

The Racket.

Are U interested in any of the following items, if so, we can save money for you?

WALL PAPER.

Entire new line. (Sold every piece we carried over from last year.) Prices are lowest ever known, and quality better.

CURTAIN STRETCHERS
Improved adjustable pin $1.98, easel back. A good stationary stretcher for $1.00.

SILKS

All the new spring ideas ready for your inspection. We have the Best Silk Department in Bellefonte.

KID GLOVES.

Sole selling agency for the famous "Centemer" and the "Clementina," the best dollar glove sold in the U. S.

G. R. SPIGELMYER

CORRESPONDENTS DEPARTMENT

CONTINUED FROM 7TH PAGE

Aaronsburg.

J. C. Meyer, Esq., and insurance agent Grant Hoover, of Bellefonte, transacted business in our burg on Tuesday.

Miss Alice Reigel, of Vicksburg, was up to see her sick uncle, Mr. Jacob Wyle, on Saturday last.

Miss Hettie Small, who has been staying in Rebersburg for the past year, came home recently and was housed up for a week or more at the home of her mother, Mrs. Jessie Wert, in this place, with an attack of the grip. We are glad to state however, that at this writing she is able to be out again.

Mr. Jacob Wyle, whose illness we made mention of in our last week's communication, is gradually getting better and hopes are entertained for his recovery at this writing. His condition on Sunday was not very encouraging, but later his sickness took a turn and since then he has been gradually improving for the better, which is very gratifying to his family and host of friends in this vicinity.

Mr. and Mrs. Laupchier, of Lock Haven, spent a few days last week at the residence of Mr. Doebler.

T. W. Kreamer, of Bellefonte, is in town for a few weeks and while here is making some extensive repairs on his house at the west end of town.

Mrs. Phoebe Wise, of Woodward, spent a day last week with Mrs. Jacob Bower, in our burg.

Mrs. Clara Kister has gone to Altoona to spend a few weeks with her daughter, Mrs. Maggie Rister.

Mr. and Mrs. John Roth, of Axe Mann, are spending a few days in town with the gentleman's aged mother.

A quilting party was held at the residence of Mrs. Gay Gramley in our burg last Thursday, and a general good time was had by all those in attendance. A sumptuous dinner was spread to which all did ample justice.

Tinsmith Clymer H. Stover has just received the finest and most complete line of stoves ever brought to this vicinity and parties in need of either a good range or cook stove will do well to call on him before buying elsewhere. Not having any clerk time or rent to pay enables him to sell his goods at a closer margin than his competitors. You can get a No. 1 cook stove as low as $23. Call on him and see his line.

DEATH OF SQUIRE D. H. ROTZ.—On Monday evening the death of Squire D. H. Rotz occurred at his residence at the west end of town at the age of about 59 years. Deceased was a well known citizen of this community and for a number of years has followed the jeweler trade in our town, prior to this he taught school, in which he was quite successful. He also had the office of Justice of the Peace for a number of years. His illness dates back to about one year ago, and since his sufferings at times were intense. He is survived by a wife, an adopted daughter and two brothers. Funeral services will be held this Thursday forenoon in the Reformed church, conducted by the pastor, Rev. F. N. Brown.

Dr. A. S. Musser is in Bellefonte this week.

Roland.

Miss Alice Neff, of Yarnell, and three of her pupils spent a few days this week at home.

R. B. Schreffler, who received a position as principal in a school in a suburb at Pittsburg, left here for that place on Tuesday. Mr. Schreffler was a very congenial young man and will be greatly missed by all. The vacancy in this school, caused by his departure, will be filled by Melvin Pletcher, of Howard.

W. S. Stoner, of Mill Hill, spent a few days this week as the guest of Mrs. J. B. Curtin.

Col. and Mrs. Austin Curtin returned home on Wednesday, after a three weeks visit with relatives at New York and Philadelphia.

The weather of Tuesday, seemed to be very much in sympathy with Miss Holt, who you will see was in need of sympathy by reading the above items.

John G. Barger is at present visiting friends at Lewistown.

E. W. Grove

This signature is on every box of the genuine Laxative Bromo-Quinine Tablets the remedy that cures a cold in one day

Julian.

Vincent Harbridge has returned to Osceola after a few weeks visit to his parents at this place.

Mrs. Mary Austin and daughter Stella visited friends at Milesburg last week.

