Happenings About Centre County Briefly Told by

A CORPS OF ABLE WRITERS

Our Alert Correspondents Note Many Important Events in Different Localities—What is Transpiring—Is Your Section Represented?

Yarnell.

Miss Rosetta Rockey and Miss Tressie Eckley, of this place, spent a few days among friends, at Runville, last week.

Mrs. Ida McCov, of Sinnemahoning, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Yarnell, of this place.

James Heaton's new house is nearly completed, contractors Jacob Yarnell & Son.

While at W. T. Fetzer's moving, Jont. Shawley's team ran away and being in a field and among a lot of apple trees, they were caught and no damage was done.

Wm. Yarnell's sale was well attended, and everything sold for a good price. Jont. Shawley purchased a cradle for 15 cents.

It is rumored that Harry Miller is going to move his shingle mill to our town and attach a chopping burr to it, which would be a convenience to the farmers of this locality.

T. W. Croft made his usual trip to Fairview, on Saturday night.

Our school will give an exhibition on the last day consisting of dialogues, recitations and singing.

Miss Bertha Breon spent a few days among relatives in Bellefonte and Axemann, last week.

Merrill Butler will spend the summer at Roland where he has secured employment on a farm.

Wm. Mayes, of Snow Shoe, made a business trip to this place last week.

Raymond Butler was home a few days last week.

Chas. B. Shawley, of this place, went to Potter county to search for employment in the woods.

Mrs. W. F. Powell, of this place, has been in Bellefonte undergoing treatment for catarrh.

Partridges are quite plenty in this locality. Since the snow has gone there have been large flocks seen in the fields and they are quite tame. Our sportsmen will appreciate hunting, when the game season comes again. There are some good marks in this place.

The Easter service, held in the U. B. church, on Sunday evening, was well attended.

Jont. Shawley says the wild turkeys must have died last winter, as he only saw one this spring, and he captured it, and it seems to be quite tame.

Claud says he didn't go along to Jersey Shore, as he is taking lessons on hypnotism; his business won't allow him to go away.

Wonder where the Runville scribe is, as no items appear any more. The scribe wished somebody would do something, or something would turn up, so they would have something to write about. Since the affray at Runville, it is silent, and being a temperance place and opposed to the selling of intoxicating drink they got up a remonstrance against the same. They seem to use hard cider as a stimulant in cold weather and in summer lemon soda or ice water. If apples should be a failure this season, C. P. Reese will be all O. K. the next time he applies for licence, as it is needed in that locality and would be a great convenience to traveling people.

Woodward.

1st of April or the week following we had all kinds of weather, snow, rain, slush, mud, etc., making it late for farmers with their spring work. Very few onions are out yet.

N. W. Eby has again resumed operations at his distillery. Mr. Hileman, from Millville, Columbia county, has taken charge as storekeeper and ganger, we have a number of prominent and capable men at this place, but as a rule they are generally treated a little distant when they make application for office of any kind.

The lumber for the new store at Feidler is pretty well under headway, being nearly all ready for the carpenters.

E. C. Ketter has accepted a position as engineer on a dinky running from Poe Mills towards Milroy; wish you good luck Edward, and a safe home run.

Clayton Boob is still boss sawyer on a lumber job at Potters Mills.

Two of our young sports of this place have left for parts unknown, at least they did not know the name of the place where they were going to stop, for they did not know where to locate it; but they were looking for work and good wages; wishing them abundant success, is the best I can do for them.

Mingoville.

Mr. and Mrs. Homan and Mrs. Irvin Yarnell, and Miss Cora Cleveland are very sick at this writing.

The services at Hublersburg was well attended.

Mike, the spectacle man, says he is prepared for that spook now. He has two shotguns, a Winchester and a hammerless revolver, and if spookie comes around we will give him a hot reception. Mike says he is not afraid.

The Buffalo society is the next on the program. I think Mingoville would be a good place for such a society, for there are lots of Buffaloes at this place.

Wm. Workman is home from Johnsonburg, on a visit. William is an industrious young man, and is always welcome at home.

There are rumors afloat that we will have a term of summer school at this place.

On Monday the fishing season opens.

Stops the Cough and Works off the Cold. Laxative Bromo-Quinine Tablets cure a cold in one day. No Cure, No Pay. Price 25 cents.

Unionville.

Last Sabbath morning a little excitement was created by the burning out of a fire in Mrs. Blair's residence, on Allegheny street. "Only this and nothing more."

Our town was brightened during the past week by the arrival of jolly Joe Barton and our avardupois friend, Wm. McEwen, both of Davis, West Virginia, where they are employed in lumber camps; the former in scaling logs and the latter as cook.

