

FIRST CHIEF JUSTICE

Anniversary of John Marshall's Elevation Fittingly Celebrated.

THE CEREMONY AT WASHINGTON.

Addresses by Chief Justice Fuller and Hon. Wayne MacVeagh—The Marshall Homestead in Richmond to Be Preserved as a Memorial.

Washington, Feb. 4.—Of the many impressive celebrations that have occurred in the hall of representatives in recent years none has been more interesting than the observance of the centenary of the installation of John Marshall as chief justice of the supreme court, which took place today.

The gathering was an exceptionally distinguished one. All the members of the supreme court were present in their stately robes, the white haired, white mustached Chief Justice Fuller presiding over the assemblage from the speaker's chair. There was President McKinley, with his full cabinet, the senate was well represented and more than a quorum of the house was present. The Bar Association of the District of Columbia and the district commissioners were in attendance, the whole assemblage filling the large hall and presenting a scene of great dignity and interest.

The galleries were early filled by an audience, more than half of which was composed of richly attired women. In this audience were nearly 60 descendants of John Marshall, who came from several states, but the larger number from the chief justice's native state of Virginia and the adjoining state of Maryland.

The interest of the occasion centered in two speeches, one delivered by Chief Justice Fuller, upon assuming the gavel, and the other by ex-Attorney General Wayne MacVeagh. Both addresses evoked prolonged applause, in which President McKinley joined most warmly.

At Richmond, Va., the anniversary was fittingly celebrated at the old home of the chief justice. The general assembly of Virginia has chartered the John Marshall Memorial association, organized for the purpose of buying this old home, which stands at the corner of Marshall and Smith streets, in order to preserve it as a permanent memorial. The association, which includes among its members, aside from many prominent Virginians, Chief Justice Fuller, ex-President Harrison, Senator George F. Hoar and many other well known statesmen and lawyers, will endeavor to keep the historic old mansion in its original form. Furniture, books, manuscripts, portraits and other relics possessed by the great jurist or connected with his career will be collected and used to furnish and decorate the old home. The Marshall homestead is now owned and occupied by two granddaughters of the chief justice. It was built about 1795, the exact date being unknown, and remains exactly as it was built by its first owner more than a century ago.

Despondent Mother's Crime.

Philadelphia, Feb. 6.—Mrs. Bertha Fox, aged 26 years, residing near Fox Chase, a suburb of this city, was found in her home last night writhing in agony from the effects of a dose of carbolic acid, while in a crib near by lay the body of her 2-year-old child, killed by the poison, and on the floor beside her was her boy, John, aged 4 years, unconscious from the same cause. The woman's husband, John Fox, was discovered in bed in a drunken stupor. He was arrested, but was unable to give any information concerning the affair. It is believed that Mrs. Fox administered the poison.

Queen Victoria at Rest.

London, Feb. 4.—The body of the late Queen Victoria was interred at Frogmore today at 3 o'clock p. m. The coffin was conveyed to a gun carriage drawn by artillery horses, which rehearsed this morning. The guard of honor was the late queen's company of Grenadier Guards, the regimental band accompanying the escort to the mausoleum. All the members of the royal family, led by King Edward and Emperor William, walked behind the coffin, and remained standing in the mausoleum until the body was finally laid at rest beside that of the prince consort.

Pensions For Confederates.

Columbia, S. C., Feb. 6.—By a decisive majority the house of representatives yesterday passed a bill appropriating $200,000 for Confederate pensions. This is double the amount heretofore appropriated for this purpose. The author of the bill is Capt. J. Hampton Brooks, of Greenwood, younger brother of Preston S. Brooks, who caned Charles Sumner in the United States senate before the civil war.

Heavy British Casualty List.

London, Feb. 6.—The war office issued a very heavy South African casualty list yesterday, showing, in addition to 13 killed and 77 wounded in action, 82 deaths from disease during the present month. Last month 31 officers and men were killed in action or died from disease. The total death list from the beginning of the war shows 12,969 victims.

The Attempt to Oust Wilcox.

Washington, Feb. 6.—Representative Tongue, of Oregon, "by request," yesterday introduced in the house the charges of treason against Delegate Wilcox, of Hawaii, which were presented recently to the committee on elections by Attorney Gear. Accompanying the charges is a petition praying that Delegate Wilcox be ousted from his seat.

De Wet to Annex British Territory.

London, Feb. 6.—A special dispatch from Cape Town says that Gen. De Wet, according to Cape Town reports, intends to annex various districts of Cape Colony and then to commandeer men and supplies, although he is now urging the colonists not to join him.

Boers Captured Two Hundred Britons

Cape Town, Feb. 6.—The Boers captured 200 British when they rushed Modderfontein Jan. 30. The prisoners were subsequently released. Thirty British were killed or wounded.

QUEEN WILHELMINA'S WEDDING

A Gala Performance For Royalty, Ministers and Diplomats.