Mrs. David Meese and Miss Myrtle Meese of Barnshoro are visiting Mrs. Meese mother, Mrs. Harbridge near town. Miss Myrtle expects to spend the summer with her grandma here.

Brit. Prantz and little son of Bald Eagle spent Sunday at the home of Geo. Campbell.

Mrs. Mills Alexander accompanied by her sister Mrs. William Parsons of Unionville, are at present visiting their brother at Jersey Shore.

Six of our young dudes went to Bellefonte last Wednesday night to see "Two Merry Tramps." They tarried too long in town after the play was out and in consequence missed their train. Alf, Jim and Dan walked the twelve miles home and arrived just about break of day, but the other three played out at intersection, and had to turn for the rest of the night, but got home next day safe and sound.

Rev. E. S. Lashaw preached his farewell sermon in the M. E. church on Sunday evening also read the annual report which shows earnest work of our pastor and his estimable wife.

The graphophone entertainment given by W. G. Tallhelm and O. H. Nason last Friday night was well attended by a well pleased audience.

Miss Nora Williams returned home last Thursday after a pleasant visit with her friend at Phillipsburg.

A very quiet wedding occurred at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roland Swisher last Thursday evening, when their only daughter, Maude, was united in marriage to Reuben Alexander, oldest son of Mills Alexander. Only the immediate relatives of the young people were present. The ceremony was performed by Rev. E. S. Lashaw, of Port Matilda. The bride was attended by Miss Amelia Fahr while James Swisher, brother of the bride, acted as best man. We extend our best wishes to the happy young couple.

Calvin Bowers, of Wall, who has been spending a few days with his mother, returned on Saturday. His mother was hurt so seriously some time ago by falling off a bridge, is, we are glad to note, recovering.

The venerable I. F. Dought to keep his buggy and robe in a little better order for the accommodation of our young men who have the Unionville fever. It wouldn't have been so bad, had it only been mud, but the robe was plastered with molasses, and it actually took the girls all evening to get it off. George says he will sue for damage to his gloves so pony up Ira, hand over your thirty cents, and save further trouble.

The correspondent who signed himself A. J. Bird should not take ideas from Domino, for Q. M. says he never was quite right, so we would suggest that hereafter they be your own original ideas.

Beech Creek.

G. Harvey Mann left last Thursday for Sistersville, West Virginia, to be gone several months.

A party of prospectors are making extensive investigations for fire clay in the "Scoutac" regions.

Harvey, the ten year old son of John Waite, fell and dislocated his right arm at the elbow Friday last.

Morris Miller, the second son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Miller, is recovering from a very severe attack of pneumonia.

Clain Reiter, of Buffalo Run, spent Sunday at W. E. Clark's. This was not Mr. Reiter's first visit to Beech Creek.

Miss Trenna Bullock, one of Beech Creek's popular young ladies, has entered the Central State Normal school in Lock Haven.

Napoleon Gagnon arrived home last Friday and is preparing to move his family to Scalp Level, Somerset Co., where he is employed.

John Swartz's oldest daughter, aged eight, and her mother, who is quite an old lady, have been ill with pneumonia for ten days past, but are convalescing now.

David Miller, a resident of Beech Creek township, died last Wednesday from causes incident to old age, at the home of William Mann. He was aged ninety-three years. The funeral took place Thursday and interment was made in the Disciple graveyard.

New telegraph stations have been established recently at Mapes and Cato, where there are passing sidings. The N. Y. C. is introducing the block signal system on the Beech Creek division, which is expected to facilitate the handling of the great number of trains and prevent collisions.

At the sale on the farm of Thomas Farst, Saturday afternoon two young men from Eagleville met with a painful accident. A party of young men and boys started a game of base ball in a field, and while running to catch the ball Clarence Kunes and Clayton Kunes collided, neither seeing the other. Clarence was struck on the bridge of the nose and rendered unconscious for a considerable time. His face was painfully bruised and the blood flowed freely. He was taken home in a conveyance. Clayton Kunes had a deep gash cut in his forehead, but was able to walk home. Both are reported to be getting along well, with no serious consequences.

Loganton.

Mrs. Daniel Karstetter, who is past eighty years of age, is critically ill. Grip is the cause.

At the sale held on Thomas Snook's farm, March 25th, John Giantz bought the farm for $700.

T. R. Haster has returned from his Philadelphia trip. He has purchased a span of horses that are reported to be "flyers."

