

CORRESPONDENTS' DEPARTMENT
Happenings About Centre County Briefly Told by A CORPS OF ABLE WRITERS

Our Alert Correspondents Note Many Important Events in Different Localities—What is Transpiring—Is Your Section Represented?

Milesburg.

We noticed Raymond Martin is able to be around again with the aid of crutches. He returned home recently from the Lock Haven Hospital where he was treated for a fractured leg from falling off the train at this place.

Prof. C. L. Gramley visited our schools on Wednesday.

Toner Hugg tried his skill on the wild turkey business recently, and killed two of the feathery tribe.

Mrs. William Campbell, of Williamsport, made a flying trip to the burg last week.

Roland Cheeseman and son James, of Washington, D. C., were guests of his sister, Mrs. Thomas Taylor, recently.

Wm. Charles, of Jersey Shore, after a short visit with his parents, left on Saturday for that place.

On Wednesday night, when the rain was pouring down, a married man of Market street came up that street with a lantern over his head and an umbrella under his arm, asking: "Did you see my cow anywhere?" The news of the election caused him to forget he had an umbrella with him.

Rev. Carson, the Presbyterian minister, moved to the burg last week, and will occupy the parsonage.

On Thursday afternoon, the 8th inst, ten wild turkeys flew across the dam and lit a short distance above the rolling mill, at Linn & McCoy's iron works. A number of hunters were after them, and a shot was heard a few minutes later. We did not wait to hear the result of this shooting.

On Friday, the 9th, the first snow of the season fell in the burg.

Some of the voters who cast their votes for J. K. P. Hall are resting much easier since the official count announced his re-election.

C. H. Elise, the druggist, left on Friday for Williamsport.

Daniel McKinley, in his furry after a wild turkey, recently forgot to put shot in his gun, shot a blank cartridge and missed the turkey.

Claude W. Fulton is now papa, a son was born unto him last Friday night.

A new case of diphtheria developed in our burg. Benjamin Austin's grand daughter is the victim; house is quarantined.

Wm. A. Swires, wife and infant child, of Huntingdon, arrived on Saturday to visit his parents at this place, before taking his departure for Philadelphia.

Miss Ada Haupt, of Tyrone, made a flying visit to her sister, Anna Baird, of this place, recently.

Butchering has begun in the burg, and a number of large porkers have been slaughtered and a number of large ones will follow.

The Presbyterians of this place put a new furnace in their church last week. Sunday they held services with pleasure as it did its work satisfactorily.

Mrs. Frank McClain, of Altoona, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Joseph Kitchen, at this place.

On last Saturday night a young lady was on a prominent corner of the five points of the burg watching for some one. Presently a young gentleman came briskly along with a married man, the lady belittled out, "Come here," naming him, "I want to see you." In reply to her he yelled "What the h—ll do you want with me? I don't owe you any thing," chatted a while then started for a port to launch their little bark in. Just the hour they arrived home we did not fear, but ask "Billie," perhaps he will answer you and give you the full particulars of the trip.

Spring Mills.

Snow all day Sunday.

Edward Jamison was home from Martinsburg to cast his first ballot for Bryan. Shook Brothers bought the Waltz farm for $3800.

The election has come and gone; prosperity has struck the farmers for four years more.

W. H. Smith, one of our furniture hunters, spent Sunday with his mother and sick brother at Pine Grove Mills.

Harry Musser, employed by the Howard Creamery company, is a great hunter, but the pheasants are too much for him. They fly faster than the shot from his gun.

D. H. Rhule is improving some; he can talk a little.

The Planing Mill company is kept busy filling orders. Harry Confer is a fine workman on the turning lathe.

Luther Koper, after casting his ballot on Tuesday morning, moved to Centre Hall, in the house with his daughter, Mrs. Crozier.

Ben Ripka moved on the Waltz farm, bought by Shook Brothers.

The supervisor who comes out for a stone crusher will get the support of both parties.

James McCool has half his house for rent to a small family, also Mother Neese has half of her house for rent.

The grangers have sold their hall to the congregation of the United Evangelicals, for a church.

John McCool, of Gregg, after a severe three month's siege of typhoid fever, is recovering.

