CORRESPONDENTS' DEPARTMENT

Happenings About Centre County Briefly told by

A CORPS OF ABLE WRITERS

Our Alert Correspondents Note Many the marriage, on the 24th of July. Important Events in Different Lo-Your Section Represented?

Boalsburg.

Herse Woomer, of Wilkesbarre, is at present spending a few days with his mother

Ed. Lucas, who has been working for Dr. Kent, of Linden Hall, moved his family back to our town on last Thurs-

Mr. Krug, one of the editors of the College Times, was in town on Tuesday looking up his interest.

We are yery much pleased with the description the Linden Hall correspondent gave of himself. It could not have been better.

Clair Stamm, of Linden Hall, was seen in our town on Friday.

WANTED-Some person that will tell us who Monk's girl was on Thursday night, 18th.

The steam thresher is once more heard in our midst. The wheat crop is good on most of the farms. The oats looks very well. The corn crop will be fine if the wet weather continues. L. Mothers-baugh threshed 104 bushels of rye from 5 acres. S. H. Bailey and S. E. Weber had the prize fields of wheat this year.

Chas. Corl and wife, spent several days recently among friends in Pleasant Gap. C. E. Weiland and R. B. Harrison, attended the festival at Pleasant Gap, on Saturday eve.

Miss Katie Musser, of Bellefonte, ac-companied by the Misses Rhinesmith, of Clearfield, spent Monday at the home of L. Mothersbaugh.

Rev. Knaffenberger, president of the Allentown college for ladies, was in town on Monday.

Miss Lucy Keller, of Philadelphia, arrived on Friday, for a few weeks' visit among her many friends in this place. Jessie Pifer, of Pine Grove, spent Sunday at the Reformed parsonage.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Meyers, of Roopsburg, spent Sunday with his mother in this place. Robert Mc'rea, of Pittsburg, is at pres ent visiting at the home of his father-in-Taw, S. H. Bailey. Mrs. Andy Lytle and daughter, Nell, recently called at the home of her father, Harry Miller. Misses Helen Meyer, Sadie Meyer, Margaretta Goheen, Ella Segner, Katie Meyer, Valarie and Lizzie Gettig and Nannie Bailey, accompanied by Messrs. Geo. Fortney, Chas. Shirk, Geo. Hosterman, John Gingerich, Wm. Mothers-baugh, Harry Ishler, Geo Gettig and D. Mothersbaugh, composed a merry party that spent last Saturday at Penn Cave. supper on top of the mountain above hundred dollars. Centre Hall and went down to Pleasant Gap for the festival that evening.

Potter Township.

Farmers are about done haymaking and harvesting; oats is next in order. Berries are abundant in the seven mountain.

James B. Strohm is still sore from the broken ribs sustained by falling from a load of bay in the barn.

John Slack purchased the 25 acre tract of timber land belonging to the Stiver estate, at $150.

W. E. Spangler, of Chicago, Ill., arrived at the home of his father, W. W. Spangler, where his wife and children arrived some time ago. He will visit his day. old stamping ground in and near Potters J.

bank, before returning. The Sam'l Stiver farm was bid up to $1870 by Wm. Bower, but was not knocked off at the sale.

Hav is selling at $7 to $8 per two-horse

Mrs. Schank, her three sons, and sisters, of Howard, and Mrs. Smith, of Bellefonte, spent several days with relatives in this place.

Miss Kate Hewes, of Bellefonte, is visiting her aunts, Mrs. Nancy and Jane Pierce.

Rock Springs.

Mrs. Charles Miller, whose life was dispaired of last week, is better.

Jacob Keller has the contract for building the new double school house-his bid being $1300.

While farmer C. B. Hess of this place was mowing his team became unmanagable and ran away, throwing him off. Mr. Hess was not hurt but the mower was a complete wreck.

On Tuesday evening 23rd an electric storm, accompanied with hail, passed over this section doing considerable damage in washing out roads and newly plowed fields. Lightning struck the Martha Stocker barn which splintered some of the timbers and weather board-Charles Behrer's barn, a few miles west of here, was struck and torn to pieces. The roof was carried away leavinp the barn a wreck. Pierce Geist was cutting wheat with a binder when lightning struck the binder, on which a boy was managing the machine and his little sister was riding the leader. Both children were stunned, but not seriously.

A Cure for Infantam.

