parents here.

The Racket.

Our Annual Mid-summer

Clearance Sale

Covering Every Department of the Big Store, commences

SATURDAY, JULY 6, 1901

ending with the close of the doors Saturday, July 27th. We propose to make it specially interesting and profitable for U to kom to The Racket to do your buying, any time between the above dates. Stick a pin here......

G. R. SPIGELMYER.

Fairbrook.

A new ball team for Fairbrook. The farmers are beginning to make

J. Fred Myers purchased a new mower last week.

Messrs Lightner, Maffitt and Bigelow attended the Pierce-McMahon wedding last week, at Charter Oak. Misses Esther Campbell and Bertha Cross were the guests of Miss Mary Baley, G. W. Keichline transacted business in the county capitol last Thursday.

Isaac Gates, of Gatesburg, attended the commencement at the Central State Normal school, at Lock Haven, this week. His son Wilson is a member of The commencement exhigh honors. ercises was held Wednesday morning in the Normal chapel.

The regiment to which Ross Pillsbury time ago, and Mr. Pillsbury is enroute to his home at State College.

Mrs. A. M. Brown and family, of Penn'a Furnace, has gone to their summer home in Mifflin county.

Joel Louder, of Yellow Springs, was visiting his friends in the Glades and looking after his farm, where he will soon make some new improvements. Mr. Louder is hale and hearty for one of his years.

Rev. Noble resumed his place in the pulpit of the M. E. church, at this place, last Sunday morning in his usual eloquent manner. He delivered a excellent dis- mower. course on "Faith." He had the closest attention of his hearers for nearly forty has again secured the Smithtown school minutes.

N. E. Hess and son Sam'l, of the Branch, captured thirteen wild turkeys it would indeed be plenty. some time ago on their mountain posses-

Dr. Frank Bailey, of Milton, spent several days this week at his home at this place. The doctor is rushed with Children's day services, in the Lutheran church at Gatesburg, on last Sunday evening proved a very interesting and instructive occasion. The church was handsomely decorated with palms and ferns and blooming flowers. The programme was lengthy, consisting of singing, recitations and dialogues. The little folks perform their part very nicely and applause could hardly be suppressed. The music for the occasion was something fine. Prof. Ira Ellenberger, Supt. of Tyrone public schools, made a fine address on music and its melody. The church was filled to its utmost capacity.

Yarnell.

Henry Tressler and wife, of Rockview, over Sunday.

The ice cream social held at John K. the bad evening about 35 guests were present and had a good time.

Wm. E. Brown, our former merchant, is thinking of going into the life insurance business.

J. W. Coakley and wife, of Runville, were guests of his father, James Coakley, øver Sunday.

Ellis Pownell has purchased a new

John K. Rockey has thrown away his pipe and says he is going to smoke cigars for a change. Wonder why?

Claud Poorman, of Runville, was seen here on Saturday evening; there must be some attraction.

Mrs. Rachel Butler has a petition for the post office of this place.

Mrs. Abram Thomas was called away Bast Friday at 5 o'clock; cause of death being old age. Interment in the Union semetery on Sunday. While at a party one evening cleaning off grounds for a school picnic, Miss Lucy Cline met with a bad accident in the way of cutting her foot, but we hope for her speedy recovery.

One of our fair damsels seems to be enjoying herself with another girl's parcridge, while others are looking up corre- away on a wedding trip to Clearfield. sponding papers.

to be enjoying themselves while there are others that are not. Miss Maud Poorman, of Holt's Hollow. was the guest of Wm. T. Fetzer on Sun- tended the show Tuesday at Bellefonte,

Our term of summer school closes on Friday the 28th. The school mistress a divorce. has arranged for a picnic the day fol-

To Cure a Cold in One Day.

BEAU HIS.

Take Laxative Bromo Quinine Tablets. All druggists refund the money if it fails to cure. E. W. Grove's signature is on each box. 25c.

Walker.

