

The Racket.

SHOE SOAP DRESSING
Washes a shoe, a sensible thing. Shoe Soap Dressing oils a shoe with a neutral oil, a good thing. This Dressing gives a beautiful polish, waterproof and clean. A grand thing for Ladies. The m'fg'rs, working through us, Give Very Handsome DOLL SLIPPERS to Little Girls who have induced some grown person to try the Dressing. Price 10c at the Shoe Department.

For a fine display of LAMPS, the product of the best factory in the U. S., see centre window, main room. We can Save U Money on Lamps, too.

G. R. SPIGELMYER.

CORRESPONDENTS DEPARTMENT CONTINUED FROM 7TH PAGE Fiedler.

Wm. Wolf's new residence presents a fine appearance; it is nearing completion and will soon be ready for the painters. Ben Jackson is also erecting a new house at Wolf's Stave mill, and is ready to plaster. Theodore Hosterman has finished sawing on the Wetzel tract, and is ready to move the mill. Rev. J. Tomlinson, a former Lutheran pastor of this place, is paying his many friends a visit. He also held communion services last Sunday and preached in the evening during the week. The services were well attended and very much appreciated; we understand the Rev. Gentleman will preach several sermons at each former appointments. Mrs. Ellen Young, from Boalsburg, paid a visit to her aged mother, Mrs. Sarah Letzler, last week. A party of hunters left from this place on their annual hunting trip to the Alleghenies. They expect to stay two weeks; will report their success next week. Claud Hinds spent Sunday with his friend, Irvin Kern, at Green Briar. They partook of an excellent venison at the home of Wm. Wert, at that place. Jackson Sheehy and wife are spending a few days visiting and butchering with their daughter at Carroll, in Sugar valley. The new township road, from Michael Hess to the gravel bank, is now complete and is ready for use. David Stover, one of our oldest citizens, is afflicted with cancer and is a great sufferer. His daughter Margaret, an aged maiden lady who has been keeping house for him, is also bedfast. Michael Stover had a runaway last week. After hitching up in his barnyard, before he could get into the buggy, his horse started on a run, upset the buggy and demolished it. It is reported that Michael Ebej still has lots of corn to husk. He raised an immense crop this year, and has his cribs all full and lots out yet. DIED:—Nora, wife of Clayton Bower, died of consumption, aged 33 years, interment at Woodward. She was a daughter of Thos. Hosterman, of Coburn. Lizzie Brown, from Juniata Co., is visiting her brother Lew Winegardner. Mrs. David Neece and daughter Ella, made a business trip to this place last week.

Nittany.

We had some very cold, blustery weather the past week. Butchering, making sausage and eating turkey, has been the work of a great many the past week. Don't forget the chicken and waffle supper, to be served in the little room of the Evangelical church, the night of Thanksgiving. Mr. and Mrs. Shoup, of Curtins, spent several days with their daughters, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Emerick, and Mr. and Mrs. Bob Cramer, at this place the past week. Mrs. Frank Bartley and little daughter, of Flemington, spent several days with her father, John Minick, the past week. The great lament is for a good soaking rain before it freezes up; the streams are very low and most of the wells are dry. Miss Bertha Loe has gone to the Williamsport hospital to become a trained nurse. W. E. Shaffer and wife spent Sunday at Spring Mills, visiting friends and helping eat a big McKinley dinner. B. F. Shaffer and N. C. Shaffer started on Monday night to join Purst's men on a hunting expedition. There is Sunday school in the Lutheran church every Sunday morning at 9 o'clock in the Evangelical church at 2 o'clock in the afternoon. Every body cordially invited to attend both schools; but those young people who are in the habit of coming to the afternoon school, had better be on their guard—there is a limit to all things. Miss Orpha Fletcher has been in Bellefonte sewing, the last few weeks.

Church Re-opening.

There will be a re-opening of the M. E. church at Unionville, on Sunday Dec. 1. It is hoped that there will be an unusually large turn out on that day. The church has been beautified with paint and paper, new seats, choir box, and a good time is anticipated. Every body cordially invited.