The following officers of Union Lodge, No. 639, I. O. O. F., of Unionville, for the ensuing term were installed into office by deputy Past Grand J. C. Smith, who was authorized to do so by the district deputy, to wit: N. G.—Geo. Rumberger; V. G.—S. G. Pratt; F. G.—R. Sec.—Lundy Lucas; R. S. to N. G.—D. Morrison; L. St. N. G.—Jno. Brugger; Warden—Paul Shipley; Conductor—Jos. Barton; Champlain—Henry Earon; R. S. S.—Wm. McEwen; L. S. S.—Jno. Cadwalader; L. G.—George Morrison; O. G.—Martin Brower.

A very pleasing social event took place at the residence of Mrs. B. Rich one evening last week, when a number of our excellent young ladies and gentlemen had gathered to "while away" a few hours in social enjoyment, but as Burns says "The best laid plans of mice and men gang aft aglee". So in this case. The ladies had their lips set for ice cream which was to have come from Bellefonte, but, for some unaccountable reason, failed to put in an appearance, much to the disappointment of our young ladies.

The most pleasing event of the week was the Easter services in the M. E. church, on last Sunday morning, by the members of the Sabbath school, the manner in which the bright little boys and girls acquitted themselves was very pleasing, indeed, to all that were present. We would be glad to comment on each one's recitation, but I fear it would take too much space. The following are extracts from the program: Responsive reading by superintendent and school.

The following recitations were well rendered: "The women at the tomb," Lucetta Hoover; "Jesus and the children," Wilhelmina Emerick; "Caivary," Hassie Stern; "Easter," Bessie Haines; "We shall live again," Foster Holt; "The hour draws nigh," Chesney Morrison; "The Easter story," Elsie and Lillie Green; "Christ Triumphant," Oia Parsons; "The Conqueror," Cornelius Brugger. Recitation by three boys. Hymn—I know that my Redeemer lives "He is Risen," by nine little girls; "Easter Bells," Charley Moran; "Easter Lilies," Da sy Haines; "The Light of the world," five girls; "Little things," John Wagner; "Easter Tide," Tessie Morrison. Hymn—Hail thou once despised Jesus. Prayer for Easter tide, Edith Ammerman. "Mary at the tomb," Lucetta Hoover; "The Macedonian cry," Elsie Peters; "The Reply," Elouise Buck; "The Trailing Arbutus," Maud Johnston; "He is risen," Mabel Wagner; "The Resurrection," Mrs. Sadie Emerick; Song by the choir, "He is Risen to day," "The Shining Pennies," Roy Hoover. A short and appropriate talk to the children by their former Supt. Samuel Brugger. The choir deserves special mention for the delightful music rendered, and Mrs. St. Clair and Miss Alice Buck for their untiring perseverance in training the little ones for the occasion.

DOMINO.

Georgetown.

Rain, snow and mud and bad roads is all the go now.

The farmers can well be proud of their nice looking grain fields; the grain looks fine all over the valley.

Mrs. Mollie Rockey, of Sugar valley, is a welcome visitor among her friends and was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Hosterman, of Georgetown, and she also is a great reader of the Centre Democrat.

Eggs must be very plenty in the neighborhood of Sober, the old huckster there could not handle them all; a new man started in and is doing a good business; they must all have leghorn chickens around there.

A certain young lad that came from a distance to see his best girl, not far from here, forgot to put on a clean shirt; he went to the store and bought a new one and went on his way rejoicing.

C. E. Finkle, our merchant, is selling goods so fast that Jacob Sanders must have his dray wagon on the road, rain or shine, hauling goods.

S. G. Rote has taken possession of the mill and sawmill lately bought of W. H. Ertel and runs it for all that's in it. Cloy Dinges, an expert miller, runs it.

The moving time is over now and also Easter, and the chickens may have rest for a while.

The High valley scribe is coming out in style; he is driving a match team, the one a bay and the other a gray, and the one is a little longer on one end than the other—otherwise they mate well. The scribe is going to put up a cheese factory as soon as he can make his goats a good investment.

Daniel Hosterman, the assessor, is on the warpath this week, delivering the appeal notices and making the spring assessment; now, High valley scribe, look out for a high valuation on your match team.

Oak Hall.

John S. Dale, of Dales Summit, transacted business in town on Thursday.

A number of people in town are afflicted with the cold.

Among the sick are Miss Grace Barabart and Arthur Kline.

Mrs. Kuhn and Mrs. Barr, of Boalsburg, were recent visitors at the home of Mrs. Henry Dale.

