

ENGLAND'S DEAD QUEEN.

Naval Procession the Feature of Funeral Pageants.

EIGHT MILES OF BATTLESHIPS.

The Coffin Will Be Borne From Osborne House by the Queen's Highlanders—Precautions to Protect the Royal Visitors to London.

London, Jan. 30.—For the first time since his accession the king's train yesterday was preceded by a pilot engine. His majesty was vociferously cheered on his way to Marlborough House.

The war office has invited colonial officers and soldiers in England to take part in the funeral procession. Minute guns will be fired from all ships in the Solent and at Cowes, commencing when the Alberta leaves Trinity pier. Each ship will cease fire immediately the end of the procession passes here.

After the procession has passed the battleship Majestic the forts and ships in Portsmouth harbor will commence firing minute guns and will continue to do so until the Alberta is alongside.

No standards will be displayed. Ensigns and Union Jacks will be half masted. Admirals' flags will be fully hoisted.

As the procession passes each ship its crew will present arms and then rest on reversed arms until the procession has gone, the band meanwhile playing funeral marches.

All the ceremonies no doubt the naval will be the finest pageant. The Alberta, with the body, will slowly steam along a line of battleships extending eight miles. Facing these giants of the British navy will be smaller vessels and numerous foreign battleships.

Whatever the weather may be, the spectacle of the remains of Victoria traversing a lane of warships—the guns all booming—will be unique.

The coffin will be borne from Osborne by the Queen's Highlanders Friday at 1:45 p. m. to a gun carriage. The household of the late queen, the royal servants and the tenantry will be drawn up on the carriage drive.

The queen's pipers will lead the procession through the king's gate to Trinity pier. There will be an imposing military display along the route, massed bands and drummers playing funeral marches.

Behind the coffin will walk Admiral Sir Michael Culme-Seymour, first and principal aide-de-camp to the queen since 1899; the king, Emperor William, the Duke of Connaught, Crown Prince Frederick William of Germany, the Duke of York, Prince Henry of Russia, Prince Christian of Schleswig-Holstein and other princes. Then will come Queen Alexandra, the Duchess of York and other princesses.

Bluejackets will bear the coffin from the pier to the royal yacht Alberta, where Admiral Culme-Seymour, four naval aides-de-camp and two ladies in waiting will accompany the remains.

The king, the queen, Emperor William and other members of the royal family, will embark on board the royal yacht Victoria and Albert.

About 3,500 troops will be engaged in the procession from Osborne to Cowes. Ten thousand volunteers will be employed along the line of route in London, in addition to 20,000 regulars.

Some disappointment is likely to be caused by the statement that no photographs will be allowed to be taken of the procession from Osborne to Cowes.

The compulsory absence of the Duke of Cornwall and York from the ceremonies is the occasion of extreme regret and of many expressions of popular sympathy, although no anxiety is felt regarding him, as the malady is not dangerous. He is suffering from German measles.

The entire detective machinery of the United Kingdom and the continent has been set in motion to protect the royal personages and other notable people now gathering in London. Nothing definite is feared, but the government desires that the utmost diligence should be exercised, especially with a view of keeping Emperor William from harm. Malatesta and other anarchists residing in London assert that there is not the slightest probability of violence, because England is an "asylum for the persecuted of the continent."

ADMIRAL KAUTZ RETIRED.

His Last Signal Service Was in the Samoan Controversy.

Washington, Jan. 30.—Rear Admiral Albert Kautz, who has just been relieved from command of the Pacific station, was placed on the retired list yesterday.

REAR ADMIRAL ALBERT KAUTZ. terday on account of age. He has had a long and distinguished career, of which nearly 18 years was spent at sea. During the Samoan troubles, about two years ago, Admiral Kautz was in command of the American forces in that quarter, and it was mainly through his firmness and conservatism that serious international complications were averted.

NEGLECT COST FIVE LIVES.

Engineer Fell Asleep and a Terrible Wreck Resulted.

