Hoy, of Altoona, was an arrival in town. —The organ coupon hereafter will be found on last page. —Do not fail to examine our line of $2 shoes for ladies—Yeager & Davis. —Mrs. Sarah Satterfield left Tuesday for Philadelphia where she will attend school. —Our line of ladies $2 shoes are guaranteed by the manufacturer and by Yeager & Davis. —A car load of sweet potatoes will be received at Sourbeck's grocery every week this month. —Capt. and Mrs. William F. Reber, of Philadelphia, are visiting Mrs. Reber's mother, Mrs. Mary Butts. —Miss Mary Harris Weaver left Tuesday for Washington, D. C., to resume her studies in a large female college. —Miss Mary Knowles departed Tuesday for Philadelphia where she will visit ere returning home at Richmond, Va. —Miss Anna McCoy, daughter of Frank McCoy, left Tuesday morning to resume her studies at Bryn Mawr college. —William Clark is lying seriously ill with typhoid fever at his home on East Howard street, but the physicians consider his condition favorable. —J. C. Condo, the popular carriage manufacturer, of Penn Hall, was a business visitor here yesterday, accompanied by his brother, ex-sheriff Condo. —O. B. Harris, of Lamar, was a Bellefonte visitor. Mr. Harris was on his way to Graceton, Indiana county, where he has secured an excellent position with a large mining company. —William H. Garman arrived home Monday evening from a visit to friends in the Central part of New York state. While there he had sport hunting deer in the Adirondack mountains. —Potatoes rotting is the report from all parts of the county—rotting in the ground and rotting in heaps after being raised. But for this the crop in Centre county would have been a large one. —Paul, son of Howard and Margaret Crain died at the home of his parents at Altoona at 9 o'clock Monday morning of marasmus, aged 4 months. Mr. and Mrs. Crain were formerly residents of this place. —Robert Confer, of Howard, had about 150 bushels of potatoes in his patch, fine and large, some over two pounders. The tubers began to rot and Mr. Confer saved only twenty bushels out the lot. —On Friday evening, Oct. 11th, the Bellefonte Academy students will hold a cake and ice cream festival in the Y. M. C. A. rooms from seven to eleven. Chocolate and coffee will also be served. The object of the festival is to provide an emergency fund for the Academy Athletic association. —The wedding on Wednesday evening of last week, of Miss Cora, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Ott, to Eber Rothrock was a pleasant affair. Rev. Levan Bickle officiated. After their trip to Buffalo and other points they will make their home at DuBois where Mr. Rothrock has an excellent position in the machine shops. —D. W. McCloskey, of Romola, and Michael Confer, of Howard, were in town on business, procuring a lease of several hundred acres of coal land in Snow Shoe township from Charley Hayett, of Luzerne county, Pa. They intend operating on the same in a few days, near the head of Counsel Run intending to run a country bank; the Coal Hill Bank will close now, operated by D. W. McCloskey. The new bank will be operated by D. W. McCloskey and A. B. Lucas. —The most notable event of dressdom this week was the fall showing of millinery at The Globe. Much importance is attached to their semi-annual opening as was discerned from a visit to this department. The murmurs of admiration of those attending plainly showed the estimation in which this firm is held by the ladies of Bellefonte. In order to make it possible for persons from a distance to witness this magnificent display, Mr. Katz has decided to extend the showing over Wednesday and Thursday. —"Where the Laugh Comes In," the new musical farce comedy success, will be presented at the opera house, to-night, Thursday, Oct. 3rd. This play has been a great success everywhere. Col. Peach and son Dick are discussing the benefits of a college education, the younger member of the Peach family mournfully begging a release from further school work, and the father insisting upon his early return to school. During the conversation the Colonel shows his son a Garuda Stone, a talisman from India, and while holding it in his hand, exclaims, "Oh, that I were again a boy going to school." At once his face and form change, and to all outward appearance he is just like Dick, a youngster not yet out of school. Dick seeing the powers of the stone, wishes himself into a man like his father. Then the fun begins in earnest. The old man is hustled off to school by his son, and the latter takes charge of the house, running things to his own ideas. Hettie Bernard Chase and W. T. Bryant head the cast of fun makers, all of whom are well known to the theatre going public. —Our line of ladies $2 shoes is the very best in Centre Co.—Yeager & Davis.

—Box calf heavy-fall shoes for school girls, at Yeager & Davis. —U. H. Reamer and wife are attending the Pan-American Exposition at Buffalo. —W. W. Swengle, who for the past year or two has been agent for the Northwestern Life Insurance Company at this place, left Tuesday afternoon for Johnstown where he has accepted a better paying position under the same company. —A quiet home wedding took place Wednesday at 11 o'clock at the home of Joel Johnson on East Bishop street. The parties were H. Burt Mallory and Miss Emma Johnson, the latter the daughter of Joel Johnson. After a short wedding tour, they will go to housekeeping in this place where the groom is in the employ of the Standard Scale and Supply Company.

