

HAPPENINGS ABOUT TOWN

Movements of Our People—Personal Mention, Society Events—What Has Transpired Worthy of Mention—Short Paragraphs.

Almost everybody thinks first of the little ones when selecting Christmas presents, and it is pleasant to know that there are many who think of those little ones who have neither money nor friends to purchase gifts for them.

Major R. H. Foster, of whose serious illness we made mention in the Democrat in a former issue, is quite low at this writing. The many friends of the Major in this town and county will deeply regret if the worst shall happen.

One of the last boys to get a fine premium watch from The Centre Democrat was Ernest W., son of Jeremiah Zettle, of Spring Mills. He now is the possessor of a handsome time-piece and got by a little effort. Other boys can do same.

James W. Runkle will occupy the Centre Hall hotel, as landlord, after January 1st, next. This old and well-known stand was purchased by him. The retiring landlord, W. H. Runkle, is likely to take a hotel and cattle yard, at York, Pa.

A new 200 horse power auxiliary boiler is being installed at the plant of the Edison Electric Ill. Co. on Lamb street. The two boilers of 160 and 175 h. p. now in use are still answering all purposes, but the company is preparing for any emergency.

Attorney Walker has been laid up the past two weeks in his cozy quarters in the Brokerhoff house, from the effects of exposure during a forty miles drive on legal business. He is recovering and we hope to again see his handsome form on our streets soon.

After being housed for nigh three months, the many friends of Major Fair-lamb will be pleased to know that he is able to be about again and is really looking more hearty and fresh than at any time in the past few years. May he remain thus, many years yet.

The remains of Mrs. Nancy Clark, sister of the late Hon. A. G. Curtin, who was killed at Torresdale station, near Philadelphia, Tuesday, of last week, were interred; at Bellefonte Friday morning 14. The services were conducted in the house in which she was born, now occupied by James Curtin, corner of Allegheny and Howard streets.

The Logan Steam Fire Engine Co., will hold their annual ball in the armory Monday night, December 31. In the evening at 8 o'clock the entire company will turn out for parade, with band and all paraphernalia and at 9:00 the great grand march will begin. That means an enjoyable time for all who will attend. A good time, and good order will be maintained.

The directors of the Y. M. C. A. recently decided that in the future all boys under sixteen years of age and those known to be students at the various schools will be forbidden the use of the rooms after 8 o'clock on all nights, except Saturday. This action of the board will put a stop to much duplicity. They go on the theory that a young boy has as much occasion to be out alone after 8 o'clock as a married lady has after 12 both are out of place; as to men, no definite rule has ever been formulated that can be called practical or be enforced.

Farmers Institute will be held at Port Matilda January 9 and 10.

The editor of the Daily News is showing a generous disposition by giving away a free scholarship to the Scranton, Pa., business college.

Bellefonte is lively this week—numberless pretty schoolmarm, handsome knights of the order of pedagogues and many attending visitors.

That venerable democrat, William Foster of State College, now 82 years of age, was in town the other day, looking good enough for some years to come.

One of the original ideas during the week was the orchestra that furnished some choice music while people were making their purchases at the Racket store.

Mrs. C. H. Bell and children left last Thursday for Bridgewater, S. D., to join Mr. Bell and will make that point their future residence. They formerly resided near Bellefonte.

Our correspondents will please note that no paper will be issued next week and for that reason they should hold their letters and combine the news of two weeks in the first issue of 1901.

Musical instructor Philip Meyer, can get music out of an audience, with beauty and volume, second to none in that line. He handled the musical department of this week's Teachers' Institute most admirably.

When searched at the police station it was found that he had in his pockets nearly $2,000 in cash. Let Conrad come to Bellefonte and throw out his $5 gold pieces, from morn to eve and the Democrat will see that he is not arrested for a good deed.

The game season closed on Saturday last. The latest records brought in to the Democrat were: Charles Arney and his party, Centre Hall, 65 rabbits besides birds, among which were eight wild turkeys, of which Charley killed four, and some 60 grey squirrels. A set from College township reports, in one trip, 44 rabbits, besides birds. Jacket From, of Centre Hall, reports that he alone killed 34 rabbits. Rabbits are reported as being harmfully abundant all over the county.

Mrs. William Harter, of Aaronsburg, is quite ill at this time, old age and rheumatic troubles bearing heavily upon one now entering her 87th year. She is the mother of Mrs. Fred. Kurtz and T. H. Harter, both of Bellefonte. The lady is the last of the well-known Hess family, of the lower end of Pennsylvania, who were early settlers and shared the hardships of the pioneers and were often disturbed by the Indians. ex-Commissioner Samuel Hess, of Ferguson township, was a brother and when he died near a score of years ago, the subject of this article was the last remaining member of the large Hess family, from the early days. Grandma Harter was in Bellefonte less than two weeks ago and spent ten days pleasantly with the families of her son and daughter, leaving for her home in improved health from her stay here.

