The misconduct of some of the West Mountainers on Saturday evening was anything but gentlemanly; had they a little common sense they could at least behave as long as they were around some respectable people; but they think when they have a little "snaps" they want a time. They will get a time and a hot time too next time, if they don't show more respect; a time, warning should be sufficient, (some even get full on birch beer, and stagger around, that shows ignorance—a raise in the boot would be a laxative for them.)

The Coburn Cornet Band has been hired by the Undine Fire Co. No. 2, of Bellefonte, Pa., to play for them on the 4th of July, at Hecla Park. The Coburn Cornet Band is the largest in the county, and Coburn is proud of the assiduity that the members show towards it.
