—Next week the county commissioners start out to hold their annual appeals over the county. INDIVIDUAL COMMUNION CUPS.

At the celebration of the Lord's Supper in the Lutheran church of Bellefonte last Sabbath morning and evening, Dr. Holway introduced the individual cup service, to over an hundred communicants and, we believe, to the entire satisfaction of his members. The service was most orderly and more expeditious than the service as heretofore followed; the approval of the congregation is such that the individual cup service will in future be in use in this church. Three lady catechumens were baptised and admitted to church membership upon the above occasion. Altogether 20 new members were received into the congregation. The music was exceptionally fine. Mr. Eugene Wentzel sang "The Resurrection" with fine effect; Miss Edith B. Wertz sustained her part ably at the organ and the choir sang admirably. In the evening the church and Sunday school rooms were again crowded, and the Easter services rendered by the Sunday school, delighted all. Miss Lulu Stover had her little ones well trained. The music was charming. This is the first church in this town, to introduced the individual cup service which is being gradually adopted by churches of all denominations throughout the land. The Reformed church of Centre Hall began the individual cup service at their Communion about a year ago and will adhere to it. We believe the two churches above named are as yet the only ones in the county to adopt this service, six others were also admitted to membership.

Fire at the Match Factory.

Last Saturday morning, owing to the rise of temperature, a lot of matches in the drying room at the match factory started a blaze and in a short time a lively conflagration ensued as the room was filled with matches in drying trays. The fire departments responded and in a short time had the fire under control. Owing to the fire proof wall but one room was damaged. Loss about $600, which by this time is about repaired.