In the evening at 7:30 the Sunday School and congregation jointly, will render a beautiful program. The principle feature of this will be music and exercises by the children. The usual Christmas treat will be given to the school.

Hunter a Genius.

Bob Hunter is an original chap. He can sell life insurance to a man who may think he don't need it. He can play "coon" in a minstrel show, catch suckers in a trout stream, and do a lot of other extraordinary feats, if reports are true. His latest achievement deserves recognition. Since he moved out to Boggs twp. (Curtin street) he frequently got lonely and during the long evenings longed to be handier to Mart Cooney's parlors where he could mingle with the throng and give his friends pointers on pushing the ivory spheres. First resolve was to purchase a complete billiard outfit—then found it almost too expensive for a moderate man. Not to be outdone, he gathered his wits together and in the course of a month or more, by his own handiwork, built a table, "all hisself." It certainly is a clever job, and proves our friend Hunter a genius.

Instantly Killed.

Last Thursday 13th, after this paper had gone to press, James Shawver was almost instantly killed while at work in the big quarry at Morris' Armor Gap operation. A stone was jarred loose up along the face of the rock and, in falling, struck the unfortunate workman on the head; killing him. James Shawver was born near Laurelton, Union county, and was 28 years of age. He was a son of Isaac Shawver, of Pleasant Gap. A sad feature of the affair is that he was only recently married and had just gone to housekeeping. He was married on November 7, 1900, to Miss Nettie Hardy, of Bellefonte. He is survived by his father and several brothers and sisters.

No Paper.

Next week no paper will be issued from this office. In this we are observing a custom long established to give one and all connected with the office, a vacation of a week during the holiday season. Next issue will be Jan. 3 1901. During the week the office will be open for the transaction of business and printing necessary work.

A String of 'Em.

The 12-year-old son of Frank Wallace, of Milesburg, Centre county, was badly bitten about the face by a horse Friday morning. Several boys were playfully teasing the animal when it suddenly turned on its tormentors, inflicting severe injuries on young Wallace.

Daniel Keppheart, of Brisbin, aged about 60 years, last Wednesday while working on a trestle which Craig Bros. are erecting at Sterling No. 2, fell a distance of thirty five feet, fracturing his right thigh, crushing his right arm badly, and it was feared sustaining internal injuries.

The farm house of J. M. Williams, in Bald Eagle township, Clinton county, was totally destroyed by fire on Thursday. Only a small portion of the household goods was saved. The potatoes, canned fruit and other stores in the cellar were all destroyed. A small building used as a work shop and tool house was also burned. There is a small insurance.

Charles Bolapue, a well known citizen of Renovo, fell from the top of a lumber car Friday afternoon, and was instantly killed.

A Worthy Move.

The Democrat is pleased to note that it is proposed by Clinton county citizens to erect a monument to the memory of A. L. Dieffenbach, its best and most widely known citizen, who departed this life perhaps a score of years ago. Mr. Dieffenbach was a noble man—a true Pennsylvanian. As deputy secretary of the commonwealth and state superintendent of schools, he left a record of good deeds. He was a gentleman of noble impulses and broad views. Clinton county was proud of Mr. Dieffenbach when he was yet a familiar citizen among its people, and to none can they more fittingly and deservedly erect a monument. The editor of the Democrat was proud to have that noble man as one of his most valued friends.

Council Meeting.

The regular semi-monthly meeting of the borough council was held Monday evening.

Hard P. Harris on behalf of the Sportsman's League of Centre county, asked permission of council to put a wire screen in the creek near the spring in order to preserve the young trout while spawning. This request was granted.

Water meters were placed, during the past two weeks, in the following places Republican office, McCulley's livery stable, Centre Democrat and Garman's hotel.

Mr. Keller moved that the engineer be instructed to place bench marks at any place within the borough wherever it is found necessary so that grades can be established from it at any time in the future. It was adopted.

Quite a number of cesspools are emptying into the creek near the spring and council is determined to stop these nuisances as they fear our water supply may be contaminated.

Slightly Used Pianos.

In the city there are many persons who use a piano only for a season, some are compelled to sell, while others have been only renting, all such pianos can at times be picked up at very reasonable prices and as far as the wear on the piano is concerned, are as good as new, as the most of them have been used but a short time. If you want such bargains let me know, I will select for you only what will please. Or if you prefer a new piano I can supply you at remarkably low prices.

Points of Superiority in the "Standard Rotary."

The first stitch is perfect. Without holding ends of thread. The first goods are not drawn or puckered. Owing to rotary motion it makes less noise than other machines. Tension released by pressure of a button. Thread can be cut out within quarter of an inch of the needle if work is taken out at right time. The face plate can be taken off by merely loosening a thumb nut, enabling the operator to oil and clean the parts without displacing them. Feed motions all positive—no springs used—hence machine will feed over all thicknesses of goods without chewing the cloth no matter what the length of stitch.