Landlord Davy Ruhl, of Spring Mills, is not improving any from the paralytic stroke that rendered him almost speechless.

Two hunting parties from Union county landed at Spring Mills this week, after small game. One of the parties is headed by C. K. Sober, the unsurpassed wing shot who brings any bird to the ground at which he pulls trigger.

As an external application to heal cuts, wounds, bruises and like injuries there is nothing so good as Chamberlain's Pain Balm. It causes the parts to heal without maturation and in one third the time required by the old fashioned treatment. For sale by Green's Pharmacy.

Linden Hall.

John Bible, of Centre Hill, was circulating among his friends at this place, on Saturday last.

David Snyder and family spent Sunday with friends at Centre Hall.

Mrs. Cora Burchfield, of Johnstown, was visiting with her brother, Robert McClellan, during part of last week.

Harry Kline, of State College, was visiting in this community on Thursday last.

Mr. Knisely, of Stuart, Pa., has charge of the telegraph office, of this place, during the absence of Phil. Bradford, the regular operator, who is off on a two week's hunting vacation.

Miss Valerie Gettig, of this place, left for State College, on Thursday, where she expects to spend a few weeks' with friends.

Franklin Swabb, of Pine Grove, and Harry Swabb and wife, were visiting at the Swabb mansion on Sunday.

Adam Wolf and Mr. Heckman, of Wolf's Store, were circulating among their many friends of this place, during part of last week.

Clyde Bover, formerly of this place, was seen on our streets on Sunday.

James Swabb, our champion hunter, captured a few wild ducks last Saturday.

George Gettig accompanied by his mother, were visiting with friends and relatives at Nittany and Mackeyville during a part of last and this week.

Mrs. James Seanson is again very ill with dropsy.

Charles Spicher, of this place, left for Boalsburg last week, where he expects to make his home with his sister, Mrs. John McPherson.

Port Matilda.

Prof. Howard Miles, of our town, held a musical concert at Yarnell, a few nights since, consisting of instrumental and vocal music. Howard is a No. 1 in his profession.

Philip Young, swings the yard stick in W. G. L. Crain & Son's stove; as P. is an accommodating young man he will bring patronage.

Geo. M. Walk, of Hannah, passed through here a few days since with a 300 lb. bear which he captured on the mountain, near Flat Rock.

The election is over; all good citizens have settled down to business again.

A. W. Reese's store was burglarized a few nights since. They blew up a large safe from which they got nothing, as Mr. Reese had put his money in bank the day previous. The same night the hardware store of W. T. Hoover was entered and the money drawer of its contents. Nothing of much value was taken on either raid. Money appeared to be their sole object.

MARRIED:—Nov. 7, 1900, at the home of the bride's parents near Port Matilda, Clifford Spackman and Miss Alta Ebert, both of Martha, Pa.; Rev. E. S. Latschaw performed the ceremony. About 30 guests were present. Both are well and favorably known in this place. Their many friends wish them a pleasant journey on life's rough waters.

MARRIED:—by Rev. E. S. Latschaw, on Tuesday, Nov. 6, at 4:30 p. m. Thaddeus V. Yothers and Wenona Moore, both from Julian. The happy couple left Port Matilda on the 5:28 train, westward for their wedding trip. Their many friends wish them many happy years.

Nittany.

We had a sample of winter the last few days.

There will be a great deal of butchering done through here this week, scarcity of corn will hurry butchering on.

Rev. Brown preached a good sermon on Saturday evening; many that should have been there to hear it, were not.

Everybody is busy getting winter wood home.

William Mauk and Dady Consaul, went to the Alleghnies last week to take a few week's hunt.

The members of the Evangelical church are going to hold a chicken and waffle supper in the church, on Thanksgiving night. There will be chicken and waffles and all delicacies of the season.

Mr. Peck is having his tenant house put up again which was burned down last spring; W. E. Showers is the mechanic.

Aust. Kling, of Walker, was a pleasant caller at the home of one of our young ladies on Saturday evening.

Pantina Shields, of Lamar, was the guest of her sister, Mrs. Tate, over Sunday.

John Shields and wife, of Milesburg, spent last week visiting friends around this place.

Ellwood Winkleman and Joe Emrick went to Coburn to put up fences.

