

SENATOR DAVIS DEAD.

Minnesota Statesman Succumbs After Two Months' Illness.

DELIRIOUS FOR MANY DAYS.

In His Delirium He Raved About His Congressional Work—Was Unconscious For Several Hours Before Death, and Suffered No Pain.

St. Paul, Nov. 28.—United States Senator Cushman Kellogg Davis, chairman of the committee on foreign relations of the senate, died at his home in this city at 8:48 o'clock last evening, after an illness of two months. He had suffered greatly during his sickness and gradually sank away, being unconscious for several hours before death and, so far as known, suffering no pain. On Monday, realizing the approach of the end, Mrs. Davis sent for the venerable T. H. M. Villiers Appleby, archdeacon of the Protestant Episcopal diocese of Minnesota, and Rev. Theodore Sedgwick, rector of the Church of St. John the Evangelist. An attempt had been made to secure the attendance of Bishop Whipple, but that venerable prelate was in Florida. Upon the arrival of Archdeacon Appleby and Mr. Sedgwick, Senator Davis was for a time sufficiently rational to express his grateful appreciation of their ministrations. His last conscious utterance was: "Oh, that I might live five years more for my country's sake."

For more than a week it has been known that the death of Senator Davis was certain to occur within a short time. Although the bulletins issued by Dr. Stone from day to day made no positive statement to this effect, they nevertheless gave the impression that the case was a hopeless one.

However, the announcement came as a profound shock to the friends and fellow townsmen of the distinguished statesman, who had been hoping against hope. The senator's devoted wife, who has been in constant attendance upon his sick bed, had never lost hope. The senator, in his moments of lucidity, expressed a strong determination to recover, and within the past week told United States District Attorney Evans, who had been admitted to see him, that he was positive he would soon be well. Indeed, it is the general belief that the senator's iron will is all that has kept him alive for the past week. The serious kidney affection which developed on Nov. 11 had refused to yield to treatment.

On Sunday, Nov. 18, a serious change for the worse was noted. Previous to that the senator had been reported as having occasional periods of delirium. On that day these delirious spells became more marked, and since then the lucid intervals have become less and less frequent, until the senator was almost constantly out of his mind. In his delirium he raved of his congressional work.

There have been many callers at the Davis house, but no one was admitted to the sick room. Two trained nurses were in attendance, relieving each other after short watches. By the senator sat his wife, who, despite the doctors' order that she go to rest, refused to leave the bedside. Her vigil has been a long and trying one, but she has borne the ordeal bravely, and if wifely devotion could have saved the dying man he would have been saved. Even in his delirium the senator was quick to notice her absence from his side and would toss feverishly about until again quieted by her presence. When rational he assured her that he would owe his recovery—which he never seemed to doubt—to her unwavering cheerfulness and encouragement.

Second only to Mrs. Davis in his devoted attendance has been the senator's aged father. Although past 85 years of age, the elder Mr. Davis has watched over the sick bed of his distinguished son with tender solicitude. The senator's mother has herself been very feeble of late, and she has not realized her son's condition. Mrs. Morford and Mrs. Bartlett Tripp, the senator's sisters, have been staying at the house since the serious nature of his disease has been known and have relieved Mrs. Davis of the household cares and have received all callers.

Cushman Kellogg Davis was born at Henderson, N. Y., June 16, 1828, and in childhood came with his parents to Waukesha, Wis. Educated at Carroll college and the University of Michigan, he graduated in 1857. He was practicing law when the civil war broke out. Enlisting in 1862, he was mustered out in 1864, and resumed his law practice. After serving a term in the Minnesota legislature and as district attorney, he was elected governor of the state in 1873, and in 1887 was chosen United States senator, being twice re-elected.

Woman's Brave Fight With Burglar.
Union Hill, N. J., Nov. 28.—Mrs. Frederick Weismann, wife of School Trustee Frederick Weismann, had a desperate fight with a burglar in her home last night. She and the rest of the family were in the lower part of the house. Mrs. Weismann heard a noise and went up on the third floor to investigate. A man was putting silverware into two bags, and Mrs. Weismann grappled with him. He beat her in the face and on the chest, rendering her unconscious. The burglar ran down to the first floor and jumped through a window, making his escape. Mrs. Weismann was revived, but is badly bruised. Authorities are scouring the locality for the man.

Dowie's Lacerators Admitted.
Washington, Nov. 27.—The treasury department yesterday decided to admit the lacerators and their families who were brought to this country by Dr. J. A. Dowie, the "Divine Healer," and the founder of Zion City, Ill., to teach others the art of lacerating. This is a reversal of the action of the Philadelphia immigration officials, who had decided that the lacerators should not be admitted to this country.

