the house.

The entire Democratic ticket, including three members of the legislature, is probably elected in Northampton county.

Fayette county—Arenburg, McCune and Davis, Quay Reps., elected to the house.

Tioga county—Champaigne and Hitchcock, Reps., elected to house.

Columbia county—Creasey and Ike, Reps., elected to the house.

Warren county—Indications point to election of Maloney, Dem., and Lacy, Rep., as representatives.

Washington county—For representatives Reynolds, Rep., Flaherty, Dem., James, Rep. and Philbin, Rep.

John T. Harrison, Rep., was elected to the house in the Twenty-first Philadelphia district over the fusion candidate.

Franklin county—Pomeroy and Welton, Reps., elected to the house.

Pike county—Westbrook, Dem., elected to the house.

Lebanon county—For assembly Prof. Groh, Rep., and Prof. Bierman, Good Govt., are elected.

Montgomery county—For representatives the Republican candidates, McGlathery, Barker, Murphy, DeHaven and Halderman, are elected by majorities ranging from 800 to 2,000.

Chester county—The meager returns thus far indicate that fusion has lost, and that Senator Snyder, Rep., has been re-elected by an increased majority. The Republican candidates for the legislature, Lack, Cope, Coryell and Fox, are elected by smaller majorities.

The Fifteenth and Twenty-seventh legislative districts of Philadelphia were carried by the Republicans against fusion.

THE PENNSYLVANIA PLURALITY.

Estimates indicate McKinley's Lead Is Two Hundred Thousand.

Philadelphia, Nov. 7.—Estimates from one-half of the counties in Pennsylvania indicate a plurality for McKinley of over 200,000. In this city the fusion of the Democrats with the Municipal League cut down the Republican county majority, but J. Hampton Moore, for city treasurer, and Jacob Singer, for register of wills, are elected by more than 50,000 plurality.

Pennsylvania's delegation in the next congress will not be less than 24 Republicans to 6 Democrats, as against 20 Republicans and 10 Democrats in the present congress.

M. S. Quay's friends are claiming they will have a majority on joint ballot favorable to his re-election to the United States senate and the returns would appear to bear out this claim.

The control of the state senate as between Quay and anti-Quay is in doubt, with chances favoring the Quays, though the complete returns may give the organization of that body to the opponents of Mr. Quay.

NEW JERSEY FOR M'KINLEY.

A Democratic Loss in the State Legislature.

Trenton, Nov. 7.—Incomplete returns from different parts of the state indicate that New Jersey has been carried for McKinley and Roosevelt by more than 50,000. The Republicans elect six of the eight congressmen, the same representation as last year, and will have an overwhelming majority in both houses of the legislature, insuring the election of a Republican to succeed William J. Sewell, Republican, as United States senator.

The Democrats have only succeeded in carrying four out of 21 counties—Hudson, Hunterdon, Sussex and Warren. They have made a net loss of three members in the upper house of the legislature. The new senate will stand 16 Republicans to 4 Democrats and the house will contain 44 Republicans and 15 Democrats, the same as last year. The four Democratic senators are Cornish, of Warren, who holds over, Gebhardt, of Hunterdon, Martin, of Sussex, and Hudspeth, of Hudson.

The two Democratic congressmen are Salmon of the Fourth district, who is re-elected, and McDermott of the Seventh district, who succeeds the late Congressman Daly, Democrat. Congressman Howell, Republican, in the Third district, who it was thought would have a close fight, was elected by at least 2,000 plurality.

NEW JERSEY ASSEMBLY.

They Will Probably Elect Senator Sewell to Succeed Himself.

Jersey City, Nov. 7.—The following are the successful candidates for the New Jersey assembly. There are three districts to be heard from.

Atlantic—Charles T. Abbott, Rep. Bergen—Joseph H. Tillotson, Rep.; James M. Mercer, Rep. Burlington—Charles Wright, Rep.; John G. Horner, Rep. Camden—William J. Bradley, Ephraim T. Gill, George A. Waite. All Republicans. Cape May—Lewis M. Crese, Rep. Cumberland—Jesse S. Steelman, William J. Moore. Both Republicans.

Essex—R. Garrabranda, J. H. Bacheller, John Howe, Robert W. Brown, R. G. Schmidt, E. E. Gichtel, W. G. Sharwell, Edgar Williams, Frederick Cummings, Robert M. Boyd, Jr., William A. Lord. All Republicans. Gloucester—William P. Buck. Hudson—Leon Abbott, Patrick Connolly, John A. Dennis, John J. Fallon, Killian H. Lutz, Maurice Marks, Edward J. Rice, Peter Stillwell, P. Anthony Rock, George G. Tennant, John W. Vellers. All Democrats.

Mercer—George W. Page, Frederick P. Reese, J. Warren Fleming. All Republicans. Middlesex—Adrian Lyons, J. E. Montgomery, H. R. Groves. All Republicans.

Morris—Samuel L. Garrison, Charles R. Whitehead. Both Republicans. Monmouth—S. W. Kirkbride, William Myers, Charles R. Snyder. All Republicans.

Ocean—Courtney C. Carr, Rep. Passaic—E. G. Staifer, V. H. Lewis, William H. Davidson, Hiram Keisler. All Republicans.

