Funeral took place on Tuesday May 21st, Interment at Rebersburg. We feel that a parent's sorrow for the loss of a beloved child cannot be assuaged by the commonplaces of condolence; yet we must assure the parents of our heartfelt sympathy in this their grief. There is one thing however that should comfort the parents under such bereavment. It is the reflection that little chlidren are pure and guileless, and that "of such is the Kingdom of Heaven."

Unionville.

Our beautiful town, the queen of boroughs of this great commonwealth, has donned her spring attire and now she looks more beautiful than ever, and she ain't dressed decolette either.

Henry Armagast, of near Fillmore, came over the mountain a few days ago with a load of hen fruit and anti-oleo, otherwise known as eggs and gilt edged butter. Henry is a successful farmer and his products always find a ready market.

Frederick Senser lost a valuable horse last week, by death. Poor old "Jack" was a valued and faithful animal, being about thirty years old, according to Bennie Frederick's estimate. Supt. C. L. Gramley held his annual teachers' examination at this place last Friday.

I. G. Alexander, ex landlord, is beautifying his residence by the erection of a large, handsome porch fronting on Allegheny and Walnut streets. It is of modern design, engineered by J. C. Smith, foreman for Ardell Lumber Co, and put in place by B. F. Leathers.

L. B. Barthurst has now an elegant ice cream parlor in connection with his It is nicely papered and painted and will be the attraction of all lovers of good ice cream during the summer. Mr. B. has the reputation of making ice cream second to none in the county and we bespeak for him a liberal patronage of our citizens.

Mrs. Jesse Fredericks boarded the o:11 train one day last week, her destination being Pittsburg, where she will visit her daughter, Mrs. Austin Hoover from thence she will go to Bucyrus, O., to visit another daughter, Mrs. Elmer Roller, and expects to be gone several months, leaving the farm in charge of Benjamin. Deafness Cannot be Cured, by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure Deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed for ever;
nine cases out of ien are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any

The Childrens' day services in the Evangelical church will be held on the 9th of June.

Preaching in the Evangelical church next Sunday morning at 10.30. Frank Minick has been very sick the past week with all symptoms of typhoid fever; we hope for his speedy recovery. B. F. Shaffer and W. Emerick are just about the same, not improving very fast. Charley Zerby, of Penns valley, has been over with a team assisting his brother Howard in getting his corn ground ready. Mr. Pletcher had what might have proved a serious accident last week; while on their way to Howard the front axle broke and left the wagon down on the horse's beels, but the beast knew that it had a lame back and couldn't jump, therefore it didn't get frightened and run

The people of this place were very much shocked last Tuesday on hearing of the death of Mrs. Thos. Nearhood at her home in Ong, Neb., last Tuesday, of heart failure, after an illness of ten days. Her maiden name was Hattie Bartholo mew and with the family resided here until six years ago when they moved to the above named place.
