

HAPPENINGS ABOUT TOWN

The Local News Compiled During the Week

BRIEFLY TOLD IN A FEW LINES

Movements of Our People—Personal Mention, Society Events—What Has Transpired Worthy of Mention—Short Paragraphs.

—Spring is here, do you know it? —The days and nights are now of about equal length. —Vogel & Deming's Minstrels Saturday, March 30th. —Robin red breast has been chirping about here the past week. —R. B. Taylor, the coal dealer, lost a valuable horse by death last week. —Hammond Sechler, the groceryman, is confined to his home with sickness. —The ice men are around drumming up business already for summer orders. —We are anxious to hear from some of our patrons between this and April 1st. —Rev. M. Diller, of Renovo, will preach in the Episcopal church, on Tuesday evening. —Charles Cruse is now father of a little baby girl which arrived Thursday morning 14th. —The spring term of Prof. D. M. Wolf's school, at Penn Hall, will begin on Monday April 8, 1901. —Thomas Donachy, of Bellefonte, has been placed on the United States pension rolls at $8 a month. —Miss Ida Campbell, of Williamsport, is a guest at the home of Recorder and Mrs. Nelson E. Robb. —The public sales this year are well attended and live stock and implements are bringing good prices. —The Woman's Christian Temperance Union will hold a rummage sale during the second week in April. —Mrs. Caroline Rhone and daughter Miss Ella, left Bellefonte Friday for their home in Pasadena, Cal. —Mrs. George Schrock, of Akron, Ohio, and Miss Bird Ginter, of Bellefonte, are guests of Tyrone friends. —At the last session of council some of the leading members almost fell into a fit when they discovered gross negligence on their part. —The rumor about that Benj. Gentzel lost over half of his car load of western horses by sickness is a mistake, as nothing of the kind happened. —Walter W. Bayard representing Wampole & Co., drug firm of Philadelphia, is enroute to Pasadena, Cal., where he will be located. —Mr. Samuel Lewin left Saturday evening for Baltimore. Mr. Lewin has not been in good health all winter, and he went to that city to consult a specialist. —W. Fred Jackson, who has been connected with Jackson, Hastings & Co's bank for several years past, will sever his connection with that institution on March 30th. —Linn Bortoff has secured a position in the freight department of the C. R. R. of Pa., in this place. He is a most excellent and trustworthy young man, a son of Jacob Bortoff, of Lemont.

—Don't forget the stereopticon entertainment to be given by Co. B, on Friday evening in the Court House. It will be very interesting, and worth your while attending. Watch for the band. —David Klepper, who left Bellefonte 17 years ago to make his own way in the world, is visiting his father at Coleville. He is now superintendent for the contracting firm of Francis Bros. & Goellett, of Philadelphia. —Borough Overseer of the Poor Sam Deihl is going about the duties of his office in a manner that is encouraging to the taxpayers, and distressing to bums and lazy beats. Keep on Samuel, and the people will endorse your course. —Mrs. Charles Moore and daughter have leased the rooms on the third floor of Crider's Exchange now occupied by David Kelley, who will move into the Potter house on Spring street, vacated some time ago by Charles Gilmore. —A delightful surprise is in store for those theatrically inclined, for John W. Vogel & Arthur Deming's Big Minstrels are due at the Garman Opera House, Saturday, March 30, 1901. Arthur Deming will, of course, be the chief merry-maker on this occasion. —The Centre county Medical Society adopted a fee bill at its last meeting which went into effect on the 18th of March. The rates for physicians in town will remain practically the same as before, but they will be considerably increased in the country districts. —On Monday quite a lot of people were in town from Boggs township who were interested in the application of C. P. Reese for tavern liquor license, at what is known as the Walker settlement on the pike leading from here over the mountain to Snow Shoe. Years ago a hotel flourished at this point and it was famous for its rare larder and genuine hospitality. It would be Mr. Reese's intention to cater to transient trade during summer time in the hope of making the place a desirable summer resort.