The Hague, Feb. 6.—Yesterday was marked by further receptions in connection with the forthcoming marriage of Queen Wilhelmina and Duke Henry of Mecklenburg-Schwerin. Additional guests arrived at the palace, and there were more coral serenades. Everybody is wearing a rosette or other favor.

Last evening a state banquet was given at the palace in honor of the foreign envoys. Earlier in the day there was a reception at the German legation.

The gala performance at the theater presented a brilliant spectacle. The house was draped in pale blue and beautifully illuminated by electric lights. Flowers were everywhere in profusion. At 9:30 two officials bearing candles ushered in Queen Wilhelmina, who was attired in white satin and lace and wore a diadem of brilliants, a pearl necklace, the grand cross of the Lion of the Netherlands, and the chain of the Mecklenburg order.

Duke Henry followed, wearing the uniform of a rear admiral and the grand cross of the Lion of the Netherlands. Then came the Grand Duke of Mecklenburg, Duke Adolph Frederic of Mecklenburg, Duchess Maria, Prince Albert of Prussia, the queen mother, Grand Duke Vladimir of Russia and other princely personages.

The theater was crowded with ministers, diplomats and officers, all in full uniform. The program consisted of music, recitations by artists in national costumes of the provinces in the Seventeenth century, and tableaux.

WILLIAM LEAVES ENGLAND.

German Emperor Sails Away on the Imperial Yacht Hohenzollern.

London, Feb. 6.—Emperor William yesterday returned on board the imperial yacht Hohenzollern, at Port Victoria, which later anchored in the Sheerness harbor. This morning the vessel sailed for home, escorted by the German cruiser Nymphen and the British cruisers Niobe and Minerva.

The emperor yesterday received from London crowds demonstrative expressions of their appreciation of his prolonged visit to England. The emperor's passage through London, however, was somewhat marred by bad weather. Unmistakable evidence of the place he has won in the hearts of the English people was seen in the affection with which he was bidden farewell by King Edward, the Duke of Connaught and other members of the royal family. A naval parade greeted the emperor's arrival at Port Victoria, when all the war vessels dressed ship, this being further evidence of the exceptional official cordiality existing between the two countries.

Emperor William was accompanied by the crown prince, Frederick William, and the Duke of Sparta.

Probably Fatal Coasting Accident.

Phillipsburg, N. J., Feb. 6.—A serious coasting accident happened here last night in which six young people were badly injured. One of them may die. The injured are: Mrs. Harry Eilenberg, skull thought to be fractured, recovery doubtful; Harry Eilenberg, her husband, seriously hurt; Ray Carpenter, a brother of Mrs. Eilenberg, cut and bruised about the face and hands; Miss Clara Paterson, cuts and bruises; Miss Florence Shlmer, nose broken; Michael Maloney, a student at Lafayette college, numerous lacerations. Carpenter, who was steering, lost control of the sled and it struck a telegraph pole.

Carnegie Sells Out to Morgan & Co.

New York, Feb. 6.—The Tribune says: Negotiations for the sale of Andrew Carnegie's controlling interest in the stock of the Carnegie company were brought to a successful conclusion Monday, J. Pierpont Morgan and his associates being the purchasers. The transaction is a colossal one, rivaling the recent change of control of the Southern Pacific. Assuming that Mr. Carnegie has disposed of his holdings at par he will receive fully $85,000,000 for his interest, while at the same time he will retain his 53 or 54 per cent interest in the $160,000,000 bond issue of the Carnegie company.

Queen Victoria's Will.

London, Feb. 6.—The latest rumor regarding Queen Victoria's will is that it bequeaths £140,000 each to the Duke of Connaught, Prince Christian of Schleswig-Holstein, Princess Louise and Princess Beatrice, and includes liberal legacies for the Duchess of Albany and a number of the late queen's grandchildren. The bulk of her private fortune, however, goes to King Edward, and both Balmoral and Osborne House are given to King Edward. Two small houses on the Osborne estate are given to Princess Beatrice.

King Edward Not Afflicted.

London, Feb. 6.—Prof. Sir Felix Simon, physician for diseases of the throat to the National Hospital for Epilepsy and Paralysis, and president of the Laryngological Society of London, etc., says there is positively no word of truth in the story, published in the United States, that King Edward is suffering from cancer of the throat. Sir Felix wishes it to be called a "scandalous invention and ridiculous report."

THE KANSAS CRUSADE.

Mrs. Nation Manages to Wreck Topeka's Finest Saloon.

TWICE ARRESTED AND RELEASED.

Saloonists Who Opposed Her Were Also Placed Under Arrest—A Bill to Legalize Joint Smashing to Be Introduced in the Legislature.

Topeka, Kan., Feb. 6.—Mrs. Carrie Nation and three followers yesterday wrought damage to the extent of $1,500 in the "Senate," the finest equipped "joint" in Topeka. She did more, for she gained the first police protection given her since she started out on her saloon smashing career at Wichita a month ago. The police followed up her raid of yesterday and arrested the proprietor of the Senate and two men who were guarding the place. Mrs. Nation was arrested, but promptly released.