President's Thanksgiving Turkeys.
Washington, Nov. 28.—Today there arrived at the White House a magnificent 31-pound turkey from Horace Voz, of Westerly, R. I., who for many years has furnished the White House Thanksgiving turkey. It will grace the president's table tomorrow, together with a splendid turkey sent by Dr. J. S. Trexler, of Kutztown, Pa.

THREE NITRO-GLYCERINE ON BONFIRE.

Three Boys Killed and Fourteen Wounded, Two Perhaps Fatally.

Wheeling, W. Va., Nov. 28.—At Leaserville, W. Va., 20 miles above Wheeling, on the Ohio river, a crowd of 20 boys had built a fire on the river bank from driftwood and were watching the rising waters. In a lot of driftwood one of the boys threw on the fire was a can partially filled with nitro-glycerine. Immediately there was a terrific explosion and three boys were killed and 14 wounded, of whom two may die. The dead: Harmon Finley, aged 13, son of a poor widow; Willie Davis, aged 9 years; Robert Finley, aged 13 years.

Injured: Harry and Herman Arboget, Will Nangle, Will Blackburn, Wesley Cusick, James Jones, Theodore and Alex Gilchrist, Charles Thomas, Ralph Hahn, Thomas Kinney, John Bone and John Webb, all boys under 21 years. Of these Will Nangle and Will Blackburn may die. As a result of the explosion an infant child of Mrs. Durig died a few minutes afterward.

The Killing of Apache Kid.
Salt Lake, Utah, Nov. 27.—Details were received yesterday of the killing of the supposed Apache Kid near Pachuco, Mex., a few days ago. The killing included three Indians, one of them supposed to be the notorious Apache Kid, for whom the United States government has offered a reward of $5,000. The other dead were an Indian squaw, with a papoose, who fell in the fight, it not being known that the adult was a woman, and the child was not seen until after the fight. The shooting was done by two men whom the Indians had robbed and who had followed the band. They had decided to let the robbers go, when the latter came forward in a trail that made the shooting a necessity.

Burglars Killed Village Watchman.
Cobleskill, N. Y., Nov. 28.—Matthew Wilson, night watchman in this village, was shot and instantly killed just before 2 o'clock in the morning by a supposed gang of burglars. Four men were seen coming down West Main street just preceding the shooting, and it is supposed Wilson came in contact with them and was shot down. Many shots were fired, the watchman's revolver being empty and the plate glass windows across the street shattered by shots evidently fired by the burglars. The fusillade aroused the people and the night watchman was found lying dead in the street, with four bullet holes in his body. A reward of $500 is offered.

Alleged Jewelry Thieves Indicted.
Baltimore, Nov. 28.—The grand jury yesterday found indictments against John Murphy, "Thousand Dollar Harry," and Henry Nass, the men arrested in New York last Friday on the charge of having robbed jeweler Alexander J. Hubbard, of this city. Detective Hagan secured from Governor Smith yesterday requisition papers on the New York authorities for the prisoners. The aged victim of the robbers was not seriously injured, but because of his advanced age the shock was severe and he has not been able to leave his bed since the assault and robbery.

No Disfranchisement in Maryland.
Baltimore, Nov. 28.—Leading local Democrats do not take much stock in the resolutions passed by the Fairmount Democratic club, of the Seventh ward, urging Governor John Walter Smith to call the legislature in special session for the passage of an act for a constitutional amendment intended to disfranchise negro voters. It is pointed out that Governor Smith was against the disfranchisement scheme when it was proposed last winter, and, therefore, would undoubtedly decline to call the legislature in extra session.

Seven Sailors Probably Drowned.
Detroit, Nov. 28.—A report reached here last night from Amherstburg that Capt. Frank B. Hackett, of the tug Home Rule, on his return there from the Point Pelee Middle Ground, in Lake Erie, stated that the schooner which had been aground there since Sunday was the Maumee Valley, of Toledo. The schooner has disappeared, and Capt. Hackett is quoted as saying that he believes the waves dashed the vessel to pieces and that the seven sailors who were lashed to the rigging have been drowned.

Plot to Murder Lord Roberts.
London, Nov. 28.—The war office publishes the following dispatch from Lord Roberts, dated Johannesburg, Nov. 26: "As reports of a plot against my life will probably reach you, I think you should know the facts. It is believed that there was a plot in existence, and five Italians, four Greeks and one Frenchman were arrested Nov. 16, and are now awaiting trial. Their intentions were to explode a mine under St. Mary's church during the morning service, held at 11 o'clock, on Nov. 18."

San Francisco, Nov. 28.—Word has been received here that the overdue schooner Czar, of this city, has been wrecked off the Mexican coast. Her crew, composed of Capt. Wagner and eight men, have probably been drowned. William Olson, owner of the Czar, yesterday received a telegram, which said that the wreck of the schooner had been sighted drifting off the coast near Chimo, about 60 miles from San Blas.

ANARCHIST CONSPIRACY

An Alleged Plot to Assassinate President McKinley.

