Happenings About Centre County Briefly Told by

A CORPS OF ABLE WRITERS

Our Alert Correspondents Note Many Important Events in Different Localities—What is Transpiring—Is Your Section Represented?

Colyer.

Miss Lydia Housman, from Altoona, and Miss Carrie Housman and Verna Lytel, from Centre Hill, were guests at J. S. Housman's last Sunday.

H. C. Robison, from Spring Mills, was transacting business through our vicinity and visiting at Wm. C. Forman's, last Wednesday.

Mrs. Adam Grenoble, from Spring Mills, is spending a week over butchering with her daughter, Mrs. J. H. Moyer.

Korman Spicher returned last Wednesday to Philadelphia, where he holds a position as conductor for the Union Traction Co. He spent his ten-day vacation at P. B. Jordans, and joined the Colyer hunting party.

Miss Maud Wolf, the handsome and accomplished daughter of John Wolf, from State College, is spending several weeks with her friends, Miss Mary and Blanche Moyer, also calling on her newly met friends and attending the protracted meetings and butchering and is having an enjoyable time.

Miss Cora Houtz returned home after spending a week with her mother, Mrs. Frank Treaster, at Bellefonte.

Constable Philip Frank, from Centre Hill, seems to be very busy throughout our community of late; also down the valley as far as Green Grove. Beware Philip that you don't get it in the neck again.

Constable Philip Leitzell, from Millheim, was seen at the squire's last Saturday with a prisoner.

Wm. Colyer, from Centre Hill, transacted business throughout our community on Friday afternoon and attended several law suits.

Our surveyor, J. S. Housman, W. Colyer and P. S. Boal were surveying some mountain land one day last week, which Wm. Colyer sold to Wm. B. Mingle.

G. R. Miess offers his home on Zion Hill for sale—a very nice and desirable home. Henry Shadow also offers his home for sale.

Mrs. Henry Maves, who has been in feeble health during the past year, is very slowly improving.

George Lee, who was dangerously hurt some time ago, by the trolley, while at work on Hayett lumber job, is slowly improving.

A. J. Weaver is greatly rejoicing over the arrival of a young daughter in his home.

Squire J. S. Housman purchased the Robson farm, of a hundred and some acres, the same as yet being for rent.

A. J. Weaver will leave this week for Kulp's lumber camp, where he will take up blacksmithing during this coming year and close his shop at home, where he held an excellent trade.

Wm. Boal is alright now, he has a dandy horse and buggy, and Billy is as spry as a youth of 21 years. Girls, now is your time to set your cap—Billy needs a housekeeper, and has a nice big house, two fat hogs, and lots to eat, only he needs some one to prepare it.

Wm. Stump was surprised last Tuesday forenoon while plowing in a field along the road opposite the saw mill, at Slack's lane. Suddenly a deer approached him within six yards of his team. Will was shocked and if he had had his gun it would have been his meat. It escaped in the direction of the mill dam.

J. J. Jordan, our handsome and lucky sportsman, has the high honors of shooting a fine large wild turkey the other week. His mother, Mrs. F. B. Jordan, generously opened her house and invited a number of her many friends and relatives and served them with a delicious roast, to which all did ample justice.

Among the guests present were: Miss Emma Swartz, Miss Blanche Housman, Mrs. Sallie Horner, Mr. and Mrs. John Horner and son Orvis, and daughters, Miss Sallie and Grace.

Lloyd Kerlin and two sons, from Juniata county, have been spending several weeks at P. B. Jordans. Lloyd, who is quite a sportsman, is trying his luck after the game.

A. B. Lee is slowly recovering from his recent adventure. On Saturday last, while out hunting, to his great amazement, he discovered three deer licking at his grip for salt. Arthur, although bewildered and excited, aimed and fired three shots; but, Oh! dear, he sighed—he never touched them.

On Saturday our Colyer hunting party shot a fine deer. Frank Lingle shot it the first, J. J. Jordan the second time, which laid him low. Success to the boys; but poor Arthur mourns the loss, that he wasn't with them.

Sheriff had quite a serious experience several weeks ago, from the effects of which he is still in a critical condition, but is improving. Sheriff was out hunting turkeys, when all of a sudden he spied a flock of the feathery tribe, which frightened him so that he took heart disease, the upper part of his head became loose, his upper eyelids did flop.

