

HAPPENINGS ABOUT TOWN

The Local News Compiled During the Week

BRIEFLY TOLD IN A FEW LINES

Movements of Our People—Personal Mention, Society Events—What Has Transpired Worthy of Mention—Short Paragraphs.

Streams are again low. The proverbial fine weather continues. The criminal list for January Court will be a short one. Sheriff Brungart has some eight county boarders in his coop. The marriage license record was slow this week—only two. On Monday a bright little girl called at Capt. H. S. Taylor's home. Rain set in early this morning with appearance for a full day of it. 235 marriage licenses were granted in Clinton county during 1900. The Bellefonte Academy opened on Tuesday with a large attendance. Gov. Hastings is sojourning at the famous Hot Springs, in Arkansas. Walter Bayard is here, visiting his parents, Col. and Mrs. George A. Bayard. J. B. DeWald has been appointed postmaster at White Hall, Centre county. We are now busy printing sale bills. There will be the usual number this season. Rev. Dr. Holloway has recovered sufficiently as likely to be able to preach next Sabbath. Our esteemed farmer friend, Daniel Wian, of near this place, will move to Centre Hall in the spring. Wednesday evening Miss Maime Ceaders entertained a large number of her lady friends, at her home. Friday last, Sheriff Brungart took Hoover, adjudged a lunatic, to the Danville asylum, having no difficulty on the trip. This is the week of prayer. Most of our readers are aware of the fact, yet quite a number will not observe the event. Mrs. Witmer Smith and son, Russel, have returned from Williamsport, where Mrs. Smith had been called by the illness of her mother. James Houser is able to be about again after nursing some bruises from a fall down the stairs. His injuries considerably inconvenienced him. The county auditors are busy auditing the accounts of the county officials. The annual statement will show a gratifying condition of the county finances. Francis, the magician, will be at the opera house on Tuesday evening, January 15th. There will be a variety about the program to make it attractive. For want of sufficient evidence to hold him, Edward G. Parsons, of this place, was discharged on Monday, at Altoona. He had been arrested for obtaining money on false pretence. Harry Reaick, son of L. C. Reaick, of Benner township, who was struck by a trolley car at Niagara Falls, on Christmas night and quite seriously hurt, is slowly improving and his recovery is assured. His father is still there to see that he receives proper care. At a meeting of the stockholders of the Central Commercial Telephone Company, held in the offices of the company, in Bellefonte, on Tuesday, the following men were elected directors, viz: Ellis L. Orvis, John I. Olewine, P. E. Nagney, Harry Keller, John T. McCormick, William Thompson, Jr., William Pealer, H. T. Harvey and T. M. Stevenson. Al Roberts, the expert drummer and medical compounder, has a flattering testimonial from Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Whittaker of this place for the relief their daughter got from a trial of the Dr's diptheria remedy. Mr. Roberts seems to have a good preparation and has numerous testimonials that are worth considering. His preparation is made entirely of roots and herbs. Register A. G. Archev has had a new book-type writer placed in his office the past week and is proud of it. This machine will enable him to keep his records in better shape and will be the saving of much space on the dockets in that department. By the use of these machines every thing is perfectly legible, and few if any errors can occur, which is so common even with the expert penman. Sale Bills. Farmers who will have sale should consult us in regard to having their bills printed. We have a large assortment of material for this kind of work, use good strong paper, showy cuts and make attractive bills. Our prices are always right. It is important to have your sale announced in our register as this paper has an immense circulation and goes into every nook and corner of the county, and is read by thousands every week. Good work at reasonable prices, and wide circulation through the columns of the paper, is an inducement for you to call on us. Wages Reduced. The forgers in the axe factory at Mill Hall have been notified of a twenty-five per cent. reduction in their wages and their helpers will hereafter receive twelve per cent. less. The reduction has caused dissatisfaction. The factory has been closed for two weeks over the holidays says the Clinton Democrat. And we may add, had Bryan been elected, then this and a score of other reductions of wages, would have been blamed on Bryan. Sometimes you don't discover what a bad egg a fellow is until he is broke. Many a fool gets through all right by looking wise and keeping his mouth shut.