Mrs. Mary Confer and daughter, of near Howard, visited her sister, Mrs. Al. Pifer, last week. Walter Yearick and Miss Olive Pifer attended the children's services at How-

N. H. Yearick visited his friend, Mr. Biddle, of Lewisburg. Miss Lottie Yearick attended the Children's meeting at Howard and visited her friend, Lottie Zeigler. Mrs. Barbara Condo visited at Eagle-ville last week. Mr. and Mrs. Shaffer and child, of Madisonburg, and Ed. Peck and family, of Nittany, visited their father, Henry

Mrs. Clara Smith and two daughters, Hanna and Mrs. Shindle, and their two children, of Berwick, Pa., visited ber sister, Mrs. Alvin Pifer.

Geo. Aley, of Kane, returned home from a two weeks' visit at his grand father's, Samuel Aley, of this place.

Theo. B. Hoy attended the Bucknell University commencement at Lewisburg, visited at Sunbury, Montandon, Northumberland and other places of interest too numerous to mention. He arrived home on Thursday evening of last week on his bike, having covered the distance of 54 miles in 5 40 hours. He reports having enjoyed his trip.

Misses Gertrude and Rosa Kling attended the State College commencement. Miss Kate Condo visited at Eagleville last week.

Z. W. Hoy had the misfortune to lose one of his horses by choking on oats. Mr. and Mrs. Joel Kling visited their son Calvin and wife, of Eagleville, on Saturday. On Saturday evening about 63 friends and neighbors were invited to the hospitable home of Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Glossner to spend the evening. Music, ice cream, cake, etc., were on the pro-Mrs. Katharine Hoy has returned from Coalport where she visited her daughter, Born Saturday, June 22nd, to Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Betz, a son.

Mr. and Mrs. Lowery spent Monday visiting friends above Bellefonte.

Kreamerville.

Our merchant, Wesley J. Hackenberg, says he has the boss horseshoe pitcher the graduating class; he graduated with in the person of that stranger that came to board at his place one day last week.

Wes wears a great big smile ever since. It is customary in all places where civilization is known, and common sense belongs landed in San Francisco some is practiced, that when people are passing on the side walk, those who stand on the same, should at least reverence the enough space to pass them without being compelled to take a circle in order to

> Henry Smull is making the side wall for the new iron bridge which will soon be built across Elk creek.

S. W. Waite, of near Bellefonte, and who has in his care the Angora goats owned by Fred Reynolds was home to see his parents over Sunday. Soon we will hear the click of the busy

L. A. Miller has informed us that he

for the coming term. If money was as plenty as potato bugs

Linu Emerick has secured a school for the coming term, south of Spring Mills. John Styers and S. A. Walizer were to Millheim Sunday evening to attend the Children's day services in the M. E. church there.

Julian.

James E. Dav's, breakman, of Altoona yard, spent Sunday with his parents. David McMonigal spent Sunday with his uncle, Samuel Boyer, of this place.

A. R. Richards spent a day this week with his brother at Jersey Shore. Ouite a number of our young people attended children's services last Sunday evening at Martha. The exercises were

Dr. Irvin is improving his residence very much by having a fine porch built around his whole house.

The hail storm last week did considerable damage in our town, breaking nearwere pleasant callers at Wm. Eckley's ly all the glass in all windows that were exposed to the west side.

Do you want a good second-hand Rockey's was well attended; in spite of organ? If so call on Walter G. Tallhelm & Son; also agents for the celebrated Miller Organ Co., of Lebanon, Pa.

On and after this date Messrs. Ellar & Williams will charge $3.00 per thousand for all custom work, and terms will be strictly cash.

Services in the M. E. church on Sunday morning at 10:30. All are invited. Don't forget the festival to be held at this place, July 4, 5 and 6 on the United Breathern church ground. Ice cream, cake and fruits will be served. Proceeds for pastor's salary. Turn out everybody, Runville.

The raius did considerable damage to the corn fields in this community, and also washed part of lack's potato patch away.

Mrs. Eller Freil, who has been at Wallaceton for the past three weeks, returned to her home at this place, on

Mrs. Rachael Taylor, who has been juite ill, is some better at this writing. Frank Taylor, of Emporium, is visit-ng at Elias Hancock's. Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Hummel went of Morgan M. Lucas, and Mrs. Mary Witherite, late deceased. Quite a number from this place at-among whom was Jack Heaton, who was compelled to go to the show or grant Mrs. Eliza Walker and daughter are visiting relatives at Flemington. Mrs. Mollie Poorman visited her nucle, their dress skirt. Wm. Resides, at Lock Haven, a few Cyrus Lucas started on Saturday to guests with his sister, Mrs. Klinefelter, at Potters Mills, on Sunday. days last week. visit relatives in New York state and attend the Pan-American.

