The Presbyterians held an ice cream social in the vacant parlors of the Union House, on Friday evening, which was well patronized by the citizens. Ceader's famous ice cream was in evidence, and such cakes! Why, 'Squire Barney Shipley, in speaking of the cakes said "yum-m, yum-m, the best cakes I ever ate in my life; I'll put up Unionville girls against the world for baking good cakes" and we would add, they don't go to a cooking school either, like they do in Philipsburg and other towns.

William Bruss has taken initiatory steps in skunk farming for their fur, which is said to be valuable. He has already secured, we are informed, some five or six of those highly perfumed animals and has them secured in an enclosure. What the experiment will result in remains to be seen.

We would suggest to the Bellefonte sporting or shooting club that it secure a lot of good sized turkey gobblers in connection with their sparrow shoot next time. We are confident Joe. Parties from Nittany valley have been circulating among our citizens with a petition trying to procure signers. The petition is for the purpose of inducing the court to condemn the pike across the mountain. It does not include the piece of road from Harter's to Millheim, and that is just where the mistake lies. That is the road the people of Miles township travel when they go to market, to the depot or to our neighboring towns, and that is the part that ought to be freed. Should the pike across the mountain be condemned the tax on Miles will be much more than its citizens pay in toll. If you have'nt signed, our advise is
