Happenings About Centre County Briefly Told by

A CORPS OF ABLE WRITERS

Our Alert Correspondents Note Many Important Events in Different Localities—What is Transpiring—Is Your Section Represented?

Julian.

Charles Crain, of Port Matilda, spent Sunday with friends at Julian.

George Parsons, of Williamsport, visited his parents Mr. and Mrs. Jno. Parsons over last Sunday.

Mrs. Ira Heaton, who has been so dangerously ill, is somewhat improved at this writing.

What became of Domino last week? William Parsons, of Unionville, was up shaking hands with his many friends at Julian.

Mrs. Merriman an aged lady, of Mt. Pleasant, is visiting her daughters, Mrs. Ellenberger and Mrs. A. Newmau.

Mrs. Jacob Frantz, of Port Matilda, is visiting her mother, Mrs. Murphy.

Rev. Houck, of Milesburg, spent Thursday at Julian.

Mrs. L. C. Bullock is visiting relatives in Clearfield.

Charles Murray spent Sunday at Bellefonte.

George looked out of place on Sunday evening as we are not used to seeing him at Julian on Sunday evenings; but George knows a good thing when he sees it.

Anyone wishing to hear the Children's day song sung by the M. E. S. S., drop into Walter G. Tallhelm & Sons as he took it down on his graphophone, it is true to nature.

Mrs. John Parsons left on Monday for Williamsport on a visit to her son George.

The P. R. R. Co. are improving the residence of the division foreman with a new fence.

Walter Tallhelm and son made a business trip to Port Matilda on Monday.

Mrs. John Grazier and children, of Tyrone, were guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tanyer.

Elmer Henderson spent a few days at Osceola last week. While there he purchased a fine new carriage.

The Children's service in the M. E. church on Sunday evening was a grand success in every particular. The decorations were the finest ever in Julian. The platform was a perfect mass of flowers, back of the two huge arches erected. The music under the direction of Miss Estella Austin was fine, she was accompanied on the violin by Arthur Irvin.

The solo entitled, "The Child's Unfinished Prayer," sung by Julian's little night ingale, Miss Sara Soles, was exceedingly fine, also the duet sang by Miss Ida Turner and Master John Swisher. The duets sang by Mrs. Irvin and Miss Estella Williams, Mrs. Reuben Alexander and Miss Williams were also well rendered. The children were trained by Mrs. Reuben Alexander and they certainly were a credit. The recitations were very good. The pastor Rev. Lathshaw was too ill to be present for which all were very sorry.

Nittany.

John Woomer, of Bellefonte, was calling on some of his friends last Thursday.

Miss Bessie Webner, of Birmingham, is spending several weeks with her parents at this place.

Robb Billet and wife, of Bellefonte, were visitors at the home of Mr. Billet's parents last Saturday.

On the evening of June the 29th, the Ev. Sunday school expects to hold a festival. Proceeds to get singing books and Bibles. Come and help a worthy cause along.

Mrs. Rachel Rossman and Mrs. Mary Snavely were to Clintondale last Thursday to see J. M. Rossman, who has been on the sick list for quite a while.

Last Thursday evening the heaviest rain of this spring passed through here, washing the gardens and corn fields considerably.

A number of our young people were to Hubbersburg on Sunday evening to children's meeting.

We are glad to say that Minnie Winkelman is improving some, but it is very slow. We hope to soon hear of her recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. Shaffer are both getting better the last few days.

We are also glad to say that Frank Minnich is able to be down stairs and walk out doors a little again.

Mrs. Ida Mingle, of Birmingham, has returned to that place after spending a week very pleasantly with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe McCaleb, at this place.

John Rossman, of Rote, was a caller at this place Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. George McCaully, of Hubbersburg, were the guests of Perry Webner's family on Sunday.

AN UNEQUALLED RECORD.

There is a Rapidly Increasing Volume of Bellefonte Evidence Rolling up for the Great Medicine Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills.

It would seem that hardly anyone can take Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills without receiving marked benefit. The wonderful action of this medicine in putting people on their feet who are in a weak, run down condition, is the talk of every place they are known. It is only a short time since they first came to Bellefonte yet to day they are more in evidence for merit with Bellefontic people than all other medicines combined.