Sugar Valley.

Shellbarks are very scarce.

Houses are in demand in Loganton now. A dozen or more would not be sufficient to supply the demands.

Wild turkeys are unusually plenty on the mountains surrounding Sugar Valley this fall.

A couple of young hoodoos will get into a mess of trouble if they turpentine any more dogs.

A happy wedding occurred Nov. 6, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bay, who reside near Rosencrans, the groom being their son, John Bay, and the bride Miss Carrie Probst, a charming young lady of Jersey Shore.

Miss Katie Bower is very ill with symptoms of typhoid fever.

Extensive repairs have been made in the Loganton roller mill during the past week. A new water chute was built at the dam also.

Emanuel Raudebach moved from Loganton to Hoppleton and John Rockey moved from Hoppleton to Loganton.

Edgar Schwenk and Newton Brungard have the honor of killing the first deer of the season. It was a five-pronged buck. They shot it on Nov. 1, in White Deer.

E. M. Groves

This signature is on every box of the genuine Laxative Bromo-Quinine Tablets the remedy that cures a cold in one day

Centre Hall.

Mrs. E. M. Huyett and daughter, Miss Lela, are visiting relatives and friends in Reading.

Perry Luse left for Millersville, at which place he has secured a position in a planing mill. The family will remain here until spring.

Miss Mabel Boal left Tuesday for a month's visit with her sister, Mrs. C. H. Meyer, at Millersburg.

Rev. and Mrs. Aurand, of Mifflinburg, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Spangler, Sunday, Rev. Aurand filled the pupil in the Lutheran church at this place for Rev. Rearick.

Wm. Jacobs, of Shingletown, is visiting at the home of his daughter-in-law, Mrs. Lizzie Jacobs.

The High school was closed several days this week, owing to the illness of the principal, Prof. Ilgen.

There was a meeting of Pomona Grange in the Grange Arcadia Tuesday with a large attendance. A free dinner was served in their hall.

Rev. J. M. Rearick is in attendance at the Lutheran conference in session at Spring Mills.

Miss Romelia VanPelt entertained Mrs. Hildebrand, of Philadelphia, and Miss Kate Brisbin, of Bellefonte, several days this week.

Miss Sarah B. Barber, of Lewisburg, will give an elocutionary entertainment in the Presbyterian church at this place, on Friday evening, 23rd.

Rev. Chilcote is conducting a successful revival service in the Methodist church, and will continue the services during this week.

Rev. Kershner, of the Reformed church, is holding a series of meetings in the Tusseyville church.

Col. John A. Woodward, of Howard, was in town Monday night, having come in the interest of the farmer's institute to be held here in January.

CENTRE HALL NO. 2.

George Ocker has decided not to build the house he had in contemplation, and may look for some other place of business. Mr. Ocker was a very desirable citizen.

Andy Gregg moves to Lemont and Ed. Sellers moved here from Oak Hall yesterday. Ed. Nearhood, another of our best citizens, is reported will move to Bellefonte, employed in the Potter & Hoy hardware store.

Another important business change is likely to take place next spring. No mention now.

Had a slight covering of snow Monday morning—first of the season.

Witmer Wolf was absent on a business trip to Tyrone and other parts.

The election disappointed a number who had an eye on the postmastership.

The new foundry and implement firm of Rearick & Sellers is now a fact on an enlarged scale.

D. F. Luce, the inventor of the best hydrant now out, is kept busy all the time filling orders, and by enlarging his capacity could put out thousands.

Millheim.

F. P. Geary, of Snow Shoe, spent the past week visiting his parents and friends here.

Miss Maud Musser, of State College, arrived home Monday for a two weeks' vacation.

Mr. Whitman and family, of Middle-town, are visiting relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. Shannon, of Illinois, and Mrs. George Rearick, of Spring Mills, visited Mrs. Elizabeth Henney and L. J. Noll's several days this week.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Duck spent Tuesday at Centre Hall.

Mrs. Jacob Whitman, of Hubersburg, is the guest of his sister, Mrs. C. Woodling.

Charles Miller and family, of Jeanette, are visiting relatives and friends in this section.

Curtis Kleckner, on North street, was the first one to do fall butchering.