Rebersburg.

Mrs. Annie Zeigler is now convalescent from a recent illness.

Reuben Musser lost a valuable cow Merchant Hackenberg, of Kreamerville, rejoices over the arrival of a son. Mrs. J. W. Cole was confined to the house several days.

Orvis Walker, of Oil City, is visiting

Mrs. Allen Ulrich, of Kokomo, Ind , spent a week with her daughter, Mrs. C. B. Harman. Prof. James W. Bright, one of the faculty at Johns Hopkins university, Baltimore, is the guest of his brother, Dr. W. Bright Mrs. Sallie Brungart had been quite Charles Brungart, while riding his bicycle was thrown headlong from his wheel. His head was bruised and one side of his face badly skinned.

Prof. H E. Bierly, instructor at Tallahassee (Florida) seminary, returned home last Saturday to spend his vaca-

Fair weather and promising crops are all the talk in this community.

It is indeed delightful when a can look in every direction and behold God's goodness extended to us. At this writing Harvey Corman is on den Hall saw mill.

A runaway occurred on last Saturday morning at the west end of town. While Miss Kate Bair, Mrs. Geo Bair and sister were on their way to Millheim, the horse suddenly took fright and became unman-The ladies were thrown out and hurt, and to our knowledge, not very seriously; the wagon was upset and demolished. John Moyer, our enterprising farmer and teacher, has built an addition to his barn. In the words of the rich man "I will tear down and build bigger.'

Jonathan Spangler has put part new toof on his barn. R. D. Bierly, our up-to-date mechanic, s also ready to build first class steel wire fence at prices heretofore unknown. Farmers, consult Mr. Bierly before building new fence. We are glad to have the smiling face of our friend O. C. Frank, a student at Selinsgrove University, in our town. We understand that Bruce Norris, one of our promising young men, has succeed ed in getting the tutorship of St. Paul school, Haines township. J. C. Norris is busy in the book business. He represents a good company, and directors desiring to adopt new books would do wisely by allowing Mr. Norris to present his books for inspection. Those desiring to spend an hour profitably are cordially invited to attend passers so much as to let them have Luther League, held in St. Peters Lutheran church Sunday 6:30 p. m. All are invited as it is Christs work, Rev. Harmon, of the Lutheran church, gave us a very able and to the point sermon, on Sunday evening. was especially for the young, and we trust both young and old appreciated it. The foundation for the iron bridge south of Rebersburg is finished West Rebersburg is in the front in the line of newly painted houses. One of the saddest events of our town for many years was the funeral of Freddie Guiswite, child of Mary Hartman, which took place Sunday afternoon at Rev. Harmon The services were conducted at the house of Edwin Gramley. The remains were buried in the Union cemetery, at this place. Freddie Guiswite, the deceased, was 4 years 1 month, 14 days old. He and his mother were staying at a saw mill in the mountain beyond Loganton; while staying there the little child went with the men to the mill to spend a little time with the men packing shingles, but becoming tired told the men he was going to mama, but as he stayed out a long time his mother began searching for him, and not succeeding in finding him the men assisted her, when to their great surprise they found the little one in the mill pond. All efforts to bring life back proved useless. The dear one was cold Moshannon.

Fount Lucas is suffering with a very sore hand, the result of a wreck on the railroad at Gillintown.

visited friends in this place during the of which Reuben is the leader, Mrs. Col-

Galer Morrison, of Bellefonte, made a business trip to our town last week. During the heavy storm on last Saturday evening the house of A. G. Bowes was struck by lightning, the occupants were stunned for a while, otherwise the damage was slight.

The Normal students, from this place, have all returned home for their vaca-

Miss Marie Matley, of Philipsburg, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Chas. Williams, at this place.

A birthday party was held at the home of J. B. Martin, on last Thursday, for their daughter Malvina; the day was delightful and all enjoyed themselves very much.

H. Z. Bierly was visited by his sister, a few days last week.

To Our Correspondents.

