

COURT TO THE RESCUE

To Protect Gould Fortune From Castellane's Improvidence.

AN INJUNCTION ORDER GRANTED.

Trustees of the Gould Estate Restrained From Using Any Part of the Trust Funds For the Payment of the Countess's Debts.

New York, Nov. 27.—Samuel Untermyer applied to and obtained yesterday from Justice Fitzgerald, sitting in the supreme court, an injunction order returnable on Monday next, against the Count and Countess Castellane, and George Gould, Edwin Gould, Howard Gould and Helen M. Gould, as trustees under the will of Jay Gould, restraining them from paying to Anna Gould, Countess de Castellane, any part of the estate in the hands of the trustees, or from applying any part of the trust fund to the debts of Anna Gould or to her support or that of her children until the further direction of the court.

The plaintiff in the suit is Anton J. Dittmar, who sues as assignee of Asher Wertheimer, a London broker-dealer. The complaint contains copies of drafts accepted in writing by the Count and Countess de Castellane, amounting to upwards of $385,000, of which $285,000 and upwards are past due.

It is alleged that Anna Gould has $18,000,000 held in trust for her by her brothers and sister and that her income is about $900,000. It is claimed that $250,000 a year is all that the count and countess require for their support, and the plaintiff asks that the remainder of the income should be applied to the payment of the couple's debts. It is said that over $250,000 of surplus income has already accumulated in the hands of the trustees which ought to be used for this purpose.

The present suit is said to be a test case, and it is reported, is backed by other creditors than Wertheimer. A few weeks ago George J. Gould was appointed guardian for the Countess de Castellane in a proceeding in the French courts. The creditors claim that the purpose of this proceeding was to get the property of the Countess de Castellane away from attack by her creditors, so as to enable the Goulds to force settlement of the debts at their own time and on their own terms.

Judge Dillon, counsel for the Gould family, made the following statement concerning the suit: "The Countess de Castellane is not entitled to any part of the capital or principal sum of the estate of her father, as the statement of the plaintiff seems to imply. The will of Mr. Gould provides, in substance, that the income is to be a trust fund in the hands of the trustees, to be appropriated for the support and maintenance of his daughter, and that she cannot anticipate or dispose of any part of that income until it is actually received by her, and that until so received it shall not be liable for her debts or those of her husband; and undoubtedly the trustees will feel it to be their duty to have this provision in the will carried out in its full extent, or so far as possible. She has no control, nor has the court any control, over the principal sum, which goes to her children after her death."

In the foregoing statement it is said the creditors claimed at the proceedings in Paris whereby George Gould was appointed guardian for his sister, that the idea of the Gould family was to get possession of the income of the Countess de Castellane and force her creditors to settle on their own terms. This is obviously a mistake, as the only effect of that proceeding is to prevent her from incurring fresh obligations without the consent of her brother.

Sold Fraudulent Insurance. Baltimore, Nov. 28.—George A. Fowle, of Washington, pleaded guilty in the United States circuit court yesterday of using the mails in a scheme to defraud and was sentenced by Judge Morris to 18 months in the Maryland penitentiary. Fowle and Frank B. Fardon, both young men with prominent connections in Washington and Virginia, were indicted in June, 1899. They had, it is said, an insurance agency here. The firm secured many fire insurance policies. Several fires occurred in which the property was insured, and when the owners applied for their money it was not produced. Fowle declared that he was the principal in the offense, and sought to exonerate Fardon.

A New York Lawyer Missing. New York, Nov. 28.—Francis Duffy, a well known lawyer, is strangely missing from his home, on Manhattan avenue. His family last saw him on Thursday morning, when he started for his office on Broad street. Since then all trace of him has been lost. He was temperate and domestic in his habits. He never remained away from home late and always took his wife with him when he went out. Not in 15 years has he been away all night. He was in his office until 6 o'clock and left there telling his associates that he was going home. That was the last seen of him.

Death of Commissioner Wilson. Washington, Nov. 28.—George W. Wilson, commissioner of internal revenue, died yesterday in his apartments at the Riggs House of Bright's disease complicated with asthma, aged 67. He had been dangerously ill for several days past. There were with him at the time of his death Mrs. Wilson, his daughter, Mrs. Pardonner, and several of his associates of the treasury department.