"Last May," says Mrs. Curtis Baker, of Bookwalter, O., "an infant child of our neighbor's was suffering from cholera in-The doctor had given up all fantum. hopes of recovery. I took a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy to the house telling them I felt sure it would do good if used according to directions. In two days' time the child had fully recovered, and is now (nearly a year since) a vigorous, healthy girl. I have recommended this Remedy requently and have never known it to fail in any single instance." For sale by Green's Pharmacy.

Milesburg.

The M. E. S. School will hold a festival August 10th, to raise an organ fund for a new organ for the use of the church. All are invited to be present to help a good cause along.

Frank Baird and family, of Philipsburg, are visiting their parents at this

Charles Ginter and Miss Elizabeth McKinley were married by Rev. P. A. Smith; 58 guests were present to witness Clayton Poorman, of Tyrone, visited calities-What is Transpiring-Is his mother, Mrs. George Taylor recently. Jacob Hahn, an old citizen of our burg but now of Philadelphia, transacted business in this place on last Friday.

Miss Maro Armstrong, of Mill Hall, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Wm. B. Graff-

Byers Price passed away on Wednesday, was buried in the soldiers' lot in the new cemetery, on Friday forenoon. Mr. Thomas, of Nebraska, is a guest of his cousin, Wm. B. Thomas, John E. Austing and wife, of Lancaster city, are visiting his brother, Edgar and family.

Mrs. Rev. Wharton is suffering from rheumatism of the heart and stomach; she has been confined to her bed for some

O. U. A. M. festival held on Saturday was a grand success, receipts of evening it is said were $100, just what the net receipts are, did not learn.

John Kline and Clarence Flick left on Saturday for Trenton, N. J. to work in the chain works.

Monday for Trenton, N. J., to work in the chain works.

On Friday morning a heavy storm pas-sed over us; a thunderbolt struck Charles Peter's chimney, knocking the top off, stunning him, the lightning running along James McMullin's wire clothes line from the barn to the house, knocking the paper from the wall and chattering his cubboard; at the same time Brose Swartz was in his stable attending to his horse the bolt knocked him down, his wife in the house getting breakfast was also stunned. After her recovery she went to the stable to see about her husband, when she reached the stable he was getting up; the horse was very excitable over the affair. Mr. Swartz made a narrow escape of not being tramped to death by the horse.

Penn Hall.

On Sunday evening Harry F. Mc-Manaway and Miss Blanche Meyer were pronounced "man and wife" by Rev. W. F. Brown at the Reformed parsonage at Aaronsburg. The bride is a daughter of Jacob S. Meyer, and is a fine lady with excellent qualities. The groom is a sober and industrious young man holding a lucrative position with Shaffer & Son, Bellefonte. The writer wishes them a long happy and prosperous life.

The Misses Nellie and Carrie Weaver, day evening. of Aaronsbug, were guests at the home of W. C. Meyer, over Sunday.

Crist Keller, of Centre Hall, was the guest at the home of F. M. Fisher, on Sunday.

The festival held by the Penn Hall Band on Saturday evening was a grand They spent the greater part of the day at success, being very largely attended the Cave, coming home they ate their and the proceeds amounting to over a Wood Mark and family are visiting at Henry Mark's north of town at present.

Present indications are for an enormous corn crop through our section. Henry Zeigler and wife, of Linden Hall, were guests at the home of his brother, D. W. Zeigler on Sunday. The whortleberry crop is a large one on Brush mountain this season. Samuel Ulrick expects to buy a car load of horses for the eastern market in the near future. F. K. Frank recently accepted the complete restoration. position as clerk in J. B. Fisher's Sons umber operation east of town, on Mon-

J. C. Condo, our up-to-date carriage maker, delivered a new buggy to Logan. rain.

ton on Monday.

Penn Township.

E. H. Zimmerman has contracted to ship and Centre Hall. saw about 10,000,000 feet of lumber in Westmoreland county. He has two mills took Monday morning's train for a visit in operation.

O. W. Reichley, of Snyder county, a been elected principal of the public schools at Coburn.

On Monday evening, during the thunder storm, a limb was torn off a willow Stover, in Penn township and struck one of Mr. Stover's most valuable cows and hurt it so badly that she had to be killed.

William Hosterman, with his wife and children, is paying his father, Daniel Hosterman, of Penn township, a visit. He left for the west eight years ago and settled in Crawford county, Ohio, and was married there. After living in Ohio seven years, he moved to Fort Wayne, Indiana, where he now lives. He is employed in the train dispatcher's office of the P., F. W. and C. Railway, but his health demanded a vacation.-Journal. Word was received by Capt. Jacob Eisenbuth, that his son W. H. B. Eisenhuth, of Carrington, N. D., was very sick and not expected to recover.