As no paper will be issued from this office next week it will be well for all our correspondents to make note of the fact, and not send in their customary er on Sunday afternoon. news items. The next issue of the paper will be July 11, for which issue we will be glad to receive a crisp and newsy letter from each of our correspondents. There are a number of towns in the Memorial service was held at this county from which we have no regular J. B. Rockey and his lady friend seem place on Sunday afternoon, in memory correspondents and would like to have some bright and active young person gather up the news each week for us.

Sober.

Mrs. Bertha Sult returned home to Snoke town on Thursday.

Boys you must not be so mean when the girls come to make a call as to hide Mr. and Mrs. U. G. Auman were the

There wasn't many people seen going to the show at Bellefonte.

Linden Hall.

Mrs. Uhl, of Pleasant Gap, visited at the home of Henry Zeigler and tamily, last Sunday

Mrs. Keturah Herman left for Philipsburg, on Monday, where her husband is engaged in the mercantile trade, and where they expect to reside in the future. Miss Cora McClintic, of Rebersburg, spent a few days of this week with her

Wm. Hess, of Boalsburg, and Miss Ella Messinger, of State College, were seen in town on Sunday.

Mrs. J. S. Boal, of Centre Hall, visited among her friends and former associates of this place, during last week.

Miss Pearl Viehdorfer, of Pine Glenn and sister, Lida, of Bellefonte, visited a few days recently with Wm. Brooks and family.

Mrs. Verna Kline, of Kansas, was the guest of Mrs. J. W. Keller last week. Mrs. Wash. Campbell returned home last week from a visit to her daughter, Mrs. Prof. Stine, of Annville.

Albert Meyer, son of Jacob Meyer, fell from a shed roof last Wednesday and broke his arm near the shoulder. Dr. Kidder, of Boalsburg, attended to the wound and he is getting along fairly

Mr. Doyle spent part of last week with his son Charles, who is boss on the Lin-

Miss Edna Shock, a bright and beau-tiful young lady, of Huntingdon, is the guest of her friend, Miss Freda Hess, of this place.

Mrs. Sadie Stine and daughter, of Annville, are the guests of her mother, Mrs. Wash. Campbell, of this place. Miss Appa Corl and mother, of Pleas-and family last week. Miss Lillie Stump, of Centre Hall, visited her friends in this community ant Gap, were the guest of Robt. Corl during last week. Mr. and Mrs. Heinebach, of Beavertown, visited at the home of their son inaw, Mi. Crissman, a few days, returning home on Monday. George L. Potter, of Bellefonte, was looking after the interests of his farm here, during last week.

Miss Sarah Wieland and Mrs. Heims, of Osceola, are guests at the Daniel Hess residence. Mr. and Mrs. Jonathan Tressler attended the funeral of Mrs. Tressler's uncle, Daniel Weaver, of Spring Mills, on Thursday. C. S. Carus, representative for the North American, was in town last week, looking after the interests of that valu-

As we promised to tell the readers of the Centre Democrat about the picnic held east of town by the young people of this and surrounding towns, if we survived it, we feel bound to keep our promise, as we were not overcome by it. The chief attraction was the big rock which was by many viewed for the first After viewing the rock a spot was selected, the hampers gathered together and a table prepared with the choice viands of the season, fit to tempt the gods, and to which all did ample justice, especially Harry, who had to be tied with a buggy spread and G. H., who had to be taken away from the table by sympathizing friends. But, speaking the truth, and nothing but the truth, we cannot help but say it was the finest "lay out" the scribe ever saw at a picnic, and such a one as only the fair damsels of Linden Hall and surrou know how to prepare. We could not, in justice to all, name all the prominent persons from a distance, they were from Pleasant Gap, Centre Hall, Oak Hall, oalsburg, Branch and Huntingdon. A great many of those invited could not be present but those who were unite in thanking the committee for the good time they had. The ice cream turnished by one of the party was greatly enjoyed by Colyer.

