EDITORIAL.

WE knew it would come. The New York Sun considers that the Court of Inquiry is conducting itself in a most reprehensible manner.

SHAMROCK has lost, but she came nearer to winning than any other British vessel has yet done. A victory by time allowance alone is altogether too close to be comfortable.

HONEST voters of the county remember you have an opportunity to vote for two efficient persons for county offices—Gardner for prothonotary and Spangler for district attorney.

THOSE who criticize the medical treatment of President McKinley should remember that medicine is not an exact science by any means. If it were, we should all die of old age.

OLIO JOHN HAMILTON has been unusually quiet the past few weeks. He is another besmirched official who is howling "yellow" at the newspapers who exposed his shortcomings.

THE American farmer has increased his exports of corn seven fold in the last ten years, and now ships over 200,000,000 bushels a year. This is part of the prosperity for which the republicans claim to be responsible.

EVERY newspaper that don't endorse Gov. Stone and his corrupt legislature has been termed "yellow." That seems to be the principal occupation of the Quayites, denouncing the democratic and independent newspapers.

IN all the races for the cup, the British have won just one heat which was won by the Livonia on October 16, 1871. The single heat won by the Shamrock without considering time allowance, is the nearest approach to this on record.

LORD KITCHENER's remark that the Boers were so ignorant and so arrogant that they couldn't realize that they had been whipped, reminds us irresistibly of similar remarks by the Spaniards at Santiago concerning the behavior of the American troops there.

THE New Governor of Indiana has imitated his predecessor in refusing to surrender Taylor, of Kentucky, for trial for complicity in the murder of Goebel, on the childish plea that he could not obtain a fair trial. To such lengths does political partisanship lead Republican governors.

HARD, brutal indifference to the right, and equally brutal short-sightedness as to the inevitable results of corruption and injustice, are baleful beyond measure; yet they are characteristic of a great many Americans who think themselves perfectly respectable, and who are considered thriving, prosperous men by their easy-going fellow-citizens—President Roosevelt in an essay on stay-at-homes in politics.

THE fusion movement in Philadelphia has spread over the state and is gathering strength the longer it runs. Philadelphia is likely to be redeemed and the state bids fair to be carried by the independent, anti-machine republicans who are uniting with the democrats to elect Yerkes and Coray. These gentlemen are not besmeared by jobbery, public robbery, or bribery. They proved their purity by years of faithful service.

It must strike some of the puffed up ones as awful to read that President Roosevelt talks "Dutch" (German) as well as English in the Whitehouse; especially shocking must this be to those who were raised "Dutch" and loudly protest they can't understand a word of it, yet betray themselves by talking broken English. Just here is where you find shallow brainedness. German is the purest, most forcible and beautiful language spoken, and used in high circles over the civilized world. Then, again, it must be perfectly awful to those high-falutin nobodies of the female class to read that Mrs. Roosevelt goes about the Whitehouse not thinking herself above looking after family affairs and actually sees after the children. Some mothers, and they are to be pitied, think it is degrading to be seen taking care of their little ones or to do common housework, and that flaming around, clad in gowns and talking nonsense, are the proofs of (a mistaken) refinement and of the model candidate for a wife.

FREE SPEECH, EVEN IF FOOLISH.

We have read the famous Swallow article that has raised the rumpus, and do not find that it commends assassination or anarchy. It is very foolish in some respects, which is natural, as it comes from the standpoint of an intolerant and fanatical prohibitionist. It criticizes President McKinley's action or non-action on the canteen question, as scores of Methodist clergymen and laymen have criticized it unjustly. It is also severe on the Philippine policy of the President, just as some of the most distinguished men of the country have been, representing all parties. There was much in the Swallow article we do not approve, but it is absurd to claim, as at the Harrisburg meeting, he was in sympathy with anarchy and murder, and was little better than a traitor, who should be driven from the land. Anarchy was virtually proposed as a remedy for his foolish speech, which contained, with much extravagance, a great deal of solid truth.

