IN ADJOINING COUNTIES.

He was really glad to see it and it seemed glad to meet him again. After congratulations and two more letters added, "A. L." they separated. The Lutheran reunion of Blair and adjacent counties will be held at Lake-mount park, Friday, August 16th.

John McNaull, of Salona, after hitching up preparatory to taking a drive complained of being sick Friday afternoon. He went upstairs to lie down a few minutes, when he was stricken with paralysis, his right side being affected.

While a party of berry pickers were driving up the mountain near Cedar Run, Lycoming county, the tongue was pulled from the wagon and the vehicle started down the mountain at frightful speed.

Rev. Dr. C. W. Heisler, President of Susquehanna University, has tendered his resignation, and has accepted a call to a Lutheran congregation at Albany, N. Y.

W. O. Knapp's saw mill at Salona was destroyed by fire Monday afternoon. The roof was ignited by a spark from a smoke stack. The building and a compressed cider press, and all the lumber inside the mill were burned.

HARRY MILLER IN JAIL.

On Tuesday, Harry Miller, son of Frank, a 13-year old colored lad, of this place had an experience that was eventful in a short space of time and that he will likely remember. Monday evening, after Louis Irvin closed up the book store in the Reynolds building, this lad went to the rear of the building and by removing a fly screen was able to gain an entrance where he got hold of a cash box containing about $23 in change.

RECENT DEATHS.

MRS. HERMAN KRUSE:—formerly of this place, died Tuesday morning of cancer of the stomach, at the home of her sister, Mrs. Annie Dawson in Philadelphia. Mrs. MATHIEW McCULLERY:—died at her home on Thursday evening, August 1, in her 84th year. Mrs. JOHN FISH:—died at her home in Philipsburg Monday morning from quick consumption the result of a cold contracted last spring.

WHEAT REPORTS.

Any farmer in Centre county who is fortunate enough to have a yield of over 25 bushels of wheat to the acre this season is requested to report same to us for publication. In making the report kindly give the following information in connection: Nature or kind of soil; crop sown early or late? Was any special work done in preparing the soil? What fertilizers were used, barnyard or commercial, and the quantity? Name of seed wheat used and quantity to the acre?

Married.

At the M. E. church, Clarence, on July 28, 1901, by Rev. T. S. Faus, John Bugosh to Miss Dora Zimmerman, both of Clarence, Pa. At the home of the groom, on Aug. 6, 1901. Harry L. Sayers to Miss Katie Croft, of Yarnell. At the Lutheran parsonage Aug. 7, by Rev. Dr. H. C. Holloway, Franklin Beck and Hannah Lucas, both of Boiling Springs.

Camp Meeting at Pine.

The Gospel Workers camp meeting at Pine will open Saturday, August 10, to continue until Monday 19th. Upwards of 40 Gospel Workers in full uniform will be present and as the most of them will have strangled instruments the music will be fine. Public services will be held daily at 5:30, 9:30 and 10:30 a. m., 2, 3, 7 and 8 p. m. Meals will be served at the restaurant on the grounds for 25 cents or for $5 for the camp term.

Runville.

The farmers are about all through harvesting and are waiting for the threshers. Joseph Rodgers, wife and children, of Osceola, and Mrs. Love and daughter, of Colorado, are visiting at Mrs. Lydia Wilberite's. Mr. and Mrs. U. S. Flick and daughter Mabel, of Bellwood, visited Mrs. Flick's mother, Mrs. Ellen Friel, over Sunday.

Roland.

Mrs. Susan Straw, of Texas, and Miss Virginia Walker, of Philipsburg, were visitors at the home of Mrs. U. E. Curtin this week. Mrs. Robert Jacobs and Miss Helen, of Morrisdale, but formerly of this place, are visiting friends here. Mrs. Beon Williams departed on Tuesday for Philadelphia, where she expects to enter the Pennsylvania hospital to be treated for chronic rheumatism.

Tylersville.

The picnic last Saturday was well attended. The Rishel boys from Clintondale, were all smile on Saturday, if any one wonder why, just ask them whether they helped to eat the water melon. I should wonder why the Nittany sports did not get home till morning. The visitors at Tylersville during picnic week were Miss Dora Condo, Cieta Probst, Susie Melissa and Margret Miller, all of Lock Haven; Miss Rose and Edith Weaver, Sterling Miller, B. B. Miller, from Brush valley; Lyda Greeninger, from Loganton; Roy Miller and Raimen McClosky, from Nittany valley. Luther were you ever left? Huckleberries are not very plenty, but I guess some folks pick them from pine trees. Pearl and Edith say the Mill Hill sports are all right. Don't forget the festival to be held at Tylersville, in Bierley's grove, Saturday, Aug. 13. We hope there will be a good turnout. There is quite an excitement at this place at present, on account of a mad dog; but what you don't see there is a doubt about it. Clarence Miller and wife were the guests of his parents on Sunday. Quite a number of our young folks were to Bush meeting on Sunday, they report of having a fine time. Does the happy bachelor prove that troubles do not come singly?

National Glass Company's Exhibit Pan-American Exposition. The above Company, which operates twenty one plants, with main office at Pittsburgh, Pa. has erected a complete factory on the Pan-American Grounds and show all processes of manufacturing glass from the raw material to the finished product, varying in value from a few cents to hundreds of dollars for each piece. They also show processes of cutting, engraving, etching, decorating and spinning and weaving glass into cloth. Their exhibit a full size figure of Miss Maxine Elliott, the celebrated actress, draped with dress woven from glass, and furniture upholstered with glass cloth. Their exhibit is the only manufacturing exhibit on the grounds, and is really the educational feature of the Pan-American. *33
