

The Racket.

Prizes were awarded for best, original drawing of a Black Cat as per our ad of March 21st. 1st to Nevin E. Cole, 2100, Centre Co., Pa. 2nd to George Broad, Peotone, Will Co., Ill. These boys read Racket ads to a purpose, and one of them may be President of the U. S. some day, who knows?

REMEMBER we have exclusive sale of the famous Black Cat Stockings in Bellefonte.

NEW THIS WEEK—"Victor" Oil Stoves for summer cooking—single at 75c, and double $1.50. 1 ton of first quality Graniteware—lowest prices in this "neck of the woods."

DRESS GOODS DEPT.—Reads Genuine Lansdowne, 42 in. $1.25. All wool allstrowe, a thin fabric, very desirable for waists, 36 inch 60c. White Shirring for yokes. Black Silk Grendines and Nets. Corded Wash Silks—white and colors, stripes or checks, 50c. 24 inch Foulards 85c and $1.00.

G. R. SPIGELMYER

Fairbrook.

An excellent opportunity for State Normal graduates is now opened, as our government is wanting graduates for teachers in the Philippine Islands to teach American ideas, and to establish schools. One hundred dollars per month and free transportation.

DEATH:—On Sunday morning, Mrs. Washington Reynolds, of Graysville, finished her life journey here upon earth, and her soul flashed into another world to be with her master forevermore. Mrs. Reynolds died of old age, and was one, who was always respected by all, and will be greatly missed by those who knew her. She was a consistent member of the Presbyterian church. Interment was made in the Graysville cemetery on Tuesday.

T. Hoover, of Tyrone, was in this section on Monday, looking after some horses and cattle.

H. J. Kocher is repairing his barn which was badly needed.

J. G. Baileys attended the Everhart funeral, on Monday forenoon.

Mrs. Susan Goss, of White Hall, is now suffering with sciatic rheumatism.

Rev. F. D. Noble has been reappointed pastor of this charge, of the M. E. church, by conference. Mr. Noble has been on this circuit for two years, and the conference made no mistake by appointing him pastor for another year. Services again in the church at this place on Sabbath morning at the usual hour.

Thomas Jackson, of McAlavey's Fort, transacted business at this place last Friday. Mr. Jackson is an up-to-date farmer, owning one of the best farms in Stone valley.

Coburn.

Dr. J. P. Alexander, of Centre Hall, was notified among our business men of town on last Friday.

We are sorry to note the accident which befell Barnet Eisenhuth near Ingleby; while cutting props his axe happened to slip and severed three toes from his foot; he is under the care of Dr. Barker, and is improving rapidly.

Aggie Whitman and Lizzie Snyder, both working at State College, were the welcome visitors under their respective parental roofs.

Dr. W. P. Ard, of New Columbia, inspected some farming district in our vicinity on Tuesday, while here he stopped with Sam'l Ard. We would be glad to see the Dr. move back to our vicinity.

Now, for beautiful spring days to see A. J. Everett with his new horse and silk hat; "all ready, git up" and away he goes.

Our high school closed on Tuesday and many of the scholars are taking a course at Spring Mills, among them are O. E. Meyer, Cyrus Meyer, W. T. Korman, Randall Harter and William Meyer.

The scribe of High valley gave a toast at Harter's store some time ago—he being president and his companion secretary. They took the highway and went home rejoicing; nothing has been seen of the scribe since, suppose he and the ground-bog disappeared at once.

Romola.

S. M. Robb will leave for Pittsburg this week enroute to Grove City, where he will attend Grove City College.

Miss Mamie DeLong, who has been teaching school at Loveville, arrived home last week having completed her term.

Mr. Swengle, one of Bellefonte's insurance agents, transacted business in this community last week.

E. M. Brickley, who has just recovered from an attack of typhoid fever, left for Sumerville, the first of the week. He will visit friends there a while after which he will go on to Pittsburg and resume his employment.

Misses Helen and Jane Beck, of Nittany, were guests of Misses Mabel and Linnie Singer, last week. If any one thinks they are not entertaining young ladies, just inquire of Samuel R., or Chester W.

Miss Mabel Pletcher, of Howard, is the guest of Miss Mamie DeLong.

George Quay, a thirteen year old son of William Quay, had the misfortune to fall on an axe several weeks ago, cutting an ugly gash in his leg at the knee joint. He caught cold in the wound and ever since has been in a very critical condition, and the indications are that he will be crippled for life. Dr. McEntire, of Howard, is in attendance.