Salem—Henry J. Blohm, Rep. Somerset—Henry W. Hoagland, Rep. Sussex—Archibald E. McBride, Dem. Union—Ellis R. Fooker, Chester M. Smith, Charles S. Foote. All Republicans.

Warren—Jacob B. Smith, Hiram D. White. Both Republicans.

RESULT IN DELAWARE.

McKinley Carries State, but Democrats Claim Legislature.

Wilmington, Nov. 7.—Returns received up to a late hour indicate a Republican majority in New Castle county of 2,000 to 2,500. This will give the state to the Republicans by 1,200 to 1,500. The Democrats have carried Sussex and Kent counties, according to early reports, electing two senators and six out of ten representatives in Kent county and making gains in Sussex county. This makes it certain that the Democrats will have a majority of the next legislature.

In the First election district of New Castle county J. Prince Ford defeats James Hitchens for representative, a Democratic gain. In the Tenth Chauncey P. Holcomb, Dem., defeats Harry Husbacher, Rep., another Democratic gain. Gains are also reported, but not officially, from Kent and Sussex counties, and the Democratic claim of the legislature seems well founded.

THE RESULT IN MARYLAND.

McKinley's Plurality 10,000—Perhaps a Solid Republican Delegation.

Baltimore, Nov. 7.—President McKinley carried Baltimore city by a majority of 6,995. The returns from the counties are meager, but official advices from 81 scattered precincts out of 354 give him 18,285, as against 16,197 for Bryan, thus assuring him a majority of at least 10,000 in the state. The defeat of the Democrats has been thorough and surprising, it being certain that they have lost five out of the six congressmen, with the probabilities in favor of a clean sweep by the loss of the other. The doubtful district is the Second, in which ex-Congressman J. Fred C. Talbot is the Democratic candidate and A. A. Blakeley the Republican aspirant. The returns, with one precinct missing, show a majority for Blakeley, and it is regarded as highly probable that he is elected. This means a net loss of two congressmen to the Democrats, the Fourth and First districts having been represented by Democrats, though Governor John Walter Smith, who was elected in the First, resigned soon afterward to become governor of the state. His business partner, State Senator John P. Moore, was nominated by the Democrats to succeed him, and his defeat was a source of great surprise, it being considered that he was practically sure of election.

THE NEWS AT CANTON.

The President Reads the Returns at His Home.

Canton, O., Oct. 7.—President McKinley received the election returns last night at his home surrounded by a large number of his old friends and neighbors, including many ladies who came as the guests of Mrs. McKinley, to share with her the interest and excitement of this culminating event of the campaign. Direct wires connected the house with the Republican national headquarters at New York and at Chicago with Senator Hanna, at the Union club, Cleveland, and with the home of Governor Roosevelt, at Oyster Bay, so that the president was in constant telegraphic touch with his associate on the ticket and with the campaign leaders. The president made his headquarters in his library, where most of the gentlemen guests congregated, while Mrs. McKinley entertained the ladies in the parlor. The president was in his usual good humor, showing no signs of anxiety over the result.

The president, in person, read aloud some of the returns, but refrained from making any comment whatever on the result and accepting with unfruffed composure the favorable reports which began to come in at an early hour. Secretary Cortelyou read most of the dispatches, some of the more cheering announcements being heartily applauded by the guests. Most of the early advices were fragmentary, and incon-

MOTHER'S FRIEND

TAKING CHANCES.

People Who Will Learn Only by a Perilous Personal Experience.

As a rule experience is profitable to the individual who obtains it. When the aged man tries to save youth from mistakes such as he made, the youth smiles to himself: "The idea of that old fossil thinking that an up-to-date young man is going to make mistakes." It is a peculiar trait of human nature that each man thinks he is a little smarter than the others, and that he will succeed where others failed. "Oh, yes," says Smith, "I know that poor Jones got capsized in the rapids, but Jones never was a good hand at the paddle. It's a pity people like Jones will take such chances." And he smilingly launches his canoe to follow Jones alike in his feat and in his failure.

THE EXTREME OF FOLLY.

The most foolhardy man who ever risked his life, or the most infatuated gambler who ever risked his fortune, is a sage compared with the man who attempts to get the best of Nature. The foolhardy man may succeed. The gambler may win. But the man who takes chances with Nature is bound to lose. If the odds are tens of thousands who are cut down annually in life's prime were truly written death would not be attributed to this or that form of disease, but to an attempt to evade the necessary laws of health.

The weak spot in the modern man is his stomach. It is in disease of the stomach that many of the maladies begin which carry off the busy men of the day. The seed of disease once planted in the stomach grows and spreads like some climbing parasite about a tree. It throws out a tendrill about the heart and presently another which grips the lungs, and others again which take hold of kidneys and liver. Then suddenly the man is smitten by heart disease or lung disease; or succumbs to some malady of kidneys or liver. The real seat of disease is the stomach. And one of the reasons why the diseases of the other organs often fall of a cure is that the treatment ignores the stomach, and attempts to treat directly the other organs, whose diseases are only symptoms of disease of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition.

THERE'S PLENTY OF PROOF

of the soundness of the proposition that diseases of other organs remote from the stomach which are caused by disease of the stomach must be cured through the stomach, and, in fact, cannot be cured in any other way. The best proof in the world is that Doctor