Fillmore.

I will take the responsibility of trying to give you the news of this little hamlet. It is a large place but has few inhabitants. The town is built up principally of worn fences and stone piles. If I should get onto some one's personal property you must excuse me for I am no trespasser. Our former scribes have left the town, or gone to school—"so, lo's r ga."

Butchering has commenced and up to this time E. P. Roan carries the belt for the largest porker.

On Wednesday Elige Kellerman moved from our neighborhood to Scotia, where he has been working for some time.

On Thanksgiving day there will be a shooting match at this place. All marksmen who like the sport are invited to attend. Match will commence at 12 o'clock sharp.

Dallas Marshall, of Buffalo Run, transacted business in our town on Monday.

Our sick list at this writing are William Saxton, James Bodie and the youngest child of Foster Young. We hope for their speedy recovery. Mr. Bodie has been a sufferer for a long time.

Earl Way passed through our town on his way to Pittsburg, on Monday, where he has secured a good job for the winter. Our merchant, A. C. Kelley, transacted business in Bellefonte on Monday.

Now Wilber, there are more than A. C. Kelley who say that was John Meckley's tame turkey. What everybody says, must be so.

Well, good by for this time, as I am going to help Hen raise his potatoes tomorrow.

FILLMORE NO. 2.

Mud is plenty and news is scarce this week.

Bill goes around with an eight by ten grin on since that little girl arrived at his house.

Willie and Harold young have been ill for sometime past, we hope for their speedy recovery.

It has been reported that the M. E. church is going to be repaired; we cannot say for sure, but we hope it is a true report as it certainly needs it.

The friends of Walter Turner, of Julian, are very sorry to hear of his illness, but hope for his speedy recovery.

Butchering is the principal occupation of the people now.

Mrs. G. W. Twilmyer, of Wilmington, Del., spent a few days last week visiting her mother Mrs. Elizabeth Reese of near this place.

Adam Kelley and sons Claud and Oris, visited relatives in Bellwood sometime ago.

We don't object to people hunting over our land but we do object to them burning squirrels out of trees and setting the woods on fire as they did sometime ago, which resulted in destroying some fine as they did sometime ago, which resulted timber.

We all tell big hunting stories but the biggest we ever heard is one that is going now; a man shot a wild turkey that weighed 50 lbs. We think it must have been a young feathered bear.

Aaronsburg.

Ed. Fehl, of Penn Hall, was home over Sunday.

Miss Carrie Weaver spent several days last week with her uncle, Jerry Mowery, at Centre Hall.

Grandmother Brown, of Lewisburg, is the guest of her son, Rev. F. W. Brown, in our burg.

Postmaster Frank Guisewite, of Fiedler, in company with his family, spent Sunday with his father-in-law, Joo. C. Stover, in our town.

A new boardwalk has been put down on North 2nd street, by some of our progressive citizens and proves quite a convenience to residents of that section.

James Ettinger, of the Lewisburg Chronicle, spent Sunday with his family here.

Sol. Confer, of Snow Shoe, and his son John, of Milesburg, spent several days last week on a visit to the former gentleman's sister, Mrs. Israel Weaver, who is seriously ill with cancer.

Rev. John Tomlinson, D.D., of DuBois, Pa., will, it is said, preach in the Lutheran church of this place next Sunday evening.

Emanuel Cronemiller has commenced butchering again for our people, and judging from the number of porkers he kills, his services are indispensable.

Mrs. P. J. Forster and daughter, Maize, made a trip to Bellefonte Saturday morning, returning again in the evening.

Miss Mollie Gettig, of Spring Bank, spent Sunday with friends in town.

Some of the personal property of the late Thos. Harper will be offered at public sale next Saturday by his executrix, Mrs. Sarah Harper.

Rev. Guinter, of New Berlin, preached a very able sermon in the United Evangelical church of this place, last Saturday evening to a large concourse of people.