Fowler.

Amos Copenhaver left for Windber where he has secured a position. Samuel Weaver, who has been railroad foreman at Lemont for the past fifteen years, has resigned his position at that lace and will take charge of his father's farm here.

Elmer Henderson bought his father's interest in the old homestead. He is about to take unto himself a "better half" and go to farming.

The festival and box social held at Mt. Pleasant proved quite a success. At the meeting of the school board of Taylor township the following teachers were elected for the winter term : Pisher, Miss Lizzie Hoover, Miss Fannie Sharer, Scott Crain and Samuel Conrad.

To Cure a Cold in One Day.

Take Laxative Bromo Quinine Tablets All druggists refund the money if it fails to cure. E. W. Grove's signature is on each box. 25c.

Woodward.

The rain last Friday caused a change in the atmosphere. The sultry breezes of last week had been broken and on Saturday the weather was cool and again prevailed.

J. C. Morris, the representative of the American Book Company, called on our teachers last week. A school board would run no chances by adopting the books he represents, for they are em-phatically indorsed by some of the most enlightened men of the state.

Dr. Ard and wife, formerly of this place, but now of New Columbia, were the guests of W. W. Eby's over Sunday. They departed for Coburn where they continued their visit among friends and

The P. O. S. of A. festival held at this place last Saturday was well attended and proved a success. John Eby and little daughter Mary, of Zion, visited friends and relatives in this community. This town was considerably enlivened after the arrival of a merry-go round last Thursday. Both young and old availed themselves of the opportunity to Calvin Eby departed for Maryland where he has accepted a position as again. operator. His many friends miss him very much. Miss Maud Ard, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Ard of New Columbia, was the guest of the Misses Lyda and Gertrude Yearick. Bellefonte, is doing a rushing business in ably be a much better or larger crop John Sullivan and Harry Baily left on this section. If you wish to purchase a than the early ones.

good organ or piano call on him, for he handles nothing but the best. Mrs. Theodore Hosterman was the guest of C. W. Hosterman over Sunday. Chas. Burd and wife, of Bellefonte, were visiting friends here last week. Among those who attended the picnic and festival last Saturday were, Harry Herb and Mr. Beck, from Wolfs Store Messrs McCaleb and Gates, from Nittany Julian.

The festival was well attended and over $50 were taken in.

Miles Kepheart is the guest of C. H. Kepheart at this writing.

Dave Stiner is among his Fillmore friends again. Miss Rose Hoover spent a few days at that he may recover.

Pleasant Gap, recently. Miss Mabel Norris was elected to teach the Sellers school, at the school meeting ast Saturday.

Henry Knox is home from Ohio visiting his parents and friends. Miss Bess Green is seriously ill and is under the care of Dr. Dale. Dillen, and his friend, Mr. Meyers of Julian, attended the festival last Satur-

Master Willie Witmer is ill, but we hope he will soon be well again.

John Rockey, Sr., was broken into and valley, since the good times before the badly rummaged, but nothing was taken. The family was all away from home during the evening and was quite sur- ville, is the first in that section to finish prised on coming home to find the house threshing wheat. His crop averaged in such a torn up condition.

Mrs. Heaton is visiting her Harry Chaney and family, of Port Ma H. Hoover.

Centre Hall.

C. H. Murray, recently returned from his two years' stay at Colorado Springs, is showing evidence of improving health which it is to be hoped will end with a

We have been favored with an abundance of rain in this section of the coun-Meyer Bros., of Coburn, resumed their ty, this summer so far; in fact we could have spared some to our unfortunate friends in the middle west who are suffering with live stock and crops for want of

Prof. S. L. Stiver has returned to Bunker Hill, Ill., not having perfected a sale of all the real estate belonging to the Samuel Stiver estate in Potter town-

D. R. Foreman and Mrs. Foreman, to Bellefonte and other parts.

Sumner Hosterman, whose law shingle graduate of Bucknell university, has hangs out in Lancaster, being here on a visit to his parents, attended a large family re-union of the Hosterman-Sholl connection on Saturday, at Wolfs Store, where he had an opportunity to shake tree on the farm occupied by Alfred hands with the almost entire freundschaft.

Spring Mills.

