Some pavements, are like the temper of some folks, very uneven.

THE fellow that thinks he knows it all in many instances is found to know nothing.

EVEN most of the democrats have stopped seeing things since the election. So squeaks a republican exchange and we may add thousands of workingmen don't "see" their dinner pails filled since election

HON. CHARLES A. MAYOR, HON. A. O. Furst and Hon. John G. Love, of the score of president judges who presided over the Centre county courts since the living-the rest have gone to that Higher Court where justice is unerringly meeted out to all.

IF Centre county keeps losing in population, at the rate the late census shows, we may be relegated out of being a single judicial district and joined to another county. Just think, if we had to go back of prosecution and imprisonment in the to having two associate judges-how little we Centre county people would furnished a lot of governors?

BELLEPONTE.

TEDDY ROOSEVELT, in his buffoon stumping tour through the far west, made great ado about mayor Van Wyck and his connection with the ice trust. Just see how history repeats itself:

A. D. 33. "Then said Pilot to the chief priests, I find no fault in this man." A. D. 1900, Nov. I, Governor Roosevelt, find no fault in this man Van Wyck.

THE only living governors of Pennsylvania arepPattison, Beaver and Hastings. All the lieutenant governors under the constitution of 1873, then first authorized, are living, namely : John Latta, Charles W. Stone, Chauncey F. Black, William T. Davis, Louis A. Waters, Walter A. Lyon and John P. S. Gobins-all elected charged. in order as named.

Now it's the salt trust. The National Salt Company that controls 95 per cent. of the salt output of the country and practically dominates the whole salt trade, has improved on the advance of the beef trusts by more than doubling the price of table salt. The price was $1.10 per 100 pounds before the election and now it has been advanced to $2.50.

WHAT a fuss the McKinley organs made about VanWyck and the ice trust, and the prediction that Roosevelt would remove the Mayor soon as he returned from his monkeyish stumping tour. Teddy got back and announced he found nothing wrong about VanWyck's connection,"with the ice trust and there was no cause for his removal. The ice trust shouters can now spit their tobacco juice at Roosevelt.

COMMEMORATE INDIAN MASSACRE.

Now that patriotic citzens of Centre county have erected monuments to mark the first fort in the county and the place where the first white man was killed by the Indians, a move is on foot by the Daughters of the Revolution to erect a marker in honor of the Jacob Stanford tamily, four members of which were killed by Indians on May 8, 1778, it being the only wholesale Indian massacre within the history of the country. This massacre we referred to a num-
