Fairbrook.

Many changes will take place again in the spring.

Ferguson township gave a large democratic vote again this fall. Old Ferguson votes for men of principle, ones that are honest and true.

Many voters came home to attend the election.

When we look at the flowers, we can not but think of one of Bryant's poems: The melancholy days are come, the saddest of the year, of wailing winds, and naked woods, and meadows brown and dead. Heaped in the hollows of the grove, the autumn leaves lie dead; they rustle to the edging gust, and to the rabbits tread.

Isaac O. Campbell spent Saturday and Sunday at his parental home. Mr. Campbell is a student of the Central State Normal School, of Lock Haven. Their school numbers are low this fall, only about two hundred enrolled; the cause is likely due to the recent changes of the school.

Frank Bowersox, of Philadelphia, took a short visit home this week. Mr. Bowersox is connected with the Milligen Pharmacy on Market street, of the same city.

Rev. A. A. Black will deliver a service for the young people meeting Sabbath, afternoon at 2 o'clock, in the Bethel Reformed church of Pine Grove. Every one should come who can and bear the discourse which will be both interesting and instructive.

Marker For a Grave of Indian Fighters. On Saturday, next, a marker over the massacred Indian fighters, Thomas Van Doran and Jacob Shadacre, two white soldiers who were killed near Old Fort, in an encounter with five Indians, on July 25, 1778, will be placed over their long neglected graves. The marker will have an appropriate inscription and will be planted with suitable ceremonies in charge of the Daughters of the American Revolution, Bellefonte Chapter. The ceremonies to begin at 2 p. m. An address will be delivered by Rev. Brown, of the Episcopal church, Bellefonte. All persons are invited. A more extended notice of this incident will be found on page 7 of the Centre County Centennial history.

Purchased a Slave Mill. E. M. Huyett has added another slave mill to his extensive lumber operations. The slave mill erected a short time ago at the old Post property on top of the seven mountains, by Kulp & Treaster, along with 500 acres of timberland, were purchased by Mr. Huyett a few days ago. This makes the third slave mill now operated by him. He is a pushing lumberman and his operations have run into hundreds of thousands of dollars in the past twelve years. Hewitt is one of Centre Hall's most enterprising citizens.

A Singular Occurrence. A Clearfield county farmer named Lew Walker, who lives between Gypsy and Nashville, buried sixteen bushels of potatoes, covering them with straw and earth. On Saturday morning Mr. Walker saw smoke rising from the potato pit. He pulled some dirt off the straw and the flames shot up, and burned the straw. Roasted potatoes were plenty around there for a while. It is supposed it was caused by spontaneous combustion.

Favor Revision. Of the 232 Presbyteries composing the Presbyterian Church 157, or more than two-thirds, have voted upon the question of revising the Westminster Confession of Faith. About three-fourths of them approve of a restatement of belief of that church, whether by a revision of the Confession or by a complete restatement of doctrine. Only forty-two Presbyteries have thus far asked for an entire dismissal of the subject of creed revision.

Highest Point in the State. Big Bald Knob standing on the border line of Bedford and Somerset counties, 3,000 feet above the sea level, has been ascertained by E. Matley, a Pennsylvania railroad engineer, to be the highest point in Pennsylvania. Mr. Matley has furnished his survey to the Government engineers, having in charge the new geological map of the State, and they accepted it.

Beautiful Nuptial Event.

ler, Miss Sarah Bennken, Swarthmore; Mr. and Mrs. W. McCormick, Miss Mary Kelley, Miss Eleanor Daymon, Mr. and Mrs. R. Y. Filbert and Mr. R. W. Wents, Philadelphia; Mrs. A. J. Kaul, Miss Josephine Kaul, St. Mary's; Mrs. Jack McClellan, Mrs. George Gaches, Allegheny; Mr. and Mrs. H. C. McCormick, Miss Nell McCormick and Mr. George Painter, Williamsport; Mr. Thomas McClellan, Miss Mary McClellan, Spangler; Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Spangler, Hastings; Mr. and Mrs. John Spangler, Centre Hall, and Dr. B. S. Shires, Rothmel.

Up Go Coal Prices. Prices of all grades of anthracite coal through the whole country were advanced officially on Thursday, the 1st, 50 cents a ton. This means an additional cost to consumers in the year of $24,000,000, as the total output of anthracite coal is about 48,000,000 tons. The higher prices, while not made official until now, have obtained really since the strike was declared. That affair gave to the operators an opportunity they had hoped for, but could not get because of overproduction and keen competition.

To get the local retail prices, or that paid by the ordinary consumer, 50 to 75 cents and sometimes $1 a ton must be added to the quoted wholesale price. For example, stove and chestnut coal at $1 50 a ton, as quoted at wholesale, will cost the householder from $5 to $5 50 for standard grades. The fancy grades will cost from $5 50 to $7 a ton.

These prices are at least 50 cents a ton higher than paid at this time last year, and the prospect is that even higher prices will obtain. Although production before the strike was beyond demand, the plea now will be that short supply and higher wages require advanced prices. The consumer pays the bill for the strike.

A New Telephone Company. A new telephone company, to be known as "The Huntingdon and Clearfield Company," to operate in Centre, Clearfield, Cambria, Blair, Huntingdon, Bedford and Fulton counties, will make application to the Governor on November 19th for a charter. Among the incorporators are W. H. Denlinger, Thos. H. Murray and Allison O. Smith, of Clearfield, and a number of other prominent residents of Huntingdon and other places.

A Novel Idea. At the birth of a Japanese baby a tree is planted which must remain untouched until the marriage day of the child. When the nuptial hour arrives the tree is cut down, and the wood is transformed into furniture, which is considered by the young people as the most beautiful of all the ornaments of the house. Here's a pointer for sentimental Centre countians.

Candor Declines. Addison Candor, who was recently appointed judge of the courts of Lycoming county, to succeed the late John J. Metzger, declined to accept the appointment last Wednesday. Mr. Candor states that his business and professional relations are such that he could not, without a great sacrifice, which he feels to be unwarranted, accept the appointment.

Give It Up. After the leasing of 10,000 acres of mineral lands in Blair county and the expending of thousands of dollars in fruitless boring for oil, the promoters of the undertaking have abandoned their operations. The capitalists back of the project were from Johnstown, Pittsburg and Clarion county. This is a case where "dad struck ice," over the left.

Good Corn Yield. Among the corn fields in this county which brought a good yield this year, are the two Allison farms, the one at Potters Mills and the other at Spring Mills, the crops being a little over 100 bushels to the acre. Another was the Ben. Arney farm, near Centre Hall, which yielded over 80 bushels to the acre.

RUPTURE or HERNIA CURED. No operations or injections, no pain or discomfort in any way, no steel springs or iron frames, no wooden, ivory or hard rubber balls, cups, punches or rings used. Not the least distress or annoyance. Our Ointment for the cure of rupture or hernia is made of fine soft materials, such as felt, velvet, chamois skins and elastic webs. It fits like a glove and can harm you no more. It holds your intestines back in their natural position and the wound will heal like any other wound when it has a chance.