Wm. Stover has gone to Altoona to visit his son Charley, who is an employe of the Penna. R. R. Co.

Merchant Rob. Mensch has opened an oyster saloon in connection with his store on east Main street, where he is prepared to serve his customers with steaks, raws or fried. Give him a call.

Mrs. Henry Miller and daughters Bertha and Mamie, of Millheim, spent a day last week at the residence of H. H. Weaver on west Main street.

Axemann.

Mrs. Chas. Garbrick and little daughter, of Bellefonte, spent last Thursday at the home of Mrs. Kate Beck.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Buck, of Connelsville, Pa., visited at the home of Elias Breon last week.

Mrs. Daniel Rider, of Curwensville, visited among her many friends at Centre Hall.

Miss Daisy Heverly entertained her friend, D. Ammerman, of Curwensville, last Thursday.

Mrs. Elias Breon and son Harry visited about four miles below Bellefonte, at the home of Andrew Harter, who is seriously ill. Mrs. Harry Harter and Lizzie Toner also visited there.

PARTY:—On Thursday evening a number of young folks assembled at the home of J. H. Herman, of Rock View.

The following persons were present: Misses Daisy Heverly, Mary Rote, Blanche Kaup, Della Swartz, Anna Kaup, Bertha Breon, Eva and Mabel Marshall, Pearl Waite, Julia Watson, Edith Herman, Messrs. E. D. Beck, Ed. Mease, Roland Mallory, Harry Breon, Morris Hazel, Harry Marshall, Chas. Hughes, Joo. Loeberger, Vernon Waite, Wallace and Miller Herman. After playing for several hours, etc., they returned home. All truly enjoyed themselves very much.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Stover and Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Harris attended the funeral of the late Wm. Stover, of near Bellefonte.

Millheim.

Mrs. W. W. Boob and daughter, Grace, of Centre Hall, were visitors in town several days this week.

Mr. and Mrs. John Woomer, of Bellefonte, are circulating among friends here.

Thomas Buck, of Lewisburg, was a visitor in town over Sunday.

Mrs. J. S. McCargar and Mrs. J. D. Seibert, of Bellefonte, spent several days last week as the guests of friends here.

Mrs. Mary Walizer, of Sunbury, arrived in town Monday. She will visit here, at State College and DuBois.

Mrs. Rebecca Hartman visited her sister, Mrs. Sallie Poorman, at Bloomsburg last week.

Clayton Bressler and mother, Mrs. Catherine Bressler, visited E. E. Bressler, at Williamsport, several days.

Remains of Grant Shaffer, son of David Shaffer, of Madisonburg, were taken through town on Monday afternoon.

Mrs. L. Guisewite, of Harrisburg, came to town Wednesday morning.

The Motz stone crusher went to Smith-town on Monday evening to do some crushing for the Aaronsburg and Old Ford Turapike Co. The road is in very bad shape, and should have considerable work done to it.

The streams, springs and wells have gotten down very low here. Some of the mills must resort to steam power to keep them going.

Jos. W. Reifsnnyder and Edward Brown spent Sunday in Lock Haven.

Dan'l Hoy bought and shipped a load of apples to Renovo.

The entire family of Wm. Swartz, living south of town, is sick with typhoid fever.

J. H. Reifsnnyder, Esq., returned from his eastern trip Monday evening.

Rev. John Tomlinson, who left here about 17 yrs. ago, is conducting services in the Lutheran church since Saturday evening. He is a very able minister, and the services are much appreciated by all.

Rev. Gearhart will conduct a Thanksgiving service in the Lutheran church Sunday morning.

Miss Marian Breon, of Williamsport, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Harry Letzler.

The Knights of the Golden Eagle gave their annual banquet Tuesday evening. There was a good turn out, and ample provision had been made for all. The castle from Spring Mills was in attendance.

Robt. Smith returned from the city on Saturday. On account of his long absence, he lost his run on the trolley line. He expects to work in the hosiery mill.

