Boalsburg.

The two Geo's were holding fort at D. W. Meyers, on Saturday eve. The one George was a little "Meek" while the other one was after seeing whether his cows were still in the Lane.

Mrs. Rankin and daughter Belle visited recently among friends in this place. Frank is one of our prosperous farmers who lives about a mile east of town; was in his glory while they were here.

Geo. Keller and family, of Houserville, called at the home of his father, David Keller, on Sunday.

James Glenn, of Lemont, spent Sunday with his cousin, D. K. Mothersbaugh. Mr. Glenn left on Tuesday for New Berlin where he intends to go to school

David Stuart, who has been employed in Pittsburg for sometime, returned home on Saturday to spend the winter and attead school at our High School.

Miss Dora Rudy, of State College, spent several days recently with her friend Miss Phronie Segner. Adam Felty and daughter Etta, of Shingletown, visited among friends in town on Saturday.

John G- has taken up a new line of business, that of peddling peaches for his father-in-law to be. Success to you John and hope you may obtain a peach that will be a comfort to you in after life.

Dr. Samuel Woods one of the rising young physicians from the western part of the state is at present visiting at the home of his mother, Mrs. M. A. Woods. Mrs. Susan Keller and daughter Maggie, of Lemont, spent last Friday among friends in this place. Mrs. S. H. Bailey made a business trip to the county seat on Friday. She was accompanied by her daughter Nan-

Math Goheen and Scott Weiland accompanied by Misses Mary Hosterman and Priscilla Wilson spent several days last week among friends in Sandy Ridge. The farm just east of town belonging to the Sparr estate was sold on Friday, Mrs. Mich. Hess being the purchaser.

Rev. Foster Fetteroff, of Mercersburg, visited his sister, Mrs. P. H. Meyer, last

Sam Everheart accompanied by Miss Margaretta Goheen attended a party up at Franklinville on Tuesday. As they both wore white hats the people up there mistook them for a wedding party, and as Sam is a little bit backward, Margaretta managed amid her blushes to inform the people that they were sometime ahead of their story. But watch the papers closely.

John Hess, of Shingletown, was in town on Tuesday eve. William Rhinesmith, one of Bellefonte's incle, L. Mothersbaugh on Thursday. Miss Margaret Mothersbaugh returned home from Altoona on Thursday, she was accompanied by her cousin, Miss Edith Hartswick. It would be far better if some of our boys were at home and in their beds, than prowling about every night in hunt of plums and peaches. It looks as tho' the boys were not given enough to eat at Miss Effie Lorg gave a party to a few of her friends in honor of her brother, who recently returned home from Pitts burg. And Geo. was once more elected chief cook and bottle washer.

Mrs. Black and daughter Esther, of Tyrone, are at present visiting at the Reformed parsonage.

Nothing Like Oil.

"In dealing with man, remember that a spoonful of oil will go farther than a gallon of vinegar." The same may be said of children. There is nothing so good for children as the old-fashioned castor oil. However much they may abhor it, it is their best medicine for disorders of the bowels. In the more severe cases of diarrhoea and dysentery, however, Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy should be given after the oil operates, and a quick cure is sure to follow. For sale by Green's Pharmacy.

Woodward.

Miss Verna Hosterman, who had very pleasantly spent several months with her brother in Buffalo, returned in time to attend the camp meeting in Sugar valley. Wm. Limbert, of Rebersburg, was through town receiving subscriptions for "The Reformed Church Record." Miss Jenuie Walters, who had been living in Scranton for some time, returned to make her home at this place. Chas. Hosterman and family were among those who tented at Sugar valley camp meeting. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Guisewite, of Fiedler, paid a short visit to the gentleman's mother at this place, last week.

A hack load of eighteen young folks from Mifflinburg, picniced in the narrows and came to town for the purpose of taking in the sights and going out boating. They seemed to enjoy themselves very much while here. Mr. and and Mrs. John Orndorf spent Saturday and Sunday with their daughter, Mrs. John Hosterman in Georges after an extended visit to Buffalo and other places of interest. Mr. and Mrs. Harris Stover and son Lowell spent Sunday with Mrs. Stover's parents Rob't Wolfs. The climbers are now putting up the ten pin cross arms and wire on the new telephone line that extends through this place. Fotatoes are reported as scarce in this section. The frequent rains are causing them to rot in the ground.

