

HAPPENINGS ABOUT TOWN

The Local News Compiled During the Week

BRIEFLY TOLD IN A FEW LINES

Movements of Our People—Personal Mention, Society Events—What Has Transpired Worthy of Mention—Short Paragraphs.

—Miss Jennie Smyser departed Thursday, on a visit to friends at York, Pa.

—Wheat fields throughout Brushvalley do not have the most encouraging look.

—There never was less complaint over the management of county affairs than now.

—Everybody agrees that winters are not as they "used to be" in the good old days.

—Rev. Bickle will administer the Lord's supper in the Reformed church, Sunday morning, 27th inst.

—Miss Annie Shaffer, of Philadelphia, is a visitor at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Isaac Mitchell.

—Miss Bertha Atwood is ill at her home on North Spring street with a severe case of diphtheria.

—The dairy school at The Pennsylvania State College has opened with a membership of forty pupils.

—The Methodist church, which is undergoing extensive repairs, is now in the hands of the interior decorators.

—Miss Sallie Baum left Friday morning for New York city where she will visit her sister, Mrs. Morris Monash.

—Mrs. Sam Wallach of New York city is visiting her sister Mrs. Emil Joseph on East High street, who was taken ill.

—The Clinton county commissioners were in Bellefonte a few days ago inspecting the metallic ceiling in the court house.

—Rev. F. Christine, former pastor of the Sinking Creek Presbyterian charge, was in Bellefonte on Tuesday, on a business visit.

—Dr. M. J. Locke has gone to Philadelphia, and will enter the Polyclinic hospital for special work, during the next month.

—The entire control of all city papers in Bellefonte, together with a good periodical business was sold by T. G. Cruse to the Racket store, on Tuesday.

—A movement is now on foot to start the evening classes at the Y. M. C. A. rooms. All the common school branches will be taught. Help push the good work along.

—Joseph S. Rhodes, of Jamesburg, N. J., supervisor on the United Railroad of New Jersey division, spent last Thursday in Bellefonte with his mother, Mrs. Daniel Rhodes.

—Benjamin Gramley, who left Miles township many years ago for Illinois, is back to visit his many friends, and looks the picture of health. He has become wealthy out there.

—Philip B. Brower, of Runville, has been granted a pension of $8.00 per month. Mrs. Wilhelmina Packer, of Romola, has also been granted a pension of $8.00 per month.

—Democrats should take notice of Chairman John J. Bower's announcement of the committee for the ensuing year as well as the time for holding caucuses for the spring elections.

—If reports are correct our neighboring town of Howard is enjoying a genuine boom. There are not near enough houses for all the people. This is due to the enlargement of the tool factory.

—The Baptists of Central Pennsylvania will hold a New Century Conference in the First Baptist church, of Williamsport, February 5 to 7, that promises to be a meeting of more than ordinary interest.

—Lagrippe has made its appearance in our country. It is raging in the cities, and Philadelphia is said to have 70,000 cases. President McKinley has it bad, and in consequence it may become fashionable.

—Phillipsburg has a company organized to drill for oil and gas. They are supposed to have 4,000 acres of land in Bald Eagle valley under lease. Lock Haven is also after gas. Bellefonte people are more inclined for getting office.

—Daniel Eberhart informs us that he will be a candidate for the office of overseer of the poor, in our borough, this year. Mr. Eberhart is a good, clean man. His honesty and integrity is what don't suit some politicians or else he would have been elected the last time.

—Joseph Massey slipped away quietly and took unto himself a bride in the person of Miss Eva Warner, of Burlington, N. J. The happy event took place at the home of the bride's father, Fred Warner, Thursday evening Jan. 3. They expect to go housekeeping in the near future but are at present boarding at Wm. Dawson's on Spring street.

—Clyde Smith, who sustained serious injuries by falling from a telephone pole, is still confined to the house, but is mending up. Four pieces of bone each about an inch in length, have been taken from his jaw within a week, and there is indication of healing now in that part. His mother from Centre Hall has been here the past four weeks nursing her son.

—Grip is making calls in Bellefonte, and other parts of the county.

—Mrs. Jerry Nolan is very ill at her home on South Thomas Street.

—Coming on Wednesday evening—"Too Rich to Marry." It is a jolly comedy.

—The Undine Band is being re-organized, with the most of the former musicians back again.

—Weather the past week has been as deceiving as some of the members of the present legislature.

—When you need a sale bill come to this office. We can render good service at reasonable rates.

—Rev. Shriner of the M. E. church returned from Philadelphia, under an attack of lagrippe.

—The injured Edgar Rearick, is improving, and will be brought home shortly, from Niagara Falls.

—The Coleville band will give an entertainment in Garman's opera house on the night of February 5th.

—Mrs. Harry Keller has gone to Philadelphia where she will remain during the next month to have her eyes treated.

—J. C. Derr, the bustling bill poster, is out over the county this week advertising the famous Pillsbury flour. He is doing it in a thorough manner.

—Will G. Hoffer and family have returned to Kansas where he is now interested in the publication of the News, at Sylvian Grove, Lincoln county.