A heavy fall of snow visited our section last week and left the roads in a very bad condition. We hope that this time they may dry off for good.

John Crawford, of Lock Haven, accompanied by his mother, spent Sunday in this place. Mr. Crawford is in attendance at the Normal at that place.

Aaronsburg.

J. H. Wyle, who was stricken with paralysis some time ago, is now glad to state, able to sit up a few hours each day and is gradually growing stronger.

Chas. Mensch, of the Bellefonte Gazette, spent Sunday with his parents, in this place, returning Monday morning.

Rollin Wyle, who for the past few years has been living in Akron, Ohio, and who came east some time ago to see his sick father, purposes moving to our town and left for Akron last week to get his household goods ready for shipment. His wife arrived here last week and is now getting Polly Stover's house on Main street ready for their occupancy. We are glad to have them with us.

Communion services were held in the Reformed church, of this place, on Easter Sunday and a large concourse of people were in attendance. Several new members were also taken into the church by certificate and confirmation. Appropriate music was furnished by the choir and the services were interesting throughout.

Most all the children in town are housed up with the chickenpox and there is scarcely a family who is not afflicted. Mrs. Catherine Frank's millinery store is now open for inspection of spring goods, of which a large and handsome variety are now shelved and still more coming in daily. Ladies, if in need of fine headware, give her a call before buying elsewhere, as her prices are as low as the lowest.

The junior class of the Reformed Sunday school were treated to beautifully colored eggs, on Easter Sunday morning.

Wm. Condo, one of our aged citizens, has been on the sick list for the past few weeks.

William Throssel, our new blacksmith and one of the best horse shoers in this section of the county, has his shop now in operation and is ready to accommodate all who may need work in his line. Give him a call.

The intermediate and primary schools closed on Monday, but the grammar school will not close until next week. E. R. Wolfe, who had been teaching the intermediate grade, left for his home at Wolf's Store, on Thursday.

Stewart Webers, who had been absent from town for a few months, have again taken up their residence in our town. The gentleman had been on a mail train during the intervening time, but is now waiting on further orders.

George Weaver, of Fiedler, recently passed through our town with a new horse, which can go at 2 30 clip and Geo. swears by all that's good and bad that he just came off a race course down in Jersey. The amount paid for him was something less than $800.

During the past week or more Cal. Weaver, Cyrus Moyer, Jr., and Oscar Meyer, of Coburn, assisted W. H. Philips and Tom Moyer and wife to take an inventory of stock on hand in merchant Philips store. Mr. Meyer, who purchased the stock, is now ready to accommodate all who wish anything in the general merchandise line. We wish the new enterprise success.

Miss Carrie Weaver has gone to Salona to spend the summer and her sister, Miss Nellie, has gone to Madisonburg.

Turb Kreamer, of Bellefonte, has been here for the last few weeks doing some repair work on his property here in town.

Spring Mills.

The late snow and rain raised Penns creek considerably.

D. H. Kuhl is not mending any.

Rev. Koontz preached a very able sermon to his congregation last Sunday evening.

O. F. Corman has added new shelves to the other side of his storeroom which was without any; he will now add to his stock of groceries, muslin, calicoes, gingham, in fact you will find everything which is kept in a first-class store.

Edward Ruhl, our popular landlord, is papering and painting the inside of the hotel, which gives it a fine appearance.

C. P. Long has charge of three steam saw mills; he is able to furnish most any kind of lumber on short notice.

John Smith & Bro. will erect a large furniture store, on the corner of W. H. Smith's lot leading to the station. They wish to dispose of their entire stock of furniture, to save trouble to move it to their room. Your prices are their prices, if they are at all reasonable. Call on them.

C. J. Finkel has bought C. C. Crape's grocery store, now occupied by C. Kobison as a grocery store; Mr. Finkel expects to open up an implement store next spring.

Mrs. George Wolf has just returned from Philadelphia with the largest stock of millinery goods ever brought to this section; all the late styles, call and see them.

Windom Gramley, of the Gettysburg college; Charles Allison, Robert Vanvakab, of Princeton college, spent their Easter vacation at their home.

Dandelion, boiled potatoes and side meat are on the bill of fare for the next couple of weeks.

Roland.

Miss Cora Gudon, of Milesburg, visited at the home of E. H. Bryan's last week.

Roland was well represented at the concert, at Kennedy, Saturday night.

Mrs. H. Bidwell, of Bellefonte, was a visitor in town this week.