Levi Burd et ux to Samuel Leitze April 6, 1861; 80 perches in Haines twp. $25 00. Fire Alarm. The fire alarm on Monday afternoon was caused by a fire in the residence of John Lane, on east Linn Street. The two steamers and ladder truck were promptly on the spot in addition to about 500 men, women and children. The fire was found to exist between the walls of the kitchen part of the dwelling. Two hose were soon at play on the inside and two on the outside of the house, and a deluge of water arrested the fire. The neighborhood is well planted with other wooden residences and a fire under headway with winds favoring the devouring element, would do serious harm in that part of town. However the promptness and efficiency of our fire laddies, were equal to the occasion and prevented serious damage. Damage may be over $50. Knights of the Golden Eagle. The following are the officers of Bellefonte Castle No. 357 of Bellefonte, Pa., for the ensuing six months' term: Past chief—J. S. McCargar, noble chief—Oscar Wetzel, vice chief—J. RECENT DEATHS. LOWELL A. SMITH: after a lingering illness of many months, Lowell A. Smith peacefully passed away at the home of his mother, in Pine Grove Mills, on Dec. 21, at the age of 30 years, 1 month and 4 days. Lowell was a most excellent young man and enjoyed the friendship and esteem of all who knew him; he was of a pleasant and cheerful disposition and brought much sunshine to his aged mother and his brother and sister, to whom he was very closely attached, and in whom he always manifested the deepest interest. Almost twelve years ago he became a member of the Lutheran church at Pine Grove Mills and his name stands at the head of the list of the first catechetical class confirmed by the writer. Since the death of his father, H. R. Smith, four years ago, he has been the comfort and support of his mother and sister Ella, who sustain a great loss by his untimely death which has caused a heavy shadow to fall over the entire community. He was an active worker in the Christian Endeavor Society and will be missed therein. Early last spring he was taken to the Jefferson hospital by his brother-in-law, Dr. Alexander, of Potters Mills, but it was discovered that his affliction would not admit of an operation and he was brought back home to await his end which came peacefully as above stated. Services were held at the home of his mother, at noon Dec. 22, after which his remains were taken to the home of his brother Emanuel at Potters Mills, from which many friends followed the funeral cortage on the 24 to the brick church at Tusseyville where funeral services were conducted by his pastor, Rev. Chas. T. Aikens, assisted by Rev. J. M. Reaick, of Centre Hall. The deceased leaves a mother and five brothers and three sisters to mourn his death; namely: Emanuel, Michael, John, Luther, William, Ella, Emma and Cathrype. MRS. NANCY SHOPE:—Died in Sunbury, Pa., December 28, 1900, aged 67 years and some months, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Clementine Murray. Mrs. Shope, whose maiden name was Martin, came from Clearfield to Centre county when a young woman, and soon after married David D. Shope. Their home was near Milesburg, where eleven children were born, ten of whom are living, nine of them present at their mother's funeral. Mrs. Shope had been a consistent member of the Milesburg Baptist church for a number of years. Her sons and daughters believed their mother lived and died a true Christian. Funeral services were held in the Milesburg Baptist church Wednesday, January 2nd, 1901, conducted by the pastor, Rev. E. E. Houck. Interment in Messiah cemetery, where her husband was buried twelve years ago. The five sons present and a son-in-law were the pall bearers. The bereaved children desire to publicly return thanks to their many friends of Milesburg and vicinity for their practical sympathy in this time of bereavement. JOHN J. MUSSER:—a well known farmer living about a mile from Bellefonte, died early on Monday morning last. He was a son of John H. Musser, and is survived by two brothers and two sisters, namely, Michael of Aaronsburg, Samuel of Scranton, Mrs. Rev. W. H. Shook of New Berlin, and Mrs. John Wetzel of this place. His age was 72 years. He was a consistent member of the Presbyterian church, an ardent granger and for many years treasurer of the order. He was twice married, his first wife being Miss Nancy Baird; his second wife was Miss Sarah J. Miller, of near Bellefonte who, with a daughter survives him. He had been ailing about a year and in the last six months was confined to his bed. He lived on the farm where he died, 64 years. MRS. GEORGE CALDERWOOD:—died at a hospital in Philadelphia, Friday evening from cancer. Her home was at Philipsburg, and she went to Philadelphia for treatment on the 26th of last month. She was a native of Bald Eagle Valley and aged about 59 years. Her husband died at Pennsylvania Furnace about 14 years ago. ARNER EDMISTON:—one of Mill Hall's highly respected citizens, died Tuesday last. Over a year ago he had one of his feet amputated. Since that time he had been in ill health, dropsy having developed. CAPT. JOHN BECK:—died at his home near Fort Scott, Kansas, on Saturday evening, Dec. 29th, aged 57 years. He was born at Centre Line, this county, and is a brother of Isaac and Isiah Beck at Centre Line. JEFF SHAFER:—died at Burnham, near Lewistown, Wednesday, of Typhoid fever. He was formerly of Potters Mills and leaves a wife and small children. His age was 35 years. Weather Report. Weekly Report—Bellefonte Station. DATE TEMPERATURE Maximum Minimum Jan. 3, cloudy 29 10 4, clear 41 07 5, clear 38 26 6, part. cloudy 26 09 7, clear 42 25 8, part cloudy 44 17 9, cloudy 43 30 Rain on night of 8th, 1/2 inch. Who Wants Brook Trout Fry? The Pennsylvania fish commission is ready to receive applications for brook trout fry for planting in the public waters of the state. The attention of the public is drawn to a rule adopted by the board at its last annual meeting to the effect that no applications for trout fry will be received after April 15, and that the fish will be shipped by the superintendent of the hatching station when he decides it best for the interests of the fish to do so, and not to suit the convenience of the applicants.
