RIOT AT THE STEVENS QUARRIES.

About midnight, Tuesday, there was a first class riot "on a small scale" among the Hungarians at the Stevens quarries, a few miles west of here. Tuesday had been pay day and the Huns celebrated it in their style that night, and a riot was the result. About midnight a message called for the sheriff to go to the quarries with the police and a posse of men. Accordingly deputy Jackson at once proceeded to the seat of war with a force of men and police, and found that an ugly fight was on among the drunken Huns, and that there was a big crop of black eves, bloody noses, scratched and bruised faces, and other marks of riot. The stove in the building had been kicked over and there was imminent danger of New Men in Business in the Lower the First Methodist parsonage in Tyrone | the building being set on fire which was prevented, however, by the timely arrival of the deputy Sheriff and his men. One arrest was made and that seemed to still the troubled waters, or wisky.

Strike at Lewisburg.

One hundred employes of the Lewisburg chair factory went out on a strike last week claiming that a month's wages spring. is due them. The men say they will not return to work until they receive back of merchandise to John G. Guisewite, of pay and a regular semi monthly pay day is established.

Since then the differences have been

Annual Statement.

In our issue next week we expect to be able to furnish our readers with the annual statement of the finances of the county, which includes the receipts and expenditures of the various departments. The county commissioners have no advance information except that they will have a creditable showing-one that indicates good housekeeping.

Free Rural Mail Delivery. The free rural mail delivery for this county, in districts where it will be practical, is begun, in the Ferguson township territory, and seems to be acceptable to the people there. The free delivery route mapped out for Potter township, starting out from Centre Hall, which was described in the Centre Democrat some weeks ago, is likely to be the next set in operation. The system is strongly favored by postmaster general Smith and will be introduced all over the country, as far as practicable, right along.