Mrs. Nation and her wreckers, each armed with a hatchet, sallied forth at daybreak. They forced their way past a negro who guarded the door of the Senate, and in less than ten minutes had strewn the floor with broken mirrors, bottles, slot machines and splintered bar fixtures. The negro fired a shot of warning into the ceiling, but it had no effect. Presently a policeman stalked leisurely into the room, and said:

"Well, Sister Nation, I guess we'll have to arrest you again."

Mrs. Nation had just smashed the last bottle and was ready to go. "All right," she responded cheerily, "you came just when I wanted you to." She turned back as she reached the door and inquired:

"Everything cleaned up, ladies?" The police judge was glad to release her when she appeared for trial and administered a rebuke to that official. Mrs. Nation soon walked down Kansas avenue, free again.

Michael Wagner, supposed to be the owner of the Senate, made the best of his opportunity and promptly secured a quantity of liquor to supply the thirst of the crowd that poured into his place to view the wreckage.

During the afternoon two deputies from Sheriff Cook's office raided the place and arrested Wagner, Shep Lytle and two guards, and took charge of the stock of liquors.

Later Chief of Police Stahl, in an interview with a reporter, said:

"I do not care if Mrs. Nation smashes every joint in Topeka. I sympathize with her. I hope she will close up the saloons of the city. As an officer of the law, though, it is my duty to arrest her every time she creates a disturbance or destroys property. If we had the right kind of state officers it would not be necessary for Mrs. Nation to do what she is doing."

After Mrs. Nation and her followers had departed from the wrecked Senate and the place had been reopened for business by the proprietor the crowd in the saloon soon became so large that it required four bartenders to wait on them. Among those present were advocates of temperance who wished to see the work of the crusaders. The crowd around the bar demanded souvenirs, and the bartenders gathered up bits of glass from the broken mirror, giving away a small piece with every glass of beer. A man stationed himself at the front door and cried: "Souvenirs with each and every glass of beer." Those who did not drink begged for souvenirs. Small pieces of glass sold for five cents.

Mrs. Nation was again arrested last night on a warrant sworn out in the city court by Kelly & Lytle, who owned the Senate saloon. She is charged with malicious destruction of property. Her bond was placed at $100, and she was released till Saturday, at which time her trial will take place.

John C. Nicholson, a lawyer from Newton, is here with a bill he has prepared to legalize joint smashing. He claims that a legislator has promised to introduce the bill for the consideration of the legislature. Mr. Nicholson says that Mr. Nation violates no law when she smashes property that is being used for unlawful purposes. Yesterday Mrs. Nation dictated an appeal "to the children of the high schools of the United States," in which she urged children everywhere to smash saloon windows with rocks.

Prize Fighters' Legal Fight.

Cincinnati, Feb. 6.—Arguments and testimony were heard yesterday before Judge Hollister, of the common pleas court, on an application for an injunction against the Jeffries-Ruhlin prize fight in this city Feb. 15. Judging from the slow progress made and the long list of witnesses, it is believed now that the hearing will not be completed this week, and that the decision of Judge Hollister may not be had before next week. The sale of tickets yesterday was unusually large, and all the preparations for the event are going ahead the same as if there was no opposition.

The Heir Apparent Coming Here.

New York, Feb. 6.—The Tribune says: The Duke of Cornwall will be present at the America's cup races, which begin off Sandy Hook on Aug. 20. It was part of his program to come here from Canada, on his way back from Australia, and it has been officially announced that the queen's death will not alter the previous plans.

ASHAMED.

"I'm ashamed to go anywhere with my face in this condition," is the expression of a very natural feeling. To a beautiful woman an eruption on the face is the greatest of calamities, her very beauty seeming to increase the disfigurement. Ninety-eight times in every hundred, eruptions are cured by Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, and the skin recovers its maiden bloom and softness. "Medical Discovery" is a medicine which acts directly on the blood, purifying it, increasing its quantity and its richness. Eruptions, blotches, pimples, etc., are but surface signs of the corrupt blood current underneath. "Discovery" cleanses the blood, and so cleanses the skin.

Women will find in Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery a true beautifier. All the tints with which Nature paints the skin and complexion, all the brightness of the eyes and the coral of the lips, are made from one chief ingredient—pure, healthy blood. No "bloom" or "blams" applied to the skin's surface can simulate the exquisite work of Nature. "Discovery" cleanses the blood of the impurities which mar its rich coloring, and gives the smooth, soft skin and clear complexion which are often lost with the loss of youth.

Baby's Voice

Is the joy of the household, for without it no happiness can be complete. The ordeal through which the expectant mother must pass, however, is so full of danger and suffering that she looks forward to it with indescribable fear.
