

The Racket.

Oberman's Patent:

Cooking and Strainer Kettle, Covers cannot fall while draining—A child can use it with safety—Enamel Superior to any in the Market, at 1-2 usual price: 6 qt, 49c; 8 qt, 59; 10 qt, 69; 12 qt, 79; A Racket bargain sure.

Jardaniens:

Rookwood Pattern, Genuine Louwelsa—Large Sizes—1.98 and 2.49 (about 1-2 usual price) Hand work, every design different, People that appreciate nice things, say they are Fine as Silk. Centre window, Main room.

The 5 and 10c Counters:

Are again full to overflowing. Bargains galore. Variety Annex.

"Applique" Trimming—Laces, Embroideries, U will always find the best and tastiest assortment in town at the Racket.

G. R. SPIGELMYER.

Aaronsburg.

Miss Catharine Small spent a few days last week in Rebersburg with her brother, Charles.

Jerry Kline made a business trip to Bellefonte Saturday last.

Charley Summers and Annie Edmunds took in Sam Docks show at Woodward last Thursday night.

Mrs. Rev. Gearhart and son, Charles, are at present visiting friends in Philadelphia, and expect to remain for some time.

George Bright, of Altoona, was the guest of his sister, Mrs. E. A. Brown, several days last week; Miss Elsie Weaver was also very much interested in the gentleman's visit here.

Jonathan Krape and family, who formerly resided at Fiedler, Pa., last Thursday moved to our town and now occupy the home they recently bought.

Frank Rupp, who enlisted in the U. S. Navy at the outbreak of the American-Spanish war, and who had served since that time, (a period of three years) arrived home last week, and we understand to stay as he received his discharge. Frank has been in a great many foreign countries and to hear his various descriptions of the customs and modes of the different nationalities is indeed interesting.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Stover spent Sunday with friends in Rebersburg.

Miss Lillie Mertz, who had been clerking in the store of her uncle, W. H. Philips, in our town, the greater part of a year, left for her home in Northumberland recently.

Daniel Weaver recently spent a few days with friends and relatives in Millersburg, Dauphin county.

Rollin Wile is kept quite busy weaving carpets and rugs for parties in all sections of the valley.

Mrs. Harry Kremer is spending a few weeks with her parents, Dr. P. B. Barker's at Engleby.

Fairbrook.

We are having a wet season, and weather prophets announce that we are going to have one of the wettest summers that we had for many years.

Mrs. Emma Meek and Miss Ada Koch, both of this place, had a delightful visit last week to the Mountain City, and they also made a stop at Tyrone to welcome their many friends at that place.

There was no services in the M. E. church at this place last Sunday morning, due to the inclemency of the weather. Prof. Surface, of the Pennsylvania State College, was to fill the pulpit.

Chas. Myers and Clifford Close, of this place, were Bellefonte visitors last Saturday.

Henry McCracken will improve his farm building, by erecting several new sheds.

Mrs. J. B. Heberling, of Pine Grove Mills, was a guest at her mother's home, Mrs. Susan Erb, of State College, last Thursday.

A WARNING:—There are some persons who are making a practice of putting up the signals of the United States Mail boxes along Route No. 1. This is being done intentionally without a doubt, and the ones that are doing it better stop this illegal practice at once, as the law penalty for willful or malicious injury to the mail boxes or interfering with their contents is no less than $300 and thirty days imprisonment. Take this as a warning.

Roland.

Mrs. Jas. B. Curtin returned home last week, after a pleasant visit of four weeks among friends in Tyrone and Phillipsburg.

Lida Bartges is visiting friends at Altoona.

Children's Day services will be held in the M. E. church, on Sunday evening, June 2nd.

The ladies of the United Evangelical church will hold a festival in the K. of L. Hall, on Saturday evening, June 1.

Mrs. Howard Reed and children, of Columbus, Ohio, are visiting Mrs. Reed's mother, Mrs. Amelia Gingham, of this place.

The farmers have been consoling themselves this week by saying "wet May, loads of hay."

Mr. Hale, of Jersey Shore, was a guest at the Parker home last week.

Katharine Burnet, of Bellefonte, was entertained by Katharine Curtin over Sunday.

Georgetown.

A few afternoon farmers are not yet done planting corn.

News is a little scarce in Georgetown; everybody busily at work just now; the town was livened up a little the other Sunday evening when the young boys and girls in the neighborhood had a fantastic parade, on the bridge spanning Penns creek at Georgetown. Elias came with two ladies in the buggy and tied his horse in Georgetown, and went and addressed the parade; what the result of the meeting will be is yet in the dark.