Our enterprising merchant W. H. Close is receiving new goods daily; he has a fine store.

A Preventive of Pneumonia.

Owing to the prevalence of colds and grip there have been many cases of pneumonia during the past few months. It has been observed, however, that the grip never results in pneumonia when Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is used. Among the tens of thousands who used that remedy during the prevalence of grip in the past ten years not one case has been reported that did not recover, which shows that remedy to be a certain preventive of pneumonia and unequalled as a cure for colds and grip. For sale by Green's Pharmacy.

Madisonburg.

Oh yes, our old burg still lives and at the present rate of increase in population it will soon be a city.

H. H. Noll, the jolly blacksmith, of Hublersburg, visited his parents here on Sunday. Come again, we are always glad to see you.

B. W. Hazel left last week for Windber, Somerset county, where he has secured employment.

Miss Edna Roush and Annie Smith, two accomplished young ladies from West Brush valley, were noticed in town on Sunday. Clarence, you missed it badly.

Those on the sick list at present are, Mrs. Caroline Lambert, Mrs. Ella Strause, Mrs. Guiser, Mrs. Shaffer and Tobias Kleinfeiler.

The grain fields in this end of the county look very encouraging and the farmers have reason to look forward to an abundant harvest.

Last week R. G. Hockman, Sam'l Yearick, Kline Miller and Herb Yearick left for Clearfield county, where they have secured work on a large sawmill. We wish them success.

J. A. Long the "Journal's" genial local reporter and one of our most ambitious young gentlemen proposes to visit the Buffalo Exposition this summer. He will make the trip on his wheel.

John S. Rishel, who is employed by the P. R. R., in Altoona, paid his parents a short visit last week. While here was suffering from a very sore eye making it impossible for him to attend to his duty on the R. R.

If you wish to see one of our loafers angry just call him lazy. It makes them hot.

Some unprincipled biped west of town circulated the report last week that one of your young men dictated the article concerning the "Liars Club" to the Madisonburg scribe. We want to say right here that we gather our own news and mind our own business and ask our kind friend to do likewise.

One of the most successful school terms in recent years closed last week. Prof. Meyer and his competent assistant, Mr. Lambert, are both masters of their profession; we feel confident of expressing the sentiment of the entire community when we say, come back next fall and teach another term. Besides dispatching his duty in the school room to perfection, Prof. Meyer applied his spare moments to starting a school library, 33 volumes now in the possession of the school fully repaid his efforts.

DIED.—Mrs. Reuben Grimm died Wednesday, April 3, aged 63 years. A husband and two sons, Lones, of Sewell City, Ks. and Charles, of Madisonburg, remain to mourn their loss. She was a consistent member of the Lutheran church for nearly fifty years. Interment in the Lutheran cemetery on Friday morning, Rev. Herman officiating. Loving friends, kind associates and the community at large unite in mourning the loss of a steadfast friend and a kind neighbor.

DIED.—at the home of her son William, on Wednesday, March 11, Elizabeth Keller, aged 63 years.

KIDNAPPER.

Wolf's Store.

Messrs D. B. and C. J. Weaver spent one day last week in Sugarvalley.

Solomon Peck, Esq., from Nittany, was seen in our vicinity last Tuesday on official business.

We now have encouraging hopes for telephone connections with the outer world. Directors have been here last week looking up the line, and we are told by the first of May we can Hello with our sister towns.

Last Wednesday was a cold stormy day and nearly everybody stayed indoors.

H. G. Strohmeier the tombstone and marble man from Centre Hall was in our vicinity soliciting orders. He is a pleasant man to meet.

F. A. Yearick, from Madisonburg, was seen in our midst last Friday.

Percy Overdorf, the little fat man from Greenburr, spent Saturday and Sunday with his brother Eira, of this place.

At this writing (Monday) J. B. Wolfe, of Bellwood, is still in our midst. He contemplates staying until after the opening of Condo's new store.

Miss Mary Brungart, who was on the sick list, is able to be out and around again.

B. W. Shaffer and wife, from Madisonburg, spent last Saturday with the lady's parents, J. K. Hosterman's.

"Grixe" Duck shot a nice wild duck on D. B. Weaver's mill dam, last Saturday. Mr. Duck then resolved to have a great duck feast. So Duck ate duck; but Duck was not satisfied with one duck and Duck went for another duck. Duck says ducks are plenty.

For all sizes and prices in poultry netting, call on or write to W. H. Zeigler, Wolf's Store, Pa.

Becks, stove mill is now in running order.