AUTHORITIES INVESTIGATING.

A Letter Sent to the Police of Hoboken, N. J., Gives the Name of the Alleged Chief Conspirator, Which Is Kept Secret.

Hoboken, N. J., Nov. 28.—The police of this city have received a letter alleging the existence of a plot to assassinate President McKinley. The writer of the letter gave in his communication the name of the alleged chief conspirator, which the police refuse to make public at this time. The letter, which is illegibly signed, is as follows:

"Sir: Having almost thoroughly aspired myself of an anarchist plot against his excellency, McKinley, I consider it my duty to advise you of the name of one who is more than suspected of being a leader, whose name is found in the enclosed slip. He is a fugitive from justice, and a dangerous man, having been convicted several times, and on the last occasion being sentenced to five years' imprisonment for an anarchist attempt.

"My statement can be verified on appealing to the prefect of police at Paris, France. In the course of the past year he had concealed with him a man named Francois, the author of an anarchist attempt at Scranton, where he mortally wounded an agent of the police."

The writer of this letter, the police say, has been located, and his story will be investigated.

THE SCRANTON ANARCHISTS.

They Are Now Serving a Term in the Eastern Penitentiary.

Scranton, Pa., Nov. 28.—On the night of July 1, 1897, two men who were prowling about the house of a prominent coal operator, just outside the city limits in Dunmore borough, were surprised by a couple of Dunmore police and one of the latter officers, Patrick Keyes, was shot and seriously, though not fatally, wounded. The prowlers escaped. The next morning a dynamite bomb, to which was fastened a leather thong, by which it could be hung to a door knob or nail on the side of a house, was picked up at the scene of the shooting.

A year later a letter was received by the Scranton police announcing that two anarchists, Jean Guilhot and Francois Merlier, were under arrest in Montreal on suspicion of having shot a policeman while attempting to blow up the house of a wealthy coal operator. A Montreal detective heard them boasting of the deed at a drunken orgie in an anarchist rendezvous in the French quarter.

The two suspects were brought here and by the exercise of strategy on the part of the police they were induced to confess. They were sent to the eastern penitentiary last June for five years. Both were young men, not over 25 years of age, and had been in Scranton only a few months when they committed the crime. They worked as laborers in the mines, but they were both well educated and evidently sons of good families.

Americans Ambushed by Filipinos.
Manila, Nov. 28.—A detachment of the Third United States Infantry was ambushed Saturday near Malolos. The Ladrones fired a volley at the Americans, killing two privates of Company F and wounding three. The insurgents escaped into a swamp. Numerous insurgent bands have been dispersed and considerable quantities of stores destroyed in the province of Bulacan by Gen. Grant's mounted scouts. Gen. Bates reports the capture of 33 insurgents, six of whom murdered seven persons last spring. While returning by steamer a detachment of Americans landed at San Vicente and attacked a body of rebels, killing seven. A branch party attacked a band beyond Palestina, killing five and capturing 19.

Pittsburg Free From Flood Danger.
Pittsburg, Nov. 28.—All danger from the flood has passed so far as Pittsburg is concerned. One of the remarkable incidents of the flood was the wild ride of an empty 35,000 barrel metal tank down the Monongahela river yesterday. Where it came from has not yet been discovered, but the huge vessel came plunging over the dam at Lock No. 1 at an 18 mile an hour gait. It finally wound up its career by sinking in 25 feet of water at a point opposite the mouth of Ferry street, and just where it will impede navigation when the river resumes its normal stage.

Tampa's Strike Growing.
Tampa, Fla., Nov. 28.—Several hundred men were added to the striking forces here yesterday. These came principally from unorganized labor and buildings in the course of construction are more at a standstill than on Monday. Much incendiary talk is being indulged in, together with threats that the Resistencia union is to be forced from the factories if the general strike does not have the effect of bringing them out.

Presbyterians Favor Revision.
Pittsburg, Nov. 27.—W. R. Crabbe, the Pittsburg member of the revision committee of the Presbyterian general assembly, said last night that all of the presbyteries have voted on the question of revision of the creed, resulting in the revisionists securing about 72 per cent of the votes. A two-thirds vote is required to make a change. The committee will meet in Washington, Dec. 4, to take action.

A Father Tells of the Great Improvement the New Treatment Has Wrought in the Case of his Daughter Who Had Suffered From Catarrh for Several Years.

For several years my daughter was badly afflicted with Catarrh, catching cold continually and on the slightest provocation. Her head was stopped up, and she was constantly coughing and hawking. The dropping in her throat was very annoying. She suffered frequently with Headache also. All these things told very much on her general health which began to rapidly break down. The NEW TREATMENT has proved a blessing in her case for now only after one month's treatment. She is rapidly improving and hopes in a short time to be entirely rid of these ailments. I heartily recommend Dr. Stites' NEW TREATMENT to all afflicted.
