HAPPENINGS ABOUT TOWN

The Local News Compiled During the Week

BRIEFLY TOLD IN A FEW LINES | college.

Movements of Our People-Personal Mention, Society Events-What Academy. Has Transpired Worthy of Mention-Short Paragraphs.

-Physicians report very little sickness in the county at present.

-R. M. Magee, Esq., of Philadelphia, is spending a few days in town, on pleasure and business. -W. E. Shaffer, one of Nittany's genial business men, transacted business in Bellefonte on Monday.

-Good races are promised at the fair grounds on July 4th. The prizes offered will be sure to attract good horses.

-The light showers Friday and Saturday morning were very beneficial to vegetation, and brought cooler weather.

-Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Binnig, of Crawford county, Pa., will hold a series of revival meetings in the Coleville chapel

-June 25th is the date for Robinson's show at Bellefonte. It promises to be a good one and will be sure to attract a

-The Pennsylvania Railroad Co. is making preparations to put in a steam heat plant to heat their passenger depot at this place.

-Mrs. Tillie Williams, of Philadelphia, after a pleasant week's visit to her son, F. C. Williams, and friends, has return-

-While at the Vallimont rifle range, near Williamsport, John S. Furst had a narrow escape from the accidental discharge of a rifle, handled by another. The ball plowed up the ground at his

-A number of our bas sfishermen have been down the Bald Eagle the past week, and that is about all that can be said for them as the fish did not care to come along. The bassfishing season opened on the 15th of this month.

-Prof. Maurice J. Babb and wife departed Saturday afternnoon for Williamsport. Prof. Babb will not be a member of the Academy faculty next year but will teach in New York city, where he has secured a good position.

-Prof. Dorsey G. Hunter, principal of the Gettysburg, Pa. public schools, has been spending part of his summer vacation in this section. He is not positive as to whether he will return to that place as he has some flattering offers from other points that he is considering.

-Prof. Shed, of the Pennsylvania State College, will lecture in the Court House this evening on "Japan and the Japanese." His lecture will be illustrated by beautiful stereoptican views of that lovely country. Admission 35 cents. Children 25 cents. Proceeds for the benefit of St. John's Episcopal church.

-Ministers complain there is not the ordinary church attendance on Sabbaths. Promise a distribution of money, as did a reverend in an adjoining county for a Sunday not long ago, and see whether the "I'me, the halt, the blind," and even he rich won't be there. With Bellefonte's fine churches, there should always be a fine audience.

-M. C. Gephart, the music dealer, is putting considerable energy into that line of business and keeps his stores at Bellefonte and Millheim well stocked with a choice selection of instruments. When you are contemplating a purchase of anything in that line it will be well to call around and inquire as to what he can do for you. See his advertisement in another part of this issue.

-Home strawberries came into curb market last week and since, and are of fine sizes, larger than imported ones. Truck and berry raising in this county is more profitable than farming wheat, Strawberries raised upon the hills of Pennsylvania are later than those from the South, but they have a perfection and a size that make up for everything else. Just now they are as fine in looks and flavor as anybody could ask. Soon they will be gone, and then the other things will try to take their place. That, however, is a vain ambition. The strawberry is the king of the year, and it has

-The next pleasant trouble before us is the 4th of July.