—Sheriff Brungart was so unfortunate some ten days ago as to lose his fine driving horse. Its leg was broken by being kicked, and it was necessary to kill it.

—William Barnes, who has had charge of the electric plant connected with a coal mine at Ralston, Pa., has given up his position there and is now at his home in this place.

—Edgar T. Burnside, of the Standard Scale and Supply Co. Ltd., has personal oversight of the firm's New York office and may spend considerable time in the future in that city.

—It is probable that within a few weeks rural free mail delivery will be put in operation at Pennsylvania Furnace, in Huntingdon county, and at Blairsville, in Indiana county.

—Some of our correspondents have been slow in sending in news the past season. If your locality does not have a correspondent, send us the items and we will gladly print them.

—Mrs. Geiser of East Bishop street, who has been in the Medico Chirurgical hospital, Philadelphia, for the past two months undergoing treatment, has returned home much improved.

—The cards are out announcing the approaching marriage of William L. Woodcock, Esq., one of Altoona's most prominent citizens, to Miss Lydia May Ferguson, of Allegheny City, on January 23.

—No honest man will feel the least offended when an honest bill is presented to him. When a man gets angry because of a dun it is an evidence that he knows himself to be dishonest and is provoked to think that he is probably not the only one that knows it.

—An effort is being made to secure sufficient funds for the erection of a much-needed building at the Bellefonte Academy. The attendance has largely increased in recent years and a better equipment is necessary. The Academy is a direct benefit to this community in many ways.

—The trouble with so many old bachelors in Bellefonte is that they are "too rich to marry." They should go to the opera house next Wednesday evening and find out what that means. We have some old maids that are "too rich to marry." They should attend the same play.

—George Brown, a farmer, of Yarnell, this county, died Saturday afternoon after a lingering illness from dropsy. He was about sixty years of age and leaves a wife and several children. Interment took place Monday afternoon in the Advent cemetery. Deceased was a member of the Baptist church.

Held for Court.

James Gallagher, who was arrested Thursday last week upon the charge of having committed an assault with intent to rob Mrs. H. C. Holloway on Wednesday night, was given a hearing before Justice Harshberger next morning. District Attorney Spangler, assisted by Burgess Blanchard, represented the Commonwealth, and Attorney W. E. Gray the defendant. Mrs. Holloway, Miss Maggie Herman, who was also attacked on East Linn street on Wednesday a short time after Mrs. Holloway's adventure, Lewis Mills and Miss Mary Sullivan testified on behalf of the prosecution. The defendant's lawyer made no defense at the hearing and Justice Harshberger, upon the evidence produced by the prosecution, remanded the case for trial before the court. Bail for $500, required by the Justice, was furnished by Charles Schad. There is some doubt expressed as to whether they have the right party.

Services in the Lutheran Church.

Rev. Holloway, D. D., whose illness prevented his having services the past few weeks, has recovered sufficiently to be able to announce services in the Lutheran church for next Sabbath, morning and evening, at the regular hours.

Splendid Entertainment.

Tuesday evening the opera house was well filled to see Francis, the Magician, in his slight of hand work and amusing and startling illusions. Mr. Francis for many years has been a resident druggist of Lock Haven, and for that reason many expected to see an amateur toy with the mystic art. In stead, all were surprised at the splendid treat. Mr. Francis proved an exceedingly clever man in his line, and in the estimation of most people they would place his work in slight of hand far above that of anything produced here by Kellar, Powell, and other notables. His work was new to our people and full of startling surprises. The mechanical illusions were novel and the deception beyond question. Mr. Francis wasted time following the drug business, when he can entertain an audience as well as be did in Bellefonte on Tuesday evening, and our people are often considered critical. A full house will welcome his return.

Installation of Officers.

Gregg post No. 95, G. A. R., held their annual installation of officers last Saturday evening in their rooms. There was a large attendance and the exercises proved very interesting. All the old officers were re-elected. The installation was conducted by Col. Austin Curtin, of George L. Potter Post, No. 261, of Milesburg. After the installation the meeting was turned into a camp fire and speeches were made by Col. Austin Curtin, Commander, Jas. Harris, Comrades, David P. Fortney, John I. Curtin, Samuel B. Miller, Senator Wm. C. Heinle and Euanuel Noll. After the camp fire everybody adjourned to the next room where an elegant supper was served.

Married at Tyrone.

At the home of H. C. Shuey, on East 114 St., January, 1st, at high noon, Rev. A. J. Weisley performed the ceremony uniting in marriage Fernan F. Ross, of Warriorsmark, and Miss Ethel I. M. Shuey. The bridesmaid was Miss Minnie Foust, and the groomsmen O. W. Taylor, both of Tyrone. The wedding march was played by Miss Lillie T. Hooper, of Huntingdon, a cousin of the bride. A small company gathered together to witness the impressive service and afterwards sat down to a table loaded with good things. The young couple took the afternoon train westward, and returning will take up housekeeping at Warriorsmark.

Getting City Like.

