

CORRESPONDENTS

DEPARTMENT

CONTINUED FROM 6TH PAGE

Howard.

Oscar M. Lucas, of Altoona, after being to Philadelphia to witness the Cornell-Pennsy football game, Saturday, stopped over Sunday with his mother and sisters.

A new arrival at the residence of Robt McMullen a few days ago.

Mrs. H. T. Lucas has been seriously ill the past few days but is slowly improving.

Mrs. S. P. Hockman, of Hecla, spent Saturday at the hospitable residence of E. C. Deitz.

Mr. and Mrs. Lincoln Crox are rejoicing over the arrival of a nine pound boy.

Mrs. Latt Neff has been seriously ill; her physician, Dr. McEntire, reports her condition more favorable for recovery.

A bouncing big boy came to grace the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Roberts, Saturday. Both are doing well.

Saturday was pay day at the Chain works. The effects of John Barley Corn were much in evidence in the evening.

Russel Calvin, infant son of E. C. Deitz has been under the treatment of Dr. McEntire, is recovering from an attack of pneumonia.

Sylvester Schenck has recently had an addition to his family circle; a young and pretty little miss having made its presence known Thursday last.

Rev. Burgan has been conducting a series of meetings the past two weeks, closing Sunday evening; a large and attentive audience listened to the Reverend gentleman expounding the gospel as it is found in the Holy Book.

Frank Michaels, foreman at the Chain works, moved to one of the new houses recently erected at the works.

Dr. McEntire was called to Marsh Creek a few days ago to render services to a young son of Wm. Rickner who was thrown from a wagon and sustained a fracture of the right arm an inch above the elbow.

Madam rumor has it that we are to have several weddings during the Christmas holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. Cyrus Tice announce the advent of a young son.

John M. Long, of Tyrone, was a visitor here last week.

Mrs. Thos. Thomas, who was sick several days, is reported improving.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Morrison, of Philadelphia, have been sojourning at Island Park a few days.

Albert Tebbis is a new addition to the clerking force in the store of C. C. Lucas.

Mrs. Daniel W. Schenck a former resident, but now of Hagerstown, Md., is visiting relatives and friends here.

Mrs. Elsie Yeager, who has been suffering from an attack of rheumatism, is again able to about.

Geo. Leathers took his departure last week for Beech Creek Monday, where he will run a bakery.

Dr. Kurtz and wife spent Thanksgiving in Williamsport.

Russel Wagner, son of John Wagner, has been on the sick list for several days.

Alva Weirick, of Altoona, spent Sunday with his parents.

W. H. Thompson, merchant, slaughtered two hogs the other day, one weighing 400 lbs, the other 419 lbs. Who beat's this?

Editor Dunham, will soon have his large edition of the Hustler ready for his subscribers. It will contain some very interesting history, and a number of our prominent people's fac-simile, half-tone, with personal sketches &c.

Al. Bechdel late candidate for Jury Commissioner, on the republican ticket, has become owner of the "House on Wheels." We regret to state that Mr. Bechdel has not been in very good health and grave apprehensions are had for his recovery.

The Handle & Spoke factory of which Rothrock Gardner is proprietor, has been running full blast lately.

The old Candy property is reported to have been sold lately, and Chas Leathers to have been the purchaser.

Oak Hall.

Miss Anna M. Dale spent several days at the home of Mr. Weaver near Milesburg.

Edward Owens of Axe Mann was a caller in town on Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Dougherty of Pine Hall were Sunday visitors at J. H. Williams.

Tuesday of this week James Armstrong and family moved to Potters Bank, their former home.

Mrs. Stump of Gregg is staying at N. J. Rishel's at present.

Robert Herman of Lemont was a caller in town on Sunday afternoon.

Wm. Close, our new merchant, is doing a rushing business. Success.

On Tuesday Mr. Anthony Knopf had his thumb almost cut off while assisting Ira Korman with his butchering.

Maurice Bohn and James Shreck, of Lemont, were in town on Sunday afternoon. The "girls" was the attraction.

