

The Racket.

USE BUTTERICK PATTERNS in making your Summer Gowns and U. will have success. Fashion Sheets free, ask for one.

HAMMOCKS—Easily the largest assortment that ever came to Bellefonte. Prices commence at 50 cents and end at $3.50.

CAMP CHAIRS—with back, folding, slat or common seat as U prefer. An extra good one, 35 cents—3 for $1 00.

BROOMS—20 cents for the regular 25 cent one, and 25 cents for the usual 35-cent kind.

WHITE DRESS GOODS—Best assortment of the wanted kinds, at prices that keep the other fellows guessing where we got 'em, and offering to sell at cut prices every week. Do you see the point?

G. R. SPIGELMYER.

Howard.

Rain and hail on Sunday—hail as large as bird eggs.

Wm. Thompson had the misfortune on Saturday to have his valuable horse's leg broken at the pastern joint.

Decorations day was spent very pleasantly at this place; we had a very nice parade spite of the mud, led by the Howard band. We had a good crowd, all enjoyed themselves; speaking by Hon. John G. Love, of Bellefonte, which was very good.

The strawberry social, held on last Saturday evening by the paragonage committee of the M. E. parsonage, was fairly attended, considering the cold weather.

A. J. Walizer having spent the past three months in the southern state for his health has returned looking well, better, we are very glad to say, than he has looked for several years.

The children's day services held in the Christian church on last Sunday evening was well attended and the exercises were very good.

We are very glad to say that Albert Shenck and family, who, having been afflicted with typhoid fever the past 3 or 4 weeks, are all improving up to this writing, we wish them a speedy recovery.

Don't forget the children's day services at the M. E. Church next Sunday evening.

Did you notice those young ladies watching in the bakery, passing by and going for ice cream so much recently? We wonder why, Weber.

J. T. Dehass is improving the Syracuse house by erecting a porch in front.

O. J. Allison has opened a new meat market on corner of Main and Walnut street, formerly the Hustler's office.

Dr. John Keeside is digging the cellar for his new house on Walnut street.

James Haines was home and spent Decoration day with his family; he is employed at Milton.

Robert Holter, of Rochester, N. Y., was visiting among friends at this place the past week.

Rev. Latshaw, of Port Matilda, was in town on Decoration day.

Misses Mida Lola and Edith Smith, daughter of Rev. N. B. Smith, of Cassville, are visiting among friends in our town the past week.

Wm. M. Lucas and wife, of Dagus mines, are visiting in this section.

Frank Stricklin, of Hopkins, Jefferson county, is shaking hands with friends in this section at this writing.

If in need of any wood give Charles Lucas and Frank Butler a call, as they have a large contract.

We are very sorry to note the sad news of Arthur Smith, who died on Sunday evening of typhoid fever.

Mitchel Smith and family, of Berwick, arrived in our town on Monday evening; they expect to visit among friends in this section for several days. Mitchel is in the insurance business; they are all looking well.

HOWARD NO. 2.

A quantity of dynamite was recently found in a small patch of woods commonly called the "thickets," near the residence of Wm. Rimert. There were 22 sticks of the explosive, one being torn from the wrapper by the boys who found it, not knowing what it was. How it came to be placed there is not known, but it is believed that it was to have been used for some malicious intent. It was removed by the constable.

On Wednesday evening of last week Burns Bland was arrested by deputy constable Charles Strunk, charged with larceny. He was taken before Justice Kline where he waived a hearing and in default of bail was lodged in the county jail, and will be tried at the August term of court.

Two very heavy thunder showers passed over this place on Sunday afternoon. The rainfall was very heavy and the second storm was accompanied by hail, which fell thick for some time. Fields were washed some and vegetation cut down by the hail, but no great damage is reported.

At Children's day services in the Christian chapel Sunday evening, and everybody seemed well pleased. A collection amounting to $18 was taken.

Miss Anna Weber, daughter of our merchant A. Weber, returned home from Philadelphia on Friday, at which place she has been taking a course in musical instruction.

Capt. S. H. Bennison, of Abdera, was in attendance at the Pennsylvania State Soldiers encampment, which was held at Gettysburg this week.

While unloading logs at Haagen's saw mill Saturday evening, merchant W. H. Thompson's horse was frightened and ran off. The horse was being used to pull the logs off the rear end of the wagon and consequently the tugs were down. The horse had run but a short distance when it stepped on one of the tugs, which threw it some distance to the ground, breaking its right fore leg at the pastern joint. Dr. Bilger treated the broken leg.

