Some women know about it, do U? Know about what? U say--Why the Corset that can't break at the waist line. It is the biggest improvement made in corsets in twenty years. Ask to C it when U come in, price $1.00.

U have heard or read about the New Straight Front Corset, U will find an excellent one in the Kabo, style No. 600--Price $1 at Corset Counter.

G. R. SPIGELMYER,

CORRESPONDENTS DEPARTMENT CONTINUED FROM 7TH PAGE Yarnell.

W. E. Brown's new addition to his store room is going up very rapidly; when completed will make a great improvement to our town.

Miss Nettie Schwartz, of Howard, was a pleasant caller among friends for a few days.

Jacob McClincy and family, of this place, is going to move to Crossforks, where he secured employment.

Yarnell says red hats for ladies are in style this year.

W. F. Pownell is terribly afraid he won't get his seeding done till snow comes. Since McKinley is elected, he says he'll have good grain, just the same.

A couple of our young spots surprised our community by bringing part of Moose Run to church, the other Sunday evening. Quite a number of our young men have gone to the woods to work for the winter.

W. B. Conner, of this place, who has been working at Clearfield, was home for the election, but intends to move to Clearfield in a short time.

One of our farmers says it's as bad to steal potatoes as it is to steal sheep; so the one that did it, had better look a little out, for there is good evidence against him.

Protracted meeting has commenced, but has met with no success; it is well attended.

Am Watson and sisters, of Moose Run, were the guests of Wm. Eckleys, over Sunday.

Miss Olie Eckley is still on the sick list at this writing.

W. R. Malone, formerly of this place but now of Pittsburg, is home on a short vacation; also W. R. Malone and our smiling school mistress, Miss Neff, attended church on Friday evening.

Butchering is now on the program in our community.

Miss Nerva Packer, one of Romola's bustling young seamstresses, spent last week at Wm. Eckleys, in the way of doing some work for them.

Next on the program is a water fountain, to be erected in our little town, on the corner of Mosquito and Main streets. Water is to be piped from a large spring in the upper end of Harris Pootman's lot. It is a natural grade and will be a great convenience to our community.

Joe Shawley made his usual trip on Saturday evening.

Lemont.

Our hunters are back from the mountains and say they saw some deer, but that they didn't stand still until they could draw a bead on them.

Butchering season has begun already. Grant Meyers is ahead on porkers thus far.

On Friday evening the republicans had quite a parade; by the noise, we thought there was about a thousand, but in number there were about 150 or less. They were taking Billy Bryan up the river, but he was too shrewd for them, when they reached State College he played the dodge game and got around the corner, and that was the last seen of Billy. He's not for them too monkey with.

The hunters are doing well this fall shooting turkeys and rabbits. Bear tracks have been seen in the barrens. Mr. Adam Fye and family, of the Sucker State, are back to Pennsylvania visiting their friends and relatives.

Supt N. E. Hess was in Tyrone last week negotiating for timber land. Mr. Hess expects to be engaged in the lumber business this winter.

Runville.

If you want to know who "Scribbling Ike" is just ask the black man.

A certain widower went to see a blooming young maid of thirty-five a short time ago and she was going to make short work of him according to his story, but she was just in fun, and you should not stay away on that account.

One of our young ladies can't say soft soap since the fair.

Some people think twice before they speak once, but the Yarnell scribe speaks twice and thinks once.

There were not many crowing roosters for Bryan on Wednesday, but the ones that did crow were speedily executed by their Republican owners.

Don't think that we meant any harm when we spoke about the letters, for we didn't, but we noticed the girls took the hint just the same.

Since our brother scribe of Snow Shoe is seen quite frequently around here after night, we advise the farmers and poultry raisers to keep a lock on their hen coops.

The girls tried to give "Teddy" a sound old blacking lately, but we guess they got the worst of the bargain. "Teddy" you should not have run, though.

We notice that S. T. goes to Milesburg pretty often; we wonder what the attraction is.

The little boy feels quite sick since the returns of the election, we don't blame him for we feel a little sore ourselves.

Fairbrook.

Butchering season is at hand. Will Ripka went to Altoona on Friday where he expects to work thro the day and attend commercial school at night.

The White Hall road is now being fixed with a coat of crushed stone.

We will certainly get enough of McKinley prosperity this time, as some say that was the reason they voted for him, just to find out what kind of prosperity it is, as they never got a sip of it during the past term.

Mr Fouch, of Montour county, came to visit his sister, Mrs. Harper, at Pine Grove. He has not been here for thirty years.

J. Ripka, who was so unfortunate as to injure his left arm, is improving.

Our friend, Lowell Smith, is quite ill at his mother's home at Pine Grove.

The hunters are doing well this fall shooting turkeys and rabbits. Bear tracks have been seen in the barrens.

Mr. Adam Fye and family, of the Sucker State, are back to Pennsylvania visiting their friends and relatives.

Supt N. E. Hess was in Tyrone last week negotiating for timber land. Mr. Hess expects to be engaged in the lumber business this winter.

Hannah.

A couple of our men recently had a narrow escape from being eaten by a lot of "coons;" how is it, Frank and Sammy?

Hunters are having a big time now; some of them don't even stop for Sunday, their guns can be heard cracking on Sunday as regularly as on week days.

