Galveston's Memorial to Her Dead. Galveston, Tex., Sept. 10.—Three hundred people witnessed and participated in the memorial services on the beach at the foot of Twenty-first street yesterday. Simple and impressive services consisted in placing a monument of flowers in the gulf and strewing the water with garlands in honor of the memory of those who perished in the storm a year ago.

CAMP A BLAZE OF GLORY

Cleveland's Streets Filled With the Veteran Boys in Blue.

Cleveland, O., Sept. 10.—This city last night was a blaze of glory, a crystallization of all the living memories of the stirring days of 1861-65, memories to which but a mere fraction of the present population is personally familiar. The aged feet that once trod the bloody fields of Shiloh of Gettysburg and of a hundred other hard-fought battles, surged around Monumental Square, located in the business heart of the city, with slow but steady tread.

Tall and sturdy as though the snows of over 70 winters had not sifted their powder into his scanty locks, standing erect upon his crutches, General Sickles strode into National G. A. R. headquarters. Lifting his cap to General Leo Rassier and the other dignitaries, he bowed and exclaimed: "Comrades, let us thank God for the news from Buffalo. The Lord has heard the uplifted prayer of the civilized and uncivilized world. Christian, Mohammedan, Chinese, and all people have united with us in prayer that McKinley might be spared to us. That prayer is answered. Blessed be the name of the Lord who preserves that great personality to us."

Then, dropping his impressive manner, the general added: "I'll back McKinley's luck every time. The God of battles stood by him during the war. The God of good fortune has remained with him ever since. He cannot die at this time and under such circumstances."

ENGLAND'S FRIENDSHIP

Minister Francis Says Britain's Sympathy is a National Emotion.

London, Sept. 9.—Genuine relief pervades England this morning over the encouraging reports regarding President McKinley's condition and the prospects of his recovery. His personality continues to absorb the country's sympathy and interest. Were King Edward lying wounded popular feeling could scarcely be stronger or deeper. Prayers for the recovery of Mr. McKinley were offered up in hundreds of British churches yesterday, notably in St. Paul's Westminster Abbey and Canterbury Cathedral.

Charles Spencer Francis, United States minister to Greece, who is stopping here enroute for his post, said: "I have been a frequent visitor to England for many years, but I have never seen anything like the general sympathy now being evinced towards the President, and it comes from the heart. It is a national emotion and is unprecedented, being greater than has ever been shown over any event except, perhaps, the death of Queen Victoria. Every one talks it—your hotel waiter, elevator boy and proprietor. Everywhere you go McKinley's name is on the people's lips, coupled with deeply sympathetic references. The intensity of this broadspread feeling is marvelous, and bears witness to a friendship the depth of which I scarcely realized."

REFUSED TO CANCEL SPEECHES

Chairman Dick Will Not Acquiesce in Chairman Daugherty's Suggestion.

Columbus, O., Sept. 10.—Chairman M. A. Daugherty, of the Democratic state executive committee, yesterday addressed a letter to Chairman Charles Dick, of the Republican state committee, suggesting that, as an evidence of respect to the President, all political speeches for the campaign in Ohio be canceled, adding that a similar arrangement had been made at the time Garfield was assassinated. Last night Chairman Dick replied to Chairman Daugherty, refusing to acquiesce in his suggestion, and calling attention to the fact that while a similar arrangement had been proposed at the time of Garfield's assassination it had not been accepted by the Republican state committee.

POPULIST VILLIFIER PUNISHED

Nebraska Church Congregation Postponed Service to Souze Him.

Omaha, Neb., Sept. 9.—The congregation of the Presbyterian Church of Fairmount, Neb., postponed its service yesterday until it had administered punishment to a villifier of President McKinley. A Populist of the radical type expressed his view on the church veranda that McKinley had reaped the legitimate fruits of his encouragement of trusts and the money power. A crowd of young men thereupon ducked him into a neighboring pond and then rode him on a rail out into the country. He was dumped into a thicket and warned not to return. When the vigilantes had returned from their task services were begun, more than an hour later than usual.

To Reward Parker's Prompt Action.

Washington, Sept. 10.—A suggestion was thrown out in the executive departments yesterday that it would be proper for the American people to do something for the colored man Parker, whose prompt action probably saved the President's life. The would-be assassin himself complained that it was the stunning blow delivered upon him by Parker that prevented him from firing another shot.

Anarchists Celebrate Assassination.

McKeesport, Pa., Sept. 9.—Two hundred Italian Anarchists celebrated President McKinley's assassination yesterday at Guffey Hollow, a mining hamlet across Younglopheny river from Buena Vista. Beer, whiskey, speeches, songs and praises for Czolgozs were the order of the day.

OPIE READ ON HEAT.

Famous Story Writer Discusses Hot Wave in Chicago.

Only Contented Creature is the Ancient Citizen Who Loves to Tell Truthful Stories About the Sizzling Past.

At a time when London was boiling with heat a famous humorist wished that he might take off his flesh and sit in his bones. If he were in the average American city now he would go ever further than that, writes Opie Read in the Chicago American. He would insist that the bones should be scraped. When Chicago suffers from heat the rest of the country is in agony. When the Chicago man perspires the New Yorker reeks. And this is at present about the only consolation we have—that some one else is hotter. We all of us allow that it is but a meager comfort; it does not restarch a wilted collar nor render a shirt less sticky, but somehow it helps.

Out of perspiring obscurity has come the ancient citizen to tell of hot weather in the past. He has known longer and hotter seasons. The bubbling thermometer tells him that he lies, but that makes but little difference; thermometers are not what they were in his day.

An old gentleman told me this story and expected me to believe it: About the time that Chicago was sprawling its first attempt to become a town there came a season of intense heat. Boiled whitefish swam about in the river. In hot pods baked beans grew at nearly every door; and one day a man who worked in a cracker factory fell into the oven—and sneezed. He had taken cold.

In the park sits the tired mother with her pale and fretful child. Night after night there has been no sleep, and she dozes as the kindly lake breathes its spirit upon the land. In the tree above her sits the drowsy bird, forgetful of his song. The trill of a July summer is but a memory, that rippling melody

New York's Great Bridge. New York expects that within six years a $60,000,000 bridge will be completed across the North river for the use of all railroads centering at Jersey City. It took 10 years to build the first Brooklyn bridge, but immensely larger suspension bridges can now be constructed in one-third the time.

Oil for the Children

Give them oil—cod-liver oil. It's curious to see the result.

Give it to the peevish, fretful child, and he laughs. Give it to the pale, anemic child and his face becomes rosy and full of health. Take a flat-chested child, or a child that has stopped growing, give him the oil, and he will grow big and strong like the rest.

This is not a new scheme. It has been done for years. Of course you must use the right oil. Scott's Emulsion is the one.

Scott's Emulsion neither looks nor tastes like oil because we are so careful in making it pleasant to take.

Send for free sample. SCOTT & BOWNE, Chemists, 400 Pearl St., N. Y.