James Vonada placed some fine peaches in a show case in Rob't Wolf's store.

John Logan and family, of They are hard to be beaten in size and Chas. Hosterman and Andrew Moyer M. Smith and wife. expect about 200 bushels of peaches from their young orchard.

Mrs. Wise and Samuel made a business trip to Bellefonte last Saturday.

WOODWARD NO. 2. Rain, more rain, more rain in August than I ever knew and Sept. has started out with rain, but may end dry. The oats crop very poor. Mr. Homan, up the valley thrashed straw enough for 150 bushel of oats and only got 18 bush els-very poor crop. Campmeeting was well attended from this place, but they have all returned and in good cheer, but it costs to have a good time. The few cases from this section at court were quickly disposed of and sent C. D. Motz was to Reading, as a delegate representing the P. O. S. of A.

There are lots of people troubled with summer complaint.

J. D. Snyder has accepted a position as traveling salesman for the Colonial coffee and spice mills, also for a nursery. He seems to be meeting with success in the former, but the nurseries go slow, in Goodman's thrasher is clean out of sight, they say it does excellent work under the management of Mr. Goodman; he is traveling through the upper end of the valley and Georges valley; he is entitled to at least part of the patronage.

It seems that this end of the valley is short of carpenters; I hear so many complain that they can get no carpenters. The lumbering at this neck of woods is nearly over, what next, is the question you often hear; it will be move, if nothing else turns up. I think some of our able and enterprising men should put their shoulders to the wheel, and say we will make it turn up.

Port Matilda.

B. F. Gage passed through here on Saturday last with a back load of ladies and gents from Philipsburg enroute for the Williams reunion

Miss Eva Kelley is visiting friends in Jefferson county.

Jerre and George made a flying trip to Philipsburg a few days since, stopping at Flat Rock on their return.

The rain on Friday last was the most liverymen, called at the home of his violent and heavy we had this season doing much damage to the mountain roads in this vicinity.

The report of several farmers in this place is that the late potato crop will be very light on account of rot.

Thomas Weaver and wife, of Philipsburg, visited friends in and near Port Matilda on Saturday and Sunday last. A small band of Gypsies camped near this place a day and night this week. Cows running at large destroying gardens, etc., is a violation of the law; keep your cows at home and save costs and trouble. A word to the wise is sufficient. Jacob Heller and family, of South Philipsburg, took in the Williams reunion and visited friends at and near Port Matilda.

Henry Gates, an aged and respected citizen, died Friday night about 12 o'clock, August 30th, at his home near Black Oak chapel, aged 79 years, 9 months and 12 days. The deceased had a paralytic stroke about two years ago which rendered him helpless. A few hours preceding his death he had the second stroke which ended the life of a kind and affectionate husband and parent. He leaves to mourn his death a wife and ten children, being married twice, he leaves six children of his first marriage namely : George, nearby ; David, of Half Moon; William and Burns, at home; Mrs. Mary Frantz, nearby; Mrs. Sallie Duck, of Philipsburg. To his second marriage he leaves four chil-dren: Pearce and Nora, at home; Mrs. Hannah Kelly, Philipsburg, and Mrs. Eliza Kelly, Westmoreland county. Interment was made in Black Oak cemetery Monday, September 2nd, Rev. Tallhelm officiating.

Gregg Twp.

J. W. Shook, of Spring Mills, returned from a visit to the Pan-American Exposition, and a three weeks' trip through the west, and pronounces his trip one of the most pleasurable of his life.

M. B. Duck, one of Gregg Twp's staunch democratic farmers transacted business at the county seat the other day. E. M. Huyett moved his Seven Mountain stave mill to Sober, where he will work on a six years' job on staves. On the sick list are George Kline and Dysentery Cured Without the Aid of a Doctor. "I am just up from a hard spell of the flux,' (dysentery) says Mr. T. A. Pinner, a well known merchant of Drummond "I used one small bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and was cured without having a doctor. I consider it the best cholera medicine in the world." There is no need of employing a doctor when guests of his mother several days last this remedy is used, for no doctor can prescribe a better medicine for bowel complaint in any form either for children or adults. It never fails and is pleasant needed sooner or later. Buy it now.