There has been some corn husking going on in this section after night, but they forget to leave any share for the owner.

Lester Bean is leaving home to accept a position as clerk for his uncle, Samuel Striker, of Petersburg.

George Walk, Jr., has had the good luck to capture another bear, which weighed when dressed, over 200 lbs, the other one being only a cub, weighed 80 pounds dressed.

James Goss visited in Tyrone a couple of days recently.

Samuel Hoover has the brag potatoes and apples this year; some of his apples weighing one pound and potatoes 2 1/2 pounds.

Michael Walk, who took the stump for McKinley, has given it up since the election.

Julian.

News is very scarce in this vicinity, at present. If the people who are so anxious for the items would lend a helping hand, we might write oftener.

Miss Maggie Miles, of Martha, was seen on our streets this week.

Arthur Irvin, of the firm of Irvin Bros., is attending Commercial College, at Williamsport.

Walter Turner is seriously ill with typhoid fever. He is in the hands of a competent doctor, and the Odd Fellows having provided him with an excellent nurse; it is hoped he will speedily recover.

Charlie Myers and wife, of Alliance, Ohio, are home on a visit to their parents.

The United Brethren spent two days cleaning their church, and now, if the young men have no more respect for the house of God than to be spitting on the floor, they ought to be shown the door. It's mean, it's contemptible, it's disgusting.

Robbers have been very numerous in our town of late; Irvin Bros. were robbed of sixty dollars, Calvin Holt of thirty chickens, the postoffice of some change and the Silverdale school house of all the stationery, pencils, etc.

Oak Hall.

Chas Sellars of Pittsburg, visited among his many friends here last week.

Miss Annie Kline is visiting her cousin, Mrs. Wm. Homan, near Centre Hall.

Mrs. Henrietta Dale and daughter Anna and A. W. Dale attended Pomona Grange at Centre Hall on Tuesday.

Miss Dora Meyer of Boalsburg was a caller in town on Saturday afternoon.

Miss Lizzie Evey of Peru, is staying at Ed. Sellers.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Gilliland and Mrs. Irvin visited at the home of Mrs. Geo. Mitchell on Saturday.

Wald's Homan has returned home from Philadelphia where he had an operation performed on his ear.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry E. Homan and son, and B. T. Homan transacted business at Bellefonte on Monday.

John Wagner of Shingletown was in town on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Korman were at Lemont on Saturday.

Moshannon.

The sudden change in the weather seems to set pretty hard on the people. Colds are a common thing nowadays.

Julia Holt, of Peale, was a pleasant visitor in town the past few days.

Clarence Lucas returned to Howard last week, after a very pleasant visit with old acquaintances here.

Nelson, A. Lucas, of Washington, D. C., was the guest of his brother, J. T. Lucas, the past week.

Mary Lomison made a brief visit to Peale recently.

Protracted meeting has been in progress the past week. Quite a number of people from Pine Glen and Snow Shoe have attended.

John Lucas returned home last week. Mrs. Jennie Viehdorfer was here last week to ship her household goods to her future home, in West Virginia.

A catch word--"grab."

Unionville.

Past Grand, Clyde Cadwallader has fully recovered from his recent severe illness and will leave in a few days for Braddock, where he holds a lucrative position with the Edgar Thompson Steel Company.

Blair, son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Holtzworth, has been very seriously ill with typhoid fever, but under the careful and scientific nursing of Miss Boalick, a trained nurse, he is now rapidly convalescing.

Miss Mira Stimer, seventeen years of age, died on Friday morning of the same dread disease, and was buried on Sunday morning at Hickory Kingdom, in Boggs township.

Daniel Buck brought home from the mountain on last Saturday morning a very nice, large wild turkey.

Eckenroth & Montgomery have completed their contract of painting and papering the M. E. church at this place and, presto change! it is now a "Thing of Beauty and a Joy forever." One would almost suppose that Alladin, with his wonderful lamp, has been around.

The tall and portly form of J. S. McCarger was seen perambulating our streets Monday; but, as usual, when a policeman is most needed, he is a negative quantity. You ought to have seen landlord Alexander's chickens run and hide when he and "Billy" Rankin drove up to the hotel hitching post.

Say! Charley, I have an old "Poetry Machine," with which I used to grind out rhymes years ago, lying on my garret and the other day I was examining it and the measly thing began to talk and this is what the cranky thing said:

McKinley's "it" for four years more; It makes our heart feel sad and sore; For when we crawled out from the wreck, We found we got it in the neck.

We'll send our dinner pail to Mae, And have him fill it with hard tack, And full cantine, and embalmed ham, And have bill charged to Uncle Sam.

Then up the bring stream we'll sail, With heads bent low, our song a wail; But, not long need we endure this pain, For we'll redeem ourselves again.

So when four years have passed away, We'll come back eager for the fray, And battle for the truth and right, And knock the g. o. p. out of sight.

And now my little son I've sung, I'll bid good bye to Andy Young And the g. o. p., but it makes me shiver To think we must go up Salt River.

Then, the creaky thing has stopped. It says such silly things and uses So much slang that I have named it "Far away Moses, Jr."

Beech Creek.

Hayes Stewart, of Island, who is one of a party of Lock Haven hunters in the 'Scotac region, killed a fine deer last week.

A missionary conference will be held in the Presbyterian church next Sunday evening.