S. G. Rote has his roller mill ready for wheat; now farmers, bring in your wheat and get some of the very best flour in the county and make your wives and children happy by giving them good bread.

The Coburn scribe had a little sticker in the paper about the Georgetown scribe getting a grind organ; the organ is ready to start out as soon as the Coburn scribe is ready to go along and take the part of monkey; the time of the year is here when the festivals and picnics will be plenty and the bands will be called to furnish music. The Coburn scribe very well knows that if the bullfrog band of Georgetown and the whip-poor-will band of High valley will join together that the band at Coburn must take the hind seat; that is why he is getting a little jealous.

Major Kern, of Drum station, has made a great improvement on his lot by putting a new picket fence around it; now put a good coat of paint on your house, then you are fixed in first-class style.

Daniel Hosterman, the assessor of Penn township, gives an account of the registration of all the children in Penn township, between the age of 6 and 21 years; he gives them in sub-school districts, and are as follows: Coburn, 98; Elk creek, 40; Liberty, 47; Gentzel, 34; Mountain, 32; Pike, 43. Also the deaths and births from December, 1900 to April 30, 1901—there are 8 births and one death.

The High valley scribe informed the writer that his cheese factory is a failure; that he can not keep his goats up there, they crawl down Jacob's ladder as fast as he can get them up, and now he is going to put up an evaporator to manufacture whip-poor-will apple snits and huckleberry jam—those he can raise up there by the car load.

Millheim.

Sheriff Brumgart was in town, on Monday.

Mrs. Elizabeth Henney is visiting in Loganton.

D. W. Zeigler was home over Sunday with his family.

M. Gardner, Prothy, was looking after the political fences the beginning of the week, at this end of the county as the primaries will soon be here.

The horse sale, on Monday, was not so large on account of the rain; very few buyers from a distance; the average price was about $130.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Condo were in the burg, on Monday.

The carpenters are about through with their work at the M. S. Fiedler property, and after the painters get through it will make a handsome appearance.

Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Bower, son and daughter, were shopping in town, on Monday.

J. H. Maize and W. H. Smith, supervisors, were to Bellefonte, on Monday, on official business.

There is still considerable corn to plant yet, on account of the continuous rain during the last week; there will be some June planting.

J. P. Condo made a business trip to Bellefonte, on Tuesday.

Henry Brown was to Millroy, on Thursday; he reports the road in very bad condition across the Seven mountains.

John Stoner sold his land in Little Poe valley to Wm. Whitmer, Sons & Co.

W. H. Musser has the masons at work on his manure shed wall.

Jacob Wasson, from Loganton, was visiting his sister, Mrs. Henney, the beginning of the week.

Miss Maud Woomey, of Bellefonte, is visiting Miss Anna Smith.

Geo. B. Stover has his barn up and under roof. He will next remodel his dwelling.

Colyer.

Miss Leda Colyer and brother Davis and Miss Cora Colyer and Edward Zong, of Linden Hall, were the pleasant guests at the home of Wm. Taylor on Sunday.

Call on J. H. Moyer to see the latest style of hats.

John H. Royer sold his valuable team of horses to the Reickley Lumber Co.

Isreal Weber erected a very fine yard fence at the residence of James Runkle on the Reiber farm.

The gypsies made their appearance in our vicinity this week and quite a few visited them.

The farmers are about through planting corn and the showers are bringing it out nicely.

Well, well, P. C. city is improving; Wm. Taylor has erected a summer kitchen.

Miss Emma Swartz and Effie Ishler, of Tusseyville, and Miss Cora Brown, of Pottery Mills, spent Tuesday last at the residence of J. H. Moyer.

Mrs. Michael Smith, seamstress, of Pottery Mills, is busy at work at the home of William Bitners.

Mrs. Francis Colyer is making her home at the residence of Esq. J. S. Housman at present during his absence.

Miss Mirian Meyer is making her home with her sister, Mrs. W. F. Rockey.

Warren Slack one of our young sports, is employed at the Reickley Lumber Co.

Harvey Houser, of Spring Mills, spent Sunday last at the home of J. H. Ishler recently.

Mr. and Mrs. N. B. Spangler, of Bellefonte, visited his parents over Sunday.