City dailies have news going that in Bellefonte, within a few days, ruffians have attacked six ladies on our streets at night and a half dozen residences were broken into and robbed. Gosh, that is business on the first floor—for telling whoppers, and fills the bill for fibbing until the trout season sets in. Beware! we have a score of women in this town that can knock the stuffing out of any ruffian.

RECENT DEATHS.

MRS. CATHERINE HARPSTER:—Catherine, wife of Jacob Harpster, nee Sweetwood, died at her home in Missoula, Montana, January 8th, of heart trouble. On Valentines day, next month, her age would have been 70 years. The family was well known on the Penns valley side, having resided at Centre Hall about all their life-time, until seven years ago, when they moved to Missoula. She was the mother of four sons and five daughters, all of whom, with the father, are living. The sons are, George, near Bellefonte; Isaac, Charles and Claude, who reside in the far west. The daughters are, Lizzie and Mrs. Kate Moore, living in Montana; Mrs. Ellen Barr, of Boalsburg; Mrs. Dr. Widder, of Harrisburg, and Mrs. Jerry Miller, of Centre Hall. The deceased was a consistent member of the Lutheran church of Centre Hall, and engaged faithfully in church and Sunday School work. She was a faithful wife and mother, and a kind neighbor. Mrs. John Arney of Centre Hall is her only surviving sister.

PEARL GRAY:—daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Gray, of State College, died on Sunday evening after an illness of over a year from a complication of diseases. Her age was 13 years, 10 months. The interment took place on Tuesday in Grays cemetery in Halfmoon township. Services were held at State College which were largely attended by friends and especially the pupils of all of the public schools. The deceased left school about one year prior owing to illness and she always had been a favorite among them.

DAVID KRAPE:—this venerable citizen of Haines township, died in Aaronsburg at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Edward Stump, on Monday morning, 7. He had been ill for over a year and last spring had an attack of paralysis, followed by other strokes latter on. He was a member of the United Evangelical church, and interred in the Reformed cemetery at Aaronsburg. His age was 81 years. He is survived by a son, W. J. Krape, of Haines township, and a daughter, Mrs. Stump, of Aaronsburg.

MISS ELLA McWILLIAMS:—daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. McWilliams, of Rock Springs, aged 19 years, died last Friday of convulsions at her home in that place. She retired in her usual health on Wednesday night, but could not be aroused. She was unconscious and notwithstanding every effort of the family physician to arouse her, she remained in that condition until death.

LUTHER A. ROUSH:—formerly of Sugar Valley, died at Beaver, Pa., in November. Roush is survived by his wife, four young children, his mother, and twelve brothers and sisters. Mr. Roush was the son of Jackson Roush, once an Aaronsburg boy, and a grandson of Robert Kleckner, of Sugar Valley.

The Sick.

Mrs. Michael Lamb is very ill at her home on South Allegheny street with typhoid fever.

Mrs. Joseph Beck is very ill with Diphtheria at her parents home, Mr. and Mrs. James Houser on East Bishop street. Mr. Houser is able to be about again. His eye is bandaged and his wrists are sprained so as to be almost helpless from a fall down stairs.

Mr. David Barlett is confined to his home with the lagrippe.

Boyd Wilson, a member of the Howard Creamery Company, has been quite ill with typhoid fever. Mr. Wilson has been sick for over six weeks.

Mrs. John Walker, after a week's sickness, is able to attend to business again.

Christ Young, clerk in Mr. Sechler's grocery store, is confined to his home with the lagrippe.

Miss Ida Orris, stenographer in Judge Furs' office, is suffering with an acute attack of tonsillitis at the home of her sister, Mrs. E. E. Davis, on Thomas street.

Rev. Dr. H. C. Holloway pastor of the Lutheran church is able to be out and around again.

A Wonderful Harness.

A set of harness fifty-five years old, and in constant use in all that time, less two years, is in the possession of our tall statured friend, Morgan M. Lucas, up by Runville. This set was made by the father of Mr. Lucas, and never a buckle was torn off nor a stitch raveled, and is in good condition yet. There is nothing like leather—honest leather, and honest harness makers like the elder Lucas. Mr. Lucas will put this wonderful set up to the highest bidder at his approaching public sale, as his ad. in the Democrat tells. It was made in the days of Old Hickory, and has the real Jacksonian tenacity.

Pomona Grange Meeting.

The Centre Co. Pomona Grange No. 13 will meet in the hall of Bald Eagle Grange, at Milesburg, on Friday, Jan. 25th, at 10 a. m.

As this will be the first meeting of the New Year it is respectfully urged that each subordinate Grange send representatives to this meeting. It is confidently hoped that every Grange will give this matter their prompt attention.

D. M. Campbell, Sec. Geo. Dale, Master.

Penn Roller Mills for Sale.

The Penn Roller Mills, at Farmers Mills, will be off red at public sale on 18th inst., by C. W. Fisher, executor of J. B. Fisher, deceased.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER. ABSOLUTELY PURE. Makes the food more delicious and wholesome.

A $25,000 Hotel. The sum paid by Wm. H. Runkle, of Centre Hall, for the hotel at the stockyards in the outskirts of York, Pa., is $25,000. The stand is said to be one with a large trade, and we suppose Will can run it.