Since the thrashing season is over, Smith Bros. are using their engine to saw wood. It passed through town on Tuesday on its way to B. P. Frankenburgers to cut his winter's wood.

F. E. Gutelius tried to drive up hill with a balky horse. Tuesday morning; he backed against a lamp post and smashed the lamp.

At a council meeting it was decided to have the canal on East Main street removed and sewer pipes to be put in its place.

Mrs. George Rover, who had an operation performed some time ago, is improving rapidly.

Mrs. A. A. Walters and Mrs. S. M. Campbell left Saturday for a visit with friends at Watsonstown, Sunbury and Scranton.

The republicans had lots of smiles on their faces after receiving the election returns, but will have lots of frowns before the end of the next four years, as most of them have tight squeezing to pull through.

The fellow that got hilarious after the election was found taking a nap in W. P. Weiser's undertaking room.

Mrs. Lizzie Ann Condo, of Ohio, is visiting her relatives and friends here and in Brush valley. She is the oldest daughter of the late W. L. Musser.

J. H. Reifsnnyder has gone to Philadelphia and New York on a business trip.

Mrs. J. P. Condo is visiting her sister, Mrs. M. A. Kennelly, at York.

Nieman had a Commercial phone put in his store Tuesday. Persons can now order goods by phone.

Business in the hosiery mill is still increasing. They are putting in new machines and expect to do their own finishing, which will give employment to more hands.

Harry and "Wall" Fisher shot sixteen rabbits and three quail Thursday.

Miss Hattie Emerick, who for some time has been at Cross Forks, Tioga county, came home ill with typhoid fever.

Ammon Rote, of Coburn, shot a fine deer in Pine Swamp last week.

D. O. Bower, who has many relatives in Centre county, and who has been located in Blandburg, Cambria county, for several years, left for Salt Lake City, Utah, last August. In writing to F. O. Hosterman last week, he stated that they had nine inches of snow there on October 30.

Aaronsburg.

Bert Sylvis and family and Miss Miriam Kister, of Altoona, are the guests of Mrs. Clara Kister, in our burg.

Mrs. Henry Mowery and Miss Jennie Rupp visited friends in Union county several days last week.

Miss Blanch Burd returned home last week after spending several months at Bellefonte.

Miss Mazie Forster's visiting her uncle, Major Forster, in Harrisburg, who has been on the sick list for some time and whose condition, at this writing, is rather critical. The Major has many friends in this vicinity who will be much pained to hear of his illness.

Miss Annie Edmunds, who has been making her home at Windber, Pa., was summoned to the bedside of her grandmother here, Mrs. Israel Weaver, whose serious illness was made mention of in our items last week, and whose death may be momentarily expected.

Rev. John Tomlinson, a former pastor of the Lutheran congregation in our town, is visiting among his old parishioners and many friends here. The Rev. ranks among the foremost ministers in the Lutheran church, being a fluent talker, a profound thinker and an earnest, zealous worker in the Lord's vineyard.

Mrs. Noah Letzell has opened a bakery at her residence on North 2nd street, where first-class bread, etc., can be procured at all times. We bespeak a liberal patronage for the lady.

Mrs. C. M. Bower, of Bellefonte, is the guest of Mrs. Jacob Bower, in our burg.

Mr. and Mrs. P. S. Shelly, of Richfield, Pa., are the guests of the lady's sister, Mrs. James N. Ettinger, on West Main street.

Mrs. Harry Kerstetter, of Loganton, is visiting friends in town this week.

Miss Gertrude Musser, of Coburn, was the guest of her friend, Miss Cordelia Acker, in our town over Sunday.

Miss Margaret Maize, of Woodward, was the guest of postmaster M. M. Musser over Sunday.

There were no preaching services held in the Lutheran church here on Sunday, on account of the illness of the pastor, Rev. Gearhart.

Rev. Geo. S. Bright, of Phillipsburg, who is attending Lutheran Synod at Spring Mills this week, visited his grandmother in our town, several nights during the week.

Fred Fehl, who had been working in Clearfield, came home last week to spend the winter with his parents, Amos Fehl's on North 2nd St.