Criticism of President McKinley is properly silenced because of his sad and terrible fate; but the measures that created much of this criticism remain to be considered and acted on by the American people before they become realities. President Roosevelt may take them up, and a great political battle may follow. The assassination neither condemned nor justified the Philippine policy of the late administration, or its support, encouragement and promotion of the great trust power, which reached its astounding culmination under the late President. These are the two questions that remain to be disposed of in some way or other, and it is within the strict limit of actual fact that they are legacies of the late administration. We regard them as the two most important problems of government that have faced the American people since the civil war; and in regard to them there must be absolute liberty of discussion, irrespective of the fact they were accepted by President McKinley. The fearful crime against his life had no more connection with them than the crime of Guiteau.—Post.

VOYERS who feel the heavy hand of the trusts that are depleting their earnings and heaping up millions to their already ill-gotten millions, should not vote with a party owned by the millionaires, which is making the poor poorer and the rich richer. Can't you see it.

FARMERS' DAY AT HECLA.

Last Saturday was Farmers' Day at Hecla Park, given annually by the Nit-tany Rod and Gun Club to those farmers that have granted the members of the club a five-year lease over their lands for hunting and fishing purposes, under certain regulations. This was the fourth annual outing which will be repeated each year for the benefit of the aforesaid farmers. The club bears all the expenses for a fine dinner and something harmless to wash it down with, and a band to furnish music for the day. The Zion band composed entirely of farmers, discoursed fine music for the pleasant occasion, on the spacious porch of the club house. The club house was free for the farmers, and there were upwards of 200 present, including wives, daughters and sweethearts, and all enjoyed themselves amazingly, spending a day in social commingling that will long be remembered, the Club having done all in its power to accomplish that part. Having spent a few hours among the assembled crowd, we were struck with the happy idea of the Club in determining to give their friends such an annual treat one day in each fall of the year. It is a far happier and pleasanter gathering than a basket picnic, as the Club provides for all to make it pleasant for their farmer guests who need have no other concern than to go to the park and return to their homes again—and we could see on the faces of all a happy appreciation of what the Club does in setting apart one day in the year to for a fine outing and a general commingling of this most important class of the population. There was social good will and merriment and greetings all around, and far better conduct than is often seen in large gatherings. The Zion Band received much credit for the excellent music furnished to enliven the occasion.

The Rod & Gun Club awarded three prizes. The following lucky numbers were drawn by a committee, from two boxes, the one containing the names of the farmers that granted leases over their lands to the members of the club, and the other containing the numbers drawing prizes, namely:

No. 82, J. W. Orr, of Walker, drew an implement to be selected by him, not to exceed $45 in value.

No. 49, I. H. Harvey, of Curtin, drew a sewing machine.

No. —, Elias Vonada, of Zion, also drew a sewing machine.

The following is the score of the pigeon shoot, in which only farmers participated, and knocked the blue rocks into smithereens, showing the number broken out of ten shots: Robert Wells 0, John Maze 2, A. Lucas 3, Clark Lee 3, H. Dorman 1, Merrel Sharer 1, J. Workman 0, Shuman Zimmerman 7, W. Barnhart 2, H. R. Curtin 1, T. Shaer 1, W. Fulton 1, C. Lee 2, W. Carson 0, Joseph Weaver 3, Jacob Weaver 2, J. C. Fravel 5, J. W. Orr 1, L. McMullen 3, F. H. Weaver 2, W. Aikey 0.

Clearfield has one lady who voted for the martyred President, Wm. McKinley, last fall, and now is exceedingly proud of the fact. The lady is Miss Lola Stage, daughter of Isaac Stage, of that place, who was then teaching school at Goldfield, Colorado, and went with the other women of the place to cast her ballot. Women have the right of suffrage in Colorado.

The large farm house of Frederick Dale, near Osceola, together with all its contents, was destroyed by fire on Saturday morning about two o'clock. The fire originated from a defective flue. The family barely escaped with their lives. All the clothing was destroyed, together with half a dozen watches belonging to different members of the family, pocket book, money, etc.

John Bennett killed his wife and then shot himself, near DuBois Monday night. Bennett was 35 years old and his wife was 27. The two had quarreled frequently and about a week ago they separated. Monday evening Bennett went to see his wife. She thinking that he wanted to effect a reconciliation, stepped into the yard. Bennett shot his wife and then killed himself. Several years ago he resided in Phillipsburg where he conducted a livery Stable. At one time he was a prisoner in the county jail.