Swartz's sale last Saturday was largely attended, though the weather was very unfavorable, which prevented many from attending. Everything brought good prices.

Protracted meeting has been in progress during last and this week, in the Zion Evangelical church. In the absence of Rev. Fenstermacher, Squire Housman conducted the services.

The United Christians have been holding a revival in the New Michigan chapel, during the past few weeks, with good success. Rev. Wincon, from Huntingdon county, has been conducting the meeting.

How about the two old women and the two kids?

Wm. Stump took a trip to Bellefonte last Thursday.

John H. Barr, who took typhoid fever a few weeks ago, is not yet able to be about, but is recovering.

Elmer, from Centre Hill, can you account for Miss Katie's absence at the Y. P. A. the other Sunday evening?

John H. Barr, of near Colyer, lost 65 of his early turkeys, in one week, of the cholera, last summer, and yet he has a large flock left. His entire stock numbered over two hundred.

Milesburg.

James Krebs, of Boggs twp., shredding corn fodder, had a mishap when oiling a shreader; his foot slipped, throwing his right hand out to save his face, caught his two middle fingers in the wheel, cutting the ends off. He is now carrying the hand in a sling.

Dr. S. M. Huff's father moved into John Wagner's large brick house in Central City.

Andrew Hugg has charge of his mother's store of this place, since his parents left for Phillipsburg to take charge of the Swan hotel of that place.

George Derr of Central City killed three porkers weighing 349, 362 1/2, 493 1/2 lbs.

A gentleman, on Bond Holder's Row, wished to have a cheap barrel of cider, asked a farmer of Central City to furnish him with the cider; "certainly I will furnish you with it," the bondholder loaded his barrel on a wheelbarrow, took it to the farmer in faith to have it filled with good sweet cider. A few days later on, Mr. farmer approached the gentleman telling him his barrel was ready for him, Mr. gentleman in full glee started for his apple juice, with some difficulty arrived home with it. Tapped the cider to give his family a delightful drink of the liquid, Lo! and behold! it proved to be the liquid drawn from the pump; we did not learn the result from his spelling bee afterwards, as he is known to be a rough speller, when his temper is raised.

Jeanetta Heverly, a daughter of Mrs. Kate Heverly, and grandchild of James Heverly, was standing near the outside cellar door on Wednesday, when a heavy gale blew her into the cellar breaking her right arm at the elbow joint. Dr. Huff was called and set the broken arm. She is getting along splendidly.

Ed. Kinne left on Monday for Kartaus to take charge of a gang of men on the new railroad, between Kartaus and Clearfield.

Miss McKee returned to Pittsburg after a pleasant visit of four weeks with Miss May Wharton.

Miss May Wharton left this week for the Lock Haven hospital where she is employed as trained nurse.

Rev. Richard Wharton began his revival meeting at Unionville on Sunday night last.

A Mr. Ammerman while ditching on market street, unearthed a silver dollar; by the appearance of it, must have laid there for a long time.

Misses Blanch Campbell and Ada Baird left for a visit to Tyrone and Phillipsburg among their dearies.

A lady of Pike street recently fell on her front porch, jumped up, looked around to see if any one had noticed her taking the tumble, after which she began a blue streak of cuss words. On Monday morning picked up the double axe. "I'll cut h-l out of the d-m old porch"; fell to work, made kindling wood of it; it is now numbered with the past.

On Friday morning the 23rd, between the hours of 12 and 2, had a regular mid summer thunder shower, loud peals of thunder and sharp lightning with a heavy rain.

Spring Mills.

Rain Saturday and Sunday all day which will help the low streams and wells.

Sheriff Cyrus Brungart was in town last week one day to look up prosperity.

Frank Ripka, employed by C. J. Finkel as farm hand, the jolly good fellow, thought he would try to drive a team on a lumber job but one week was enough for him, farming is good enough.

Jerry Zettle, of Georges Valley, has his new house nearly completed to move into.

Jacob Hazel, the shoe agent, who has a large trade in this valley, had a very successful fall trade.

John Graden, who has been housed up for the past five weeks with fever, is on the mend.