Soloman Garrett, of 301 Allegheny St., Bellefonte, Pa., says: "I had been feeling very much run down for a long time. My head ached a great deal and I felt tired and sore all over. I was also bothered with sleeplessness at night. I saw Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills so highly recommended I got a box at Krumer's Drug Store and they did me a great deal of good. I felt first-rate after using them and have no hesitation in recommending them to others."

Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills are sold at 50 cents a box at dealers or Dr. A. W. Chase Medicine Co., Buffalo, N. Y. See that portrait and signature of A. W. Chase, M. D., are on every package.—2

Linden Hall.

Miss Bloom, of Augustaville, is visiting with her sister Mrs. Chas. Dagle, on Green Bank avenue.

Prof. Krise, of Centre Hall, called on his friends at this place on Monday.

Gertrude Wieland spent Saturday at Bellefonte.

Will Swabb, Bianch Tressler and Miss Reitz spent Saturday and Sunday with friends at Spring Mills.

There will be a monster big picnic on the Big Rock on Saturday, and if we survive, we hope to give the principal attractions in our next.

Kyle McParlane and daughter, of Bellefonte, visited here during last week.

As it is our custom to mind the affairs of everybody, except ourself, we will inform the public of a surprise wedding to take place here soon. And we simply put in this little notice that some of our best young men will not be carried off in this rolling planet by the suddenness of it.

Irvin Zeigler, one of our bright and energetic young men, in company with James Glenn, of Lemont, left for Clearfield on Thursday, where they expect to spend the summer.

Weber & Son, of Boalsburg, are re-painting Mrs. J. W. Keller's store.

The farmers are beginning to realize that the Bear Meadows while it may be a fit place for bears, is not a good pasture land. An epidemic has again broken out among the cattle and several have died.

Mr. Farmer, of Tusseyville, was seen in our streets on Monday.

Canming's Bros. have purchased the steam hay baling outfit of Genzel Bros., and are now better equipped than ever for that line of work.

Miss Freda Hess visited at Prof. Bartol's, of Lewisburg, during the week.

William Zeigler was unfortunate in having his arm lacerated at the Linden Hall saw mill last week. Dr. Kidder was called and dressed the wound, and Mr. Zeigler is getting along nicely.

Arthur Kimpport and children, of Bellefonte, visited the former's uncle James, recently.

Spart Bros. of Madison, Lake Co., Ohio, are visiting at this place, and looking after their interests. They are some of the heirs of the large estate left by the Spart sisters, who died last summer at this place.

The new barn of Robert McClellan is under roof and will be finished in time for haymaking.

Cholera Morbus a Dangerous Disease.

In many instances attacks of cholera morbus terminate fatally before medicine can be procured or a physician summoned. The safe way is to keep at hand a reliable medicine for use in such cases. For this purpose, there is nothing so sure as Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. W. E. Bosworth, of LaFayette, Alabama, says:

"In June, 1900, I had a serious attack of cholera morbus and one dose of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy gave me relief in fifteen minutes." For sale by Green's Pharmacy.

Georgetown.

Some of the grain fields are tangled down so much that they will stay down until the day when the grain is set on shock.

Krider Stover and wife, from Mifflinburg, were the guests of Malinda Stover over Sunday.

The old saying is, "what everybody says is true," and everybody says that S. G. Rote's roller flour is the best that is made; give it a trial and be convinced that the old saying is true.

T. B. Motz, one of our best citizens, got a wild reception the other day; he and George Stover were floating logs from Drum Station to S. G. Rote's saw mill, and their boat got too near the shoot of the dam, and when Mr. Motz jumped and so he did, but he forgot to jump with both feet and the result was a good dipping. The boat went over the shoot and Mr. Motz was on the shoot on hands and feet and was singing "Paddle your own canoe." Mr. Motz is now a wiser and cleaner man than ever before.

A new company was lately organized at Drum Station, they call themselves the Drum Station Fishing Company; the captain and the lieutenants wear calico dresses when not on duty.

FOR SALE: The High valley scribe has for sale his match team of horses, which he will sell and get a lot of Texas ponies; he thinks they will do better to peddle suits, than horses.

Everybody is complaining of having so many potato bugs, but in High valley they have none; poor fellows can't get up there; they have no potato bugs, but lots of big bugs.