Ed. Conser, son of W. C. Conser, came home on Sunday morning. Mr. Conser is a first class meat-cutter and is in the employ of Johnson & Anderson, of Renovo.

Mrs. Lot Breen and daughter, Lulu, have gone to Tyrone. Mrs. Breen will visit friends during her stay of several weeks. Miss Lulu intends spending the summer there.

—Millinery opening at Joseph Bros. & Co. next Tuesday and Wednesday.

Romola.

This letter is to inform the editor that Chester Walker's mustache died of unpleasant surroundings.

Mrs. John Wetzel, of Howard, was a caller here on Sunday.

Miss Lola De Long has gone to Beech Creek, where she expects to remain for some time.

Miss Emma Robb, our excellent music teacher, went to Phillipsburg to select a class for the summer.

Joseph Bumgardner, of Blanchard, spent a few days here last week.

Jacob Welsh, of Davis, West Virginia, visited his parents in this place, last week. Jake is looking very well and by the smile he wears we know he must be happy.

Miss Maude Brickley, one of our accomplished young ladies, who is in attendance at the Lock Haven Normal, spent Sunday at home.

John Rayhorn and daughter Mabel, of Clearfield, are visiting here. John is just as long as ever.

E. B. Robb left on Monday for Youngdale, where he has a position as clerk in a store. We perceive that Effie isn't near so happy since.

T. S. De Long is home from Cross Fork, where he has been employed during the winter.

Allen De Long, of Ford City, accompanied by his sister, Mrs. Lydia Jones, of Beech Creek, and Mrs. John Abbot, of Blanchard, spent Sunday with relatives in this place.

Aged David McCloskey, who has had a severe attack of grip for a number of weeks, is now able to be about again.

All of our saw mills are running steadily now and they are adding a hum of business to the town.

R. C. Daley may be seen at any time sitting on the fence in front of the barn, delighting his eyes by gazing on one hundred and twenty five beautiful, eggless hens. Through astronomical calculation and scientific investigation he has discovered that production of eggs is disastrous to the voice, and as he keeps them for their vocal power alone, he wants them to be always at their best.

He says the sight of a feed pan causes a chuckle of approval to go through the whole flock, while a handful of real sawdust thrown among them causes a thanksgiving cackle which can be heard for miles around. He seldom indulges them to such an extent, though, for fear they might strain their voices. Clarence has studied a hundred years on the poultry question and has discovered a few so pure that it will remove stains from a fowl's conscience. Clarence says the business is bound to pay if the sawdust holds out till marketing time.

Oak Hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Adam Hartwick, of near Pine Grove, spent Sunday at Jacob Klingler's.

Rev. Black is busy making calls among his members, at this place.

Miss Anna M. Dale visited among her many friends at Dale's Summit, last week.

Clifford Close, of Pine Grove, made a brief call in town, on Sunday. Gertrude and Bessie enjoyed a buggy ride with him, so his call was not in vain.

A. W. Dale transacted business at Bellefonte, on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Etters, were to State College, on Tuesday evening.

Miss Myrtle Williams, of Altoona, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Wm. Rishel, of this place, and her friend, Miss Maud Williams, of Lemont.

Misses Ella and Ruth Bottorf, made a brief visit in town, on Saturday afternoon.

Geo. Ishler and Miss Madie Gingrich, of Boalsburg, drove through town, on Sunday afternoon. George Hosterman was also noticed in town, on Sunday.

Mrs. Wm. Walker, of Boalsburg, who has been visiting her sister, left for Pleasant Gap, on Monday evening.

Maurice Klingler, who is staying at Cornelius Dale's at Dale's Mills, spent Sunday with his parents.

Wm. Fry visited among friends at Pine Grove, on Sunday?

Monday morning, John Derner left for Pittsburg, where he expects to secure employment.

Harry Williams went to Linden Hall, on Tuesday. He expects to work for Mr. Robt. Cori this summer.

Wm. Williams, Jacob Herman's assistant huckster, was able to make his usual trip through here, on Saturday, after a few weeks illness.

Jasper Rishel is kept busy grafting fruit trees.

A few of our bustling farmers have commenced to plow, and some are making gardens.

We will lose quite a number of our old neighbors this week and gain lots of new ones. Sorry to have the old ones leave, but glad to welcome the new ones to our town.

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Poorman, of Tusseyville, passed through town, on Monday.