The trout season ends to-day, small catches now be law sporting citizens, put away your rod and line till the next sea-

A man's christianity has to stand ous and valuable presents. pretty severe trial when he steps on a banana skin.

John Horner, of Johnstown, is visiting here with his many friends.

Hon. Wm. Allison's coal yard has been visited several nights in the past couple week's for laying in winter supplies of coal; is it not rather early to begin to carry coal? But it goes slow with a bag; now travel slow, the widow Stops the Cough and W who lives close by the yard knows you.

In bed we laugh, in bed we cry. In bed we're born, in bed we die; To sleep well, live well, die well, Buy good beds, Smith Bros. have them.

The young people of this place had conlight party at the Sand spring. Andrew Corman bought the Zigler old homestead for $1300.

Elmer Blair moved his family to B. F. Kennedy has the stone hauled for a new house that will be built this fall yet.

Laxative Bromo-Quinine Tablets

Martha.

Mrs. Lizzie Reed, of Clearfield, Pa., is spending a few days with her mother, Mrs. Hannah Ardry.

Philip Spotts is suffering from a severe pleasant, but on Sunday a hot wave attack of neuralgia in his face and ugly cut by a mower.

Wilson Williams and daughter, Margaret, who have been quite ill, are rapidly recovering under the skillful treatment of Dr. S. U. Harshberger.

Mrs. Margaret Harpster is enjoying a visit from her father, J. P. Williams, of Philipsburg.

We are glad to see our competent and obliging ticket agent and telegrapher, W. E. Marks, at work again in the depot. During his vacation Mr. Marks visited friends in Atlantic City and spent some time at the Pan-American Exposition. He has lately accepted a position in Broad St. Station, Philadelphia. We regret to lose him.

Mrs. Bella Weaver and daughters, Edna and Margaret, of Altoona, have been with their friends in this place for several weeks.

'Tis said that one of Julian's handsome sons, calls on one of Martha's charming daughters. The many friends of Thompson Henry are glad to see him in the postoffice Orrie Williams, of Julian, came to Martha, Saturday, on business, concerning the Williams Reunion. W. A Hartsock, the famous peach grower of this section, can now supply the public with that delicious fruit. Mr M. C. Gephart, the organ dealer from H. says that the later variety will prob-

> D. I. Richard & Sons, carpenters and ontractors, are now at Blandburg, Pa. They are now erecting a dwelling house. The school directors, of Huston twp., are having a new school building placed at "Black Oak." J. C. Nason received the contract.

Sugar Valley.

H. B. Kleckner was numbered among the sick last week.

John Kemmerer made 52 loads of hay. H. G. Barner lost a valuable cow by death recently. It is presumed she ate laurel or some other poisonous herb while pasturing out on the mountain. There is no improvement in the condition of J. B Barner. There is little hope

Robert Sheats, the 13 year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. P. O. Sheats, died Saturday morning 20th at his home near Green Burr. Three years ago he was attacked with typhoid fever, from the effects of which he never fully recovered, and ever since he has been a patient invalid. Elmer Douty is planting his saw mill on George Breon's timber tract at Green's Our former school teacher, Frank gap. He has taken the contract to manufacture half a million feet of lumber for that gentleman. Mahlon Mattern will run the mill.

The farmers are busy early and late storing into their barn a bountiful wheat Last Saturday evening the home of harvest, the largest in the history of the twenty-six bushels to the acre. Mrs. Catharine Kleckner, one of the law, Mrs. William Heaton, of this place. oldest residents of Sugar Valley, and Frank Goss, Miss Sallie Hoover, D. O. widow of Robert Kleckner, died Thurs Downing and family, of Hannah, and day evening 25th at the residence of her son, H. B. Kleckner, at Loganton. She tilda, spent Sunday with their uncle, A. had been ill five weeks. She was 80 years and 6 months old. She is survived by one son, H. B., and two daughters, Mrs Rouch, of Mifflinburg, and Mrs. J.