Tylersville.

DIED:—Daniel Smith died at his home near Booneville, on the 13th inst. and was buried on the 16th in the Lutheran cemetery of that place. He was about 30 yrs. of age.

Miss Bertha Nicholas, who is working at Jersey Shore, was called home by the sudden death of her grandmother, but arrived too late to attend the funeral.

Mrs. C. E. Barner and daughter Etta, of Salona, have been visiting the lady's parents F. K. Millers of this place the past week.

Miss Mary Glantz, formerly of this place, but now of Ridgeway, is visiting her many friends at this place.

Orvis Caris wears a broad smile since the arrival of a little girl to call him papa.

Mr. E. K. Miller, who is working at Hyner, Pa., is at home on a brief visit to his parents.

Butchering season has already opened in our community; several persons having already made their sausage and liver-worst.

A welcome visitor has arrived at J. G. Miller's in the form of a little girl, and she intends to make it her future home.

Mr. Wm. Harter, our store keeper, is gone on a short hunting expedition.

DIED:—Nov. 13, at noon, Mrs. John Nicholas died at her home at this place, of dysentery with which she was afflicted for several years. Interment was made on Friday afternoon in the old Evangelical cemetery. Funeral services conducted by Rev. Gross. She was aged 70 yrs, and was a member of the Evangelical Association for at least 35 years. She is survived by her aged husband, one son and eight grandchildren, three having preceded her to the grave.

Sugarvalley.

The Hess Hunting club report the killing of twenty-eight pheasants, ten rabbits and two wild turkeys last week. Their bill of fare was rich over Sunday.

Earnest Reighard gave good-bye to his friends in Loganton, Monday and departed for Garrett postoffice, North Carolina, where he will join his brother, Ottis Reighard, in the lumber business.

L. M. Karstetter, of Green Burr, was one of a club of hunters who shot nearly one hundred pheasants in the forest along White Deer last week. That's a record breaker, surely.

P. T. Karstetter has two wild turkeys to his credit. He shot them both on the mountains south of Sugar Valley.

The infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Matthew Geiger died on Thursday last. The burial took place in the Mt. Pleasant cemetery.

Tuesday morning, 13, Daniel J. Smith, a resident of near Greencourt, Sugar Valley, was found dead in bed. Six years ago Mr. Smith was partially paralyzed, but recovered apparently from the attack. Upon retiring Monday night he made no complaint of not being as well as usual, but when his wife went to call him Tuesday morning for breakfast she found him dead.

Beech Creek.

Mrs. Eliza DeHass, who was injured by the cars a few weeks ago, is recovering.

Claire Berry was, last Thursday, made assistant train dispatcher in the offices of the N. Y. C. & H. R. K. at Jersey Shore. G. Harvey Mann and David Jones came home last week, the former from Sistersville, West Virginia, the latter from Altoona, Pa.

Miss Lillian Glossner has returned to her home in Blanchard, having completed her work as teacher of the public school at Keating, Pa.

Word was received here last week of the death of William McGhee, son of James McGhee, of this place, in Wisconsin, where he has resided for many years. No particulars have been received.

Bruce Farewell has broken ground for two new houses, J. W. Merry for one new dwelling house, Dr. J. E. Tibbins for one new dwelling house for two families and E. S. Mobley for his new store building.

Lieutenant Grier P. Mobley has returned from Washington, D. C., where he was in the Government Army hospital and submitted to a delicate abdominal operation with success. He is rapidly recovering and is here to pass a few weeks among his many friends.

Rev. Eland, pastor of the Baptist church in Eagleville, is making preparations to leave for Canada in a few days, having resigned his pastorate of the church named. Rev. Barton, a former pastor, now of Clearfield county, has been given a call, but has not yet accepted.