The army of caterpillars that recently visited this section has somewhat abated.

Miss Fannie Johnson returned home from Niagara Falls, N. Y., on Tuesday. She had been visiting her sister, Mrs. Harry Yearick for several months.

Miss Minnie Leathers, of Renovo, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ira C. Leathers.

The new school board was organized on Monday with J. L. DeHass as president; C. H. Pletcher, secretary, and J. H. Wagner treasurer.

There is some talk of our borough having a policeman in the near future.

A crew of men employed by the Penna. railroad company have been busy making a survey of the borough. It is not known for what purpose the work was done.

Linden Hall.

Mr. Gates, accompanied by his friend Miss Kate Bowersox, both of Fairbrook, were in this community on Monday.

William Rocky and family spent the fore part of the week near Spring Mills. Daniel He s and Miss Nannie Cori spent Sunday very pleasantly at Bellefonte.

Mrs. Cunningham and Mrs. Lepard, of Bellefonte, spent part of last and this week at this place visiting friends and relatives.

Mrs. Cooney, of Coburn, visited her granddaughter, Mrs. Kerstetter, of this place, during the week.

William Noll, of Pleasant Gap, formerly of this place, was in town last week shaking hands with his numerous friends and also taking in the Memorial services.

Henry Zeigler visited with friends at Penn Hall on Thursday of last week.

Lanson Burris and mother, of Centre Hall, visited friends at this place during the week.

Mrs. Cora Galer and family, of Weiker, spent part of last and this week as guests of John McPherson and wife.

A pretty event took place here last Wednesday at 6 o'clock p. m., when Al. Stump gave away his daughter Miss Keturah, in marriage to Robert Herman of Lemont. Rev. A. A. Black, of Boalsburg, officiated. In spite of the incessant rain which kept pouring down in torrents, between forty and fifty guests assembled themselves and witnessed the grand and happy event. They were the recipients of many valuable and useful presents. We are informed that the young couple expect to move to Phillipsburg where Mr. Herman is engaged in the mercantile trade.

Highvalley.

No particular news in the valley, only what we hear others say, that the Georgetown scribe sold the frog pond and will practice recitation. He says he believed there is more money in belching than there is in the frog business; well, it might be, if the whip-poor-will snitzing business starts up, no doubt he will make some money, as is always the case when a new vegetable gets in market, people are apt to buy and liable to eat too much, which sometimes causes colic, and then a belcher will come handy—net so?

A hail storm passed the valley, but not much damage as far as known.

Michael Evert purchased a large timber tract from W. E. Smith, at Millmont, consideration is not made public.

Henry Steffa in company with his wife and two daughters and son were welcome visitors at Em'l Eisenhuths on Sunday.

The Ingelby scribe was also in the valley, looking up pole timber.

Henry Eisenhuth at Ingelby has the champion wheat field in the neighborhood.

In my next I will give a history of the first settlers in Georgetown and name of the town.

The real estate agent is still at his post and will be for awhile.

The Rangelown lady makes preparation for the blackberry and huckleberry crop.

Dr. Barker wears a smile, he says it is fine girl this time, and he will keep her in the family.

Some of the valley bums left and went up the river to take charge of a bark and log job. Now boys, stick to it and when cold weather comes in then you can sit at the stove.

Very little new from Rangelown; only Thomas Nail took the belt for the champion singer, sometime ago, at a meeting at Samy Rupp's. Samy said his voice is music to the ear.

The valley is full of cattle and fear they may hurt the whip-poor-will apples, if so, that would stop business on both side, net Dan?

Mingoville.

The festival held by the Hecla Park ball team was well attended on last Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Grove, of Farmers Mills, were visiting at the latter's home on last Saturday and Sunday.

Perry Alters, of Spring Mills, is visiting his brother J. E. Alters, of this place at present.

A friend wishes to know what he can do to make his hired man contented. It depends upon the man, but if he (our friend) will do all the milking and get a handsome hired girl the chances are the hired man will be reasonably contented. If not then he should be fired at once.

FOR SALE:—Caterpillars by the thousand, a special reduction given to parties wishing to buy in large lots. For further information call on or address Windy Joe.

Mrs. Lyman Bickie, of Zion, was visiting at the home of M. Zong on Monday.

It is surprising to know how it improves a man's look by simply trimming his mustache.

To Cure a Cold in One Day.

Take Laxative Bromo Quinine Tablets. All druggists refund the money if it fails to cure. E. W. Grove's signature is on each box. 25c.