Parkersburg, W. Va., Jan. 29.—Five persons dead and one severely wounded, two engines and ten loaded cars wrecked is the result of the mistake of a train crew yesterday afternoon between Petroleum and Volcano Junction, on the Baltimore and Ohio railroad. It was the old story of the engineer being asleep at his post and mistaking the first section of a passing train for the second.

Thinking both had passed he pulled his train into the main track and sped onward to what would seem to have necessarily been his death.

The dead are: J. B. Watkins, engineer train No. 96, from Grafton; W. M. Cunningham, fireman on No. 98; M. Courtney, of Parkersburg, brakeman on No. 96; J. T. Bailey, of Parkersburg, fireman on No. 87; J. G. Bartley, Kanawha, brakeman on 87.

Ike Davidson, of Grafton, engineer on 87, whose neglect caused the disaster, was burned, cut and bruised, but will recover.

Fighting Against Prize Fight.

Cincinnati, Jan. 30.—Suit was begun yesterday before Judge Howard Hollister, of the common pleas court, to enjoin the proposed Jeffries-Ruhlin contest here Feb. 15. This proceeding is in the name of the state, by Attorney General Sheets, at the direction of Governor Nash. It is understood, however, that the real instigators are the ministers and other elements of this city who are opposed to having the fight take place here.

Both sides have engaged eminent counsel, among those retained by those seeking to prevent the fight being Judson Harmon, attorney general in Cleveland's cabinet.

A Flurry in Cotton.

New York, Jan. 29.—There was great activity in the January options on the Cotton Exchange yesterday. The opening price was 10.30, and the quotation steadily advanced until 12.75 was reached, at 11 a. m., an advance of 245 points from the opening. Later there was an advance to 255 points. The fluctuations were more violent than ever before known. At the close the market was quiet and steady, with January net 85 points higher and other months 1 point higher to 3 points lower. The phenomenal advance was due to a squeeze of shorts.

England's Commercial Decadence.

London, Jan. 30.—The Times, in an editorial dealing with an "important and perplexing question of true significance"—the excess in value regularly exhibited by England's imports over her exports, especially looking to the fact that during the last three and a half years the United States have exported over £400,000,000 more merchandise, gold and silver than they imported—says: "It is not easy, yet it is a matter of the utmost moment, to ascertain whether as a nation we are still saving and living within our income, or whether we are beginning to live on the accumulated savings of former times."

The Galveston Relief Fund.

Austin, Tex., Jan. 30.—Governor Sayers sent a message to the Texas legislature yesterday making a report of the fund subscribed to the relief of the Galveston and gulf coast flood sufferers last September. To Push the Shipping Bill.

Washington, Jan. 30.—Senator Frye gave notice in the senate yesterday that he intended to keep the shipping bill to the front, even as against the appropriation bills, not yielding to them without the vote of the senate. It indicates a disposition on the part of senate leaders to force to an early issue the question whether the shipping bill is going to pass at this session.

House Work

Seems easy to a man, but there is a great deal of lifting and reaching to do; a great many trips up and down stairs to make in the course of day's house work. It's hard where a woman is well. For a woman suffering with some form of "female trouble" it is daily torment. There are thousands of such women struggling along, day by day, in increasing misery. The back aches, the head aches, the nerves are unstrung. But the work must go on, dusting, sweeping, scrubbing must be done regardless of pain. And yet we wonder why a woman is tired and irritable, when she has nothing to do but take care of the house.

Every day swells the long list of the thousands of women who have found a complete cure of their disease in the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It regulates the periods, dries enfeebled drains, heals inflammation and ulceration, and cures female weakness. It quiets the nerves by feeding them. It gives vitality and vigor to the womanly organism. It makes weak women strong, sick women well.

There is no alcohol in "Favorite Prescription," and it contains no opium, cocaine, or other narcotic. Accept no substitute for "Favorite Prescription." If you want to experience the cure which other women have found in "Favorite Prescription," do not be deceived into accepting some so-called "just as good" remedy.

Shapely Married Women Mother's Friend

Every woman covets a shapely, pretty figure, and many of them deplore the loss of their girlish forms after marriage. The bearing of children is very destructive to the mother's shapeliness. This can be avoided, however, by the use of MOTHER'S FRIEND, a scientific medicine.