Miss Otie Thomas, of Washington, D. C., who has been employed by Jas. Gilliland the past summer, returned to her home last week.

Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Kline and grand daughter visited at State College recently.

The scholars of the grammar school are making preparation for a Christmas entertainment.

Samuel Weber shot two large turkeys on Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Bailey and children of Altoona, are visiting at the home of John Kline.

Mr. Gettig of Linden Hall was a visitor in town on Sunday.

Ross Lowder made a trip to Aaronsburg on Saturday.

Elmer Williams and wife of Altoona, are the guests of Wm. Rishel and family at present.

Miss Annie Weber of Boalsburg visited at the home of her brother John, on Sunday.

Is a hundred-year-old family tree what you would call a century plant?

Moshannon.

Mrs. Minnie Bowes and Miss Maude Confer visited friends in Milesburg and Bellefonte last week.

Prof. Harry Waite, of the Tyrone grammar school, visited his brother, J. E. Waite, teacher of the primary school at this place, the latter part of the week.

Alex Black spent Thanksgiving at the home of Mrs. Molly Rankin, his boarding place, while in our town.

Norman Holt, who has been keeping store at Cherry Run Mines, left last Thursday for North Carolina, where he will go into the confectionery business.

Felix McGowan, of this place, is opening up a new coal mine, for William Holt, near Philipsburg.

The Fleming brothers and Alonzo Grove returned last week, after a two week's hunt, with three large deer and some small game.

Special meetings were held in the Presbyterian church, at this place, on Friday and Saturday evenings and Sunday morning.

Mrs. Bowman, of Altoona, has been visiting her brother, Thomas Fleming, Sr., who is very ill.

Mrs. Bierly is slowly convalescing after an illness of several months.

Miss Rachel Lucas was housekeeper for Mrs. Minnie Bowes during her absence.

A number of people from here attended the dedication of the M. E. church at Clarence on Sunday. Miss Ella Rankin had the honor of being organist.

F. M. Loy passed through our town on Monday morning on his way to Morrisdale, where he will occupy the position of principal of the schools.

MARRIED:—Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Gleason gave a reception for their daughter, Katherine, on Tuesday evening, November 27. She was married to Mr. O'Conner, of Philadelphia, Tuesday morning in the Catholic church at Snow Shoe. Many guests were present and spent an enjoyable evening. The gifts presented to the bride were highly appreciated. They departed for Philadelphia on Wednesday morning.

Aaronsburg.

Owing to certain inconveniences the cantata we made mention of last week will not be rendered by the Reformed Sunday School, but an entertainment will be given in the auditorium of the church on Christmas evening, to which all are invited and of which further mention will be made later on.

Mrs. Elizabeth Harshbarger, of Tyrone, is visiting her mother north of town, Mrs. Minsich.

Howard Stover and family, of Bellefonte, visited among friends and relatives in town over Sunday.

Last week Nelson Wert and family moved to Ingleby, where the gentleman is teaching school. They occupy the Cassler homestead.

Summer Bard, after spending a year in the west, returned to his home here, last week.

Mrs. W. N. Auman, of Millheim, spent last Sunday with her mother, Mrs. F. J. Weaver, in this place.

Wilson Bard, who for some time has been working in Snow Shoe at the plastering trade, came home last Saturday on account of ill health.

Mrs. F. J. Forster, in company with her two children, Mazie and John, and Miss Steans, of Millinburg, spent last Saturday among friends in Centre Hall.

Ed Smith who is teaching the Forest Hill school near Boalsburg, was in town last week on a visit to his mother, Mrs. Stump.

Mingoville.

Mrs. M. Zong is very ill with consumption—recovery is doubtful.

John Dolan is putting down a well for the stove mill on the McMullen tract.

John White killed five large porkers on Friday.

Lloyd Peters was home over Sunday—how about C—

Look out boys there is going to be a wedding in the near future.

