

A FEW HOLIDAY SUGGESTIONS.

The Racket.

We Are Now Ready for Your Holiday Trade.

U KNO

The Racket is a great Holiday store (365 days ahead of any shop in Centre county.)

We have never had such an assortment of the "Useful and Beautiful." Kom now.

G. R. SPIGELMYER,

X-MAS IS COMING!

That is bothering many who want to send an appropriate gift this season to some member of the family, dear relative or dear friend at a distance. Probably it is a son, daughter, father, mother, sister, brother, or even a sweetheart. Think of it, you can keep them supplied the entire year, with all the news and important happenings in this county for the small sum of $1 by sending them this paper. It will be a welcome visitor every week in the year. Where can you get more value for the money or a more appropriate gift—one that will be appreciated the entire year. Did you ever think of it? Clever idea, aint it?

YES, QUITE CLEVER

We are making a special Holiday Drive

Coburn.

A cold wave struck this section Sunday.

While W. J. Rote was hunting in the seven mountains he had a chance to shoot at a big bear, but failed to capture him.

A. B. Kern, Wesley Rote and Harry Bowersox of Patton, are among the visitors in our town.

Mrs. Ezra Burd is on the sick list.

Harvey Vonada, of Woodward, the noted medicine man, was seen in our town several days last week.

Miss Annie Beckey, of Millburg, is staying at the home of Samuel Everett's a few weeks.

The scribe of High Valley had a rehearsal in last week's paper, he must tell the people about every six months where his little valley is situated, he knows if he don't brighten the minds of the people that it would soon be forgotten, just like Georgetown—nothing remains but a few frogs, and since election they are becoming scarce especially when it takes so many for a wedding breakfast at Drum Station. Major in glee.

When some people become so mean as to take a box containing some ten lbs of pepper off of a merchant's store porch when a little dusk, they should first smell at the box to ascertain what was in it and the pepper should do its duty so the party would be found out.

Fillmore.

The cold snap hit us on Monday morning.

The birthday social was well attended on last Friday night at C. H. Kephart's, there being over a hundred people present and they took in $40.

Dorsey B. Stine, formerly of this place, but now of Clearfield, was home over Sunday and helped knock the stuffing out of a large turkey on Monday at dinner. Come again Dorsey, we like to see you.

On Tuesday Frank Rockey and Eddie Taylor started for Clearfield where they expect to work, the balance of the winter.

Miss Edna Leyle, of Bellwood, is visiting her sister Ivie, at this place.

Mrs. L. H. Musser has arrived home from Philadelphia where she has been for some time for medical treatment.

Cyrus Huey can carry the barlow so far as we have heard for large sausages. He made one that measured 24 ft. and 6 inches, and 22 ft. and 8 inches, both without a puncture. Lets hear from others.

Willie has gone away.

On Christmas there will be a shooting match at Fillmore. Turkey, chickens and ducks will be shot off.

When you see a woman adding up a long column of figures you may be pretty sure that she is a bargain counter.

Pine Grove Mills.

Evangelist Rev. Warden, of Harrisburg, is conducting a series of meetings in the Presbyterian church at this place. He is having good success in his efforts.

We had quite a lively scrap at the lower end of town, on Sunday night. On the way home from church one, who needs several severe lessons on how to conduct himself, was blackguarding some young girls on their way home when Mr. Lohr took it up and slapped his mouth completely. An older brother who has less principle than nothing took it up and made night hideous with his profane language. He needs what his brother received, only two-fold more. Better take warning and be a little more discreet.

One evening last week one of the country boys played a mean trick on one of our boys by taking his hat and hiding it so that he could get the girl. George, never mind, turn about is fair play.

Cards are out for the wedding of Samuel Goss and Alka Musser. This is to be quite a swell affair. It is to be a church affair.

The crowd of hunters who were out after rabbits came in with 20 rabbits and one pheasant.

Mrs. A. J. Tate and Mrs. Minnie Goss were shopping in Bellefonte on Tuesday.

Next week is institute and the teachers are looking forward to having a pleasant and profitable time.

Miss Minnie Gumbo visited her sister, Mrs. Dunlap, the fore part of the week.

Oak Hill.

Mrs. Wm. Walker, of Boalsburg, is visiting her sister, Mrs. A. W. Dale, at Sunny Hillside.

Mrs. Isaac Tressler and Miss Annie Lesh spent Sunday at Boalsburg, the guests of Mrs. John McPherson.

Mr. and Mrs. Clement Dale spent several days with friends near Pine Grove Mills.

Elmer Houtz is selling dead wild (?) turkeys at nine cents per lb.

P. S. Dale is confined to the house with rheumatism.

Lee Segner, one of Boalsburg's pleasant young gentlemen was a visitor in town on Sunday. He was entertained by P. S. Dale and family at Grove Cottage.

Mary had a little lamb.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Ross, of Linden Hall, were in town on Thursday.

Wm. Fry transacted business at Bellefonte on Saturday.

Big Jam.

The greatest log jam ever known on the Susquehanna river is the one in Curwensville dam. Logs are piled so deep, and as the water recedes the jam looks like a vast mountain of timber.

SLIPPERS for SANTA CLAUS

If the jolly old elf means to give a pair of Slippers to the little tots just learning to crawl out of bed onto the cold floor, or for the boys and girls who romp around the house, or for the young men or young ladies who take life easy when at home, he will doubtless come here for them.

Santa Claus has long known this store as the headquarters for real nice and good slippers, and he is willing to pick his presents here because they don't cost much and yet wear like "sixty."

Maybe you want a pair of slippers for yourself.—The're here Those Felt shoes for mother and grandma would be all right for X mas, too.