J. P. Pletcher, our affable telegraph operator spent a delightful Easter at Clearfield.

The people regret very much the removal of Rev. A. P. Wharton, from this charge to Martinsburg.

Frederick Curtin departed for Williamsport on Monday, where he has received a position in the Williamsport machine shops.

Trading bicycles is the chief amusement of the young men at present.

George Bryan spent a few days last week at Snow Shoe and Moshannon.

The Misses Williams and Parker were callers at the home of E. J. Williams, of Unionville, last week.

Notice to Farmers.

On and after December 15th we will not take any kind of grain on store at our mill. We will, however, be in the market for cash grain constantly and will pay the highest prices.

50-17 PHOENIX MILLING CO.

Millheim.

Misses Bessie Walker, of Pine Grove and Jennie Biter, of Penn Hall, were the guests of Miss Stella Zerby, Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. K. Condo, of York, are visiting Mr. Condo's parents here.

Miss Annie Mauck, of Rote, is a visitor at the home of her sister, Mrs. J. C. Smith, on Penn St.

The Spigelmyer store room on Penn street is progressing slowly. It seems some of the timber is still growing. The carpenters have plenty of rest.

The snow and rain during the last week has stopped plowing and delayed farm work.

Robert Harter bought a dandy black team at the Reed sale.

Abraham's mare is a high kicker and refuses to work in the shafts, so Abe hooks himself up and has several men push along.

Charles Weiser, a student at Gettysburg, spent Easter with his mother, Mrs. Ellen Weiser, south of town.

Rev. Gearhart conducted communion in the Lutheran church Sunday evening. The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion.

Chas. Shaffer, of Harrisburg, traveling man for undertaking supplies, was in town this week.

E. L. Auman is running his mill day and night filling orders for flour.

Messrs Wilson & Mingle, of the Wilson Creamery Co registered at the Musser House, Tuesday.

The average price at the Reed horse sale was $122 50.

A. A. Frank is in the city this week getting his spring goods.

The N. B. & P. Turnpike Co. is putting crushed stone on its road.

Mrs. Sue Bordner, of Glenn Rock, had business in town this week.

Misses Mary Mauck and Minnie Geary returned from the city last week, with their spring millinery.

The grain and grass look well and the prospects are for abundant crops.

H. E. Duck has stocked his farm and is conducting the same himself.

The new Easter styles were very scarce on Sunday, the cold weather put a damper on them.

Frantz and Joe had business at Centre Hall Sunday night.

Perry Confer attended the horse sale at Bellefonte on Monday.

John Weaver visited his mother, Mrs. Wm. Meyer, on Sunday.

Chas. A. Deobler, the Aaronsburg butcher, was in town on Tuesday, and sold his pony to Foster Albright. He is going to Emporium where he has secured employment as foreman in a lumber job.

Boalsburg.

Miss Alice Stover, of Unionville, is at present gracing the home of her sister, Mrs. L. S. Bricker.

Will Leisher, an employee of the P. R. R. shops at Renova, is spending a few days among his friends in this place.

Miss Kerstetter, of Pleasant Gap, spent Easter with her friend, Miss Della Ishler.

A very delightful Easter praise service was held in the Reformed church, on Sunday evening. Excellent music was furnished by the choir. The pastor, Rev. A. A. Black, spoke on the increase of the Easter feeling every year.

Miss Ruth Bottorf, of Lemont, spent Sunday with her cousin, Miss Annie Sweeney.

Mrs. L. Mothersbaugh spent last Friday with Mrs. John Ross, of Linden Hall.

Our bustling implement dealer, Oscar Stover, this spring already sold 29 binders besides a lot of other machinery, all together amounting to over $4000 in value.

Quite a number of our citizens attended the pie social, at the home of Philip Dale, of Oak Hall, last Friday evening. All report having spent a very pleasant evening; especially Geo. H—who ate so many pies that he was not able to get in to his buggy without assistance.

Misses Margaretta Goheen, Rose Woods and Dora Meyer attended the social, at Centre Furnace, last Friday evening.

Out of the class of seven that took the examination for the common school diploma, the five following named persons were successful: James Glenn, Geo. Gettig, Thomas Hunter, Charles Mothersbaugh and Miss Isabella Miller.

Miss Sallie Keller is at present confined to the house with a severe attack of rheumatism.

Samuel Wagner and family, of Altoona, are visiting at the home of his wife's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Cyrus Darst.

