Creek and Boonville, etc., I confess I was overcome with a feeling of homesickness, and almost wished for the time being that I was again a citizen back there in the old Penns valley among the mountains; however, when I had finished reading and laid the paper aside and walked out of the house where I could look out and see the beautiful prairie country of sunny Kansas, the state of my adoption, my homesickness left me and I felt relieved, and perfectly satisfied and content with my lot. I was interested. and considerably amused, when I read in your paper a communication entitled "From Illinois" by my old-time friend James J. Gramley, originally from Brush valley, where he and I taught school in the same township many years agr. Jim is a good fellow and I wish that he had continued on his way westward until reaching Kansas, for I long to see him. would like to show him the finest state in the union. To use a slang phrase-Illinois "isn't in it," and Jim would say so if he were out here right now and could see our wheat fields, cattle ranches, orchards, etc. I have not the time to go into detail, neither is this intended as a reply to my friend Gramley,s letter.

I simply make these few remarks in passing, as we sometimes say, but would really like to see some of your Penna. farmers come out here and take lessons in farming. It would do them good. have now resided in Kansas permanent. ly for almost 20 years, and have raised my family here. I have been in about different states, have traveled in Europe, and I am prepared to say, with this experience, that Kansas is to me the best "all around" country I have ever seen, and if your readers do not believe it, let them come and see. A few weeks ago I met a gentleman on a Missouri Pacific train, here in Kansas, whose name is Tressler, who resides at Linden Hall Centre Co., he is out here on a visit and told me he was perfectly delighted with Kansas. He expects to buy a farm before returning to Penna., and will make Kansas his future home. He has relatives in this state who have resided here for years, and who have prospered, and are "well fixed," and he has decided to We welcome him and his family to our proud state, and heartily invite any others Ingrains at 1-3 Off. to come who may feel thus disposed.