A festival will be held in High valley in the near future; the proceeds will be used for extending Jacob's Ladder higher up; the Whiff-poor-will band, of High valley, will furnish the music.

Oak Hall.

Mrs. Katharine Conley and Miss Mollie Hofer, of Centre Hall, spent several days with friends in town.

There is a party of gypsies camping in B. F. Homan's woods.

Mrs. Corrigan and children visited at the home of A. Knopf, last week.

Misses Anna, Ella and Katharine Dale attended the sock social at the home of Wm. Grove, near Lemont, last Friday evening.

Walter Rutherford, of McAlavey's Fort, was a visitor in town on Sunday.

Mrs. Henry Homan and Mrs. B. F. Homan spent last Wednesday at the home of Mr. Zettle, near Dale's Summit.

Daniel Lowder's entertained some of their many friends during commencement.

Clifford Close, of Pine Grove Mills, spent Sunday with his parents.

James Peters, of Shingletown, who has been ill for some time, visited his parents last week.

Stops the Cough and Works off the Cold. Laxative Bromo-Quinine Tablets cure a cold in one day. No Cure, No Pay. Price 25 cents.

Milesburg.

Harris Hugg, of Philipsburg, returned home after a brief visit to this place recently.

John Essington, of Cross Forks, returned to that place after the burial of his mother.

John Smith left for Snow Shoe to open a blacksmith shop; has the reputation of being a good workman and will do general work in that line. He solicits your patronage; give him a call and he will do the balance for you.

Mr. Poorman, of Gramplan Hills, is visiting his people at Marsh creek; has a catarrh of the hand.

James McMullen arrived home from Philipsburg and other near by towns.

Miss Buelic, of Harrisburg, is visiting her uncle F. G. Mattern and family.

Arthur Proudfoot moved his family to Altoona last week, where he is employed in the shops.

Remember the Hose and Ladder Company's festival on the 22nd. Do not miss it, bring your dimes and nickels along and drop them in their till; you receive value for the same.

W. R. Campbell spent Saturday evening and Sunday with his parents, at Eagleville.

Miss Shirk, of Tyrone, is a guest of Mrs. Geo. Johnson, at this writing.

Mrs. Atlee, of Tyrone, returned home after a brief visit with Rev. Wharton's family.

Miss Gertrude Bouse, of Tyrone, was a guest of Miss Lorene Mattern, lately.

Mrs. Thompson, of State College, is visiting Mrs. F. G. Mattern and family.

The young men with their best girls have no reasonable excuse to avoid the ice cream tables at the firemen's festival on Saturday night at Bullock's carriage works where it will be in abundance. Fifty gallons will be on sale, besides other delicious and refreshments. All are invited to partake of it.

Robt Wilson, of Curwensville, is at this writing visiting his mother, Mrs. Susan Wilson.

Alfred G. Rager is suffering from brights disease; (Sunday) is in a critical condition.

Harry Curtin, wife and son, spent a portion of Sunday with J. Miles Green and ladies of the house.

Oscar E. Miles left on Saturday for Philadelphia on a business trip.

Mrs. Alvin Smith, of Howard, returned home after a week's visit with his parents, A. S. Smith and wife.

Three of our would-be sports, on Saturday night went to Roland to attend the band festival. One hired a bike, to be in company with the other bikes. After getting there in good shape, began as the young bloods do, looking after the fair sex. Finally each one was suited with their choice. After having a pleasant time together, the young men invited to set up the cream, but alas did not have the boodle and were turned down and out too quick, and took the sneak to come home. The fair sex played a joke on them by locking up their bikes, and they did not get home until day light Sunday morning. Come boys, you must do better, if you want to enjoy the company of the fair sex.

Port Matilda.

James Cowher, a former resident of Port Matilda, now of Cambria Co., is visiting his father, Martin Cowher, in this place.

John W. Wilson the expert stone cutter and mason, of near Flat Rock, is finding plenty of work in Clearfield where a good workman has no difficulty in securing paying employment.

John Walk and James Goss, carpenters from Hannah Furnace, have completed a fine addition to merchant H. F. Chaney's house.

Henry Melcher was prompted by the present appearance of his grain and hay crop to enlarge his barn building. W. W. Laird framed and erected quite a large addition to it making a good job of it.

Indications are that we will have the largest hay crop in this section that we have had for several years.