Taking everything into consideration it was one of the grandest picnics in the history of Linden Hall, and we hope with many others that it may not be the G. R. Meiss on the evening of 4th July will give a grand display of fire works; ice cream and etc., will be served; the Colyer band will furnish the music. Tuesday evening of last week Mr. Renben Colver and family gave a ban-J. H. Wagner and family, of Howard, quet in honor of the Colyer Mills band yer serving the many guests with cake, lemonade, ice cream and etc., their mountain home was certanly a beautiful scenery, being all illuminated with torch es and lamps; ten buggies besides the band were present. 2 rows insertion, ruffled sleeves, worth 75c Roy Burns, a handsome and enterprising young man from Pittsburg, visited his sister, Mrs. Reuben Colyer.

Miss Cora Houtz left on Sunday to spend some time with her mother at Pleasant Gap.

Miss Emma Swartz, of Tusseyville, spent Saturday afternoon with her chum friend, Miss Blanche Housman.

Mrs. Alfred Reiber, from Centre Hall, spent last week at the home of Wm Reiber and family. Miss Mary Moyer visited her lady friend Miss Blanche Housman on Monday afternoon. Among the sick of Fruit Town are Mrs. Wm Meyer and Mrs. Wm. Ripka; both are improving.

Emanuel Smith and daughter, of Potters Mills, and Miss Blanche Moyer were guests at the residence of Henry Moy-Wm. Moyer had quite an experience one day last week; some one having turned on the steam on his engine; Wm. hastened to close the steam valve, being frightened half to death, run down through the woods loosing hat and jacket. Miss Carrie Bodtorf spent Wednesday afternoon of last week with her chum lady friend Miss Mary Mevers.]. H. Moyer and daughter Blanche, accompanied Miss Annie Renninger to inch lace ; regular $1 value 89c the station at Centre Hall. Mr. and Mrs. James Wert and son Spurr, from above Tusseyville, returned from Illinois one day last week and report having a pleasant trip. Everybody seems to be picking strawberries at G. R. Meisse's. If you want a good time come to G. R.

Meiss' on the evening of the 4th July to see the grand display of fire works. Among the pleasant visitors at the mansion of J. A. Moyer over Sunday Allegheny Street.

were as follows: Miss Annie Renninger, of Spring Mills; Mr. and Mrs Luther Bower and daughters Dorthay and Edna of Aaronsburg; Mr. and Mrs. John A Wolfe, of State College; Mrs. Mary A Smith and daughter Miss Ella, of Spring Mills; and Mr. Emanuel Smith and daughter Mona, Potters Mills; everybody having a pleasant and enjoyable ed her for a few days' visit.

Mr. John Boone, from sunny side of Linden Hall, is making arrangements to furnish next year's fire wood for Mrs | with heart trouble.

Miss Blanche Housman was im Saturday was a success both in attendproving last week, but at this writing is lance and in a financial way.

Oak Hall.

back in bed again.

is visiting her parents.

Mrs. Rishel, of Boalsburg, spent Friday with her sons, Wm. and J. N., in our the mason work. town.

Misses Anna Kaup and Anna Dale visited Miss Bertha Armstrong at Potters Bank on Saturday.

Miss Mary Barnhart, of Williamsport,

Mrs. Harry Kaup and son, of Pittsburg, spent several days at the home of Mrs. Wm. Kaup. Miss Anna Holter, of Howard, is at present a guest at the same place. Miss Sue Wilson and John Dermar visited at the home of Harry Burns, on

Miss Mabel Brown, of Boalsburg, visit- on last Saturday afternoon, by a score of ed her sister, Mrs. Loyd Worrel, recently. 7 to 5. Misses Izora Rupp and Blanch Tressler, of Boalsburg, visited among friends in town on Sunday.

B. F. Homan spent several days last week with friends in Altoona. Mr. and Mrs. Clement Dale, of Houserville, spent Sunday with the former's parents Chas. Klinger, wife and children, of Lemont, Miss Hunter and Miss Carrie Homan, of State College, were Sunday isitors at the home of Jacob Klinger.

Mrs. Edwin Smith is entertaining her niece, Miss Maud Lee, of Bellefonte. A few of the young folks of our town attended the picnic on Nittany mountain, Harnish, were to the Allegheny moun-

Mrs. Brungart and Mrs. Shaffer, of Zion, were pleasant visitors in town last

Miss Nellie Holter recently entertained her friend, Miss Claudia Weiland, of Boalsburg. Miss Edna Bailey, of Altoona, is spend-

Mr. and Mrs. John Kline. James Peters and family, of Shingletown, spent Sunday at the home of E.