—The ladies of the Methodist church will hold a "Spinster's Convention" in the near future. —We want to hear from some of our delinquents before April 1st. Will we? is another question. —If you are aging to move, April 1st, now is the time to notify us and your paper will come regularly. —Mr. George L. Smith, for almost twenty years with the Beaver Lumber Co. of this place, has accepted a position with a large lumber firm at Williamsport. Mr. Smith will move his family to Williamsport after the first of April. —Young men of Bellefonte formerly known as the "Go Easies" have organized themselves into the Bellefonte Athletic club, and from this club a base ball team has been formed with Austin Eadon as manager. The manager has arranged games for different places this season. —Prof. and Mrs. Jas. R. Hughes and Rev. J. P. Hughes left Tuesday evening for Baltimore, to attend the wedding of Charles Stone Hughes of Philadelphia, to Miss Emma Virginia Graham of Mt. Washington, Md., Wednesday evening. In their absence the Academy students are enjoying a vacation. —Gen. Daniel H. Hastings sailed from Philadelphia last Friday for Cuba. The Governor's trip is one of business and pleasure. He will visit the several principal cities in Cuba and will take a look at our new Porto Rican possessions. The Bahamas may also be included in his itinerary. He expects to be gone about three weeks. —The drug store at this place, for a number of years conducted under the firm name of J. N. & S. Krumrine, hereafter will be owned by Sydney Krumrine as his brother Jacob has retired from the firm. Sydney Krumrine has conducted the store for a number of years and the present change is an indication that he is prospering. —Henry Tibbens is now thoroughly satisfied that the drain sink in the ravine at the upper portion of Howard street is sufficient to carry off all the surplus surface drainage. It leads to a wide fissure in the rocks and solves a problem that has annoyed all the property owners along the street. The job cost $67 while a sewer would have meant several thousand.

—Many towns have passed ordinances to prevent spitting on the side walks, under a penalty. Harrisburg has such an ordinance now, and the penalty for the offence is $5. Bellefonte should follow suit, and if our vigilant chief Burgess Blanchard would send a little message to council urging the passage of a similar ordinance, all decent men and women would say Amen to it. —Don't forget that on Friday evening company B will give their stereopticon entertainment, and the boys would like to have a full house. This is the first time this company has asked the people of Bellefonte to help them in any way and so they should be well patronized. The illustrated songs that will be rendered are "I'll Not Forsake You Tom," "Just What The Old Book Taught," "Sing Me A Song Of The South." The price of admission will be 25 cents.

Rowdies Arrested. On Saturday evening Fred Poorman, of Coleville, became boisterous and knocked an officer down. He was finally arrested on a complaint of Mr. Donachy and after a hearing before Burgess Blanchard was lodged in jail. He was released on bail. Tuesday evening Poorman was given a hearing before Justice Keichline, along with others implicated in the same affair. The Justice bound them over for court, as follows: Fred Poorman $500 bail; Frank Klinger, John Kline and Samuel Guisewitz, each $500 which they secured. A serious case was shown against them and they hardly realize what is before them. It is a mistake to assault a policeman and they are finding it out.

Nominations by the Governor. Governor Stone sent to the senate the following appointments: Trustees of the Cottage State hospital, Philipsburg: A. S. R. Richards, Oaceola Mills, vice W. A. Crist; A. E. Woodridge, Woodland, vice E. A. Irwin; J. N. Schooner, Philipsburg, vice Robert Lloyd, deceased; Thomas Blythe, Madera, vice W. P. Duncan, resigned.

Bellefonte Elks. Messrs John Trafford, Joseph Katz and J. F. Rummel, only a few of our local Elks, attended a meeting of the Elks at Lock Haven Tuesday evening. We now have about enough members of this organization in Bellefonte to establish a local order. The idea has been advocated for some time.

Married. Charles Stone Hughes, of Philadelphia, and Miss Emma Virginia Graham, of Mt. Washington, Baltimore county, Md., will be married this evening in St. John's Episcopal church at Mt. Washington. Mr. Hughes is the second son of Rev. James P. Hughes, of this place, and is now in the employ of the Pennsylvania railroad company at Philadelphia. Harrowing a man's feelings won't help toward cultivating his acquaintance. The saw-filer gets pretty old before he is beyond cutting a new set of teeth.

Court Revokes Charters. As a result of the crusade of the Altoona Anti-Saloon League, the Maennerchor Singing Society and the Altoona Turn Verein, two of the strongest German musical organizations in Central Pennsylvania, and the Juniata Rod and Game Club, a leading sporting organization, have been required by the Court to surrender their charters.

Mormons Coming. A pair of Mormon elders applied to Mayor Giles of Altoona to preach on the street of the mountain city. The mayor questioned them pretty closely and discovered that they were advocates of polygamy, then informed them that the town was not theirs. They gathered up their carpet bags and left for more congenial pastures.

Shiloh's Consumption Cure when your cold appears. The "ounce of prevention" is better than five of illness. "I suffered for years from a cough, bronchial and lung trouble. Passed blood frequently. Spent years in the Dakotas and other parts of the West but got no relief. Returned east and began taking Shiloh's. A few bottles completely cured me. I consider it the greatest of remedies." HENRY T. know practically nothing about shoes or the making thereof. That many people, therefore, depend upon the representations of the dealer. Isn't it essential that the dealer knows his business thoroughly, that he have an established reputation for carrying good footwear and that he be known as one who does not demand an extravagant profit because he has a good reputation? Certainly. Then why shouldn't your judgment lead you to this store whenever you want shoes? Here is experience. Here is shoe knowledge. Here is good footwear. Here are fair prices. Needless to argue in defense of these claims—you'll admit their truth.