Moshannon.

Mrs. John Bowes, visited friends, at this place one day last week.

D. B. Fleming was seen on our streets again.

Miss Elsie Lomison, who has been living in Phillipsburg, for sometime, spent a few days, with her parents, in this place.

Miss Johanna Gleason returned home from the Lock Haven Normal, last week.

Rev. Carson, who has been attending the General Assembly, in Philadelphia, is again at his pastoral work, he preached a very able and instructive sermon, in the Presbyterian church at this place, last Sunday evening.

Decorations Day passed off very pleasantly, without any rain, which is very remarkable. The services at the cemetery were performed in a very suitable manner, an excellent address was delivered by Rev. Fans, of the M. E. church.

The old boiler used in Lucas' mill which was abandoned on account of it's being unsafe, was cut up into scrap iron, this week. The noise made by the men in their work of demolition, was heard all over town, and attracted the scribe's attention, so thought it worthy of notice.

Children's day services will be held in the M. E. church, on Sunday June 16th.

Chas. Lucas and family moved from this place to "Kelley's mines" on Monday.

J. T. Lucas made a business trip to Bellefonte this week.

James and Maggie Gleason are visiting their sister Mrs. O'Connors, in Philadelphia.

Quite a number of people from this place, attended the dedication of the Catholic church, at Clarence, last Thursday.

Did it rain on Sunday? Yes it rained on Sunday. If you do not believe it just ask J. S. and C. L.

Wm. Ardery and Thomas Fleming, are both very ill at this writing.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Thompson, of Snow Shoe, visited the M. E. Sunday school at this place, on Sunday. He gave a very interesting talk on "The Good Shepherd," which was much appreciated by all.

A festival was held on the lawn near the Presbyterian church, last Friday and Saturday evenings. It was largely attended in spite of the coolness of the evening.

Romola.

Two Sundays rain; wonder if it will keep up to seven.

James Treaster says the early bird catches the worm; he goes to his mill to fix up at daylight.

A quiet wedding took place on Sunday when All McCloskey and Miss Effie Packer went to Lock Haven and were married.

While N. Brungart's men were cutting logs on the mountain near his mill, they killed a large yellow rattlesnake on the last day of May.

Ten head of cattle were killed on the Beech Creek railroad, near Hayes run and Panther run this spring.

Wm. Beighel has purchased a new set of buggy harness; now girls, for a buggy ride.

Mrs. Thomas McCloskey and daughter Hazel visited at Bellefonte last week.

Mrs. Sarah Shank and two sons, from Clearfield, are at home visiting her parents.

Mrs. Agnes Wagner and daughter Mary, from Blanchard, were callers at her sister's, Mrs. John Singer.

Wm. Crayer, of Jacksonville, was to see his brother Cooney on Sunday.

Miss Lizzie Poorman, who has been living at Howard, came home to stay a couple of weeks.

We were sorry to see our two Singer girls, Mabel and Linc, move out of our community last week, to make their home at Jacksonville.

Mrs. Eliza Foringer is on the sick list; dropsy is the ailment.

Lot, that plow team matches well. One is willing to do all the work, and the other one is willing he should.

Only one month till harvest and lots of corn is not planted, owing to the cold weather.

James Fey's sale was well attended, and everything went high. Fey is going to Potter county to lumber.

The Walker Bros. moved their saw mill from here to near Lemont last week, where they have a fouryear's cut.

Beech Creek.

Children's day will be observed by the Methodist Sabbath school next Sunday morning and by the Presbyterian Sabbath school at 6 p. m., Sunday, June 16, at which time this school will celebrate the fortieth anniversary of its organization.

A lively base ball game of nine innings played between the "Bald Eagles" and Eagleville at the latter place on Memorial Day resulted in a victory for Eagleville by the score of 5 to 2. "Dick" Quigley pitched a fine game for the winners.

Miss Sadie Kitchen arrived home from Pittsburgh, Pa., last week to visit her parents.

John Wynn has provided himself with a new up-to-date tricycle on which he traveled over the railroad of the Pennsylvania Fire Brick Co.

Miss Olive Clark, who attends the Williamsport Dickinson seminary, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Clark, in Blanchard, last week.

It is in the air that a wedding will occur on Vesper street before many days.

The Clinton county Y. P. S. C. E. union meets in the Presbyterian church of this place for the eighth annual convention on Thursday and Friday of this week. The sessions will be held, Thursday at 7:30 p. m., Friday at 9 a. m., and 2 p. m. with the sunrise prayer meeting at 6 a. m.