The Pennsylvania Fire Brick Co. is making rapid progress in the erection of their plant at this place. Three frame buildings are already under roof. The frame work of the main building, which will be exceedingly large, has been raised. It is made of heavy timber and is built like a heavy bridge, being reinforced by heavy and long iron rods. The masonry work on the kilns is proceeding rapidly and the excavations for the stacks have been made and the masons will start them this week. The rails, ties and car trucks for the narrow gauge road are arriving daily and the "dinky" engine will be here this week.

Fairbrook.

An inch of snow fell last week, the first of the year.

The buildings on the Peter Keichline farm will undergo some improvements this fall.

Mrs. Mattie Slagle, of Altoona, is visiting her parents in the Glades, C. B. Hess. She seems to like the city and reports all well.

Justice J. M. Keichline, of Bellefonte, spent Saturday and Sunday at this place. His visit was preliminary to business in this section.

J. W. Kepler is not too much depressed by his defeat to be out hunting the co'ton tails, which seem to be plentiful this fall, as Willis Ripka took with him to Altoona twenty-four of the furry tribe. Other hunters are doing equally as well.

Fleming, Jr., of New York, the son of Pres Fleming of the National Machine Co., of Newark, N. J., visited at the residence of G. W. McWilliams.

G. W. Johnston, of this place, was surprised to find one of his fine mules on Sunday evening with one of its legs broken. It was kicked by another horse; he was compelled to kill the unlucky mule.

Mrs. Sadie Gardner, of Rock Springs, injured her left arm very badly by a hard fall, but are glad to report that she is convalescing from her bruises.

Edwin P. Sample, a Centre countain, wins by a large democratic majority for county attorney of Osborne county, Kansas. Mr. Sample is a son of J. C. Sample, who used to reside in Pine Grove Mills.

The free rural mail delivery is almost sure now, as the route agent, J. B. Taylor, of Washington, D. C., was over the route last week, and seems to be much pleased with its course and connections. Mr. Taylor has presented his approbation to the department for action. Possibilities are that W. E. McWilliams, of Rock Springs, will secure the route contract at the salary of $500 per year, with extra fees.

Roland.

Mrs. Jas. B. Curtin, Miss V. Williams and W. Stoner were among those who attended the republican jubilee at Lock Haven, last week.

The funeral of the late James Bathurst took place on Sunday, at one o'clock at this place. The deceased has been a long and patient sufferer, and will be missed greatly by his many friends.

We are glad to say that Mrs. Austin Curtin, who has been ill for some time, is much better at this writing.

Mr. and Mrs. McCormick, Mrs. Plato, of Texas, and Edwin MacEwen, of New Jersey, were visitors at the home of Mrs. J. B. Curtin, last week.

Butchering time has again come around and our friend "Soup" seems to be "in it" once more.

Samuel Bathurst, of Rolfe, came home on Saturday evening for a short visit.

William VanValin, the young Evangelist of Brookville, made a short visit with his sister, Mrs. F. W. Smith and family, this week.

Miss Katherine Curtin and her cousin Harry, were present at the Clay McCormick tea party, Saturday afternoon, at Lock Haven.

Mingoville.

The weather was very cold last week. Mr. and Miss William Johnsonbaug are visiting his parents.

Delemont Yarnell visited his brother "Doc," over Sunday.

Some hunters were out on the Allegheny mountain and came home with some pheasants.

Mr. Hockman is building a large cistern.

Some of our boys got a large wild turkey last week.

J. C. Snook is hauling his apples to Howard for sale.

Perry Marau had the misfortune of getting his thumb smashed while working on the railroad.

The sudden change in the weather is making ice for the skaters. The farmers are busy hauling water.

Centre Hall.

James Shires, of Johnstown, was a visitor in Centre Hall last week.

The Reformed and Methodist congregations held communion Sunday morning. Rev. Harvey Lundy, of Mill Hall, filled the pulpit for Rev. Chilcote in the Methodist church Sunday morning and evening. Their service is still in progress and will continue during the week.

The entertainment in the Presbyterian church to-morrow, Friday, evening, promises to be of an interesting character. The program consists of music and recitations.