J. A. Gummo, a farmer near Mackey-

M. Stover, of Booneville. Romola.

Misses Marietta Leban and Gertrade Roberts, of Altoona, were guests at the home of Peter Robb, the early part of this week In my last week's items I spoke of ohn Miller being so unfortunate. This week word comes to us that his eight-year old son, Wilson, cut his hand with an axe so as to almost sever four of his

W. B. Haines and wife, of Hunters Run, were the guests at the home of J. A. Daley, on Sunday.

Miss Mamie DeLong, one of our bright and comely school teachers, is visiting the home of her sister, Mrs. Rodman of State Run. This place was well represented at the festival, in Howard on Saturday evening; but so far we have not heard of any one going to sleep coming home, as hereto-

Miles Township

Roland Royer, wife and daughter, of Altoona, came to visit his sick mother, Mrs. Polly Royer. An agreeable and pleasant surprise was given Mrs. Geo. Wate on the evening of her birthday. Some thirty people took possession of their home during their absence and loaded the table with numer-

The picnic and festival to be held by the United Evangelical Sunday school, in Thaddeus Stover's woods, south of town, on Saturday, August 3, has been postponed until August 10.

Adam Grenniger is on the sick list. Mrs. Uriah Spangler from Newton, Kansas, is paying a visit to her parents, Stops the Cough and Works off the Cold. Laxative Bromo-Quinine Tablets cure a cold in one day. No Cure, no Pay. Price 25 cents.

Pan-American Exposition.

The Pennsylvania Railroad Company will run special excursions to Buffalo on account of the Pan-American Exposition, from Philadelphia and adjoining territory, on July 3, 9, 18, 23, 31, August 6, 15, 22, 27, September 5, 11, 27, and 26. Round-trip tickets, good going only on train leaving Philadelphia at 8.20 A. M., Williamsport 1.50 P. M., Lock Haven, 2.26 P. M., and on local trains connecting therewith, and good to return on regular trains within seven days, including day of excursion, will be sold at rate of $6.20 from Bellefonte and proportionate rates from other points. These tickets will not be be good in Pullman parlor or sleeping cars in either direction. For specific time and rates, consult local ticket agents.

Nittany.

On August the 18th Rev. W. K. Diehl will preach the annual Harvest Home Sermon in the Lutheran church.

Don't forget preaching in the Evangelical church next Sunday evening.

Some of our sports were to Howard and Jacksonville on Saturday night, there being festivals at the above named places. They report having had a fine

Quite a number of our young folks were to Tylersville, on Saturday, attending the P. O. S. of A. picnic Several of our sports didn't get home till Sunday morning; they must have had a fine We forgot to make mention, last week, of the birthday party given by Miss Edna Gunsalus on her sixth birthday.

Also a picnic given by Miss Mary Gunsalus to her Sunday school class. Both were enjoyed very much by the little folks. We are glad to have Miss Orpha Pletcher in our midst again, after spending ten weeks at Washington, D. C., with her uncle, C. F. Pletcher; also spending a short time in Philadelphia and Atlantic city. She reports having had a very enjoyable time while away. George McCauley and family, of Hublersburg, visited Perry Webner and famly, of this place, on Sunday. The members of the United Evangelical church will hold an ice cream festival on Saturday, August 10th, to raise money to liquidate the debt. They kindly ask your assistance and extend a hearty welcome to all. Miss Alma Pletcher and Miss Minnie Winkleman were visiting friends in Fillmore over Sunday.

A number of young people were to Penn Cave on Sunday and had an excellent time, as the day was beautiful. This week there has been quite a lot of oats cut through the valley. The wheat will be all stored away by Saturday.

John Bartley and family visited friends at Hublersburg over Sunday. S. Peck & Son put a new floor in their store. H. P. Zerby and wife visited friends in Penns valley over Sunday.

A heavy storm passed through here on Monday and did much damage to some of the corn, also blowing trees out of Just ask our post mistress if she was hungry on Monday evening when she got home from the buckleberry mountain. A carriage load of Bellefonte people took supper with the Messrs Peck, at the unction, on Saturday evening. Dan Diehl wears a broad smile since the arrival of a bouncing big boy. Dan says he will make a wood chopper and has come to stay. J. M. Rossman and son, of Clintondale, were callers at this place on Sunday. Unionville.

Dr. Eddie Russell has returned from gone to witness the Henly races. A number of our kindhearted citizens. mostly of the feminine persuasion, went to Julian on last Saturday with well filled baskets of toothsome provender, their object being to celebrate the 44th birthday anniversary of Mrs. Mills Alexan der. And, reported having had a grand time notwithstanding, Mills became a little nuruly, but the ladies took him in hand and hept him within proper bounds.

Walker, Esq , transacted business in our town on last Saturday. The republicans of the borough held their primary election on Saturday even-ing from 6 to 8 o'clock. Everything passed off quietly notwithstanding the factional contest was on as usual, but if you had seen the broad smiles adorning the faces of Howard Holtzworth and Joe Barton, anti Quayites, to ask them how it went would have been superfluous.