Some of our readers are a bit curious to know who the Colyer scribe is. Here is my description and if you meet me you shall know me: I'm as tall as a forest pine, as slim and crooked as a pumpkin vine, and when I bow I look like the arch of a railway tunnel. When I was young they called me handsome, but since I'm old my name is "DEWET."

It doesn't pay to be tough, unless you chance to be a chicken. The tough chicken generally avoids broils.

Linden Hall.

Ward Shultz and sister Jean, of Centre Hall, visited at the home of Eliz. Gettig, on Thursday.

Will Raymond keeps a loaded shotgun on hand, to keep the boys away, since that little daughter arrived.

Memorial services were observed at this place on Thursday forenoon. The orator of the day was Rev. Shultz, of Centre Hall, who delivered an excellent address.

Robt. McClellan has finished the foundation for his new barn, and is now engaged in hauling lumber for it from Colyer.

The topic of the day—"wasn't that rainy weather?"

Mrs. John Schreck moved to Brisban where her husband is engaged in blacksmithing.

Philip Bradford and son Carl, who had a struggle with typhoid, are convalescing.

George Weaver, who spent last summer at this place, but is now engaged at Scotia, spent a few days recently looking up his friends here.

A little boy arrived at the residence of Charles Dogie, last week, and Charlie has decided to let him stay and help to boss the sawmill.

S. D. Gettig, of Bellefonte, spent a few days with his mother, getting rested up from a severe attack of tonsillitis.

Adam Zeigler, of this town, spent part of last week at Gettysburg, as a delegate from the Boalsburg I. O. O. F.

Mrs. Summers and family, of Gatesburg, had a pleasant visit with her sister, Mrs. Frank Wieland, recently.

Al. Stump, the obliging and efficient milkman, is at present housed up and Arthur Cummings has charge of his milk route.

L. W. Zeigler spent a few days last week, at Lewistown, as a delegate to the district Sunday School convention.

Frank Wieland, our enterprising merchant, accompanied by his brother Clyde, and father-in-law, Mr. Miller, of Rock Springs, left for Cameron, Virginia, and enroute took in the cities of Baltimore, Fredericksburg and Washington. Clyde says he saw more "niggers" than he ever did in his life. It was a pleasure and business trip combined.

Nittany.

We are sorry to say that W. M. Emerick has been quite poorly for the past few days.

Last Sunday and Monday were two rainy days.

There is still some corn and quile a good many potatoes to plant yet; the wet weather is keeping farmers back very much through here.

Frank Minick is getting better after several weeks of hard tussle with typhoid fever.

B. F. Shaffer is on the mend, but it is very slow.

Mr. and Mrs. Propst, of Lockport, and Mr. and Mrs. McClain, of Mackeyville, spent Sunday with their sick father, Mr. Emerick, at this place.

Miss Orphie Pletcher has gone to Washington, D. C., where she expects to spend some time visiting her uncle, C. C. Pletcher and family.

Mrs. Yarnel was to Bellefonte last Thursday to do some shopping.

Mouk goes through here on Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday, with as fine meat as you can get from any butcher, Billy understands his business.

Mrs. Snavely and Mrs. Ino. Bartley and children, were to Lock Haven, on Friday to do some shopping.

Frank Emerick, Jr., found out last week that a cut off saw is not the nicest thing to fool with, as he got his hand very badly cut while acting the dunce on the mill run.

A. A. Pletcher says he don't like to have his horse insulted; it wasn't the horse that had a lame back, as last week's items say, but it was A. A. himself that had a lame back and couldn't jump, not the horse; and it was Mrs. Mook, not Mr. that was to Millheim with Mittie Winkleman last Sunday.

Mrs. Hattie Winkleman and son Olin, of Mackeyville, were the guests of Mittie Winkleman over Sunday.

Coburn.

A refreshing season. Rain.

J. B. Kern, of Drum station, had special business at the county seat on Monday.

Emanuel Brown, of Bellefonte, and Mrs. Caroline Garthoff, of Nittany valley, are visiting at the home of J. F. Garthoff.

Mrs. C. E. Charles, of Millinburg, paid a visit to her daughter, Mrs. G. B. Stover, over Sunday.

Miss Caroline Yearick, of Millinburg, spent a few days among her many acquaintances in town and surrounding country.

Michael Everett made a business trip to Union Co., last Friday.

Jacob Ketter departed for a visit in Lycoming Co. Jake is not too old to take care of himself; and he casts his eyes abroad in this wide world to see if there's a spark in it for future benefit.

W. H. Meyer and wife, Mrs. Edward Meyer, son and daughter, paid a short visit to our town people in the person of Daniel Krader.