Mr. and Mrs. Hockman were visiting at Hublersburg on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. William Johnsonbaugh were the guests of his uncle, William Johnsonbaugh, on Sunday.

The rain last week was needful.

Claud Janson killed a hog that weighed 643½ pounds.

There was a very large attendance at the school house on Thursday.

William, that was pretty good; better learn another one.

Mr. Hockman has his cistern completed.

Yearick is building a very large line stack.

Zimmerman's shot a nice deer last week on the Allegheny mountain.

Pleasant Gap.

Our sportsmen are lucky—pop a rabbit every now and then so as to keep in practice.

Ammon Kerstetter and Henry Twitmyer will complete their contract at Snow Shoe in a few days in which time they will have built a church, store, several houses and barns.

Quite a few of our young men intend to cut paper wood during the winter.

Wm. Brooks, of Linden Hall, accompanied by Cloyce Brooks, of this place, took a few days hunting trip about Pine Glen and came home Saturday noon with forty-five rabbits and a wild turkey.

Rev. White, of this place, filled the pulpit for Rev. Leisher of Boalsburg, and Rev. Leisher the same here last Sunday.

The oyster supper which was held at the Lutheran church Thanksgiving evening was a grand success which showed good management.

For a nice line of winter clothing call on our friend Mr. Noll who can supply you with the very best of underwear, hats of all descriptions, shoes, lumbermen's guns, and everything needed.

In Good Standing.

Everyone who has used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy speaks well of it," says Mr. Edward P. Miller, of Abbotstown, Pa. People who once use this preparation are seldom satisfied with any other. There is nothing like it to allay a cough or break a cold. It is pleasant to take, too. For sale by Greene's Pharmacy.

Rebersburg.

Our people are growing fat since they have sausages for breakfast, dinner and supper.

Mrs. Bessie Meyers, formerly of Bellefonte, who had been with her parents the last week, left on Tuesday for Sunbury, where she will take charge of her new home. Mr. Meyer we understand is working on the railroad as a brakeman.

On Thanksgiving Miss Iva Kitter was visited by her best friend, Mr. Reed, of State College.

Sid. Krumrine, who has been in Philadelphia for some time, came home last week.

A union Thanksgiving service was held in the Lutheran church on Thursday. The exercises were conducted by Rev. Wetzel, the Reformed pastor, assisted by Revs. Dubs, the United Ev. pastor and Harmon, the Lutheran pastor. Appropriate music was furnished by the Lutheran choir.

While Chas. Small, our mail driver, was obliged to act as a grand juror, Geo. Diehl, of Centre Mills, took his place.

Prof. Calvin Morris' house is in the hands of the painter.

According to the announcement of the "Phila. Inquirer" President McKinley had selected rather a rainy day to present his message to Congress. However waterpower would not have been needed to make the bill swim as long as Congress is in his favor.

Henry Meyer, a promising young student, of Bucknell University, at Lewisburg, spent Sunday with his parents.

C. O. Mallory, our successful butter churner, and his wife, helped to eat that big turkey on Saturday, at Coburn, which their daughter, Lottie, had prepared.

L. B. Frank, registration assessor, of his business, was faithfully attending to his duties, on Monday. Er wes uscht we de business zo do.

The days of Homer Harry, son of Serene, whose back recently was hurt by a falling limb while working in the woods, are few; which news we have learned from his father.

The Lutheran and Ev. Sunday schools will have Christmas entertainments.

Miss Krebs, of Salona, had been the guest of Miss Lulu Erhard on Saturday.

Some of our people are attending those interesting revival services at Madisonburg, conducted by Rev. Doerster.

Emanuel Harter is on the sick list, but it seems he does not have time to get sick.

Fillmore.

Our sick have all got around again.

Thos. Taylor and wife of Harrisburg visited among friends here the past week.

Ed. Marshall's smiling face was seen on our streets on Monday.

L. H. Musser and little daughter, and Mrs. C. M. Sellars, started on Sunday to Philadelphia where they expect to spend a few days among friends.