OUR HISTORICAL REVIEW.

Hanna Grey, mother of the said Jane Grey.

"At the same time Hanna Grey showed me a girl she had taken out from the prisoners released by Col. Bouquet for her own child.

"I then informed the said Hannah that the child she had taken was not her own child—said Hannah requested me not to mention that before the girl she had taken, for that, if she never got her own, she wished not to let the one she had known any thing of her not being her own child. Some time in the same year Col. George Crogan came to my house. I informed him the account I had got from John Hutson. He, Mr. Crogan, informed me that the Indian's information was true, and that he got the said Jane Grey from the said Indian; and had put her into a good family to be brought up; all which I informed the said Hanna, and this summer was a three-years the said John Hutson, and his son, came to my house at Bedford and stayed some time. I inquired about little Janey, as he called the child he had got with me—he informed me little Janey was now a fine woman, had a fine house and fine children, and lived near Sir William Johnson's seat, to the northward. I am sure that the girl Mrs. Hannah Grey showed me she had taken for her child was not the daughter of John Grey—and further saith not.

BIRTHDAY PARTY:—While Calvin had been purposely taken to Coburn on the 7th inst., a large number of his friends assembled at the home of his parents, James Weaver's. Upon his arrival from the above mention place he was at once ushered into the parlor where, to his surprise, he found an assemblage of young folks who at once hoisted him and reminded him that that was his birthday. He was then shown to a nearby table that was loaded with beautiful and costly presents. After spending part of the evening in amusements the guests were escorted to the dining room, where they partook of the repast prepared for the occasion, consisting of ice cream, cake and fruit. Having spent the evening pleasantly at games and amusements of all descriptions, the party of young folks departed for their respective homes. The following named persons were the invited guests: The Misses Sara, Tammie and Marie Hailey, Miriam Keister, Nellie Weaver, Nellie Mingle, Catharine Smull, Minnie Phillips, Cordie Acker, Mabel Crouse, Bessie Meyer and Messrs. Chas. and Will Keister, Robert Bruce Morris, C. G. Booth, Wm. Mingle, Paul and Loyd Kreamer, E. R. Wolf, Merrill Isenhower, Frank Baker, Harry Mensch and Prof. Harry Veरिक.

Lazy Liver. I have been troubled a great deal with a torpid liver, which produces constipation. I found CASCARETS to be all you claim for them, and secured such relief the first trial, that I purchased another supply and was completely cured. I shall only be too glad to recommend Cascarets whenever the opportunity is presented. A. A. SMITH, 520 Susquehanna Ave., Philadelphia, Pa.

HAVE TO GIVE UP

It's All Over When Nervous Sick Headache Comes to Young or Old—Everything Stops and Nothing Goes on but the Nervous Sick Headache.

If anything will engender a disregard for even life itself it is continued or oft repeated attacks of nervous sick headache. You may be able to partially describe it but the English language fails to fully do it justice—it's misery so concentrated, so condensed, so prostrating, that all else is enveloped in its meshes. Mrs. John H. Beck, of 115 3rd St., North Philadelphia, says: "Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills are just fine. I used to suffer all the time with nervous sick headaches—terrible headaches that weaken one and make one nervous and tremble. I was told of the Nerve Pills and got a box and the result was remarkable. The medicine stopped the headaches completely. A single box did this for me and I am only too glad to say so." By calling at Krump's Drug Store information can be obtained regarding this great success of Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills and how they were first introduced by proof of their merit. Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills are sold at 50c a box at dealers or Dr. A. W. Chase Medicine Co., Buffalo, N. Y. See that portrait and signature of A. W. Chase, M. D. are on every package.

Children's Fertilizer.

That's a good name for Scott's Emulsion. Children are like young plants. Some will grow in ordinary soil. Others need fertilizers.

The nature of some children prevents them from thriving on ordinary food. Such children grow right if treated right.

All they need is a little fertilizer—a little extra richness. Scott's Emulsion is the right treatment.

Fertilizers make things grow. That's just what Scott's Emulsion does. It makes children grow in flesh, grow in strength, grow rich blood, grow in mind, grow happy. That's what we make it for.
