Irvin Kline is now located on Market street with his repair shop ready to repair boots and shoes, also harness. He solicits your patronage; give him a call at Crider's building, known as the pool room

Malcolm and Ray Wright, of Phila-delphia, are visiting their former home in Milesburg.

Sam'l Butler, of Johnsonburg, is a guest of his sister, Mrs. Loveland.

Lyman Loveland returned to Lock Hayen after a brief visit with his family.

Misses Snyder, of Tyrone, after a pleasant visit with their aunt, Mrs. Geo. Austin, returned home to that place.

Sam'l McKinley and wife, of South Williamsport, are guests of his father, Joseph G. McKinley, at this writing.

On Friday, the 23rd, we had a heavy rain ; hail, loud peals of thunder, sharp lightning, and the creeks were wild.

Wm. A. Swyers and family, of Philadelphia, are guests of his parents.

Central City was flooded on Friday by the heavy storm. The depot, Kohlbecker's bar room and Mrs. Mary Crossmyre's dwelling was full of water. She was compelled to move out.

At Col. Jas. F. Weaver's place the railroad was in such a condition that the train at night retraced to Milesburg for the night and resumed its trip on Saturday morning.

Clayton Poorman and daughter, of Tyrone, were guests of his mother, Mrs. George Taylor.

Alvin Smith and family, of Howard, were guests of his parents lately.

George L. Potter Post 261, G. A. R., considering the hard rain on Saturday night, did remarkably well at their festival. Receipts were $43 47.

Johnathan P. Bullock arrived home from Bellefonte, where he was receiving treatment for water kidneys, very much improved. Dr. S. Dobbins and Hayes treated him.

T. F. Adams and family, of Bellefonte, spent part of Sunday with his wife's mother, Mrs. Campbell.

From all accounts the cake table was well guarded on Saturday night at the festival. Six cakes were seen taken from the table-put away for a future eat. On Sunday morning one of the cakes was found still in its hiding place ; must have been forgotten or a guilty conscience must be the cause of it remaining. More than one person witnessed the cakes leaving the table in good shape.

Nothing Like Oil.

"In dealing with man, remember that a spoonful of oil will go farther than a gallon of vinegar." The same may be said of children. There is nothing so good for children as the old-fashioned castor oil. However much they may abhor it, it is their best medicine for disorders of the bowels. In the more severe cases of diarrhoea and dysentery, however, Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy should be given after the oil operates, and a quick cure is sure to follow.