Mrs. Julia Musser, of Pine Grove, spent a few days last week with her niece, Mrs. Amanda Fisher.

H. B. Pontius, of Bellefonte, was attending to his official business in our town, last Thursday.

Jake Herman, of Lemont, had a wheel of his buggy torn off last Friday evening by catching on the wheel of a wagon that was standing in front of J. T. Stuart's store.

Miss Nannie Bailey returned home last Friday from a visit to her sister, in Pittsburg.

That one of our old bachelors who does not have more than an average crop of hair on the top of his head, was heard to remark the other day that he would have to either get married or employ a seamstress, as it kept him busy between times sewing on buttons. Watch the forecasts of the weather (whether) or not.

Geo. Ishler made a business trip to Bellefonte, on Wednesday. Boys get your old tin pans ready.

David Stover spent a few days last week with his friends, in this place.

Julian.

A very sad accident befell Mrs. Richards, of this place, but who has been spending the winter with her daughter, Mrs. M. B. Beightol, of Retort, Pa. On the first of April her son, Milligan started to bring her home, the horse became frightened and ran away, throwing her out of the buggy, breaking her arm and cutting an ugly gash in her forehead which required eleven stitches. She is very poorly at this writing, being 82 years old. Hopes are entertained for her speed recovery.

Port Matilda.

DIED:—near Flat Rock, April the 3rd, 1901, of weakness incident to old age, George Cowher, aged 73 years, 5 months and 13 days. The deceased resided at his late home for many years. "Uncle George," as he was commonly called, was a man possessed with a generous heart never refusing to render assistance in time of sickness or death. Although one in moderate circumstances, he aided those in need whenever it was possible. He bore his illness, which was of several months duration, with a true faith in a future reward. He has been a member of the United Brethren church for several years. Interment in Black Oak cemetery.

Sammy Homan, says it is a girl; you just ought to see the smiles on his face, ever since it came.

Billy Willis can't think of anything else but our late stranger; it's a girl you bet.

Mrs. Annie Osman was called home from a visit to her daughter, Nora, who is quite ill at the home of her sister, Mrs. Baer, in Curwensville.

Gilbert Minnigh, son of Rev. Minnigh, of Altoona, was visiting friends in this place.

Miss Minnie Crain is clerk in W. G. S. Crain's store, in this place.

Samuel Hoover is having everything in readiness to build a large barn, on the site of the one lately destroyed by fire.

Samuel Wills, who has been suffering from gangrene for several months, continues in a dangerous condition.

Christ Marks, of Port Matilda, is manufacturing a novel chair, which can be changed from an easy sitting chair to a reclining couch; he is meeting with success in the sale of the same.

Milesburg.

D. T. Eddy, on Monday night the first of April was re-elected Supt. of the M. E. Sunday school. He has entered his 26th year as Supt. of the school.

Rev. Mattern, of Brooklyn, N. Y., arrived home on Friday to spend his Easter vacation; will return on Saturday the 13th.

Rev. Richard Wharten arrived home from conference on Saturday.

The M. E. Sunday school held their Easter services on Sunday morning, the church was beautifully decorated with house plants.

Mrs. Frank Baird returned home to Philipsburg, after spending a few weeks with her parents and friends of this place.

Miss Nannie Walker is visiting her sister, Mrs. L. T. Eddy.

C. W. Smith left for Berwick on Saturday night to attend the funeral of his aunt, Mrs. Andrew Ginger.

The Budding sisters were guests of Miss Emma Jones, returned home to Snow Shoe after a pleasant visit.

Beech Creek.

James A. Wensel, who has been confined to the house by sickness, is able to be around again.

Geo. T. Drise is home for a few days. He is employed by the Paper Mill Co., at Johnsburg, Pa.

William Gould, who is employed in lumbering in East Tennessee, is home on a visit to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Gould.

Harry L. Farwell and his wife, of Glen Union, Pa., have established them selves in a pleasant home on Fairview street.

The new iron bridge of the Penn'a Fire Brick company across the "cut" of N. Y. C. & H. R. railroad is completed and the track is now being laid to the works and by the last of the week through connection will be made from the mines to the works.

The grammar school, taught by Prof. David M. Packer, finished its term Monday, and the primary school, instructed by Miss Margaret Baird, closed Tuesday. The intermediate grade, of which Miss Mary Baldwin has charge, will make up the seven months' term next week.