A. F. Chaney has purchased a fine team of horses to work on his wood and prop job. John Robison handles them with as much ease as an old time teamster.

Harry Moore is busily engaged in putting in gondola wood to the R. R. station for G. M. Walk.

Mrs. Kate Sheeters, of Lock Haven, is visiting her mother, Mrs. George Moore, near Flat Rock.

John Kelley and Aaron Wodring have purchased a large tract of timber land on the mountain above Flat Rock, and are now operating a prop job shipping to the hard coal regions.

Mrs. Margaret Sharer, widow of the lately deceased Jerre Sharer, is quite ill and depressed, at her home near Mount Pleasant.

A Mr. Cleaver, from Altoona, has contracted with S. R. Pringle to cut a large amount of paper wood, and has moved his family to a camp on the job prepared for them; parties out of employment can now find good work and a comfortable home.

We are not much on a give away, if so we would tell all about that trip to Tyrone a few days since.

Theodore Cowher, of this place, died Monday morning June 17, at five o'clock, of general debility, the particulars of which we will give next week.

Buy It Now.

Do not wait until you or some of your family are sick right unto death, and then send for Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, but buy it now and be prepared for an emergency. It is the one remedy that can always be depended upon in the most severe and dangerous cases. It is equally valuable for children and when reduced with water and sweetened is pleasant to take. For sale by Green's Pharmacy.

2 FOR ONE, FOR A WEEK ONLY

is exactly what this great price reduction sale of Clothing and Furnishing goods means to you.

Read this carefully, make no mistake. We always have and we always will do just what we say and all that we say---no more, but positively no less. That's why we ask you to read this carefully and you will undoubtedly see how and why you can easily GET TWO FOR ONE, no matter what that one may be so long as it is sold in our store.

FOR ONE WEEK ONLY

Beginning Saturday, June 22nd and positively ending Saturday, June 29th. We offer our entire stock of SPRING and SUMMER MEN'S WEAR. (Shoes Excepted), at prices that disregard all precedents. Prices that in many instances are less than half our original price, and every instance less, much less than 1-2 the price of other stores. We reserve nothing in Spring and Summer Clothing and Furnishing Goods. This great reduction sale lasting remember but one week only, includes everything in our entire establishment (Except Shoes). Men's Blue Serge, Black Clay, Fancy and Plain Worsteds, Cheviots, Thibets and Cassimer Suits, Single Trousers, Spring Overcoats, Underwear, Hats, Shirts, Hosiery, Popular and Unpopular Goods all to be treated alike. In fact everything in the Spring and Summer Goods line shown by the Best Men's Store in Central Pennsylvania must be sold, sacrificed if necessary for one reason, Room, We Must Have More Room.

Always cramped and crowded for room, we were this season doubly so owing to our New Shoe Department, and it is its rapid growth coupled with the largest increase that our Clothing and Furnishing Department has ever known which makes it absolutely necessary that we dispose of every dollar's worth of Spring and Summer Clothing on hand. The preparations that we are making for our Fall Business demands even more room than it is possible for us to get, we cannot afford to carry over a single Spring and Summer Garment, and we don't propose to. We have made prices so tempting for you next week that when we close our doors Saturday night, June the 29th, you will find the Best Stock of Men's Clothing ever shown in Centre county sold and distributed among appreciative Centre county clothing consumers.

If you need Clothing you cannot help but buy, and even if you are not in immediate need of Clothing it would be economy to anticipate your wants and buy your next season's Clothing now. We might quote you prices for page after page but giving clothing prices in newspapers does not give you the faintest idea of their value. You can only determine Clothing values by seeing them. The stock that we offer you in next week's sale includes every new thing shown this season. The goods are of the Best Makes and styles produced in America and the prices are actually less than the cost of material and making.

It's Our Loss and Your Gain.

REMEMBER THIS SALE LASTS ONE WEEK ONLY, beginning June 22nd, ending June 29th. It includes all the Spring and Summer Goods in our Big Store (Except Shoes). After June 29th we withdraw all prices in force during this sale, so if you want to take advantage of the greatest money saving opportunity ever offered clothing buyers in all Penna, see us as early as possible. Come expecting to get just what we promise you, TWO FOR ONE, and you will not be disappointed.

M. FAUBLE & SON.