B. F. Homan went to State College, on Tuesday to do some work about the fine property he owns there.

Tylersville.

Mrs. G. K. Miller, who was seriously ill with pneumonia, is slowly improving. We are glad to welcome William Miller and family, who moved to this place on Thursday; we hope they will enjoy their new home.

H. B. Hough and family were in our midst visiting friends and relatives over Sunday.

Mrs. Charles Miller, of Mill Hill, gave her sister and her husband's parents a very pleasant call last week.

Harrison Lutz and Albert Kessinger, are all smiles at present. When asked why they look so pleasant each says it's a boy.

A little son of John Day was seriously ill with lung fever, but is some better.

A. J. Albright now believes in ghosts he says he saw one with his own eyes. A. J. you had better look out a little for the ghost might come to your house instead of Hawy's.

Miss Melissa Miller, who was at home during her mother's illness, returned to Lock Haven on Saturday.

Miss Bertha Nicholas, of Jersey Shore, is circulating among her many friends in this vicinity at present.

Colyer.

Emanuel Smith and son Garney, from Potters Mills, were the guest at J. H. Moyers, on Sunday.

Wm. Moyer, who bought a shingle-mill a few weeks ago, has the same now in operation, in Wm. Colyer's woods, back of P. C. city.

Miss Mary Moyer and sister Miss Blanche, Miss Carrie Bottorf and sister Sadie, spent Wednesday evening last at the home of their friend Miss Blanche Housman. The evening was most pleasantly devoted to music, recitations etc.

Mrs. Wm. C. Farner and daughter, Miss Mary, spent Wednesday last at Centre Hall, the guests of Alfred Darst's.

J. H. Moyer, after soliciting the country over, has at last found a new horse at George Bradfords pleasing to his eye, which he bought last week. It is a young bay horse.

Squire J. S. Housman, as administrator, for the late Franklin Wright estate, will have public sale, at the aforesaid residence, of all the personal property, on Saturday afternoon, March 30th.

Another old land mark gone. What was known as the old James Glasgow home, the same having been erected and cleared by him some sixty years ago, when all here was a wilderness, being bought by D. F. Young, is now being moved to his own lot, where he is erecting a home for himself.

The executors of David C. Young will have public sale of the personal property on April 6th; at the same time there will be offered for sale an old-fashion, key-less German clock, which winds only by the pulling of a string alongside the weights. The same will be a beautiful being so highly appreciated on account of its age and fashion.

On Sunday, while Harve Houser, in company with his brother's wife, Mrs. James Houser and little son, and Mrs. Walters, were driving in a spring wagon the horse fell and broke the shafts; frightening Mrs. Houser she jumped from the wagon and fell on her shoulder, and is hurt very badly. They were on their way to John Bair's, on the other side of Tusseyville. Mrs. Bair, a daughter of Mrs. Walters, has been very sick during the past week.

Mr. Wolf, from Madisonburg, as agent for the Osborne Machinery company, solicited through our community on Monday, accompanied by Clark Bible, from Potters Mills.

Philip Frank, our worthy constable, was seen at the Squire's on Monday with a prisoner, where he received his legal papers to dispose of his criminal at "Fort Brungard," Bellefonte.

Members of the Young Peoples Alliance of the Evangelical church are preparing for an Easter entertainment, April 7th, Sunday evening.

Next week we will give a list of the movings, which are almost as "numerous as the sands of the sea shore."

Mud! mud! the public roads are just awful; some places the horses almost sink. The ground is loose and the roads almost bottomless.

Wm. C. Farner, C. S. Bottorf and Henry Shadow spent Tuesday evening at the Squire's. Ask Wm. about the sweet cakes and honey.

Mrs. Mary Treaster and son Leslie, from Bellefonte, arrived Tuesday afternoon at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Shadow.

Mrs. Andy Jordan has been very ill the past few weeks.

Mrs. Julie Ishler is not improving any at this writing.

A. O. Detwiler made a business trip to Millin county, on Wednesday.

George Zerby and Harry Florey, two of Millheim's enterprising young men, solicited through our town for old relics of old-fashioned dishes or plates.

Pine Grove Mills.

We are glad to hear the robins singing once more, as it tells us that spring is here again, one of the most welcome seasons of the year.

The roads are getting in fine shape as they were getting dusty, especially where the stone crusher has been used.

The grass and wheat are starting up and the indications are for a good crop of both hay and grain in this section, while in other localities the fields are bare.