Glossner Bros. opened their new meat market and are fully equipped for business.

Charles Bitner, of Lock Haven, is moving his household effects into the residence of Mrs. Montgomery, where his family will reside.

Guy Thompson, of Bellefonte, passed Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Thompson.

Some men put spirits down to keep their spirits up.

Fairbrook.

Some were born for great things, some were born for small, some it is not recorded why they were born at all.

Our young friend, Paul Coheen, of Tyrona, has laid away his school books to enjoy his vacation as a farmer boy. He will be with his uncle, J. G. Bailey, of this place.

Some of our young people attended the lunch social at Pine Hall, on the evening of the 30th.

Col. Coburn, of Bellefonte, who was the orator at Pine Grove and Pine Hall on Memorial Day, was the guest of Capt. W. H. Fry.

Adam Smith and wife drove down to Pleasant Gap last Saturday, to visit their many friends.

Traveling salesman J. H. Young, of Philadelphia, made a business tour in this valley last week.

Thos. Jackson, our stock man, from Stone valley, was around this week buying first-class milch cows for dairy purpose.

John Reed, of Graysville, spent a day in Bellefonte last week on business pertaining to the sale of the real estate of his father, Wm. Reed, deceased. The sale was on last Saturday; Mrs. Reed bought the lots in the county capital, Robert bought the farm near Benore and Geo. Stevenson bought the homestead near Waddie's.

C. M. Fry, railroader of Pittsburg, was at home for a week's rest.

C. O. Bowersox and wife, of the Mountain City, is circulating among friends in Philadelphia and Lancaster.

Mrs. Fred Bottorf, of Pine Grove, went to Altoona on last Saturday morning to visit her many friends.

Paul Musser, son of E. C. Musser, of the branch, has an attack of scarlet fever. They had the same disease in their home seven weeks ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Mallory, of Altoona, are visiting their many friends down here and elsewhere. They are having their headquarters at Mrs. Mallory's parental home, W. H. Fry's, where they are royally entertained.

CUPIDITY: On May 29th, inst. at 2 o'clock, Olin A. Johnson and Miss Elizabeth Walters were pronounced, "man and wife," by Rev. C. T. Aikens, at the bride's home at Oak Grove. The marriage ceremony was witnessed by some near relatives and friends. A sumptuous wedding feast awaited them. The bride is a daughter of Moses Walters and is a fine young lady with excellent qualities. The groom is well known to many of us, and is a son of Daniel Johnson, of Pine Hall. He is a sober and industrious young farmer. The "Centre Democrat" extends hearty greeting to this newly married couple.

Millheim.

Decorations day passed off here very pleasantly. Exercises being held at 2 p. m., consisting of parade and an address by Wm. Gretzinger, Registrar of Bucknell University, Lewisburg. The parade was composed of these secret organizations: Odd Fellows, K. G. E's, Spring Mills and home, P. O. S. A. Coburn and Woodward; Coburn, Aaronsburg and home bands; Sunday school children and old veterans.

Serene Harper of Kreamerville was in town on Monday. He says his son Homer, whose back is broken, is gaining some in flesh has a good appetite, but is entirely paralyzed below the waist.

Mrs. J. W. Buck and son were visiting with relatives and friends of Bellefonte and Howard last week.

Mrs. L. C. Hagan, of Unionville, was here with her mother, Mrs. A. M. Weaver and sisters, Mrs. A. W. Ulrich, the past week.

Geo. Tobias was home from Millifinburg over Memorial day.

W. A. Musser, of State College, visited his parents over Sunday.

J. H. and W. H. Reifsnnyder visited their sister, Mrs. David Evans, at Pottery Mills, on Sunday.

J. H. Auman is able to be out again.

Mrs. Susan Wood, of Tamaqua, and Mrs. Lydia Hoffman, of Hanleton, were visiting with their brother, Jacob Eisenhuth, on Main st.

The thunder storm on Sunday afternoon was accompanied by some hail and very high winds.

John H. Reifsnnyder and Miss Mame Fink were married by Rev. Brown, of Aaronsburg, Saturday evening.

Harry Schlegel, of Washington, D. C., bought another carload of horses and shipped them on Wednesday.

The hay crop will be short as many fields have no clover. There is still some corn to plant.

Wm. Kreamer and Ed. Musser went to the horse sale at Lock Haven.