Samuel Kelley wife and family of Philipsburg, are visiting among friends here.

Joseph Noris of Altoona, visited his brother Henry the past week, at this place.

Joseph Tressler and wife are in Altoona this week visiting their son Daniel.

The fellows that took the horse on last Wednesday night rued the bargain and returned it back where they got it. A good act to put things where you get them, but a better one is to let them where they are put by the owners; if they take your girls they will do as you did with the horse, but them back.

On last Wednesday evening a couple of young fellows came from Bald Eagle valley to see two of our fair damsels and they joined the 3rd party and agreed that one Bald Eagle should watch the horse, as there were only two girls. The poor Robison Crusos started for "home sweet home" afoot leaving one mile behind, and several ahead, but the latter had a horse and buggy and daylight to drive home in. We will not say they remained till morning. If I had a dog I could not treat him as some people would treat their hitching post, and poor dumb brutes left tied all night to a post in the cold, Coxie you and your friend had better have arrangements made the next time you start out on Saturday evening, before you go, then you will be all O. K.; it is not a sure thing to take a stranger to a place and ask the girls if they have any arrangements for the night—you had better do like I did, wait a while till you get older, you will take better. I think that is what I am counting on and I find I am all right, to let wait.

Millheim.

Mrs. Lizzie Snook, of State College, spent part of last week in town.

Frank Kern, of Bellefonte, visited his mother over Sunday.

Miss Ida Williams is visiting her sister, Mrs. H. C. Rothrock.

Geo. Homan, John Reish and John Brain were to Philadelphia after horses. Mr. Homan purchased and brought back four heavy draught horses.

Aaron G. Snook and M. Seville Shall were united in marriage at the Reformed parsonage at Aaronsburg by Rev. Brown last Thursday evening.

Mrs. Newton Dorman and daughter, of Bellefonte, and Miss Mitte Winkleman, of Nittany, were guests at J. H. B. Hartman's over Sunday.

The Millheim Banking Co. has purchased a large fire and burglar proof safe, which they will place in their banking house, after which a night watchman will not be needed.

Miss Bessie Musser visited at Tusseyville several days this week.

The hunting party from here left the Seven mountains last Saturday and went to little Sugar Valley.

Charles Sheffer, of Muncy, and Thomas Buck, of Lewisburg, were visitors in town during the week.

Mrs. W. S. Musser and Miss Jennie Reinsnyder called on friends in Madisonburg Saturday.

The hosiery mill is booming, running full time and taking in new hands almost daily.

Wagner Guise and bride spent last Wednesday night at the Musser House, starting on their wedding trip from Coburn the following morning.

There were quite a number of bids sent in for the mail route from Rebersburg to Coburn, and considerable cutting in rates was done.

Colyer.

Henry Jordan, wife and brother, S. C. Jordan, of Illinois, are visiting their former home friends and relatives, throughout our vicinity.

Mrs. Susie Crater and daughter, of Spring Mills, arrived at J. E. Klines, on Sunday afternoon on a visit with her daughter Miss Seville, who is mistress at the Kline mansion.

Ezra Ripka and wife, of Lewistown, arrived last Wednesday at Mrs. Ripka's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Moyer. Mrs. Moyer has been in feeble health the past year.

Miss Maude Wolf, of State College, returned home last Thursday, after spending several weeks with her lady friend, Miss Mary Moyer.

Rev. J. Femstermacher's protracted meeting is still in progress, with fair prospects.

More success for the Colyer hunting party. Friday last, John Zerby shot a fine deer. There were 22 in the party. Mr. Lambert, of Williamsport; Rev. J. Femstermacher, of Spring Mills; E. W. Crawford, of Centre Hall and many others from a distance had joined the boys in their sport with good success.

Miss Emma Swartz, who had her home with her grandparents, since their death she has moved all her personal property over with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Swartz, and will make that her place of residence.

Mrs. Chas. Neff and Miss Carrie Spicher, from above Centre Hall, attended the butchering at I. H. Moyers on Tuesday last, and did ample justice to the turkey roast.

