-J. Frank Condon, of Johnstown, has resigned as court reporter for Cambria, Blair and Centre counties. There are several applicants for the position.

-Sim the Clothier is away again purchasing more goods for the fall and winter trade. He has a good bit to say in another column about seasonable goods.

-Wm. Kurtz, the bookstore man, is home again after an absence of several weeks. He brought some choice goods with him that have made his store more attractive than ever.

-The meteoric shower that was billed for Tuesday night did not shower, but appeared Wednesday morning as snow flakes, the supply of meteors evidently having been exhausted.

-Luther Smith, merchant, of Johnstown, Pa., passed through town on Tuesday on his way to Pine Grove Mills, to visit his brother Lowel, who is quite ill, and hopes for recovery are not the most encouraging.

-In a short time the new photograph gallery in Crider's Exchange will be ready for occupancy, by Mrs. John Moore and her daughter, Miss Bernice. Both have had experience in this line and are artists.

-This Thursday evening the Diamond Bro's minstrels will be the attraction at Garman's opera house. This is one of the best shows on the road and wherever it goes it is well patronized and everybody is highly delighted.

-Monday morning the mountain sides and fields in Penns valley were white with snow. Around the Bellefonte section there were scarcely any signs of snow but the air was raw. Other sections of the country report snow Sunday night.

-The republicans are not in humor to be jollied by that immense industrial display on Saturday evening. Nobody can be found to take the responsibility for the thing. Some of the boys in line seemed to enjoy it as an immense joke.

-I. N. Good has been appointed agent for the Union Central Life Insurance Company at this place and will move here with his wife. He is a native of Winchester, Va., but of late has been in the employ of the Union Central at Johnstown.

-Dickinson Seminary defeated Bellefonte Academy Saturday by 11 to 6. In the first half of the game, Seminary had everything their own way and then did all of their scoring, making two touchdowns and one goal. In the second half neither side scored.

-The venerable David Krape, of Haines township, who was adjudged a reliable weather prophet in his day, had this as one of his signs: If a snow fell before November 15, deep enough to track a cat, that would be a sure sign that an open winter was to follow.

-Some of our republican leaders must not be surprised if waking up some morning they find Col. Fred Reynolds a candidate for congress. The Colonel would not need the aid of a machine either, he is possessed of all the lubricants required to be a winner in the -Silas Foor, James Smouse and Howard Greenland were painfully cut and burned about the face and eyes at the Bellefonte furnace on Wednesday 7th. The three men were engaged at filling suddenly dropped, blowing the sand out into the faces of the workmen.

A FOREIGN ALLIANCE.

The Novoe Vremyea says that the St. Petersburg correspondent of the Daily Express, wiring before the re-election of Mr. McKinley was known at the Russian capital, "announces with official sanction that an understanding has been reached States and Japan by way of counterpoise years. to the Anglo-German agreement, adding apparent if President McKinley is reelected."

It makes no difference with McKinley that Washington wrote in his farewell address, "Beware of alliances with foreign nations."

Teacher Has a Soft Snap.

The Hutchinson (Kan.) News says that every morning at the usual hour Miss Mary Scroggins opens the schoolhouse District No. 78, in Reno county, and then sits at her desk all day long, while not a pupil comes to receive instruction. It seems that all the families living in District No. 78 are Catholics. and send their children to a nearby parochial school. Miss Scroggins has the usual contract with the school officers, and she will continue to open and occupy her lonely schoolroom through all the winter months. Last year she had no pupils at all during the first four months of the term, and only two pupils during the remaining three months.