Mrs. John Toner of Philadelphia, is visiting her mother, Mrs. Rebecca Musser. Mrs. Geo. Seerist is visiting in Lock Haven.—David Gutelius and daughter, of Millifinburg, were visitors at the home of Miss Lizzie Keen, last week.—Miss Fiedler, of Madisonburg, visited at B. F. Frankenbergers over Sunday.—Misses Kate and Bertha Stam of Loganon, are visiting their aunt Mrs. Elizabeth Henney.

John Hardenburg has completed his term of school at White Haven.—Miss Margaret Goodhart of Spring Mills and Miss Burkert of Altoona, were guests of friends in town Tuesday.—Mrs. Levina Walters of Tusseyville, visited her sisters Mrs. Wm. Maize and Mrs. Geo. Zerb, during the week.—Mr. and Mrs. Temp. Cruise and son were guests at the Musser house on Sunday.

Oak Hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Stump, of Aaronsburg, visited at the home of Edwin Smith last week.

Milton Fry, of Pittsburg, was a visitor in town last week.

Miss Dolly Lonebarger is entertaining her friend, Miss Mabel Baumgardner.

Mrs. Kline, of Missouri, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Ezra Tresslar.

Miss Anna Dale, accompanied by her cousin, Miss Ella Dale, spent Tuesday at the home of Thomas Gramly, at Walnut Grove.

Mr. and Mrs. John Eiters, of Centre Furnace, spent Saturday afternoon at the home of their son, Clayton.

Misses Irene and Esther Segner and Miss Lizzie Williams, of Boalsburg, were Sunday visitors in town.

Luther Dale, of near Pine Grove Mills, spent Wednesday night at Sunny Hillside.

Mt. Pleasant.

On Wednesday, May 22nd, Ira Neerhoff and Mabel Baney were united in matrimony by Rev. G. A. Sparks of Port Matilda.

Albon Baney moved from his farm near this place to the Retort fire brick works where he and his son Harry are employed.

There will be a festival at the Henderson school house on June 15; proceeds for the benefit of the Mt. Pleasant U. B. church.

Miss Jennie Fink has returned from a visit to her sister Mrs. Naylor of Vaucoyoc.

Roland.

Mrs. Austin Walker is visiting friends at Tyrona and Altoona.

Howard Neff spent Sunday with his parents at this place.

A new hearth is being put in the furnace and as a result it will not be in running order for about three weeks.

Miss Velta Williams is the guest of Virginia Van Scoyoc of Tyrona.

The band boys will hold a festival at the hall, Saturday evening, June 15th. Proceeds for instruments recently purchased.

Penn Twp.

Linn Kerstetter, who for several years had been engaged on the tram road at Poe Mills, moved his family to Millheim.

Wm. Kreamer has put a new roof on his barn in Penn township.

Crops are looking fine. Had a wet May.

Poe Mills.

James Wagner was visiting at Ingelby at Henry Eisenhut's last Sunday.

Miss Mabel Delong was visiting at Ingelby last Friday.

Mrs. J. D. Mark was visiting at Millmont and Swengle last week.

Mrs. Joseph Rider and son Robert of Greenbriar visited with her aunt Annie Delong, and Suse Prain of Lindenhall visited her cousin Mabel Delong.

S. J. Shunk moved to Spring Mills where he is working on the railroad.

Wm. Blanser's father-in-law moved to our town and are glad to have him here. Great hail storm here on Sunday.

Israel Kreamer is busy peeling props and fishing. Flittings as plenty as caterpillars here and had a good bit of rain past week.

Walker.

M. S. Betz has improved his store room by painting it and putting brackets on the porch.

Mrs. Edward Leathers and son Doyle, of Renovo, are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sam'l Aley.

Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Kling, of Eagleville, spent Sunday with their parents.

I. S. Frain made a business trip to Altoona recently.

Perce Kling and family, of Altoona, visited at this place.

John Hoy, Sr., is still very ill.

Mrs. Wm. Weaver, of Zion, spent Sunday with her parents, G. Betz and wife.

Wm. Lowery and wife and Fredie spent Saturday at Bellefonte.

The Pains of Kidney Disease

Warn You Against the Most Dreadfully Fatal of Disorders. You can be Cured by Promptly Using Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills.

Pain is nature's signal whereby she warns man of approaching danger. Few diseases are so dreadfully fatal as disorders of the kidneys and few are accompanied by more severe pains and discomforts.

One of the most common symptoms of kidney disease is the smarting, scalding sensation when passing water which is likely to come very frequently and at inconvenient times. Then there is the dull, heavy aching in the small of the