Emanuel Shook has started a plum orchard of which he expects to reap some benefit next year. He is taking pride in it as he thinks it will pay better than a peach orchard.

Mrs. Nellie Gramley is able to be about again to attend to her house work.

Some of our wild turkey hunters, who had such excellent luck in bringing down their game, which turned out to be tame turkeys, had they known the price they would not tasted half so well.

John Zerby left last Monday for Culp's lumber job in the Seven mountains.

Moshannon.

Mrs. Gulliver, of Kane, has been visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Quick, near this place.

John A. Lucas, of Altoona, who is working at Jersey Shore, was in town one day last week.

Austin Kerin and wife entertained a number of friends and relatives during the past week.

Herman Viehderfer, of Jersey Shore, was a visitor in our town recently.

Charley William's mother is visiting at his home at present.

The protracted meeting closed last Thursday evening, after a series of successful meetings.

Mrs. Bickets is slowly recovering from a serious fall which she received a few weeks ago.

The copious rainfall during the past week will surely replenish the wells and should be a great cause for thanksgiving among the people.

Since getting a telephone in the post office, at this place, the post office clerk has been so busy answering calls that she has hardly time to attend to the mails; think she should have an assistant.

Cure Your Cold While You Can

It is not better to cure your cold while you can, in its incipency, rather than take the chance of its resulting in pneumonia, catarrh or consumption; all of which diseases begin with a cold and may be prevented by curing every cold at the start! Chamberlain's Cough Remedy can always be depended upon. It is pleasant and safe to take, too. For sale by Green's Pharmacy.

Aaronsburg.

Herb Condo, who with his family had moved living in Bellefonte for some time, moved back to this place last week and are now domiciled at the residence of his grand-father, John Keener.

Miss Hettie Small left for Rebersburg to spend the winter with her grand-mother, Mrs. Gramley.

Mrs. Fred Kurtz and Mrs. T. H. Haxey, both of Bellefonte, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Meuch here last week and on their return home they were accompanied by grand-mother Harter, who is in her 86th year.

The Reformed Sunday school, of this place, have decided to give a cantata in their church here on Christmas evening. Particulars will be given later.

Mrs. Mary Moyer and brother, Robert, of Rebersburg, were the guests of Prof. Stewart Weber and family on Sunday.

Miss Jennie Steans, of Millinburg, is the guest of Mrs. F. J. Forster, for several weeks.

Mrs. J. A. Miller, accompanied by her two daughters, Mrs. Dr. Franks and Mrs. Chance Frankentberger, all of Millheim, were visiting friends in our town on Saturday last.

Miss Womelsdorf, of Bellefonte, spent a few days in town last week canvassing for a book entitled "Galveston Horrors." While here she made her headquarters at the Bower House.

The sale of the personal property of the late Thos Harper was not very well attended on Saturday, owing to the inclemency of the weather.

David Krape, who has been an invalid for a long while, had an attack of paralysis last week and is lying in a critical condition.

Rev. Tomlinson, D. D., preached two very able sermons in the Lutheran church here, Sunday morning and evening.

Bruce Rossman, of Penn Hall and Miss Lizzie Koch, of Fairbrook, were married Sunday a week ago at the residence of Nelson Wert on North and street by Rev. F. M. Brown, of the Reformed church.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerre Albright, of Penn Hall, were visitors at the residence of James Weaver's on Thursday day of last week.

John Rossman, of Penn Cave, accompanied by his grand-daughter, Rose Rossman, spent a few days last week at Jesse Wert's in town.

Penn Cave.

Butchering will open this week, then burrah for buckwheat cakes and pouhouse.

Prosperity has not reached us yet, as everything is advancing in price—but what the farmer has to sell.

The stove mill is idle at present as the hands are all helping to make a new road to reach their timber.

J. M. went with the Shreckengasts to hunt deer and his "dear" anxiously his return.

The Murray school had an examination on Friday, and each pupil is wishing for his diploma.

I wonder where the "honeymoon" is. We had a fine rain over Sunday.

H. B. Hough is thrashing corn fodder for his neighbors.

John Long moved in with G. H. Showers last Thursday.