The Misses Dale visited at Rock

ing the summer with her grandparents,

Springs and Pine Grove last week. Loganton.

John Brungard has taken a contract to peel two hundred cords of hemlock bark for T. R. Harter, on Breon's tract of timber near Greene's gap. He will employ eight or ten spudders.

Milton Royer attached a new 30-horse power engine to his saw mill west of Hoppleton on Monday. William Meyer, recently a resident of started a poultry farm.

The Citizen's band, of this place, will hold a festival on Saturday evening next Berks county has purchased a home and on the lawn in front of the residence of several acres of land at Tylersville and

Correspondents continued on page 4.

Loganton.

Sallie Gephart, wife of Philip Gephart, isq., of Bellefonte, who had been visiting at her mother's for a few days returned to her home in Bellefonte Monday.

Her mother, Sarah Karsteter, accompaniwith heart and stomach trouble.

B. Barner is seriously ill at his home

John Boone is again confined to his bed

The band festival at Greenburr on

J. L. Boone is making some needed improvements to his barn on the farm near

Logan Mills. Miles Breon and William

Frankenberger are doing the carpenter work and Michael Greninger is doing

Rev. Russel Barringer, of Sharon

prings, N. Y., will preach at Pleasant

Hill on Sunday afternoon, at Booneville

Sunday morning, at Tylersville Sunday afternoon, and at Loganton Sunday even-

ng. He comes with the view of becom-

Mingoville.

There were thirteen guests at the club

The Hecla Athletic Club defeated

John White, of this place, has bought

M. M. Zong started on last Friday morning with horse and rig for Juniata county, to visit his brother; he expects

The Hecla Athletic club expects to ross bats with Howard team on Satur-

The Hecla South Union Sunday school

Shuman Zimmerman, Wm. Zimmerman, Harry Johnstonbaugh and Bob tains fishing last week; they returned home on Sunday night with about one Aaronsburg.

Messrs. Deitrich and Harshberger, of Hecla Park, and Bruce Morris, of Rebersburg, spent Sunday with Will Mingle and also called on some of our young

Mrs. William Harter, aged 86 years, ent to Bellefonte, Saturday, to spend a

A Mrs. Hall and children, accompanied by the lady's mother, all of Pittsburg, are here for a few weeks and are board-

J. C. Meyer and wife, of Bellefonte, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. McCalmont, of State College, spent Sunday in town, the guests of L. E. Stover and wife.

They came down by carriage in the morning and returned in the evening.

few weeks with her son and daughter.

Thos. Harter and Mrs. Fred Kurtz.

ing at the Bower House.

will hold their annual election of officers on next Sunday; let there be a good the J. D. Miller farm east of Hublers-urg, from John Hoy, Jr., for $4300.

be gone about ten days.

lay at Howard.

hundred trout.

ladies.

Bellefonte Star club at base ball at Hecla house on Saturday and Sunday.

ing pastor of the charge.

E GLOBE

DRY GOODS, MILLINERY & CARPETS.

Special Summer Muslin Underwear Sale.

Plain Musliu Gown, felled GOWNS seams, yoke edged with dust ruffle, trimmed with tucks and 4 hemstitched ruffle......45c

MUSLIN GOWN, made with large lace reveres, sleeves edged with lace to match lace230

MUSLIN GOWN, yoke trimmed with

Muslin Skirt, cluster tucks SKIPTS around bottom 350

MUSLIN SKIRT, cambric dust ruffle and outer ruffle trimmed with cluster tucks, lace insertion and edged with 2

MUSLIN SKIRT, lace trimmed, wide

MUSLIN SKIRT, cambric ruffle and inch embroidery890

Drawers open or closed, edged MUSLIN DRAWERS, edged with inch

Plain Muslin Drawers,

Cover, round

MUSLIN CORSET COVER, V neck, trimmed with wide lace or embroidery . .

MUSLIN CORSET COVER, French pattern, full bust, neck and sleeves trimmed

KATZ & 60., Ltd.,

BELLEFONTE, PA.