

The Racket.

HOLIDAY TIME AT THE RACKET

is always interesting. There is no place in Centre Co. that U can find anything like the assortment of Holiday Goods at this store.

TOYLAND--Variety Annex. Ladies Delight--China Annex. For a Big Surprise--Visit the Big Store, Now.

G. R. SPIGELMYER,

CORRESPONDENTS DEPARTMENT CONTINUED FROM 7TH PAGE

Houserville.

J. B. Mayes, of this place, has several large granite monuments to erect before the close of this year. G. S. Keller, proprietor of the Houserville woolen mill, has been shipping a large amount of goods during the past year.

Hannah.

Rain! Rain! Rain! When will it cease? Quite a number of our people attended the shooting match, at Thomas Beckwith's, last Saturday afternoon. Samuel Hoover is erecting a new stable at this writing.

Julian.

Mrs. Matlock Fry and son William Ramer, of Northumberland, are visiting relatives at Julian. Geo. Parsons, of Catawissa, returned home last Friday, after a week's hunt in our vicinity.

Nittany.

Mrs. Cramer and daughter were to Bellefonte on Saturday. Mr. Zerby was to Lock Haven on Friday on business. S. S. Peck was to Bellefonte on Saturday. The school taught by A. A. Pletcher had quite a jolly time on Friday decorating their school room.

Runville.

Rain, mud and snow. Miss Lulu Shirk is at present visiting her sister, Mrs. Markley at Snow Shoe. Miss Myrtle Friel, who had been visiting friends at Peru, returned home Thursday.

Beech Creek.

Several detectives are said to be in the "Scoutac" region looking after illegal hunters. Horace Hubbard, Joseph Hubbard, Jr., and Elery Gansalus have returned to Patton, Pa., after enjoying a hunt of two weeks and killing two deer.

Poe Mills.

Rabbits are plenty, but not as plenty as last year. Mrs. J. D. Marks visited at Bellefonte a few days, and thereafter at Millmont. Mrs. S. J. Shunk and family took a pleasure trip to Spring Mills to her sister, Mrs. Agnes Osman.

Unionville.

We are glad to report that our good friend and fraternal brother, Riley Pratt, Esq., who has been quite feeble for several months is now convalescing. We hope he will soon regain his former vigor. We saw an occurrence some time ago that was very pleasing indeed, to your scribe.

Centre Hall.

The entertainment given in the Presbyterian church, Friday evening, by Miss Barber, of Lewisburg, was well attended and the audience was well pleased with her selections which were rendered in a pleasing manner. Miss Emilie Alexander who is giving instructions in vocal and instrumental music in Tyrone, is home on a short vacation.

Mingoville.

Butchering is at hand. Some of the farmers have very large hogs. J. C. Snook had one that weighed 378 pounds. Samuel Sprool had the next largest, it weighed 370 pounds. The high wind last week was hard on the old fences.

Oak Hall.

Miss Claudia Weiland, accompanied by her friend Miss Mary Tressler of Linden Hall, spent Sunday with friends in Bellefonte. Mrs. Loneberger of Linden Hall was the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Zeigler on Wednesday.

Port Matilda.

George Woodring, our accommodating livery man, has added another fine driver to his stock of horses. Rev. G. A. Sparks, pastor of the U. B. church of this place, filled the place of Rev. Latschaw in the M. E. church, on Thanksgiving. Prof. Williams, teacher of the graded school, is said to be an expert hunter, judging from the manner he takes aim.

Roland.

Clair Williams returned to his home Saturday after having been to Bellwood for a lengthy time? Miss Cora Lipton, of Erie, is at present the guest of her cousin, Mrs. H. R. Curtin. Quite a number of our young men attended "The Village Postmaster," at Bellefonte on Monday.

Tylersville.

Mr. J. W. Bletz has finished his job of sawing in the Culby Gap and is now moving his mill on the Ocker tract, two miles west of town. George Walizer, after trying a few years, has at last killed the boss pig in this vicinity, the pig weighing over 400 pounds; but he might yet be beaten as there are some large pigs to be killed.

High Valley.

Rain and snow in the valley and plenty of hunters but little game. Samuel Snyder was married on Tuesday to Miss Ida Snively. I. F. Garthoff tied the knot. There never was a gander so gray but what a goosey came and claimed him to be her mate.

Millheim.

Millheim was well represented at the county seat, which shows that courting is still in vogue. Stover Snook and Randall Musser, students of State College, are spending their Thanksgiving vacation here. The rain over Sunday brought an abundance of water and I suppose everybody is supplied for some time to come.

Mrs. J. W. Stover returned from a visit to Williamsport and Lewisburg last Thursday. Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Cartner, accompanied by their grand daughter, Rebekah Hoover, left for an extended trip to their sons in Ohio and W. Va., Tuesday. The canal on Main street was removed before the late rain and its usefulness failed to materialize and the costs of construction should now be placed upon those who ordered it; the baby plea after the money has been expended is entirely too thin from incompetent officials.

Linden Hall.

John Long, of Pleasant Gap, was the guest of his aunt, Mrs. Ida McClellen, on Green Bank avenue, on Sunday last. A. E. Zeigler and John Raymond of this place are spending this week in Bellefonte as jurors. Mrs. Maggie Jones, son and daughter-in-law, of Kyertown, Clearfield county, attended the funeral of Mrs. Jones' sister, Mrs. James Scarsion, of this place, which took place on Wednesday of last week.

THE GLOBE

DRY GOODS, MILLINERY & CARPETS.

Just a chance given you to purchase seasonable goods at January prices. That means all profits given to you. We're a trifle overstocked on some lines and look to you to help us out. You will do it when you see the values offered.

$1.00 grade grey or brown Home-spun, full 34 inches wide, very desirable for suits and skirts,

69c.

Black Cheviot, 40 inches wide, shrunk and sponged, strictly all wool,

59c.

$1.00 black Cheviot, 54 inches wide, shrunk and sponged, excellent value,

79c.

$1.00 black Mohair, 54 inches wide, very fine,

75c.

50c. Dress Plaids. . . . . 37 1/2c.

36 in. all wool Checks and Plaids. . . . . 25c.

Silk Remnants . . . . . 25c.

THE GLOBE

KATZ & COMPANY. BELLEFONTE, PA.