Miss Chestie Zeigler spent a few days last week with her sister Mrs. Wm. Wolfe, at Centreville, Clinton county.

Messrs J. A. Mever, C. D. Weaver and D. B. Weaver attended consistory meeting in the Reformed church at Greenburr, Pa., last Saturday.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.—Regular preaching services next Sunday morning at 10 o'clock in the M. E. church, S. S. at 9 o'clock.

Hannah.

Spring at last, Oh joy!

Mrs. John Prantz and daughter Annie Moore, paid a recent visit to Mrs. Margaret Sharer.

Miss Dora Sharer has returned home after a prolonged visit to friends in Clearfield, McCartney, Houtzdale and Paxsonville. She reports having a good time. She was accompanied home by Miss Agnes Couperthwaite, of Sandy Ridge.

Mrs. Marie Adams, of Phillipsburg, paid a recent visit to her sister Mrs. Jerry Sharer. She was accompanied by her son and daughter.

Jerry Sharers have new neighbors. Craton Barger occupies the house formerly occupied by A. L. Sharer, who removed to Sandy Ridge, last week.

To Cure a Cold in One Day.

Take Laxative Bromo Quinine Tablets. All druggists refund the money if it fails to cure. E. W. Grove's signature is on each box. 25c.

Fiedler.

Mud is plenty. April fools have had their day.

If you want the most news from all over the county, you can have it for the small sum of $1.00 per year, subscribe for the Democrat.

Hasten Arney made a raise. It is a little farmer, that made his appearance on Good Friday, of which he justly feels proud.

Wm. Wolf has leased a piece of ground from Mrs. J. G. Meyer preparatory to building a store room and dwelling house. Work will be commenced at once.

F. P. Guisewite sent in his resignation as postmaster and Charles H. Wolf will be his successor. Charley also purchased the grocery and confectionery store which he will have in Guisewite's building, until the new store room is built, when he expects to keep a first class general store. Success to the new enterprise.

Miss Sallie Vonada, who had made her home at S. H. Winkleblecks during the last year, left for her father's home at Madisonburg.

Michael Fiedler, one of our most promising young men, left for New Berlin where he will enter Central Pa. college as a student.

Brush Valley

We had a few more inches of snow last week.

Last week, Charles S. Wise returned home from Ohio, to spend the summer.

One of the laziest things a man can do is to split wood rather than try to understand his wife's description of the new spring gowns.

If a stranger asks you to sign anything, refuse, point to the front gate and whistle for the dogs.

Some mischievous dogs killed two sheep for Thomas Scholl. The dogs were killed.

For the benefit of those who don't read the "Farm Journal" we quote the following: He is a poor sort of a fellow who can't stand being lied about. He is a good fellow of whom the whole truth may be told.

April fools take off their underclothing and let their sitting room fire go out in April.

The farm mother who loses her proud and manly boy fighting in the jungles of Luzon is to be pitied; and let us hope none of our folks will have such a calamity befall them.

Suppose this spring you buy and present your wife a light spade and hoe that she may not be reduced to the necessity of scraping up dirt for her flower pots with a chip or her fingers, or of digging a mess of young potatoes with a kitchen spoon or the broom handle. Bear this fact in mind hereafter.

Fillmore.

Snow has about disappeared.

Our sick list is Noah Rockey, Mrs. R. M. Henderson, the little daughter of Jessie Wolford, and Roy son of J. C. Rockey.

Miss Bessie Tressler, of State College, Sunday at the parental home of Joseph Tressler's.

C. R. Norris came over on Saturday evening, from Pleasant Gap, to see whether the Miss Marshells liked their new home.

Prof. F. W. Dillen and the Hon. Bruce Wason, the silver tongued orator and Miss Carrie Whitener, will go to Spring Mill this week to attend a term of school, where they expect to gain in education and fit themselves more for instructors in public schools.

The movements were all well attended and very few things broken as was the case some times, and very few cattle lost along the road, all had careful drivers. Very little salt was ordered this spring.

James Bilger, of this place, made a trip to Pleasant Gap; a play it rained on Saturday, he could not go as he had intended; Jimmie, the better the day the better the deed.

Dr. W. U. Irwin was called to our side of the mountain several times the past week to see the sick; he soon brings them around again.

Tylersville.

Thomas Bierly and wife were seen on our streets on Saturday.

Miss Susie Miller, who was spending the winter at home, has again returned to Lock Haven.

Peter Seyler, wife and children, are visiting friends and relatives at this place, after an absence of nine years.

A. Mectomy is again rejoicing over a great big boy, that has arrived at his home.