MISS NANCY OLIVER:—died Wednesday afternoon, at the home of her niece, Mrs. T. C. Van Tries, of this place from pneumonia. She was born in Derrydeg, Maryland, Ireland, 88 years ago. In 1847 she came to this country and of late years has made her home with Mrs. Van Tries. Mrs. ELIZ DETWILER EILERT:—who was probably the oldest woman in Lock Haven, died on 25th, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Joseph Housler, aged 94 years and 6 months. Her husband, Joseph Eilert proceeded her to the grave twelve years ago. Her surviving children, are two sons and four daughters. SAMUEL E. HARTER:—died at Rye, Colorado, September 22, 1901, age 34 years, 9 months and 2 days. Cause of death was tuberculosis. He was born in this county and was a son of Andrew Harter of near Bellefonte. His remains arrived in Bellefonte and were taken to his father's home from which place funeral services were held Sunday morning last. Interment in Zion cemetery. Mrs. ELIZABETH DYSART ISETT:—wife of E. B. Isett, of Spruce Creek, died at her home at 10:35 Saturday night, of nervous prostration, after a protracted illness, aged 74 years, 8 months and 11 days. Deceased was born at Eden Hill, Franklin township, Huntingdon county, Jan. 7, 1827. She was a member of the Presbyterian church. She is survived by her husband and two sons and three daughters. PETER ZETTEL:—died at the home of his son-in-law, Jacob Mesmer, at State College, on Monday of last week, from stomach trouble. He was a native of Gregg township, where his entire life was spent until he came to make his home with his daughter. He was almost 74 years of age and had been a member of the Evangelical church since childhood. The following children survive: Mrs. John Gilbert, of Union county; Mrs. Barbara Confer, of Spring Mills; Mrs. John Long, of Rebersburg, and Mrs. Jacob Mesmer, of State College. Interment made in the new cemetery at Pine Grove. Mrs. JOHN LOVE:—died at her home at Centre Hall, on Saturday afternoon, last, at 4:30 p. m., from dropsical ailments. Mrs. Love had been in losing health for over a year. She bore her affliction with true christian fortitude, and died peacefully and was conscious to near the end. Mrs. Love's maiden name was Carson, belonging to that well known connection in Penns valley. She was a devout member of the Methodist church, and a faithful wife and mother. Before the death of her husband, the family lived on a farm near Tusseyville, but on the death of the father, the mother and daughter lived in a property purchased at Centre Hall. Funeral on Tuesday forenoon; interment in the cemetery at Centre Hall. Her age was 75 years, 5 months and 11 days. Her husband died 27 years ago. A son and three daughters survive: James, Flora, Mrs. Will Runkle and Mrs. Wm. Martz. A son has departed this life. A Great Foot Ball Event. The first great football event of the season will be the game between Bucknell and the Carlisle Indians at Williamsport, Oct. 12. Assurance have been given to the Williamsport Merchant's Association, who are interested in having the game a success, that it will positively be played to a finish. The Indians are well known to be strong players, and the merits of Bucknell are well established. The game is to be called at 2:30 p. m. Excursion rates of one fare for round trip have been granted on the several roads, within a radius of 700 miles. Williamsport will be the centre of attraction on Oct. 12.

At the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Wagner, of Martha, Miss Margaret Wagner was quietly married Sept. 18, 1901, to Maurice Overly, of Mammoth. Only the immediate friends were present. Miss Irene Gingery, of Woodland, and Archie Davidson, of Curwensville, waited on the wedded couple. After the ceremony all were invited to a sumptuous wedding dinner, and it was a merry crowd which partook of the tempting viands. Mr. and Mrs. Overly were the recipients of many beautiful as well as useful gifts. After a trip to Buffalo and Niagara, Mr. and Mrs. Overly will settle at Mammoth where Mr. Overly is an enterprising business man. Many good wishes follow them to their new home. A GUEST. "Uncle Josh Spruceby." The attraction at the opera house for Tuesday, October 8th, will be "Uncle Josh Spruceby." The celebrated New England comedy-drama has become very popular. The scenes of the play were taken from Vermont. The principal character in the play is "Uncle Josh," an old "down East" farmer and an opportunity is presented for some very strong dramatic situations, as well as pure comedy and wholesome fun. A carload of special scenery is used and the great Saw Mill scene is presented. A big street parade is given at noon. Fifty Take Degrees. Fifty Masons from Lock Haven, Tyrone, Philipsburg, Altoona, Lewistown, and Bellefonte received degrees here on Thursday night and were installed as a class in Irem Temple, Ancient Order Arabic Nobles of the Mystic Shrine, of Wilkesbarre. About 150 members of the order were present and gave a street parade in full uniform. Following the installation exercises a banquet was served. Clinton vs. Centre. Beech Creek won its sixth successive victory when Howard was defeated for the fourth time on their own grounds Saturday by the score of 15 to 1. The Centre county boys were again completely outclassed. The Howard team was reinforced for the occasion, but it availed them naught. A large crowd witnessed the game. Favor Voting Machines. At the last session of the state convention of county commissioners, after a thorough examination of voting machines, resolutions were adopted favoring an amendment to the state constitution, in order to enable the legislature to enact laws providing for the use of voting machines in Pennsylvania. —We guarantee every pair of our $2 shoes for ladies—Yeager & Davis. To War Against Tramp Nuisance. The County Commissioners' convention held here last week passed a resolution for the appointment of a legislative committee, whose duty it should be to submit to the next session of the legislature a bill looking toward the suppression of the tramp nuisance. —Old ladies soft low heel shoes at $2 per pair—Yeager & Davis.

Do You Wish the Finest Bread and Cake It is conceded that Royal Baking Powder is purest and strongest of all baking powders, absolutely free from alum, ammonia and every adulterant. "Royal" makes the best and most wholesome food. Perhaps it is because love is blind that young men make spectacles of themselves when they get that way. PROF. J. ANGEL an expert EYE SPECIALIST with headquarters at 714 Centre St., Williamsport, Pa., will be at the Bush House on Tuesday, Oct. 8th. Office hours 10 to 12 a. m., 3 to 5 p. m.