On Friday evening, as the Colyer hunting party adjourned for this season, just as they came out by Boals gap 20 in number, they fired 45 shots in succession across the valley, which frightened some of our people. They thought Spain was coming up through Treaster valley.

Alfred Reiber, who is teaching school at Coburn, was home with his parents over Sunday.

James Swabb and friend, from Aaronsburg, were the guests of A. B. Lees and were canvassing music.

Yarnell.

Protracted meetings commenced Sunday evening in the U. B. church, conducted by Rev. B. J. Hummel. We wish him good success.

W. E. Brown's new addition to his store room is nearly completed and makes a fine appearance.

If people could get premiums on gossip, there are some in our community that would be strung full of gold medals.

Miss Otie Eckley who has been on the sick list for some time, is improving.

Miss Yearick spent last week at J. K. Rockeys making some fine clothes for Miss Rosetta which the people think suspicious.

Since court is over some people are happy, while there are others that are not.

Miss Nora Poorman is going to Williamsport to spend the winter.

F. W. Croft has returned from the woods and reports the snow quite deep in Potter county.

Fleming Poorman and family were the guests of W. T. Fetters, on Sunday.

Harry Quick, one of Moose Run's young men, is now employed by W. P. Pownell.

Laird Walker, formerly of this place, but now of Bellefonte, and his lady friend, were pleasant callers at W. P. Pownell's a few days last week.

Rev. Eland and family were the guests of Jonathan Packers over Sunday giving his many friends good by. He intends to enter the mission field to help a good cause along.

Joseph Mayes, of Clarence, was a pleasant caller at Abram Poorman's on Sunday.

Andrew Heaton, one of our aged citizens, was laid to rest on Saturday in the Messiah cemetery; funeral services conducted by Rev. Zeigler. Mr. Heaton was a devoted christian and had many friends.

Linden Hall.

Miss Bessie Seanson, one of our accomplished young ladies, spent Thanksgiving at the home of Samuel Burris, of Centre Hall.

H. C. Gettig, of this place, spent part of last and this week with friends at State College and Oak Hall.

Mr. John McPherson and family, of Boalsburg, spent Saturday and Sunday at the home of Mrs. McPherson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lucien Spicher, east of town.

Mr. and Mrs. George Seanson spent Friday of last week with friends in Centre Hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Brooks and son, Lee, spent last week with friends at Pine Glen, and returned home on Saturday with wild game enough to make a "Modoc" town green with envy.

On Friday evening of last week the spacious home of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Tressler, was filled with a pleasant party of young people, who had gathered together to do honor to the birthday anniversary of their son Robert. All had a very pleasant time and returned home well pleased with the evening's entertainment. Mr. Tressler was the recipient of many valuable and handsome presents.

Nittany.

Mrs. Tate was to Hublersburg to Mr. and Mrs. H. Stovers, last Wednesday.

Boyd Emrick has returned home; some of our young ladies are glad.

Miss Bessie Webner has gone to Birmingham again.

Mrs. N. C. Dorman and her daughter, Marie, of Bellefonte, are visiting friends here.

Mr. Zerby and wife went to Penns valley on Sunday to visit friends.

Miss Mittie Winkleman and Mrs. N. C. Dorman spent part of last week in Penn and Brushvalley.

A. A. Pletcher and daughter, Alma, spent Thanksgiving with his mother at Howard.

The Women's Missionary Society of the Lutheran church had an entertainment in their church last Sunday evening; they had recitations and singing by a number of little folks; Miss Lidia Deihl, sister of Rev. W. R. Deihl recited a very fine selection, and Mrs. Kuhn, of Bellefonte, sang a fine solo.

FAUBLE'S

Do You Know

That there is a

Sale of Seasonable

Up-to-Date

High Grade

Clothing

Going on at Fauble's

Which if you take

Advantage of

There will be a saving for you

Of not Less than from

$3 to $5 on every Suit

Sold.

It is simply a sale of