To Wed a German Baron. Louisville, Nov. 28.—Arthur G. Langham, of this city, announces the engagement of his niece, Miss Lillian May Langham, to Baron Herman Speck Von Sternberg, formerly first secretary of the German embassy at Washington, and lately appointed consul general at Calcutta. Miss Langham is now living in England.

Count Sentenced For Forgery. Montreal, Nov. 28.—Count de Toulon-Laurie, who was extradited to Canada from Chicago, was yesterday sentenced to five years in the penitentiary on a charge of uttering bonds knowing them to be forged.

HUNTER ACCIDENTALLY KILLED.

Son of a Wilkesbarre Millionaire, and a Yale Graduate, Met Death in North Carolina—Beaten to Death in a Fight.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., Nov. 28.—Word was received here last night of the tragic death of George F. Nesbitt, at Mebane, N. C., yesterday. Mr. Nesbitt left here a week ago on a hunting trip to North Carolina. The dispatch conveying the news of his death says he had left a colored attendant in a carriage in the woods and started off with his two dogs. Not returning as soon as expected, the colored man started to search for him. He found Mr. Nesbitt's dead body a short distance away. The supposition is that he fell and his gun was discharged, the load of shot entering his left side, causing instant death. The dead man was a son of Abram Nesbitt, president of the Second National bank, of Wilkesbarre, and probably the wealthiest resident in the Wyoming valley. Young Nesbitt graduated from Yale in the class of 1887.

Beaten to Death in a Fight. Towanda, Pa., Nov. 27.—Silas Moon, a blacksmith, aged 45 years, died yesterday from the effects of a beating at the hands of William Welling, 32 years of age, a resident of Binghamton, N. Y. Welling is in custody, he having been arrested as he was about to escape to New York state. Welling on Thursday night last went to Moon's house near New Albany, and a quarrel soon developed. Welling threw Moon to the floor and beat him into insensibility with his fists. Since then Moon had been conscious only a few hours, and death ensued yesterday.

Serious Flood at Dubois, Pa. Dubois, Pa., Nov. 27.—This section of the country experienced one of the worst floods yesterday that has occurred in many years. All of the manufacturing plants situated on low ground were compelled to close down, and many residences in the lower parts of the town have four to six feet of water on the ground floors. The Beaver meadows are covered to a depth of three and four feet for miles around.

Two Children Burned to Death. Wilkesbarre, Pa., Nov. 28.—Fire at midnight destroyed three dwelling houses in Plymouth occupied by miners. One of the houses was occupied by a man named Michael Lareda. The family were asleep, and when the father was aroused he carried out two of his children. The flames prevented him from going into the house again, and two other children, Mary and Andrew, aged 9 and 4, perished.

Shipping Coal South. Pittsburg, Nov. 27.—About 3,000,000 bushels of coal were started to southern points yesterday. More would have been shipped had the river not been on such a rampage, making it unsafe. The river at 10 p. m. registered at the dam 21 feet, and rising at the rate of six inches an hour. Both the Allegheny and Monongahela are still rising, the result of heavy rains along their entire length.

Two Killed by Fall of Coal. Scranton, Pa., Nov. 24.—William Lamond, a miner, and Joseph Meszkey, a laborer, were crushed to death yesterday by a fall of coal in the Pine Brook colliery of the Ontario and Western company. Their bodies were horribly mangled. Both men were unmarried.

Rheumatism.

Nobody knows all about it; and nothing, now known, will always cure it.

Doctors try Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil, when they think it is caused by imperfect digestion of food. You can do the same.

It may or may not be caused by the failure of stomach and bowels to do their work. If it is, you will cure it; if not, you will do no harm.

The way, to cure a disease is to stop its cause, and help the body get back to its habit of health.

When Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil does that, it cures; when it don't, it don't cure. It never does harm.

The genuine has this picture on it, take no other. If you have not tried it, send for free sample, its agreeable taste will surprise you. SCOTT & BOWNE, Chemists, 409 Pearl St., N. Y. Soc. and $1.00; all druggists.