Miss Lea Conrad, of California, Missouri, who a year or two ago visited at the home of the late William Clark and who is well remembered by many acquaintances here was suddenly killed in St. Louis the latter part of March. In some manner the unfortunate lady was run down by a street car and ground to death.

Mingoville.

Communion services held in the Reformed church at Hablersburg on Sunday morning were largely attended. Those who joined from this place were: Anna Hockman, John Hockman, Sarah Deitrich, John and William Deitrich, Loid White, Violet Fulton and Calvin Fulton.

Hecla will have a base ball team this season; be careful boys that you don't get it where the old gobbler got it—in the neck.

The stove mill at the Ridge is now running full time, cutting about seven thousand per day.

Sugar Valley.

George Kleckner, of Sugar valley, is seriously ill.

William Long, of Loganton, has been granted a pension of ten dollars a month.

Jno. Boone is critically ill. A paralytic stroke is the cause.

D. Scott Curran has removed his printing establishment into the house lately vacated by Dr. Wycoff.

Mrs. Daniel Karstetter is able to sit up part of the time, but is far from being recovered. Mrs. Curtis Berry is again able to move about. She has had a severe attack of grip.

Charles Parker, an aged citizen of Bunker Hill, Sugar valley, was stricken with apoplexy, while shelling corn a few days ago. He fell off his chair to the floor and fractured his left arm.

Madisonburg.

Our term of winter school has ended, and our respected teacher, Miss Geiss, left for her father's home.

Henry Younsa and son started to take some lumber off his mountain land; he said he would better get it off himself before someone else took it.

Frank Greenoble is improving very slowly from his late illness and is not able to work yet.

New Directory.

A new directory of Bellefonte and adjoining territory will soon be issued by Alfred G. Woomser & Co., of Pittsburg, Pa. This firm recently issued directories for Tyrone, Lock Haven and the same proved satisfactory. Bellefonte is in need of a good directory and we believe the effort will be encouraged by our people.

How's This!

We offer One Hundred Dollars Reward for any case of Catarrh that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure.

F. J. CHENEY & CO., Props., Toledo, O. We the undersigned have known F. J. Cheney for the last 15 years, and believe him perfectly honorable in all business transactions and financially able to carry out any obligations made by their firm.

WEST & THURX, Wholesale Druggists, Toledo, O. WALKING, KENNAN & MARVIN, Wholesale Druggists, Toledo, O. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. Price, 75c. per bottle. Sold by all druggists. Testimonials free. Hall's Family Pills are the best.

Why

Is the "Standard" the only successful Rotary Shuttle Sewing Machine?

It is the only thing of the kind that has stood the test.

Has greater speed than any other. Working parts are fewer. There is less wear.

If you want to know more about it call on

SARA C. BRICKLEY,

Cor. Spring & Bishop St. Bellefonte, Pa.

THIS GUN METAL FINISHED FOUNTAIN PEN FREE FOR ONE HOUR'S WORK.

ONE THIRD ACTUAL SIZE Boys and Girls, we will treat you. Be happy in advance. Special offer to introduce this new Fountain Pen. Send us your full address with 10 cents for postage, and we will send you 25 extra fine decorated Top Lead Pencils to sell at 4 cents each. When sold, you send us the money and we will send you the Fountain Pen free.

MEGRUE SUPPLY CO., 179 Broadway, New York.

What You Get Here Gentlemen

Is Comfortable Foot Service

We Are Bound to Please You

Because we make it a point to see that our Shoes fit your feet perfectly. Shoes that fit well, will always feel easier, look better and stand more wear than those that don't. All the corns, bunions and other ills that feet are heir to, can generally be traced to bad fitting shoes. Our Spring Styles in Men's Shoes are now ready to be looked at or bought.

A. C. MINGLE.

THE GLOBE

Dry Goods, Millinery and Carpets,

Our Mail Order Dept

Is growing every day. There is not a day passes but what we receive letters for samples of goods we advertise. This week we advertise

Two Special Bargains:

One is a Fine Dimity. Regular prices of these goods is 15 cents, 18 cents and 20 cents. We have placed them all in one lot to sell

12 1/2 Cents a Yard

This offer is good for one week from to-day. We want to show you that we can sell you goods as cheap by mail besides give you just as good a selection as we can when you visit our store.

Special Number Two is a second lot of Dimities, regular price 10 cents, 12 1-2 cents and 15 cents. We have also placed these in one lot to sell for

7 Cents a Yard

Remember, in order to take advantage of either of these bargains we must have your order within one week.

It Costs You But One Cent to