J. C. Rossman's had a birthday party for their daughter, Carrie, on Saturday evening. But on account of the rainy weather only about half of the invited guests assembled. They all did justice to the table but John —, and, of course, he took the prize at the table and that accounts for it. It was so secretly arranged that her grand-father took her to Aaronsburg on Friday and delayed till Saturday evening. As they were late in coming back, she told the folks then when they were ready to start home, he would have to have a jolly show before they started, that was the reason they were so late; but of course he knew how to detain her. She received some handsome presents, but says she will never go away again if he detains her. They all had a jolly time and left for home about eleven o'clock, so good night.

Fairbrook.

The fatted gobblers have to take it today.

The District Sunday school convention will convene in the St. John's Reformed church, at Pine Hall, on Saturday, December 15th.

D. G. Meek and P. B. Myers are covering their lane with crushed stones. They will have an excellent road in course of time.

TWO ACCIDENTS:—Jno. Garner, of State College, met with a serious accident last Friday afternoon while shredding fodder, at the Pennsylvania State College barn. He was feeding the machine and a binder twice caught his arm, it pulled his left forearm into the cylinder and tore it off. Mr. Garner's arm was taken off above the elbow; he is getting along as well as expected. Jno. From, of near State College, while bringing the "Regulators" home from hunting last week was so unfortunate as to get one of his legs broken. While coming down Tussey mountain a trace became unfastened and Mr. From stopped and while he was fastening the trace the horse kicked him on the leg and broke the femur entirely off.

Miss Mary Lutz, who has been with her brother Charley, of this place for some time, returned to her home in Buffalo Run valley, the beginning of the week.

A. C. Kepler, of Lancaster, is visiting at the residence of J. M. Kepler.

Lowell Smith still remains about the same without any change. Lowell's case is most critical.

The needy rain has come—most all have been without water, and the empty cisterns are being filled up.

There was no services in the M. E. church at this place last Sunday, on account of the inclemency of the weather.

E. W. Green

This signature is on every box of the genuine Laxative Bromo-Quinine Tablets the remedy that cures a cold in one day

Mt. Eagle.

Teddy and Caddy have become fast friends.

Ibia Bathurst "sot" up one night recently.

I dare you to ask Uney From why his dog eats horse hoofs.

James Heverly, who has been absent about one year, is home looking his best. Mr. and Mrs. Hicklen were the guests of Mrs. Winters, of Williamsport, last Sunday.

Wm. Yeager shot a wild turkey last Saturday that dressed twelve pounds. The sand bank is booming at present under the management of Bruce Gates.

W. T. Leathers is attending court this week and his son Erle is the head push at the handle factory during his absence.

Albert Aikey, whose leg was hurt badly in the sand bank a couple of weeks ago, has about recovered and expects to be present at the oyster supper at Kennedy, Thursday evening.

Harv Pravel and Wm. Butler will wrestle for the championship of Howard township next Saturday afternoon. If Butler is victorious, Pravel will dance his famous can dance; and if Pravel is winner, Butler will walk on his ears when Boney opens his keg of nails on Christmas.

The Calithumpian band of this place and Kennedy will meet on the corner of Main St. and Bald Eagle Avenue next Friday evening at 7 p. m. sharp. All good citizens are requested to be present and join in the parade up Main St. Mayor Riley will lead the procession followed by J. K. Boney with his tramed horse May, which will frequently make buck jumps. J. I. Dunkel will drag a dead rooster which was found in his yard the morning after election. Butler will ride in the rear with his new horse, The Star of Holts Hollow. A hot time in the old town is looked for.

There will be an oyster supper; and bazar at the Kennedy School House, Thanksgiving evening, for the benefit of the M. E. Church. All are invited.

Fillmore.

A welcome rain came Saturday and Sunday and started up our streams.

On Monday we saw a fellow hauling cornfodder in the top buggy. We think you could make better time by using a laded wagon, but a top buggy rides nicer than a big wagon.

Eddie Taylor has been courting this week, but not at the merchant's house this time.

Moist Marshall and wife of Louisiana, are visiting among friends of this place. Mr. Marshall left this county 20 years ago and has not been home, until this trip.

Dr. W. U. Irvin, of Julian, was called to our side on Tuesday to see Claten Huey. We hope there is nothing serious.