We are glad to report John Gummo much better at this writing.

We saw on our streets the other day Edward Chambers, Esq.

Misses Merrell Martz and Ida Keller, the latter with her best fellow, attended spelling school at Keplers school on Tuesday night; did not learn the result of the spelling or of the drive, tell you later.

Centre Hall.

Another gushing rain on Tuesday helped out the water trouble.

Grain and grass prospects are greatly improved within two weeks.

D. F. Luse is being urged by Tyrone and also Bellefonte parties to remove his hydrant factory to those places and do business on a larger scale. We would hate to lose him.

Landlord James Runkle is pleased with his hotel stand and its patronage.

There is rumor of overhauling or rebuilding the boro reservoir, as it does not come up to specifications in any respect.

Capt. Snyder, a veteran and many years keeper of the Centre Hall tollgate, came in on a furlough from the Ohio soldiers' home, looking well.

Potters Mills.

Miss Mable Smith, the accomplished daughter of Michael Smith, who spent the winter with her uncle, M. L. Smith, of Johnstown, returned home Saturday. Glad to see you back, Mable!

Miss Jennie Hurst, of Tyrone, is visiting at her old home, Mr. John Harper.

Miss Blanch Heckman, of Sunbury, will spend the summer with her sister Mrs. Reish.

Mr. John McClenathan is not improving.

Stewart Long is on the sick list at this writing.

Mr. Evans is around again.

—Katz & Co. will have their annual spring opening of hats and millinery novelties on April 1st and 2d.

Nittany.

Granpa Zerby and son Charley, of Spring Mills, were the guests of H. P. Zerby and family on Saturday.

John Gingerich and mother, of St. Paul, and Mrs. Neighart, of Lamar, were the guests of Jno. Minick and family on Sunday.

The Lamar ticket agent G. Pletcher and his sister Nancy, were visitors at the E. V. S. S. Sunday afternoon; they were the guests of their cousins, Misses Alma and Orphie Pletcher. George says attending two Sunday Schools in one Sunday isn't too often for a good boy as he is.

Harry McCaleb, who has been in the navy on board the Columbia for three years returned home last week.

There will be preaching in the U. E. church next Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock by Rev. J. A. Goss.

Edwin Yearick cut his foot last week while splitting rails; it required five stitches to close up the wound, and it will be sometime before he will be able to work again.

Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Peck were to Bellefonte on last Wednesday.

Hester, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Zerby, has been critically ill the past week, but is some better.

William Mauk has put up a meat market; if you want any good, fresh, clean meat, there is where to get it, right at his home or when he comes around every Saturday.

There have been quite a number traveling agents stopping at the Emrick house the last few weeks. That goes to show that they know how to treat people.

Frank Minick and his sister Annie, left on Monday afternoon for Cross Forks, Potter county, where they expect to stay for some time.

Ex-sheriff Shaffer is still confined to his bed yet, but is improving.

Mrs. Hattie Winkelman and son Olin, of Mackeysville, were visiting their many friends around this place on Sunday.

Axemann.

Henry Gross, of Findlay, Ohio, paid his parents a visit a few days last week, after an absence of several years.

Mr. and Mrs. Elias Broom spent Sunday at the home of Lawrence Hile of Pleasant Gap.

Samuel Bryant, of Bellefonte, was seen in our town on Sunday.

Miss Anna Belle Griffith is at present on the sick list.

Harry Broom and lady friend, Miss Della Swartz, spent Sunday evening with friends in Zion.

One of our young sports seemed to be in great distress on Sunday evening, because he could not find his best girl. We do not mean Ned when we write this.

On Monday morning death again visited our little town and thus Mrs. Mary Griffith departed this life at the ripe old age of 86 years, 2 months, 25 days. She was a lady possessing a true christian character. Deceased was a consistent member of the M. E. church. One son, Harvey Griffith of this place, and three sisters live to mourn her loss as a kind, affectionate mother and sister. Funeral took place on Wednesday morning at ten o'clock. Interment at Union Cemetery, Bellefonte.

Hands up—at 12 o'clock.

Our Line of Men's Shoes

FOR SPRING

Our line of Spring Shoes for men is now ready. No finer Footwear has ever been seen in Bellefonte.

PATENT LEATHERS

at $3.00, $3.50 and $5.00. You must have them to be well dressed. Shoes that go into the very best society, and feel at home there.