Miss Kate Moyer, of Rebersburg, is doing some sewing for our town ladies.

J. H. Wagner and wife, of Freemont, registered at Mine Hosts, on Monday.

Special attention will be given to music during the next three weeks as the "Coburn Cornet Band" have fixed the date of June 15 for a festival; all the patronage will be solicited throughout the district. Help the boys along, as some are worthy, while others are worthless at anything you put them—not many may think so, but its no joke.

C. W. Wolfe, of Aaronsburg, shipped a car load of cows to M. T. Donmover, Kutztown, Pa.; among them was a fifty dollar beauty.

They Dynamited for Trout.

Ed. Kelly and William Wynn have been arrested on information made by the Clearfield County Game Protective Association for dynamiting Lick run for trout. They were held in $300 bail for court.

Beech Creek.

Sherman Heverly, of Johnsonburg, is visiting relatives in town for two weeks, a portion of which time he passed indoors with an attack of the measles. He is employed in the paper mill at the above place.

Frederick, the four-year-old son of Levi Rupert, fell from a porch one day last week and broke his collar bone.

James Pollock has retired from the shoe-repairing business and henceforth will devote his time to the confectionary and tobacco line with a lunch counter as a side issue.

Joseph Masden's new house on East Main street is well under way and everything ready for the raising. There is not a vacant house in this vicinity.

The caterpillar pest continues unabated and evidence of their damage to fruit trees can be seen everywhere.

The heavy storm that did so much damage further down the valley Friday evening missed our town completely.

Mrs. Harry Farwell has returned from a visit with her parents at Glen Union, Pa.

The building erected by John Liggett on his "triangle" is almost ready for occupancy.

The new building erected by W. Ed. Clark at the corner of Vesper and Locust streets is almost completed.

Miss Lillian Glossner returned to her home in Blanchard last week after completing her term of school at Emporium, Pa.

Mrs. Montgomery is making preparations to go to Los Angeles, California, to make an extended visit with her son who resides there.

It is a noticeable fact that accidents on the Beech Creek division of the N. Y. C. railroad are becoming very rare occurrences and passenger trains run on schedule time. This is not due to a decrease of business, but to the plan of using two engines on one train.

Charles Cook has disposed of three car loads of Deering harvesting machinery in Bald Eagle, Nittany and Sugar valleys.

Oak Hall.

Ezra Tressler, who has been making an extended visit among friends in the west, returned home on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jared Murray, of Centre Hall, passed through town on Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. George Bailey and daughters, of Altoona, are visiting at the home of John Kline.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Dale spent last Thursday at Rock Springs.

Harry Lonebarger, of Linden Hall, was the guest of his parents on Saturday.

Mrs. Edwin Smith entertained Mrs. Jacob Bottorf and Miss Bottorf, of Lemont, on Friday afternoon.

W. H. Fry, V. S., of Pine Grove Mills, spent Saturday night in town.

Miss Daisy Brooks, of Linden Hall, made a brief call at the home of her friend, Miss Dolly Lonebarger, on Friday.

Miss Elsie Peters spent several days at the home of her brother James at Shingletown.

John Kline represented the Pine Grove I. O. O. F., at Gettysburg last week.

John Rupp and son Alfred, of Shingletown, were noticed in town on Saturday afternoon.

Sugar Valley.

Rev. C. D. Russel has resigned the pastorate of the Lutheran church of Sugar valley to take effect June 12, at which time he will move to Philipsburg to accept the pastorate of the Philipsburg charge. He will preach his farewell sermon at this place Sunday, June 2.

John Boone, who has been confined to the house for some time by an attack of paralysis, is improving slowly and can again be about.

The Luther league, of Loganton, elected the following officers on Sunday evening: President, C. W. Conser; vice president, Miss Bessie A. Reighard; secretary, Guy Berry; corresponding secretary, Cora Laubach; treasurer, Rose Boone; librarians, Evelyn Barnum and Meriam Herliacher; delegates to county convention at Lock Haven, C. W. Conser and Bessie A. Reighard.

The Sugar Valley camp meeting will be held about the 20th of August.

Scott Parker has taken the contract to cut and peel the hemlock on the Kleckner timber tract near Loganton.

Aaron Kleckner finished cutting the timber on the Houtz timber tract on Saturday.

Willie Wise, son of Henry Wise, has accepted a position with the firm of Gheen & Speigelmire, at Antes Fort.

Tylersville.