Sheriff Brungart and W. Harrison

The anniversary of the fourth birthday of little Miss Jennie Parsons was celebrated at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. B. Parsons. Nine sweet little tots were present and their pleasure and happiness knew no bounds; they were Margaret Brugger, Margaret McDonnell Elizabeth Musser, Beatrice Stere, Ruth Summers, Flora Brisbin, Mira Wagner and Ruth Parsons. Their revelings on the lawn were a pleasing sight. If nie could have made a speech, this is about what she would have said: "Bear little durls I'se so dlad you turn to cur house; we had such a dood time playen and eaten ice tream and tates. I'se four year old to day and if I live a nozzer year I'll be five year old den you must tum adain, but don't bring no boys along thay's so bad, they make us cry and fights with us durls all the time. I bet my papa was a dood boy wen he was ittle. So now I'll bid you dood night and hope you all had a dood time. She received quite a number of presents. Ice cream, cakes and other good things had been prepared for them and they enjoyed it all to their hearts' content. was a very pretty way of making little TELEPHONE CALLS: ones happy.

SEASHORE EXCURSION.

The Pennsylvania Railroad Company has arranged for three low-rate ten-day excursions for the present season from North Bend, Troy, Bellefonte, Williamsport, Sunbury, Shenandoah, Dauphin, and principal intermediate stations (including stations on branch roads), to Atlantic City, Cape May, Ocean City, Sea Isle City, Avalon, Anglesea, Wild-wood, or Holly Beach, on Thursday, August 8 and 22, and September 5, 1901. Excursion tickets, good to return by regular trains within ten days, will be sold at very low rates. Tickets to Atlantic City will be sold via the Delaware River Bridge, Route, the only all rail line, or via Market Street Wharf, Philadel-

Stop over can be had at Philadelphia, either going or returning, within limit of $5.50; Williamsport, $5,10; Lewisburg, than any other paper. $5.50; Williamsport, $5,10; Lewisburg, $4 60; Bellefonte, $5.85. Lemont, $5 60; Oak Hall, $5 60; Linden Hall, $5.35; Centre Hall, $5.35; Rising Springs, $4.85; Coburn, $4.85; Millmont, $4.60; Mifflinburg, $4.60. The above rate is via Delaware River Bridge, 10 cents less is charged via Market Street What? ed via Market Street Wharf. For fur-ther information see bills or local ticket the advertiser.

The state of the s Only 50 Cents to make your baby strong and well. A fifty cent bottle of Scott's Emulsion will change a sickly baby to a plump, romping child. Only one cent a day, think of it. Its as nice as cream. Send for a free sample, and try it. SCOTT & BOWNE, Chemists, 409-415 Pearl Street, New York. Soc. and $1.00; all druggists.

Date - Da - Dr. Da

Where Will The Balloon Go?

On every Saturday evening at 7.30, during the month of August, Yeager & Davis, the Shoe Men, will send up a balloon from the street in front of their popular shoe store, on High Street, Bellefonte, with a metal tag attached, which will store room, which was needed very much and adds to the appearance of the entitle the finder to a choice of any shoe in the store for not less than

$3.50

if presented within Five Days from time of start. The balloon must be allowed to rise his trip across the pond whither he had clear from all hindrance at least one hundred feet.

Come One, Come All.

Yeager & Davis

and see the balloon go up.

Successors to Powers Shoe Co.. Bush Arcade, Bellefonte Pa.

E. K. RHOADS

At his yard opposite the P. R. R. Passenger station, sells only the best qualities

ANTHRACITE

Also all kinds of

BITUMINOUS COALS.

Wood, Grain, Hay. Straw and Sand. Superior screenings for lime burning. Builder's and Plasterers' sand. 0000 Central No. 1312

Commercial - - - - No. 682 SURPRISING ...

It will be a surprise to many to know that at some post offices in this county more copies of THE CENTRE DEMOCRAT are re gularly delivered than the combined circulation of all the other county papers at the same place. It is a big statement and we could hardly believe it, but when told so by the postmasters who handle them, must be accepted. We don't claim this The rate from points in this part of the at all, but for some. At a great state will be as follows: Lock Haven, many others we have more readers

We take pleasure in showing our subscription list. It is a big one and we are naturally proud of it. And that is what brings results to