Rev. P. W. Brown returned home from Union county last week where he had been visiting for some time. On Monday forenoon he assisted at the funeral of Mrs. Clayton Bower, who died of consumption last week in the lower part of the valley.

Cure Your Cold While You Can
 Is it not better to cure your cold while you can, in its incipency, rather than take the chance of its resulting in pneumonia, catarrh or consumption; all of which diseases begin with a cold and may be prevented by curing every cold at the start? Chamberlain's Cough Remedy can always be depended upon. It is pleasant and safe to take, too. For sale by Green's Pharmacy.

Penn Hall.

Everything is quiet after the election.

Northern conference of the Evangelical Lutheran Synod is in session in the Lutheran church, at this writing, with a large delegation of ministers and lay delegation from this and adjoining counties present.

Sheriff Brungard, of Bellefonte, was here on official business last Wednesday.

Wm. D. Strunk is moving his saw-mill from Brush mountain to 1/4 mile east of town, where he will operate for H. B. Herring.

Rev. J. S. Houseman, from Colyer, preached, a very excellent sermon in the Evangelical church on Sunday morning.

James Sheesley north of town, left for Patton, Pa., where he secured a position.

The Evangelicals are giving their church, a coat of paint, which adds greatly to the appearance.

Emanuel Crader and family, of Woodward, visited at the gentleman's parental home, north of town, over Sunday.

A. G. Burrell, who had been on the sick list, we are glad to note, is able to be around again.

Mr. H. F. McManaway, from Poughkeepsie, N. Y., formerly clerk in J. B. Fishersons store, was here to cast his vote, and do a few days' hunting.

Henry Meyer left on election day for, a week's hunt.

The Same Everywhere.

The following item clipped from The Citizen, Toowoomba, Australia, shows that the article mentioned is meeting with the same favor in that far off country as at home.

"I find Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is an excellent medicine. I have been suffering from a severe cough for the last two months, and it has effected a cure. I have great pleasure in recommending it. W. C. Wockner. This is the opinion of one of our oldest and most respected residents, and has been voluntarily given in good faith that others may try the remedy and be benefited, as was Mr. Wockner." This remedy is for sale by Green's Pharmacy.

FLOWERS

A Bulb Offer--Fresh Imported.
 Now is the time to Plant.

- 12 Kinds of Hyacinths best named for pots ..... $1.25
- 12 Kinds of Hyacinths for beds ..... .75
- 25 Mixed Tulips, double and single ..... .50
- 100 Crocus--All colors ..... .50
- 10 Narcissus ..... .25
- 159 Bulbs ..... $3.25

The whole Collection, by Express, Prepaid $3.00

With every order of Five Dollars, we will send free one neat size Palm-Cut Flowers are a Specialty with us.—Decorations for any occasion.—Express prepaid on all orders of Two dollars or more.

MYERS BROS., Florists.
 Established 21 Years - - Altoona, Pa.

Clothing News!
 Interesting, Profitable
NEWS.

Bringing to your notice a lot of Clothing Bargains never equaled in the history of Centre county clothes selling.

Backward Season,
Enormous Stock.

Goods must be sold NOW while you have use for them. The Best, The Largest Stock of Clothing in Centre county to be sold in early season at January reduction sale prices.

Men's Suits, all-wool, hundreds of them; former price from $7 50 to 8.50,

NOW AT $5.00

Men's Suits--Fine Cassimers, Worsted and Oxfords, former price $10.00 and $12.00,

NOW AT $8.00

Men's Suits--The best goods made, all kinds, all styles; former price $14 and $15,

NOW AT $10.00

All the Clothing in our stores--Men's, Boy's and Children's Suits at proportionate reductions. Do not Miss This. Come Early. We have the Greatest Money Saving Surprise for you that you ever experienced. A mountain of Clothing that must be turned into Cash. Price no object, they simply must be sold. You can buy for next season's wear and easily see the saving.

Not a garment in our Entire Stock exempt from this great reduction. All to go.

ALL TO BE SOLD

Nothing reserved. Come early and profit by the Greatest Clothing Sale ever inaugurated in Centre county. DON'T FORGET THE PLACE.

M. FAUBLE & SON
 Broomerhoff House Block. BELLEFONTE, PA