The grangers will give a chicken and waffle dinner and supper in Grange Arcadia on Thanksgiving day.

W. W. Boob left for Cincinnati Saturday, where he will remain a week attending a carriagemakers' convention in session at that place.

Mrs. Yearick returned home last week, after spending a month with friends in Union county.

Miss Jennie Reifsnnyder, daughter of Squire Reifsnnyder, of Millheim, was a visitor in town Saturday.

Mrs. C. M. Bower, of Bellefonte, was a guest at the home of D. J. Meyer and Mrs. Bairfoot last week.

Miss Ronelia VanPelt left Monday morning for Chambersburg and will resume her studies at Wilson College. Special attention will be given to vocal and instrumental music.

D. Wagner Geiss and Miss Millie Wagner, of Bellefonte, spent Sunday at the home of D. K. Geiss.

Miss Rebecca Derstine has been ill for several weeks, and is not able to leave the house.

Mrs. Thomas J. Wilson spent the greater part of last week with friends at Howard.

Paul Fortney, of Bellefonte, was a guest at the home of Capt. A. M. Boal Sunday, the 5th.

Union Thanksgiving services will be held in the Reformed church next Thursday morning. The sermon will be delivered by Rev. Kersner, of the Reformed church.

The Bradford hunting party returned home Saturday. They failed to bring any deer home with them.

George Glace, west of town, shot a large wild turkey last week.

Dr. and Mrs. G. W. Hosterman left Tuesday for Philadelphia where they will spend several days, and on their way home will stop over Sunday with their two sons, Sumner, who is practicing law at Lancaster, and John, who is a student at Franklin and Marshall college.

Wm. Knofsinger moved from Pleasant Gap to this place this week. He is employed by Wm. Colyer at his stave mill.

Charley Arney shot a fine wild turkey Tuesday morning. This is the second turkey Charley has shot since the season opened.

High Valley.

The election is over and the result is like the handle on a jug—all on one side.

H. C. Kulp, from Milroy, was seen in the valley looking up prop tumor.

Thomas Motz, one of our Penn township gentlemen, is nearly tickled to death over the result of the election. He says, four years more in paradise! Mr. Motz, is that a place or rest?

The real estate agent was sitting at his desk when the news of the republican landslide was heard. He jumped on his feet and struck over hills and mountain for Rankelstown, singing the old tune, "No place like home."

The Georgetown scribe says he was the heaviest loser on election day. He claimed his rockaway is damaged and Nelly lost all her shoes which cost him fifty cents to replace.

When the landslide reached Georgetown the republicans had such a jollification that nearly all the bullfrogs took lockjaw, and the major from Drum Station was ordered to be on hand with his posse and demand order.

Rumor has it that Sammy Snyder and the belle of High valley will be married in the near future. That is right, only don't put it off too long.

Ira Snyder says the valley is so full of sick people since the republican victory that he is compelled to peddle medicine. The Ingley scribe must be sticking in the mud since he don't bark up.

Frank Kerstetter is shipping lumber from Poe Mills to Rankelstown. It is rumored that he will build an office for the real estate agent.

Wild geese were plenty on last Wednesday.

Frank Allen says he doesn't care to be called papp; but grandpap sounds so old,

Kreamerville.

Sunday brought a wonderful change in the weather, while Monday brought some rain.

Mrs. Geo. B. Waite was to Centre Hall visiting her mother, Saturday and Sunday.

Butchering is all the go at present. Amos Fehl killed the boss hogs so far, weighed 351 lbs.

Rev. Chilcote will preach a temperance sermon, Sunday the 25th.

Our cigar factory is getting all aglow, having received an order a few days ago for 1500 cigars from one man. A man smoking Mr. Bierly's cigars once, will have them always afterwards.

Edwin Harry has been nursing a sore or plumped up face on account of neuralgia.

Mrs. Jane Confer and daughter are visiting her parents here at present.

Mrs. W. H. Winkieblech is visiting at James Millers.