Quite a number of our people are attending court this week. Some have an interest in it.

At this writing William Saxton is not improving very fast; he has quinsy.

The cider press has closed for the present season.

The M. E. Church, at this place, is to be repainted and repapered and new roof. The stoves will be taken out and a furnace put in. The only way to overcome the smoky stoves is to get rid of them. Rev. R. W. Runyan, the pastor, is at the head of the committee and he is a hustler, and the work will be done.

On last Thursday Thos. Tressler was one of the happy hunters, he brung in a wild turkey, a rabbit and pheasant. His eyes looked big when I saw him.

DEATH:—The death angel entered the home of Foster Young and claimed little Millford Ross, aged 3 months, 2 weeks, and 4 days. Ailment was catarrh fever. Interment on Friday, at Gray's cemetery.

As an external application to heal cuts, wounds, bruises and like injuries there is nothing so good as Chamberlain's Pain Balm. It causes the parts to heal without maturation and in one third the time required by the old fashioned treatment. For sale by Green's Pharmacy.

Sugarvalley.

The greatest need of today in this vicinity is a good, heavy fall of rain. The brooks and many of the springs and wells have run dry. In several sections of the valley scarcely any water at all can be found. Some farmers must go a mile from home to get water.

George Mark arrived home from Ohio last Friday. He thinks a young man can earn more money out there.

Ada Ruhl, who went west last spring with Charley Gramley, now turns up in Stephenson county, Illinois, where he is working on a farm at $20 per month.

Frank Welshans, while hunting for deer near the deep spring in Sugarvalley, this week, shot and killed a four-pronged buck.

The Same Everywhere.

The folling item clipped from The Citizen, Toowoomba, Australia, shows that the article mentioned is meeting with the same favor in that far off country as at home.

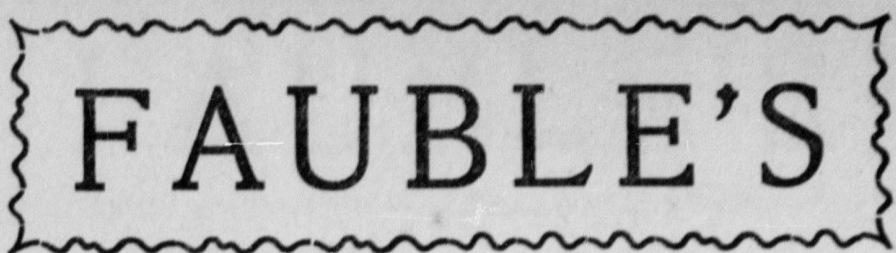

"I find Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is an excellent medicine. I have been suffering from a severe cough for the last two months, and it has effected a cure. I have great pleasure in recommending it. W. C. Wockner. This is the opinion of one of our oldest and most respected residents, and has been voluntarily given in good faith that others may try the remedy and be benefited, as was Mr. Wockner." This remedy is for sale by Green's Pharmacy.

The Youth's Companion in 1901.

The ends of the earth will be laid under tribute for the 1901 volume of THE YOUTH'S COMPANION. Statesmen, Diplomats, Travellers, Trappers, Indian Fighters, Cow-Punchers, Self-Made Men and Women of Many Vocations will contribute to the entertainment of young and old in Companion homes. Theodore Roosevelt will write upon "The Essence of Heroism." The Secretary of the Treasury will answer the question, "What is Money?" Frank T. Bullen, the old sailor who spins fascinating yarns of life at sea, will contribute a story. W. D. Howells will describe the relations between "Young Ford" and "Editors." Paul Lester will write about "The Man of the Dictionary"—Noah Webster. There is not space here to begin to tell of the good things already provided for readers of the new volume of THE YOUTH'S COMPANION—interesting, instructive, inspiring—from the pens of famous men and women.

Illustrated Announcement of the 1901 volume and sample copies of the paper sent free to any address.

All new subscribers who send in their subscriptions now will receive not only the 53 issues of THE COMPANION for 1901, but also all the issues for the remaining weeks of 1900 free from the time of subscription, besides the beautiful "Puritan Girl" Calendar for 1901, lithographed in 12 colors and gold.