John W. says he has a hen that weighs seventeen lbs; if any one can beat that, let us hear from you.

Miss Mamie Wance was up to the examination at Loganton; we all wish her success in further walks.

Orvis Carlis was so unfortunate as to fall down the cellar steps, but is able to be out again.

Mrs. Maryme Miller has again returned to Lock Haven after a short visit at Tylersville.

Our supervisor was busy working on the road this week.

Some say he is old enough, stick to him Katie.

Philly Wolfe had quite a sick spell this week; he thought he was going over.

The P. O. S. of A. have received their regalia, and we hope we can see them marching.

We hear Dr. Wykoff has quite a few patients at this place.

We had an awful heavy rain here on Wednesday 22, so we have plenty of water and lots of mud.

People are very inquisitive as to who the Tylersville scribe is; if they won't soon guess it I suppose I'll have to tell them.

Harry Seyler, who was away working, has returned home.

B. B. Miller and wife were pleasant visitors at the home of G. K. Millers.

The man who is long on words is apt to be short on deeds.

Mingoville.

The rains the past week have greatly improved the grass and grain, but not so good for corn.

Shuman Zimmermas, John White, Robert Harsh and F. W. Dunkle were to Howard on last Thursday night fishing; the result of their night's work was two large cat fish and seven eels.

M. Zong, the spectacle man, made a business trip through Pennsvalley last week.

The H. P. ball team are making large preparations for their festival on Saturday afternoon and evening; the Zion band will furnish music for the occasion.

Quite an interesting game of croquet was played at Charley Workman's store on last Monday morning, between Mike Zong, Wm. Harsh and John Workman, Samuel Zong; the former two claiming to be the champions.

Those farmers living south of Zion along the Central railroad of Pa. would confer a special favor to the company by pasturing their sheep on their farms instead of the railroad; it is very annoying to a set of trainmen to have a lot of sheep get on the track and run ahead of an engine for a mile or so and then have to stop and chase them off, and in case of accident or that any should be killed, those who let their stock run at large are the ones to make the most fuss.

Neuralgia.

The Prayer of a Nerve for More Blood.

Neuralgia may attack any part of the body but most frequently occurs where the nerves are most abundant.

In the head, In the face, Sometimes the heart nerves seem to twist Twinging rheumatic pains of the extremities

Sharp and intense at times In the intervals dull and heavy. Neuralgia is the result of impoverished blood caused by impairment of the nerves—a lack of nerve force.

It is a disease of the nerve centers, and the pains accompanying it are a prayer for better nourishment. They are the danger signals which warn you against a total collapse of the nervous system.

Liniments and all external applications can only give temporary relief. Permanent cure cannot come until the nerve centers are thoroughly revitalized and reinvigorated by Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills.

The beneficial effects of this great nerve restorative are felt thrilling through the nerve fibres as week by week and month by month the nerve force of the body is restored.

Women afflicted with diseases peculiar to their sex are frequently great sufferers from neuralgia. Dr. Chase's Nerve Pills positively cures both these disorders by filling the nervous system with new vigor and life. 50 cents a box at all dealers, or Dr. A. W. Chase Medicine Co., Buffalo, N. Y. The genuine has portrait and signature of Dr. A. W. Chase on each package.

Reduced Rates to Gettysburg via Pennsylvania Railroad.

For the benefit of those desiring to attend the Annual Encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic, Department of Pennsylvania, at Gettysburg, June 3 to 8, the Pennsylvania Railroad Company will sell excursion tickets to Gettysburg from all stations on its line in the State of Pennsylvania, on June 1, 2, 3, 4, and 5, good to return until June 10, inclusive, at rate of a single fare for the round trip. For specific rates, apply to local ticket agent. 5-24-21.

Reduced Rates to Gettysburg via Pennsylvania Railroad.

On account of the Convention of the United Societies of Christian Endeavor, to be held in Cincinnati July 6 to 10, the Pennsylvania Railroad Company will sell July 4 to 6, from all stations on its line, excursion tickets to Cincinnati at one fare for the round trip.

These tickets will be good for return passage, leaving Cincinnati not earlier than July 8, and not later than July 14. For specific rates and full information, apply to ticket agents. 5-24-21.

Reduced Rates to San Francisco via the Pennsylvania Railroad, Account Epworth League Convention.

On account of the Fifth International Convention of the Epworth League, to be held in San Francisco July 18 to 23, the Pennsylvania Railroad Company will sell, July 4 to 12, from all stations on its line